After the spell was cast, the toad became a very smiley happy creature. Not only could he now eat all sorts of foods, but also he started speaking. 'I'm delighted with the change', repeated the toad proudly, 'I prefer eating candies to feeding on flies.' The wizard noticed the toad was taking little care about choosing what to eat, and kept telling him: 'Look after your teeth, Mr. Toad. Brush them so you don't get a toothache. Above all, don't eat so many sweets.' However, the toad didn't pay much attention. He thought his teeth were too strong. He liked and enjoyed sweets so much that he didn't even try to eat less. One day, a tooth started decaying and slowly the decay spread throughout his mouth. Soon, the toad felt there were holes in all his teeth, and they were starting to fall out.
