Unit 1: A Tiny Creature

Poem: The Cricket by Marjorie Barrows

When the rain had gone away and the sun was shining everywhere, the poet ran out on the walk to play and found a little bug. The bug was running fast, then stopped for breath at last, all black and shiny in the sun. He chirped a song to the poet, gave his wings a little tug, and showed that he was very glad to be a bug.

Reading Comprehension

What did the little bug chirp for the poet?

The little bug chirped a song for the poet.

Why did the poet go for a walk?

The poet ran out on the walk to play because the rain had gone away and the sun was shining everywhere.

Fill in the Blanks (choose the correct option)

The poem 'The Cricket' is written by ____.

(a) Harry Behn

(b) John Milton

✓ (c) Marjorie Barrows

(d) Ogden Nash

The poet finds a ____ while walking.

✓ (a) bug

(b) ant

(c) fly

(d) moth

The little bug was ____ to be a bug.

(a) sad

(b) angry

(c) afraid

(d) glad ✓

The little bug gave a little tug to its ____.

(a) feet

(b) wings ✓

(c) eyes

(d) antenna

Digraphs (ch, sh, th)

Initial position: ch — chirp, chair; sh — shine, shop; th — three, that. Final position: ch — rich, much; sh — wish, push; th — breath, cloth.

Circle the initial digraph, tick the final digraph: cheese (ch initial), much (ch final), shark (sh initial), brush (sh final), thin (th initial), with (th final).

More digraph words (examples): chair, ship, think.

Rhyming Words and Parts of Body

away = play

tug = bug

me = she fast = last

where = there

Parts of the body: hand, hair, eye, ear, teeth, neck, shoulder, elbow, finger, knee, toes, foot.

Sight Words and Spelling

Sight words: from, good, about, ride, over, your, any, blue.

Correct spellings: glad, chirp, shiny, black, wing.

Grammar: Nouns and Pronouns

Naming words in the picture: sun, child, bird, tree, ball.

People = teacher

Places = school

Animals = cat

Things = book

Pronouns: She is a good girl. He is a naughty boy. They are playing. We are happy. It is a cute cat. I like to eat vegetables. You are great.

Two-syllable words: little (lit-tle), perfect (per-fect), money (mon-ey), lovely (love-ly), improve (im-prove). Five more (examples): table, happy, pencil, tiger, water.

Creative Writing: Blessings of Allah

Word bank: great, like, many, little, creatures.

- Allah is great.
- I like His many blessings.
- Allah made many little creatures.
- Little creatures are great blessings.
- I like all the creatures of Allah.

Unit 2: My Home and City

Lesson Summary

Maha is a Pakistani girl who lives with her family. She has two brothers and one sister. Her home is airy and beautiful, with two bedrooms, one kitchen, a bathroom, a sitting room and a drawing room for guests. She shares her room, which has four beds, four chairs, a table, a cupboard, a bookshelf and a clock on the wall. She lives in Islamabad, the capital of Pakistan. Faisal Masjid is in Islamabad, its roads are clean and wide, and its people are very friendly.

Questions and Answers

Why should we keep our home and city clean?

Because the city is our home too, and cleanliness keeps us healthy and the city beautiful.

How can we keep our home and city clean?

By keeping things in place, throwing litter in bins, and cleaning our rooms and surroundings.

What is a capital city?

A capital city is the city where the government sits. Islamabad is the capital of Pakistan.

Vowels, Consonants and Blends

Vowels (5): a, e, i, o, u. Consonants: 21. Initial V/C: mother (C), onion (V), umbrella (V), city (C), home (C), area (V), family (C), egg (V).

Initial blends: bl — block, black; cl — clock, clean; sp — spread, sprinkle; pl — plane, place.

Vocabulary and Spelling

Pets (examples): cat, dog. Insects (examples): ant, bee.

Missing letters: drawing, guests, sister, parents, airy.

Sight words: it, of, in, was, said, with. Correct spellings: important, famous, favourite, grand.

Grammar: Adjectives and Action Words

beautiful = ugly

clean = dirty

white = black

happy = sad

long = short

Action words: Maha cleans her room. They read storybooks. We help others. Amir plays with his toys. Saad writes a letter to his mother. Maha's mother cooks tasty food.

Writing: My Home and My City

Five sentences about home (word bank: clean, room, airy, beautiful, love): My home is clean and beautiful. My home is airy. I love my room. My home has a beautiful sitting room. I love my home very much.

Five sentences about city/village (model): I live in a small village. There are fields and roads around it. The air is fresh. The houses are small. I love my village.

Unit 3: Let's Plant Trees

Lesson Summary

On a Sunday morning, Zain is in his grandfather's garden. His grandfather is sowing a seed and teaches him five steps: 1. Make a small pit in the soil. 2. Sow a seed. 3. Spread a little soil over it. 4. Sprinkle some water on it. 5. Water it regularly. After a few weeks the seed grows into a young plant. Zain promises to take care of the seedling and water it daily.

Questions and Answers

What is the step after step 3?

Step 4: Sprinkle some water on it.

What does Zain promise his grandfather?

Zain promises to take care of the seedling and water it daily.

How do you take care of the plants around you?

By watering them regularly, giving them sunlight and keeping their surroundings clean.

Grammar: Plurals and Position Words

Missing letters: plant, soil, spread, young, garden.

flower = flowers

bus = buses

box = boxes

glass = glasses

tree = trees

watch = watches

fox = foxes

hero = heroes

boy = boys

bird = birds

Position words: The glass is on the table. The football is in the box. A cat is sitting under the table. They are going to Lahore from Multan. The monkey is sitting in the box. The fish is in the box.

Writing: Paragraph and A Happy Morning

Complete the paragraph: Zain loves his grandfather's garden. It has many pretty flowers. They are of different colours. Zain's grandfather always takes care of them. Grandfather also grows fruit in his garden. Whenever he visits Zain, he brings fresh vegetables from his garden.

A Happy Morning (word bank: tree, play, children, Allah, Sun, morning): It is a happy morning. The Sun is shining. The children play under a tree. We thank Allah for this beautiful morning.

Review-1

Sounds and Comprehension

Initial/final sounds: bug (b/g), home (h/e), plant (p/t), seed (s/d), sun (s/n).

Initial sound match: Consonant — tree, house; Vowel — apple, umbrella.

In how many steps can we sow a seed?

In five steps.

When did the poet find a bug?

When he ran out on the walk to play after the rain had gone away and the sun was shining.

How can we keep our environment clean?

By planting trees, throwing litter in bins and keeping our surroundings clean.

Vocabulary, Plurals and Opposites

Digraph words: initial ch — chair, cheese; sh — shop, shark; th — three, thin.

Final -ch — much, rich; -sh — wish, push; -th — breath, cloth.

Meanings: airy = full of fresh air; tug = to pull something hard suddenly; sprinkle = to scatter small drops of water; pit = a small hole in the ground; wide = broad, not narrow.

tomato = tomatoes

bench = benches

branch = branches

glass = glasses

class = classes

shirt = shirts

light = heavy dirty = clean

slow = fast

short = long

thin = thick

Grammar and Writing

Naming words (examples): People — teacher; Place — school; Thing — book; Animal — cat.

Pronoun sentences (examples): He is my brother. She is my sister. They are playing. We are happy. You are great.

Action words in the paragraph: clean, help, helps, waters, takes, love.

Position sentences: The beehive is hanging on the branch. The bee lives in the beehive. (Note: the two pictures in the book appear similar.)

Five sentences about city/village (words: famous, places, beautiful, roads, big, clean): My city is big and beautiful. It has clean roads. There are famous places in my city. The roads are big and clean. I love my beautiful city.

Unit 4: Bee on my Nose

Poem: Bee on my Nose by R. Wayne Edwards

A bee sits on the poet's nose and wants to sting. The poet wanted only one small sniff and not to cause a little tiff. The poem ends: You won't sting me? OUCH, OUCH, OUCH, OUCH!

Where do bees live?

Bees live in beehives.

Did the bee sting the poet? How do you know?

Yes, the bee stung the poet. The OUCH, OUCH, OUCH, OUCH lines show it.

Rhyming pairs: nose-suppose, agree-bee, sniff-tiff, crouch-ouch.

Vocabulary, Rhyming and Sight Words

Meanings: sniff = to smell something; tiff = a little fight; sting = a sharp painful prick.

Rhyming: crouch-ouch, sniff-tiff. Tick the rhyming words: nose-rose rhyme; bee-agree rhyme.

Sight words: very, ask, came, now, their, away, long, after. Correct spellings: suppose, crouch, sting, sniff, wicked.

Grammar: Pronouns and is/am/are Subjective pronouns: Sadia — She obeys her parents. My brother — He has many toys. Amna and Asad — They are cousins. The cat — It wants to drink milk. Umair and I — We play football together.

Objective pronouns: him, her, it, me, us, you, them.

is/am/are: Sa'ad is a handsome boy. I am a girl. Alina and Seeta are classmates. They are cousins. I am seven years old. These are their crayons. She is a good student.

Writing: A Bee and My House

A Bee (model): It is a bee. It lives in a beehive. It makes honey. It can sting.

My House paragraph starter: My house is very big. Creative writing: sentences about a funny incident of your life (personal).

Unit 5: Attention!

Lesson Summary: Traffic Rules

Amir is late for school. There was an accident on the road, and there was a traffic jam. Accidents can be avoided by following traffic rules, traffic lights and using the zebra crossing. Traffic lights control traffic. Their colours are red, yellow and green. Red light means stop and wait; yellow means get ready; green means go. We should never ignore traffic lights, even if we are late. Transport takes people and goods from one place to another: cars, buses, rikshaws, motorbikes, trains, ships and aeroplanes.

Comprehension and MCQs

Who was late for school?

Amir was late for school.

Why was there a traffic jam?

Because there was an accident on the road.

How do traffic signals help us?

They control traffic and help us avoid accidents.

Word sentences: This is a train. There was an accident.

Amir is late for school due to ____.

(a) his own fault

✓ (b) a traffic jam

(c) rain

(d) a road accident

When the ____ light is on, you need to stop and wait.

(a) green

✓ (b) red

(c) blue

(d) yellow

We use a car, bus or motorbike to travel by ____.

(a) sea

✓ (b) road

(c) air

(d) railway

We use a ____ to travel by rail.

(a) bus

✓ (b) train

(c) plane

(d) ship

Note: the lesson gives the chain accident, then traffic jam, then late. A traffic jam is the direct reason for the lateness; the road accident is the root cause.

Vocabulary, Syllables and Spelling

Meanings: transport = a vehicle; traffic = moving vehicles; safely = in a safe way; traffic jam = vehicles stuck on the road.

Syllables: living = liv.ing (2); famous = fa.mous (2); beautiful = beau.ti.ful (3); favourite = fa.vour.ite (3).

Sight words: sleep, walk, again, know, may. Missing letters: could, lights, transport, travel, rule.

Grammar: Possessives, Prepositions, Articles

Possessive words: her, my, your, his, our, their, its. Example: Maryam likes her new dress. She is my mother. You can have your dinner now. Could you bring his tea? Our meal is ready.

Prepositions: There is a chair to the left of the table. We watched the valley from the top of the hill. The boy is climbing up the tree. He lives down the hill. Shall we sit here? I went there and waited for my bus.

Articles: a before a consonant sound (a boy, a girl); an before a vowel sound (an apple, an elephant); the with the names of rivers, continents, etc.

Underline the correct article: There is a cat under my chair. He had an egg for breakfast. I had a glass of juice in the morning. I put on a sweater today.

Writing: Dialogue and Road Safety

Dialogue: Sam asks Johnny when he came back to Lahore. Johnny came back yesterday, by train. Own dialogue (open, starter: Hi! Umair, where are you going?).

Road safety rules from the signs: Stop at the STOP sign. Do not park where parking is forbidden. Do not walk where pedestrians are forbidden. Always follow road signs.

Unit 6: Be Honest

Story Summary

Asim and Kaleem are friends and classmates. In class, waiting for their teacher, they showed each other their erasers, colour pencils and other things. Asim had many beautiful erasers and colour pencils. In the evening, Kaleem found Asim's pencil box in his school bag — he had put it in by mistake. At first he said he would not give it back, but his mother told him that keeping someone's things without permission is wrong. Kaleem realised his mistake and returned the box the next morning. Asim praised Kaleem for his honesty.

Comprehension and Fill in the Blanks

Where were Asim and Kaleem sitting?

They were sitting in the class, waiting for their teacher.

Who had colourful erasers and beautiful pencils?

Asim had colourful erasers and beautiful pencils.

Which thing did Kaleem bring home by mistake?

Kaleem brought Asim's pencil box home by mistake.

Why is honesty an important trait of a good person?

Because honesty builds trust and makes a person good and respected.

If you were in Kaleem's place, what would you do?

I would return the pencil box at once and say sorry.

Asim and Kaleem were waiting for their ____.

(a) mother

✓ (b) teacher

(c) father

(d) uncle

Asim and Kaleem were showing each other their ____, colour pencils and other things.

(a) toys

(b) clothes

(c) shoes

✓ (d) erasers

What was in Kaleem's school bag?

(a) cricket kit

(b) storybook

✓ (c) pencil box

(d) video game

The story is about ____.

(a) kindness

(b) honesty

(c) forgiveness

(d) patience

Sounds, Vocabulary and Objects

Same beginning sounds: pencil/pen/pet, clock/cloud/clap, flag/flower/floor.

Same ending sounds: mother/brother/sister, mistake/lake/bake, king/ring/bring.

More examples: mat — man; bag — ball; net — nest; light — lion; sun — sand; him — dim; tab — cab; ten — pen; evening — morning; less — mess.

Meanings: together = with one another; without permission = without asking; honesty = the quality of being truthful; mistake = something you do wrong without knowing.

Classroom items to circle (picture task): erasers, book, blocks, notebook.

Classroom objects (examples): book, pencil, eraser. Household objects (examples): cup, bed, spoon.

Missing letters: erasers, stationery, honesty, mistake, praise, realise.

Grammar: Masculine/Feminine, Pronouns, Articles

brother = sister

uncle = aunt

father = mother

prince = princess

Sort: Masculine — nephew, grandfather, sir, son, man. Feminine — daughter, woman, grandmother, madam, niece.

Pronoun rewrite: Asim has a new eraser. It is colourful. He likes it. He keeps it in the pencil box. Asim and Kaleem are friends. They sit together in the classroom. Miss Amna is their class teacher. She is a nice teacher.

Articles: I have an umbrella. We have a storybook. Amna is eating an orange.

Writing: Classroom Objects and Kaleem's Place

Classroom objects in the pictures (approximate list): blackboard, table, chair, cup, books, pencil box, eraser, globe, notebook, pencil, crayon, school bag.

Sentences with action and describing words (models): The boy is reading a nice book. The boy is painting a big horse.

Five lines if in Kaleem's place (model): I would return the pencil box at once. I would say sorry to Asim. I would never keep someone's things. Honesty is the best policy. My teacher and mother would be happy.

Review-2

Sounds and Comprehension

First-letter change: ball — call, fall; toy — boy, joy; den — pen, hen. Same beginning: rose — road, rope; nest — net, nose.

Write any two traffic rules.

Stop at the red light. Use the zebra crossing.

Write the names of any three means of transport.

Car, bus, train.

What are the colours of traffic light?

Red, yellow and green.

What did Kaleem do after realising his mistake?

Kaleem returned Asim's pencil box the next morning. (Note: the book prints 'Asim' in this question, but in the Unit 6 story it is Kaleem who realises his mistake.)

Who has written the poem 'Bee on my Nose'?

R. Wayne Edwards.

Vocabulary, Grammar and Writing

Rearrange: We are fine. This is a car. We should follow rules.

Meanings: sniff = to smell something; transport = a vehicle; inquired = asked; sting = a sharp painful prick; mistake = something you do wrong without knowing.

Pronoun rewrite: Haadia is my classmate. She is also my neighbour. Haadia and I study together. Sir Kashif is our class teacher. He teaches us English.

Masculine: uncle, son, grandfather. Feminine: aunt, woman, daughters, grandmother.

Position words: up, from, to the left.

is/am/are: I am seven years old. I am a good student. They are my cousins. My mother is a doctor. My father is a lawyer. They are hardworking people.

Articles rewrite: Last day, we went to the stationer's shop. Asim bought a new eraser. He also bought some pens. I bought a storybook for him. He bought some toys for his younger brother and I bought a pencil for my sister.

Five sentences about 'Bee' (word bank: insect, sting, colour, flower, hive): A bee is an insect. It lives in a hive. It sits on flowers. It is yellow and black in colour. It can sting.

Unit 7: Sports Day

Story Summary

It was February 12, 2020 — Annual Sports Day. The child got up at 7 o'clock, brushed his teeth and wore his sports kit. His parents wished him success for the sack race. The school building was decorated with different colourful flags, and instructions for guests and players were written on the noticeboard. Students played football, cricket, hurdle race and musical chair. In the sack race he ran very fast and won. He thanked Allah, and the principal gave him a trophy. It was a great day.

Comprehension, Clock and Calendar

How was the school building decorated?

With different colourful flags.

Write names of different games mentioned in the story.

Football, cricket, hurdle race, musical chair and sack race.

Why are sports important for us?

Because sports keep us strong and healthy.

Clock: the big hand shows minutes, the small hand shows hours. Times: 1 o'clock, 7 o'clock, 12 o'clock. More clock faces (read from the small printed faces): 1 o'clock, 4 o'clock, 6 o'clock, 11 o'clock, 2 o'clock.

Calendar: September has 30 days; Pakistan Defence Day is 6 September; September has 4 Saturdays (5, 12, 19, 26). December has 31 days; Quaid's Day is 25 December; the month before December is November.

Fill in the Blanks (choose the correct option)

____ was celebrated on October 12, 2019.

(a) Teachers Day

(b) Sports Day

(c) Labour Day

(d) Independence Day

I was going to compete in a ____ race.

(a) boat

(b) cycling

(c) hurdle

✓ (d) sack

I brushed my teeth and wore my ____ kit.

✓ (a) sports

(b) medical

(c) covid

(d) swimming

My ____ gave me a gold medal.

(a) mother

(b) father

✓ (c) principal

(d) teacher

Notes: the story date is February 12, 2020, while the first MCQ prints October 12, 2019 — the answer is by event (Sports Day). The story says the principal gave a trophy, not a gold medal — the answer is by person (principal).

Vocabulary, Colours, Shapes and Spelling

Meanings: compete = to take part in any activity with other participants; sack = a large bag with no handles; instruction = information about using something.

Colours: Orange, Purple, Pink, Black. Shapes: rectangle, cylinder, square, cone, crescent. (The book prints 'sqaure' for square — a spelling misprint.)

Colour the square pink, the cylinder orange, the cone purple and the crescent yellow.

Syllables: one-syllable rhyming — run/sun, blow/slow; two-syllable — rab.bit/hab.it, jac.ket/rac.ket. Sort: One Syllable — hall, mill, mall, game, care, fame, share. Two Syllables — father, player, mother, medal, pedal.

Sight words: use, wash, fast, light, pick. Missing letters: excited, competed, musical, hurdle, medal.

Grammar: Has/Have and Capitalisation

Has/have: Asma has a new dress. I have two ears. You have a bat. He has a pet rabbit.

Capitalisation: Sara is a good girl. He likes to visit the Lahore Zoo. Bunny is my rabbit.

Writing: Numbers and Favourite Sports

Numbers 1 to 50 in words: one, two, three, four, five, six, seven, eight, nine, ten, eleven, twelve, thirteen, fourteen, fifteen, sixteen, seventeen, eighteen, nineteen, twenty, twenty-one, twenty-two, twenty-three, twenty-four, twenty-five, twenty-six, twenty-seven, twenty-eight, twenty-nine, thirty, thirty-one, thirty-two, thirty-three, thirty-four, thirty-five, thirty-six, thirty-seven, thirty-eight, thirty-nine, forty, forty-one, forty-two, forty-three, forty-four, forty-five, forty-six, forty-seven, forty-eight, forty-nine, fifty.

Five sentences about favourite sports (words: game, win, friends, enjoy, compete): My favourite game is cricket. I enjoy playing it with my friends. We compete with other teams. Sometimes we win. I enjoy every game.

Unit 8: My School

Poem: My School by Ruth Donnelly

The child has a brand-new lunchbox, shiny clean shoes, a cool new bookbag and a green pencil box. He does not know his teacher or where his desk will be, or if the kids will like him and play with him. He peeks inside his classroom. His teacher is tall and kind of loud, but has a great big smile.

Comprehension and Alphabetical Order

What is the colour of the pencil box?

The pencil box is green.

Who has a great, big smile?

The teacher has a great, big smile.

Do you like your school?

Yes, I like my school very much.

Alphabetical order by first letter: box, desk, kind, pencil, teacher. By second letter: shiny, smile, some, stand, sun.

Vocabulary, Rhyming and Directions

Meanings: peek = a quick and secret look; loud = noisy; shiny = bright.

Rhyming: clean-green, be-me, while-smile. Add one more: clean-green-seen; be-me-see; while-smile-file.

Directions: The student is going up the stairs. The cat is climbing down the tree. The classrooms are to the left of the staff room. The playground is to the right of the canteen.

Grammar and Writing

Sight words: around, after, think, those, today. Missing letters: first, school, lunch, classroom, bag.

Proper nouns: Nazia, Ahmad, Ali, Peshawar, Mano, Faisal Masjid, Islamabad.

Three each (examples): Person — Ahmed, Fatima, Ali; Animal — Mano, Tom, Brownie; Place — Lahore, Karachi, Islamabad.

Pointing words: This is an orange. That is an orange. These are oranges. Those are oranges. Four sentences (models): This is my book. That is your bag. These are my pencils. Those are birds.

Numbers in words: 10 ten, 20 twenty, 30 thirty, 40 forty, 50 fifty, 60 sixty, 70 seventy, 80 eighty, 90 ninety, 100 hundred.

Paragraph about school (model): My school is big and beautiful. It has many classrooms. My teacher is kind. I play with my friends in the playground. I love my school.

Paragraph 'My Best Friend' (model): My best friend is Ahmed. He is a good boy. We study together. We play together. I love my best friend.

Unit 9: What a Good Deed!

Story Summary

A small boy lived with his mother. When she became ill, one night she asked for water, but the pitcher was empty. The boy went to a nearby canal to fetch water. When he came back, his mother was sleeping, so he waited the whole night patiently with water at her side. In the morning she drank the water and prayed for him. The boy grew up to be the great saint Bayazid Bastami.

Comprehension and Fill in the Blanks

Why did the boy keep waiting the whole night?

Because his mother was sleeping and he did not want to wake her; he waited patiently with the water at her side.

What did Bayazid Bastami do while his mother slept?

He stood the whole night with water at her side.

Who was Bayazid Bastami?

The small boy who grew up to be a great saint.

Why did Bayazid Bastami go to the canal?

To fetch water, because the pitcher was empty.

Good habits chart: rises early in the morning; brushes teeth daily; eats healthy food; listens to elders carefully; helps his parents; helps others; does homework daily; throws waste in the bin; saves electricity and water; shares with others.

The story is about a good deed.

The boy went to a canal nearby to fetch water.

The boy grew up to be a great saint .

Vocabulary, Numbers, Pronouns and Punctuation

Sight words: old, call, saw, round, fly.

Meanings: patiently = to accept a delay quietly; pitcher = a container for holding and pouring liquids; saint = a very good, kind or patient person; fetch = to bring.

Cardinal numbers: One to Ten. Tick: 1 apple — one; 3 leaves — three; 2 rabbits — two; 5 ducks — five; 4 cats — four.

Pronouns: My brother — He is tall. My sister — She is eight years old. My cow — It is white. My friend and I — We go to the park. Talha and Qasim — They are friends.

Punctuation: full stop (.) at the end of a complete sentence; question mark (?) at the end of a question; exclamation mark (!) to express strong feeling. How old are you? I am going to Karachi. Oh! I lost my pencil! Who is your favourite poet? My brother plays hockey. Yay! I stood first in class!

Writing: Ordinal Numbers and Helping Others

Ordinal balloons (red, orange, yellow, green, light blue, dark blue, purple, pink): second — Orange; third — Yellow; fourth — Green; sixth — Dark blue; eighth — Pink. Ordinal numbers first to tenth: first, second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth, ninth, tenth.

Five sentences on 'Helping Others' (models): We should help others. I help my mother at home. I help my friends in class. Helping others makes them happy. Allah loves those who help others.

Things we should not do (models): We should not tell lies. We should not hurt others. We should not waste water. We should not be late for school. We should not keep others' things.

Review-3

Sounds, Comprehension and Order

Syllables: teacher = 2; principal = 3; great = 1; amazing = 3; respect = 2; young = 1.

Sight word sentences (examples): I will call my friend. My grandfather is old. He said his name.

When was the sports day?

February 12, 2020.

Why did Bayazid's mother wake up at night?

She was ill and thirsty, and called her son to bring her some water.

Alphabetical first letter: night, pitcher, smile, teacher, wait. Second letter: canal, chores, clean, complete, cool.

Vocabulary, Pointing Words, Has/Have, Punctuation

Meanings: sack = a large bag with no handles; peek = a quick and secret look; patience = the quality of accepting delay quietly; loud = noisy.

Pointing sentences: This is a chair. Those are pencils. Those are cars. That is a table.

Has/have: He has a sports kit. His team has new uniforms. They have colourful flags. They have a lot of fun.

Punctuation and capitalisation: What is your name? Why are you late today? Hassan plays cricket. Hurrah! I have won the match! Wow! What an amazing dress it is!

Five sentences about 'My Mother' (model): My mother is very kind. She cooks tasty food. She helps me with my homework. She loves me very much. I love my mother.

Unit 10: An Ant and a Dove

Story Summary

On a hot summer day, a thirsty ant looked for water, reached a river, climbed a stone, slipped and fell in. A dove in a nearby tree plucked a leaf and dropped it near the ant. The ant climbed up the leaf, reached the bank and thanked the dove. They became friends. Next day a bird catcher came to trap the dove with his net. The ant bit him on the foot; he screamed in pain and dropped his net; the dove flew away and thanked the ant for saving her life.

Comprehension and Fill in the Blanks

What was the ant looking for?

The ant was looking for water to drink.

Who saved the ant?

The dove saved the ant.

Where was the dove sitting?

The dove was sitting in a tree nearby.

How did the ant save the dove's life?

By biting the bird catcher on the foot, so he screamed in pain and dropped his net.

What lesson did you learn from the story?

We should help others. Even small creatures can help, and we should not consider others inferior.

Note: the question 'Who was sleeping in the nest?' has no answer in the Unit 10 story text — there is no nest and no sleeping character in it — so it is left unanswered here rather than guessed.

The ant was looking for ____ to drink.

(a) tea

(b) milk

✓ (c) water

(d) juice

The ant slipped and fell into the ____.

(a) sea

✓ (b) river

(c) pond

(d) pool

The ant swam and climbed up the ____.

✓ (a) leaf

(b) plant

(c) garden

(d) tree

The bird catcher planned to trap the ____ with the help of his net.

(a) sparrow

(b) parrot

(c) mouse

(d) dove

The ant and dove became ____.

(a) enemies

(b) cousins

(c) friends

(d) sisters

Vocabulary, Plurals, Spelling and Question Words

Book title: English 2. Unit on page 11: My Home and City. Unit 2: My Home and City.

Picture dictionary birds: dove, parrot, pigeon, crow.

Plural sounds: 's' sound — books, ants, cups, hats; 'z' sound — bags, birds, kings; 'iz' sound — boxes, races, dishes, prizes.

Meanings: slip = lose one's balance; pluck = quickly remove something; scream = to give a loud, high cry.

Sight words: about, could, thought, thank, save. Correct spellings: climb, catcher, scream, quick, reach, snow.

Question words: What, Who, Where, When, Why. Own questions (examples): What is your name? Where do you live? When is your birthday? Why are you happy? Who is your teacher?

Grammar: Comma, Rebus Story, Helping Others

Commas: Ali likes to play cricket, hockey, football and baseball. No, you are wrong. Mangoes, bananas and apples are healthy fruits.

Rebus story: One day, Salman was playing in the field. He saw many birds sitting in the tree. The birds were eating seeds.

Five sentences on 'Helping Others' (models): We should help others. I help my mother at home. I help my friends in class. Helping others makes them happy. Allah loves those who help others.

Unit 11: Love for Parents

Story Summary

Asad and Maha are making a card for their mother's birthday. They need paper, scissors and markers. Asad cuts the paper with scissors and folds it in half. Maha draws beautiful flowers and a cake on its cover. Asad writes 'Happy Birthday, mother' in bold letters. Maha writes birthday wishes inside the card. They give the card to their mother; she is very happy and thanks them for their love and effort.

Comprehension and Fill in the Blanks

What things do Maha and Asad make the card with?

Paper, scissors and markers.

What does Maha draw on the card?

Maha draws beautiful flowers and a cake on the card.

What does Asad write on the card?

Asad writes 'Happy Birthday, mother' in bold letters.

What will happen next?

They will give the card to their mother, and she will be very happy.

Characters passage: the characters are Zara and Neha. Favourite character (personal): Neha, because she is kind and helps Zara with her missed classwork.

Asad and Maha are making a card to give it to their ____.

(a) friend

(b) father

(c) mother

(d) cousin

Maha draws beautiful ____ and a cake on the card.

(a) flowers

(b) balloons

(c) animals

(d) fruits

____ writes birthday wishes inside the card.

(a) Adnan

(b) Amir

(c) Maha

(d) Asad

Vocabulary, Commands, Requests and Writing

Meanings: fold = bend over; half = either of the two equal parts; excited = showing happiness.

Collage directions: take red, green, blue, pink and yellow paper; tear all these papers into small pieces; paste each according to the colours in the balloons.

Sight words: four, green, jump, every, where, take, pretty, got. Missing letters: excited, effort, beautiful, birthday, happy.

Commands: Do your homework. Stand up. Shut the door. Three more (examples): Open your book. Sit down. Raise your hand.

Requests: Could I have my book, please? May I use your crayons, please? Can you help me finding my scarf? Three more (examples): May I go out, please? Could I borrow your pencil, please? Can you help me, please?

Greeting card: Dear Father, We love you a lot. May you have a long and happy life! Best wishes, Maha and Asad. Own greeting card for mother, with name, phone number and address on the back (personal task).

Sentences about mother (models): My mother is very kind. She cooks tasty food. She loves me. I love my mother.

Unit 12: Seasons

Poem: Seasons by Meish Goldish

Winter time is time for snow; it is too cold for plants to grow. In the spring time, days get warm; on the plants, the new buds form. In summer time, the days are hot; ice-cold drinks, I drink a lot. Autumn is here, the air is cool; days are short, it is back to school.

When do days get warm?

In the spring time.

How many seasons are there in a year?

Four seasons.

When does it snow?

In winter time.

Brochure lines: Summer — days are hot, we drink ice-cold drinks. Spring — days get warm, new buds form on plants. Winter — time for snow, too cold for plants to grow. Autumn — air is cool, days are short, back to school.

Fill in the Blanks (choose the correct option)

____ is the time for snow.

(a) Winter

(b) Autumn

(c) Summer

(d) Spring

Days are short in ____.

(a) Winter

(b) Autumn

(c) Summer

(d) Spring

There are ____ seasons in a year.

(a) Two

(b) Three

(c) Four

(d) Five

In ____ time, days are hot.

(a) Winter

(b) Autumn

(c) Summer

(d) Spring

Vocabulary, Rhyming, Permission and Spelling

Meanings: greet = welcome; bud = a small growth that becomes a plant; form = grow.

Rhyming: snow-grow, hot-lot, cool-school. Sentences (models): Snow and grow rhyme. It is hot, so I drink a lot.

Permission dialogues: Can I use your pencil? Yes, why not! Thank you very much. Excuse me! Can I say something? Sure. May I have your attention, please? Yes.

Sight words: think, around, good, right, after. Missing letters: round, autumn, different, season, greet.

Question words: Where do you live? Who is your favourite teacher? In which months do you have your summer holidays? (all personal).

Writing: Rhyming Pairs, Dialogue, Favourite Season

Rhyming pairs poem: here-there-where; snow-grow-blow; bees-trees-leaves.

Dialogue about favourite seasons (word bank: flowers, birds, chirping, snow, fall, leaves) — model: I like spring because flowers bloom and birds chirp. I like winter because snow falls.

Paragraph on favourite season (model): My favourite season is spring. Flowers bloom and birds chirp. The days are warm. I love spring.

Review-4

Sounds, Comprehension and Vocabulary

Plural sounds: /s/ — ants, books; /z/ — birds, friends; /iz/ — boxes, watches.

Gestures: Hello! (hand raised), Woo hoo! (arms up in joy), oh! (hand on head).

How did the ant fall into the river?

She climbed a stone to drink water, slipped and fell into the river.

What things do we need to make a greeting card?

Paper, scissors and markers.

Meanings: half = either of the two equal parts; excited = showing happiness; scream = to give a loud, high cry; greet = welcome.

Commands, Requests, Questions, Punctuation and Writing

Requests: Can I use your book, please? May I go outside, please? Commands: Shut the window. Sit down. Listen to me.

Question words (examples): What is your name? Where do you live? Which is your favourite game?

Punctuation and capitalisation: Yes, you are right. Ali likes pizza, burger and fries. He can speak English, Urdu and Arabic.

Dialogue about favourite foods (model): I like pizza because it is tasty. I like apples because they are healthy.