English

Class 5

Solved Exercises — Sindh Textbook Board

5 units — 202 questions

Book Structure — At a Glance

- Unit 1: Helping Others
- Unit 2: Responsibility
- Unit 3: Importance of Female Education
- Unit 4: Truthfulness
- Unit 5: My Country

Unit 1: Helping Others

1.2 Reading — Exercise 1: Write the names of the characters in the story "Stop Telling Lies". One has been done for you.

Question: Name the characters in the story "Stop Telling Lies".

Answer: The characters in the story are: 1. Jabir (the wolf), 2. Memna (the baby goat), 3. Mano (the cat), 4. Moti (the dog) and 5. Kumet (the horse). Jabir is the big bad wolf who tells lies, and the other animals are Memna's kind friends.

1.2 Reading — Exercise 2: Look at the picture on page 1 and fill in the missing words.

Question: 1. Mano is a _____ black cat. 2. Kumet is a _____ horse. 3. Jabir is a _____ wolf. 4. Moti is a _____ dog.

Answer: 1. Mano is a fluffy black cat. 2. Kumet is a big red horse. 3. Jabir is a big bad wolf. 4. Moti is a fat brown dog. These describing words tell us how each animal looks in the picture.

1.2 Reading — Exercise 3: Write in the speech bubble who said these words.

Question: Who said these words? (a) "Don't be upset, I'll help you." (b) "Don't cry!" (c) "Don't worry!" (d) "The big bad wolf is coming to eat me!" (e) "I've come to eat you."

Answer: (a) Moti the dog said, "Don't be upset, I'll help you." (b) Kumet the horse said, "Don't cry!" (c) Mano the cat said, "Don't worry!" (d) Memna the baby goat said, "The big bad wolf is coming to eat me!" (e) Jabir the wolf said, "I've come to eat you."

1.2 Reading — Exercise 4: The underlined words in the text are pronouns. Say what each pronoun refers to.

Question: What do these pronouns in the story refer to? (a) 'my' in "This is my pond." (b) 'I' in "No, it's everybody's pond." (c) 'he' in "On his way, he saw a cat." (d) 'it' in "It's just over there." (e) 'you' in "I've come to eat you."

Answer: (a) 'My' refers to Jabir the wolf, who wrongly claims the pond is his alone. (b) 'I' refers to Memna, who bravely answers the wolf. (c) 'He' refers to Jabir, who met Mano the cat on his way. (d) 'It' refers to the pond, which is near the place where they are standing. (e) 'You' refers to Memna, whom the wolf wants to eat.

1.2 Reading — Exercise 5: Answer these questions from the story.

Question: (i) Who is Memna? (ii) Where does Memna like to go every day? (iii) Who does Memna meet at the pond? (iv) Who helps Memna in the end?

Answer: (i) Memna is a little baby goat. She is small and sweet, and she likes to play near the pond. (ii) Memna likes to go to the pond every day to drink water and play there. (iii) At the pond Memna meets Jabir, the big bad wolf, who tells lies and wants to eat her. (iv) In the end her friends Mano the cat, Moti the dog and Kumet the horse help her, and together they teach the wolf a lesson.

1.2 Reading — Exercise 6: Write three sentences about each character in the story.

Question: Write three sentences about each character: Jabir, Memna, Mano, Moti and Kumet.

Answer: Jabir: Jabir is a big bad wolf. He tells lies and tries to frighten the small animals. In the end he is taught a lesson and runs away. Memna: Memna is a baby goat. She is small but brave and clever. She does not believe the wolf's lies and calls her friends for help. Mano: Mano is a fluffy black cat. She is kind and quick to help. She comforts Memna and says, "Don't worry." Moti: Moti is a fat brown dog. He is strong and friendly. He says, "Don't be upset, I'll help you." Kumet: Kumet is a big red horse. He is gentle and caring. He says, "Don't cry," and stands with his friends against the wolf.

1.3 Writing — Exercise 1: Encircle one adjective in each bowl of words.

Question: Encircle an adjective in each bowl: (1) river, pond, deep, fish (2) small, cow, goat, donkey (3) grass, tree, tasty, fresh (4) baby, cry, happy, doctor (5) fat, hut, sing, friend (6) house, lovely, car, pencil

Answer: The adjectives are: (1) deep, (2) small, (3) tasty (fresh is also an adjective), (4) happy, (5) fat, (6) lovely. An adjective is a word that describes a noun, for example a deep pond and a small goat.

1.3 Writing — Exercise 2: Fill in the blanks with a suitable adjective from the box (mere, sweet, blue, fresh, heavy, long, white, dirty).

Question: 1. The _____ goat is drinking water. 2. The _____ grass is _____ for the goat. 3. The _____ river has _____ water. 4. It is as _____ as snow. 5. The _____ kite is flying in the _____ sky.

Answer: 1. The white goat is drinking water. 2. The fresh grass is sweet for the goat. 3. The long river has fresh (blue) water. 4. It is as white as snow. 5. The heavy (long) kite is flying in the blue sky. Suitable adjectives make each sentence clear and interesting.

1.3 Writing — Exercise 3: Describe a cat in two sentences using two adjectives.

Question: Write two sentences to describe a cat, using two adjectives. (Activity — model answer)

Answer: (Model answer) Mano is a fluffy black cat. She has soft fur, sharp eyes and a long tail, and she runs very fast. Adjectives like fluffy, black, soft and long tell us how the cat looks and feels.

1.3 Writing — Exercise 4: Think of some adjectives for the given nouns.

Question: Write adjectives for these nouns: pomegranate, elephant, rainbow, student, snake, book, toy, lion.

Answer: Pomegranate: red, juicy, sweet. Elephant: big, grey, strong. Rainbow: colourful, bright, beautiful. Student: clever, hardworking, polite. Snake: long, thin, dangerous. Book: interesting, new, thick. Toy: small, lovely, plastic. Lion: brave, wild, strong. Each adjective tells something special about the noun.

1.3 Writing — Exercise 5: Read the passage and underline the adjectives.

Question: Underline the adjectives in this passage: "The next day Memna goes near the pond and sees Jabir standing under a big tree. Having a naughty mind, Jabir asks Memna if she would like to have fresh water from the middle of the pond. Memna is scared but she bravely gives him a suitable reply."

Answer: The adjectives in the passage are: big (tree), naughty (mind), fresh (water) and suitable (reply). These words describe the tree, Jabir's mind, the water and the reply.

1.3 Writing — Exercise 6: Write sentences of your own on: (1) A day in the park (2) A day in the zoo (3) The best day of my life.

Question: Write a few sentences of your own on any one topic: A day in the park / A day in the zoo / The best day of my life. (Activity — model answer)

Answer: (Model answer — The best day of my life) The best day of my life was the day our class went on a picnic. We played games, ate tasty food and laughed a lot with our friends. I can never forget that happy day.

1.4 Grammar — Exercise 1: Change into present continuous tense: is/are + verb-ing.

Question: Change these sentences into the present continuous tense: 1. I buy new books. 2. They plant the trees. 3. He is happy to see his friend. 4. It rains heavily today. 5. The teacher teaches English in our class.

Answer: 1. I am buying new books. 2. They are planting the trees. 3. He is being happy to see his friend (he is feeling happy to see his friend). 4. It is raining heavily today. 5. The teacher is teaching English in our class. In the present continuous tense we use is/are/am with the verb + ing to show an action happening now.

1.4 Grammar — Exercise 2: Match the pictures with the correct names.

Question: Match each animal picture with its name: camel, peacock, monkey, parrot, elephant, pigeon, hen, peahen.

Answer: The pictures are matched with the names in this order: 1. camel, 2. peacock, 3. monkey, 4. parrot, 5. elephant, 6. pigeon, 7. hen, 8. peahen. A peacock is the male bird with long colourful feathers and a peahen is the female.

1.4 Grammar — Exercise 3: What is everyone doing? Match the number in the inner circle with the activity in the outer circle and write sentences.

Question: The names in the inner circle are: 1. Nazo, 2. Fahim, 3. Farhan, 4. Bachal, 5. Rabia, 6. Natasha, 7. Imran, 8. Najma. Write what each one is doing.

Answer: 1. Nazo is sleeping. 2. Fahim is swimming. 3. Farhan is reading a book. 4. Bachal is eating apples. 5. Rabia is writing. 6. Natasha is drinking. 7. Imran is playing football. 8. Najma is skipping (given in the book as the example). All these sentences are in the present continuous tense.

1.4 Grammar — Exercise 4: Change into present continuous tense using the given verbs: I / He / She / It / You / We / They + (eat, read, go, cry, run, sing).

Question: Make present continuous sentences with the given subjects and verbs.

Answer: I am eating my lunch. He is reading a story book. She is going to school. It is raining (the baby: it is crying). You are running in the ground. We are singing a song. They are eating mangoes. Remember: I takes 'am', he/she/it takes 'is', and you/we/they take 'are'.

1.4 Grammar — Exercise 5: Correct the following sentences.

Question: Correct these sentences: (a) She is wrtting a letter. (b) The doctor is examine the patient. (c) It are raining. (d) I is reading a book. (e) The cat are running after the mouse.

Answer: (a) She is writing a letter. (b) The doctor is examining the patient. (c) It is raining. (d) I am reading a book. (e) The cat is running after the mouse. In each sentence the helping verb must agree with the subject and the main verb takes -ing.

1.4 Grammar — Exercise 6: Fill in the blanks in the dialogue between Saeed and David using the short forms (I'm, I'll, I've, She's, We're, It'll, don't, You're, he'll).

Question: Complete the dialogue: Saeed: I'll be going there tomorrow. _____ asked my mother to do so. _____ also going. In fact, _____ all going. The goat... _____ be kept in my uncle's yard. I _____ know. _____ probably come back... _____ come back earlier. David: _____ so lucky. _____ go to Sialkot...

Answer: Saeed: I'll be going there tomorrow. I've asked my mother to do so. She's also going. In fact, we're all going. It'll be kept in my uncle's yard. I don't know. I'll probably come back on the first, but my brother says he'll come back earlier. David: You're so lucky. I'll go to Sialkot with my family. Short forms join two words into one, like I have = I've and we are = we're.

1.5 Study Skills — Exercise 1: Find words in the reading text that begin with the letter 'M'.

Question: Find words beginning with the letter 'M' in the story "Stop Telling Lies".

Answer: The words beginning with 'M' in the story are: Memna, Mano, Moti, my and mine. Memna, Mano and Moti are the names of the animal characters, while 'my' and 'mine' are pronoun words used in the dialogues.

1.5 Study Skills — Exercise 2: Put these 'M' words in alphabetical order.

Question: Put the words Memna, Mano, Moti, my, mine in alphabetical order.

Answer: In alphabetical order the words are: Mano, Memna, mine, Moti, my. We look at the second letter of each word: 'a' (Mano) comes before 'e' (Memna), then 'i' (mine), then 'o' (Moti) and last 'y' (my).

1.5 Study Skills — Exercise 3: Make as many words as you can with the word 'goats'.

Question: Make as many words as you can with the word 'goats'.

Answer: Words that can be made from 'goats' are: go, got, goat, goats, gas, tag, sag, oat, sat, so, to, at, ago, stag, toast (using the letters). Short words like go, at and to are hidden inside the big word.

1.5 Study Skills — Exercise 4: Put all these words in alphabetical order.

Question: Put the words made from 'goats' in alphabetical order.

Answer: In alphabetical order: ago, at, gas, go, goat, goats, got, oat, sag, sat, so, stag, tag, to. Words beginning with 'a' come first, then 'g', then 'o', then 's' and last 't'.

1.6 Fun — The Fun Twins (Tom and Jerry): Fill in the missing question or answer bubble.

Question: The twins Tom and Jerry look alike and play tricks. Fill in the missing speech bubbles in their conversation.

Answer: The missing bubbles are: Question: "Who took my socks?" Answer: "I did not stuff your lunch box with rubber bands and rocks." Question: "Who hid my sweater?" Answer: "I did not dent your bike." At the end the twin explains: "It must have been my sister. We look a lot alike." Because the twins look the same, people mix them up.

Unit 2: Responsibility

2.2 Reading — Exercise 1: Who was doing what? (The Pottery Making)

Question: In the text "The Pottery Making", who was doing what? (a) Who was shaping a pot? (b) Who was pushing the wheel? (c) Who was making patterns? (d) Who was painting a vase? (e) Who was bringing clay on a donkey?

Answer: (a) Aunt Sadori was shaping a pot on a wheel. (b) Aunt Sadori was pushing the wheel with her hands to turn it. (c) Sara was making patterns on a bowl with a pointed bone. (d) Saleh was painting (colouring) a vase. (e) Alam, the hired boy, was coming with his donkey carrying the clay from the river bank.

2.2 Reading — Exercise 2: Match each person with what he/she was doing.

Question: Match the following: Raja / Aunt Sadori / Saleh / Sara / Alam — (a) was coming with his donkey (b) was making patterns with a pointed bone (c) went to visit his aunt and uncle (d) was shaping a pot on a wheel (e) was painting a vase.

Answer: Raja — (c) went to visit his aunt and uncle. Aunt Sadori — (d) was shaping a pot on a wheel. Saleh — (e) was painting a vase. Sara — (b) was making patterns with a pointed bone. Alam — (a) was coming with his donkey.

2.2 Reading — Exercise 3: Complete the sentences about how pots are made.

Question: Complete the sentences: 1. Saleh was making _____ from the clay. 2. Aunt Sadori _____ the pots on a wheel. 3. Sara put the pots out

_____. 4. She drew _____ on a bowl with a pointed bone. 5. Saleh _____ the vase. 6. Finally Uncle Jumman put the pots _____.

Answer: 1. Saleh was making a paste from the clay. 2. Aunt Sadori shaped the pots on a wheel. 3. Sara put the pots out in the sun to dry. 4. She drew patterns on a bowl with a pointed bone. 5. Saleh coloured (painted) the vase. 6. Finally Uncle Jumman put the pots in the kiln to bake. These are the steps of pottery making in the right order.

2.2 Reading — Exercise 4: What is needed for each job?

Question: What is needed for each job? (a) To bring clay (b) To shape pots (c) To draw patterns (d) To colour vases (e) To bake pots

Answer: (a) A donkey is needed to bring clay from the river bank. (b) A wheel is needed to shape pots. (c) A pointed bone is needed to draw patterns on bowls. (d) Colours (paint) are needed to colour vases. (e) A kiln is needed to bake pots and make them hard.

2.2 Reading — Exercise 5: Say what the underlined pronouns in the pottery text refer to.

Question: What do these pronouns in "The Pottery Making" refer to? 1. 'she' (Aunt was shaping a pot... she was pushing the wheel) 2. 'My' (My cousin Sara) 3. 'She' (Sara was sitting... she was drawing patterns) 4. 'I' ("I'll come to your house," she said) 5. 'you' ("This will help you in your work") 6. 'It' (the kiln: "It makes the pots hard") 7. 'We' ("We need more clay") 8. 'He' (Alam... he was coming with his donkey)

Answer: 1. 'She' refers to Aunt Sadori. 2. 'My' refers to Raja, the narrator of the story. 3. 'She' refers to Sara. 4. 'I' refers to Sara, who promises to come and help. 5. 'You' refers to Raja, to whom the wheel will be helpful. 6. 'It' refers to the kiln. 7. 'We' refers to Uncle Jumman and his family (the potters). 8. 'He' refers to Alam, the hired boy.

2.2 Reading — Exercise 6: Answer the questions about the pottery text.

Question: (i) Where did Raja go one day? (ii) What was Aunt Sadori doing when he got there? (iii) What did Raja learn at his aunt and uncle's house? (iv) Why is the kiln important?

Answer: (i) One day Raja went to visit his aunt Sadori and uncle Jumman, who are potters. (ii) When he got there, Aunt Sadori was shaping a pot on a wheel and pushing the wheel round. (iii) Raja learnt how pots are made: clay is mixed into a paste, pots are shaped on a wheel, dried in the sun, decorated with patterns, coloured and baked in a kiln. (iv) The kiln is important because its heat bakes the soft clay pots and makes them hard and strong.

2.3 Writing — Exercise 1: Write 6 to 7 sentences about the picture "Working in the Field".

Question: Look at the picture "Working in the Field" and write six to seven sentences about it. (Activity — model answer)

Answer: (Model answer) It is a busy morning in the village fields. The farmer is ploughing the field with his oxen. His wife is sowing seeds in the soft soil. Some women are cutting the ripe wheat with sickles. Children are carrying bundles of wheat to one side. A man is watering the young plants from the canal. Everyone is working hard and happily in the fresh air.

2.4 Grammar — Exercise 1: Change the following sentences into the past continuous tense.

Question: Change into the past continuous tense: 1. The boys play hockey. 2. The girls sing a song. 3. The baby cries loudly. 4. We eat mangoes. 5. She writes a letter.

Answer: 1. The boys were playing hockey. 2. The girls were singing a song.

3. The baby was crying loudly. 4. We were eating mangoes. 5. She was writing a letter. In the past continuous tense we use was/were with the verb + ing.

2.4 Grammar — Exercise 2: Choose was or were to complete the sentences.

Question: Fill in the blanks with was/were: 1. The farmer _____ sowing the seeds. 2. The children _____ playing in the field. 3. It _____ raining yesterday. 4. They _____ cutting the wheat. 5. I _____ watering the plants.
Answer: 1. The farmer was sowing the seeds. 2. The children were playing in the field. 3. It was raining yesterday. 4. They were cutting the wheat. 5. I was watering the plants. We use 'was' with I, he, she and it, and 'were' with you, we and they.

2.4 Grammar — Exercise 3: Match each question (May I / Can I...?) with its answer.

Question: Match the questions with the answers: Q1. May I try to make a pot, Aunt Sadori? Q2. Can I put these pots in the sun? Q3. Can we play now, Sara? Q4. Can I go with Uncle Jumman, Saleh? Q5. May I see what's inside the kiln? Q6. Can I help you make the clay paste, Uncle Jumman?
Answer: Q1 matches answer 3: "No, you need a lot of practice before you can make a pot." (given in the book) Q2 matches answer 5: "Yes, you can help your aunt by putting the pots in the sun." Q3 matches answer 6: "No, we will play after I have made patterns on the bowl." Q4 matches answer 1: "Yes, please go with him. I'll finish painting this bowl, then I'll play with you." Q5 matches answer 4: "Yes, but don't go too near because the kiln is very hot." Q6 matches answer 2: "Yes, you can help by putting water in the clay while I mix it."

2.4 Grammar — Exercise 4: Ask permission / make requests with may and can (model sentences).

Question: Write one sentence with 'may' and one with 'can' to ask for permission, as practised with the pottery questions. (Activity — model answer)

Answer: (Model answer) "May I drink some water, please?" and "Can I open the window?" We use 'may' and 'can' to ask for permission politely; 'may' is more polite and formal than 'can'.

2.4 Grammar — Exercise 5: Look at Saleem's day diagram and write sentences about what Saleem was doing at different times.

Question: Saleem's day: 6:00 a.m. washing his face; 7:00 a.m. drinking tea; 8:00 a.m. reading a book; 9:00 a.m. polishing his shoes; 6:00 p.m. playing hockey; 7:00 p.m. watching TV; 8:00 p.m. writing a letter; 9:00 p.m. doing his homework. Write sentences in the past continuous tense.

Answer: At 6:00 a.m. Saleem was washing his face (given in the book as the example). At 7:00 a.m. Saleem was drinking tea. At 8:00 a.m. Saleem was reading a book. At 9:00 a.m. Saleem was polishing his shoes. At 6:00 p.m. Saleem was playing hockey. At 7:00 p.m. Saleem was watching TV. At 8:00 p.m. Saleem was writing a letter. At 9:00 p.m. Saleem was doing his homework.

2.5 Study Skills — Exercise 1: Find words in the pottery text that begin with the letter 'S' and fill them in the snake.

Question: Find words beginning with the letter 'S' in the text "The Pottery Making" and write them in the snake (in alphabetical order).

Answer: Words beginning with 'S' in the text include: Sadori, Saleh, Sara, saw, said, shaping, she, sitting, smoke, some, standing and sun. In alphabetical order: Sadori, Saleh, Sara, said, saw, shaping, she, sitting, smoke, some, standing, sun.

2.5 Study Skills — Exercise 2: Make as many words as you can with the word 'Country'.

Question: Make as many words as you can with the word 'Country'.

Answer: Words that can be made from 'Country' are: court, count, country, cry, cut, nut, out, our, run, rut, ton, tour, toy, try, turn, you, your, corn, cot, con, coy, nor, not, rot and your. Many small words are hidden in this one big word.

2.5 Study Skills — Exercise 3: Put the words made from 'Country' in alphabetical order.

Question: Put all the words made from 'Country' in alphabetical order.

Answer: In alphabetical order: con, corn, cot, count, country, court, coy, cry, cut, nor, not, nut, our, out, rot, run, rut, ton, tour, toy, try, turn, you, your. First come the words beginning with 'c', then 'n', 'o', 'r', 't' and last 'y'.

Unit 3: Importance of Female Education

3.2 Reading (While Reading) — Exercise 1: Read "The Story of Zahra" silently and circle the names of all the people and places mentioned in the text.

Question: Circle the names of all the people and places mentioned in "The Story of Zahra".

Answer: The people mentioned in the story are: Zahra, Mateen (her brother), Hazrat Rufaida and Florence Nightingale (the two famous nurses), Zahra's mother and father, her teacher and the headmaster. The places mentioned are: her small village near Mirpur Sakro, her primary school and the Boys' Middle School in the nearby village. Names of people and places always begin with a capital letter.

3.2 Reading (Post Reading) — Exercise 2: Underline the correct meaning of the words given below.

Question: Choose the correct meaning: 1. In paragraph 1, 'true' means: nice / real / interesting. 2. In paragraph 4, 'worked' means: studied / helped / washed. 3. In paragraph 6, 'All right' means: okay / may be / sometimes. 4. In paragraph 8, 'cross' means: go round / pass by / go through. 5. In paragraph 8, 'route' means: place / time / way. (Example: 'alone' means 'without friends'.)

Answer: 1. 'True' means real — this is the real story of Zahra, not an imaginary one. 2. 'Worked' means studied — Zahra worked hard at her lessons. 3. 'All right' means okay — the headmaster agreed to take Zahra in his school. 4. 'Cross' means go through (pass by) — the villagers did not want Zahra to pass through their streets. 5. 'Route' means way — Zahra and Mateen had to take a longer way to school.

3.2 Reading — Exercise 3: All the following sentences are wrong. Read the text and rewrite them correctly.

Question: Rewrite these wrong sentences correctly: 1. She was born in a big town. 2. She started going to school when she was seven. 3. She didn't like her school. 4. One day her teacher told her about Fatimah Jinnah and Razia Sultana. 5. Zahra said, "I want to be like them. I want to rule my people." 6. Zahra failed in Class V. 7. The headmaster said, "Zahra cannot come to school with her brother." 8. The villagers said, "Zahra must go to school with Mateen." 9. Zahra and her brother walked six kilometres to go to school every day. 10. Zahra did not study hard in the school so now she sits at home. (Example: "Zahra wants to be an engineer" is corrected to "Zahra wants to be a teacher.")

Answer: 1. She was born in a small village (near Mirpur Sakro). 2. She started going to school when she was five years old. 3. She loved her school. 4. One day her teacher told her about Hazrat Rufaida and Florence Nightingale, two famous nurses. 5. Zahra said, "I also want to help people in some way." 6. Zahra did very well in Class V. 7. The headmaster said, "All right, Zahra can come with Mateen and study in the school." 8. The villagers said, "Zahra must stay at home with her mother" (she must not cross the village streets). 9. Zahra and her brother walked three kilometres to go to school every day (later five kilometres by the longer route). 10. Zahra studied very hard in the school; she passed her Secondary School Certificate examinations with an A-grade and will soon become a teacher.

3.2 Reading — Exercise 4: Answer the following questions (all answers should be in the past tense).

Question: (i) How old was Zahra when she started to go to school? (ii) Why did Zahra have to go to the boys' Middle School? (iii) Why did Zahra want to study more? (iv) How did Zahra want to help people? (v) Why did the villagers not want Zahra to cross the village streets to go to school? (Example: Why did Zahra want to become a teacher? — Zahra wanted to become a teacher because she wanted all the children in her village to get education.)

Answer: (i) Zahra was five years old when she started to go to school with her brother Mateen. (ii) Zahra had to go to the boys' Middle School because her own village had only a primary school and there was no middle school for girls. (iii) Zahra wanted to study more because she wanted to become a teacher and help children in their studies. (iv) Zahra wanted to help people by becoming a teacher and teaching the children of her village, just as the famous nurses had helped people. (v) The villagers did not want Zahra to cross the village streets because they feared that when their own daughters saw her, they would also want to go to school.

3.3 Writing — Exercise 1: Write down the names of all the things in the picture. There are 27 items in the picture.

Question: Write the names of all 27 things in the picture on page 45.

Answer: The 27 items are: 1. doll, 2. dress (frock), 3. bed, 4. bicycle, 5. onions, 6. chair, 7. truck, 8. ball, 9. peas, 10. socks, 11. potatoes, 12. (cricket) bat, 13. desk (table), 14. carrot, 15. bus, 16. sofa, 17. cap, 18. kite, 19. rickshaw, 20. cupboard, 21. eyes, 22. leg, 23. hand, 24. tomato, 25. car, 26. shirt, 27. nose.

3.3 Writing — Exercise 2: Now list them separately under the headings: vegetables, clothes, furniture, parts of the body, transport, toys.

Question: Sort the 27 items under the headings: vegetables, clothes, furniture, parts of the body, transport and toys.

Answer: Vegetables: peas, potatoes, onions, carrot, tomato. Clothes: dress (frock), socks, cap, shirt. Furniture: bed, chair, desk, sofa, cupboard. Parts of the body: eyes, leg, hand, nose. Transport: bicycle, truck, bus, rickshaw, car. Toys: doll, ball, bat, kite. Together these make all 27 items.

3.3 Writing — Exercise 3: Draw two circles (mind maps): "Me and my family" and "Things I like to do", and write one or two words on each line. (Activity — model answer)

Question: Make mind maps for "Me and my family" and "Things I like to do". (Activity — model answer)

Answer: (Model answer) Me and my family: father — shopkeeper; mother — teacher; brother — Mateen, class III; sister — baby; grandfather — kind; our home — small and clean; we eat together; we help each other. Things I like to do: reading story books, playing cricket, drawing pictures, helping mother, riding my bicycle, visiting my friends. A mind map helps us collect ideas before writing.

3.3 Writing — Exercise 4: After the brainstorming, write two paragraphs, one on each of the above topics. (Activity — model answer)

Question: Write two paragraphs: 1. Me and my family. 2. Things I like to do. (Activity — model answer)

Answer: (Model answer) 1. Me and my family: I live in a small, clean house with my family. My father is a shopkeeper and my mother is a teacher. I have one brother, Mateen, who studies in class III, and a baby sister. We eat our meals together and help each other in every work. I love my family very much. 2. Things I like to do: I like reading story books and drawing pictures. I play cricket with my friends in the evening. I also like riding my bicycle and helping my mother at home. These things make me happy and keep me busy.

3.3 Writing — Exercise 6: Look at the school schedule and write a short note to your friend telling him/her what is happening in November and December in your school and when you will visit him/her. (Note: the book prints no Exercise 5 in Writing; the numbering jumps from 4 to 6.) (Activity — model answer)

Question: The schedule shows: November 9–16 Midterm Exams, November 23 Results, November 27 My birthday; December 2 Parents Teachers Meeting, December 14 Annual Sports Day, December 19 Last working day, then winter holidays. Write a short note to your friend. (Activity — model answer)

Answer: (Model answer) Dear Ahmad, I have my midterm exams from November 9 to 16. We will get our results on November 23, and my birthday is on November 27. In December we will have a Parents Teachers Meeting on the 2nd and our Annual Sports Day on the 14th. Our last working day is December 19; after that our winter holidays will begin. I will visit you in the winter holidays. Yours, Abdullah.

3.4 Grammar — Exercise 1 (Adjectives): Read the text about Samad and Ahmed and answer the questions.

Question: 1. Which one is bigger, a camel cart or a donkey cart? 2. Which one moves slower, a camel cart or a donkey cart? 3. Which is smaller, a bus or a car? 4. Which one moves faster, a bus or a car? 5. Which one is cheaper, a car or a bicycle? (Example: Which one is taller, the donkey or the camel? — The camel is taller than the donkey.)

Answer: 1. A camel cart is bigger than a donkey cart. 2. A camel cart moves slower than a donkey cart. 3. A car is smaller than a bus. 4. A car moves faster than a bus. 5. A bicycle is cheaper than a car. In these answers the adjectives bigger, slower, smaller, faster and cheaper are in the comparative degree.

3.4 Grammar — Exercise 2: Fill in the blanks with the words given, using the 'er' + than form.

Question: Facts: Atlantic Ocean — large; Indian Ocean — small; River Nile — long; River Indus — short; Mount Everest — high; K2 — low. Complete: 1. Mount Everest is _____ K2. 2. The River Indus is _____ the River Nile. 3. The Indian Ocean is _____ the Atlantic Ocean. 4. The River Nile is _____ the River Indus. 5. K2 is _____ Mount Everest. (Example: The Atlantic Ocean is larger than the Indian Ocean.)

Answer: 1. Mount Everest is higher than K2. 2. The River Indus is shorter than the River Nile. 3. The Indian Ocean is smaller than the Atlantic Ocean. 4. The River Nile is longer than the River Indus. 5. K2 is lower than Mount Everest.

3.4 Grammar — Exercise 3: Look for someone in your class who is taller / shorter / older / younger than you, and write six complete sentences using these words. (Activity — model answer)

Question: Write six sentences with taller, shorter, older and younger about your classmates. (Activity — model answer)

Answer: (Model answer) Shamim is taller than me (given in the book as the example). Ali is shorter than me. Sara is older than me. My friend Ahmed is younger than me. The teacher is taller than all of us. Our class monitor is older than me but shorter than Shamim.

3.4 Grammar — Exercise 4 (Punctuation): Rearrange the words to form correct questions. They all end with a question mark (?).

Question: Rearrange: 1. your mother going where is 2. the little girl is what eating 3. book this why you are reading 4. my house are you when coming to 5. brother your is why crying 6. can you get how good marks 7. your grandmother does live where 8. favourite colour is what your 9. sad is why the little girl 10. today is your mother how feeling (Example: "the children are what doing" → "What are the children doing?")

Answer: 1. Where is your mother going? 2. What is the little girl eating? 3. Why are you reading this book? 4. When are you coming to my house? 5. Why is your brother crying? 6. How can you get good marks? 7. Where does your grandmother live? 8. What is your favourite colour? 9. Why is the little girl sad? 10. How is your mother feeling today?

3.4 Grammar — Exercise 5: Write short answers to all the questions given in Exercise 4. (Activity — model answers)

Question: Write short answers to the ten questions of Exercise 4. (Activity — model answers)

Answer: (Model answers) 1. My mother is going to the market. 2. The little girl is eating an apple. 3. I am reading this book because it is interesting. 4. I am coming to your house on Sunday. 5. My brother is crying because he fell down. 6. I can get good marks by studying hard. 7. My grandmother lives in our village. 8. My favourite colour is green. 9. The little girl is sad because her doll is broken. 10. My mother is feeling well today. In the answers the question words (where, what, why...) are dropped and the main words of the question are used.

3.4 Grammar — Exercise 6 (Article a/an): Fill in the blanks with 'a' or 'an' in the market passage.

Question: Fill in the blanks: "My mother bought _____ dress and _____ bag. My sister bought _____ book, _____ inkpot, and _____ eraser. My brother said that he wanted _____ bat, _____ umbrella, _____ hat, and _____ shirt. My father bought _____ ice cream, _____ packet of biscuits, _____ cake, and _____ egg. We bought _____ papaya, _____ melon, and _____ orange for grandmother. We all returned home in _____ taxi. We paid _____ hundred rupees to the taxi driver."

Answer: In order: a dress, a bag, a book, an inkpot, an eraser, a bat, an umbrella, a hat, a shirt, an ice cream, a packet of biscuits, a cake, an egg, a papaya, a melon, an orange, a taxi, a hundred rupees. We use 'an' before words that begin with a vowel sound (a, e, i, o, u), and 'a' before words that begin with a consonant sound.

3.4 Grammar — Exercise 7: In each dialogue the article 'the' is missing in two places. Write the complete dialogues using the article 'the'.

Question: Complete the dialogues of Hamida and Rani with 'the' where it is missing.

Answer: Hamida: Yes! They have blocked the sun and the wind. Rani: Look at the sky! The clouds are coming in very fast! Hamida: Yes! They have blocked the sun and the wind is also very strong. Rani: I must tell my father to move the newest boat away from the River Indus. Hamida: You must also tell him that the rain is coming from the Arabian Sea. Rani: Yes. The wind is blowing from the south. Hamida: I think it will start raining in the afternoon or in the evening. We use 'the' with the sun, the sky, rivers, seas, directions and superlatives like 'the newest'.

3.4 Grammar — Exercise 8: Fill in the blanks with 'a', 'an' or 'the' (Pakistan passage).

Question: Fill in the blanks in the passage about Pakistan with 'a', 'an' or 'the'.

Answer: Pakistan is a big country. It has the Arabian Sea in the south and high mountains in the north. The longest river in Pakistan is the River Indus. The River Indus is a long river as it travels right from the north of the country to the south, where it falls into the Arabian Sea. The highest peak in the world, Mount Everest, is in Nepal, but the second highest peak, K2, is in Pakistan. We can see this peak if we take a trip to Gilgit Baltistan. If we go to Gilgit Baltistan by road we may see an ibex, which is a kind of mountain goat. We may also see a hot water spring, or we can drink cold water from a stream.

3.5 Study Skills — Exercise 1: Draw a slide in your notebook and fill it with names of things you see in a garden. (Activity — model answer)

Question: Write the names of things you see in a garden on the slide. (Activity — model answer)

Answer: (Model answer) Things we see in a garden are: grass, trees, flowers, roses, butterflies, birds, bees, a swing, a slide, a bench, green plants and a gardener. Children play on the slide and the swing, and butterflies fly over the flowers.

3.5 Study Skills — Exercise 2: Put the garden words in alphabetical order.

Question: Put the words you have written on the slide in alphabetical order.

Answer: In alphabetical order: bees, bench, birds, butterflies, flowers, gardener, grass, green plants, roses, slide, swing, trees. Alphabetical order helps us find words quickly in a dictionary.

3.5 Study Skills — Exercise 3: Make as many words as you can with the word 'Elephant'.

Question: Make as many words as you can with the word 'Elephant'.

Answer: Words that can be made from 'Elephant' are: elephant, ant, hen, pen, ten, net, eat, ate, tea, pan, nap, tap, pat, pet, let, lane, plane, plant, planet, pale, peal, leap, heel, help, pant, neat, heat, lean, tale, late, peel, peep (using the letters of the word). The longest words are planet and elephant itself.

3.5 Study Skills — Exercise 4: Use as many of these words as you can in sentences. (Activity — model answer)

Question: Use the words made from 'Elephant' in your own sentences. (Activity — model answer)

Answer: (Model answer) An ant is a very small insect. The hen eats grain in the yard. I write with a pen in my notebook. We drink hot tea in winter. The plane flies high in the sky. A plant needs water and sunlight to grow. The planet Earth is our home.

3.6 Fun — Exercise 1: Recite the poem "I wish..." loudly with actions. Exercise 2: The boy in the poem did not like being small. Say one thing that you do not like about yourself. How do you want to change it? (Activity — model answer)

Question: (Poem "I wish..." by Jack Prelutsky) What does the boy in the poem wish? Say one thing you do not like about yourself and how you want to change it. (Activity — model answer)

Answer: In the poem the boy is tired of being little and thin. He wishes he were of giant size, ten foot three, with whiskers on his chin, so that no one would dare to tease him or take away his toys. (Model answer for Exercise 2) I do not like being shy and speaking in a low voice. I want to become brave and speak clearly in class. If I change, I will take part in class activities and make more friends.

Unit 4: Truthfulness

4.2 Reading — Exercise 1: Find out how many times the word 'night' is used in the text about Saifullah and his peacock Miru.

Question: How many times is the word 'night' used in the reading text?

Answer: The word 'night' is used three times in the text: (1) Saifullah did not sleep well that night because Miru had not come back; (2) the farmer said, "I shot one last night"; (3) Saifullah said that Miru "did not come back last night". Counting a word in a text is a useful reading skill.

4.2 Reading — Exercise 2: Match the words with their meanings.

Question: Match the following words with their meanings: pet, wander, search, ploughing, tearfully, sobbing, console.

Answer: Pet — a favourite tame animal kept at home. Wander — to go from place to place without a fixed aim. Search — to look for something or someone. Ploughing — turning the soil over before sowing seeds. Tearfully — with eyes full of tears. Sobbing — crying with short, quick breaths. Console — to comfort someone in time of sorrow.

4.2 Reading — Exercise 3: Who said these words? (Saifullah and the farmer)

Question: Who said these words? 1. "Miru, Miru! Where are you?" (calling his pet) 2. "What are you looking for, Saifullah?" 3. "My pet peacock Miru did not come back last night. Have you seen him anywhere?" 4. "A peacock? I shot one last night because I like eating peacocks." 5. "Was the peacock wearing a silver ring on his foot?" 6. "Yes, he was." 7. "Oh, my poor Miru! He used to dance so beautifully." 8. "I am sorry, little boy. I promise never to shoot a peacock again."

Answer: 1. Saifullah's father (the family) called and searched — the words of calling Miru are Saifullah's. 2. The farmer said this. 3. Saifullah said this. 4. The farmer said this. 5. Saifullah said this. 6. The farmer said this. 7. Saifullah said this, crying for his pet. 8. The farmer said this when he felt sorry and became truthful about what he had done.

4.2 Reading — Exercise 4: Fill in the blanks in the summary of the story (gapped summary).

Question: Complete the summary: Saifullah loved his _____ very much. One _____ he did not come _____ . Saifullah went out to look for _____, but he could not _____ him anywhere. He met a _____. The farmer said that he had _____ a peacock. Saifullah asked if it was wearing a silver ring, and the farmer said yes. Saifullah _____ . The farmer felt _____ and promised that he _____ not shoot a peacock ever again.

Answer: Saifullah loved his peacock very much. One evening he did not come home. Saifullah went out to look for him, but he could not find him anywhere. He met a farmer. The farmer said that he had shot (seen and shot) a peacock. Saifullah asked if it was wearing a silver ring, and the farmer said yes. Saifullah cried. The farmer felt sorry and promised that he will (would) not shoot a peacock ever again. The farmer's truthfulness made Saifullah respect him even in his sorrow.

4.3 Writing — Exercise 1: Replace the underlined words in the two paragraphs with suitable words from the given lists.

Question: Paragraph 1 list: selected, largest, tournaments, opportunity, throughout the world. Paragraph 2 list: group, preliminary, Additionally, contestants, top, bagged. Rewrite the paragraphs using these replacement words.

Answer: Paragraph 1 (rewritten): He was chosen (selected) to play for his country. It was the biggest (largest) honour for him. He played in many competitions (tournaments). He got a chance (opportunity) to play internationally (throughout the world). Paragraph 2 (rewritten): Our team (group) won the initial (preliminary) round. Also (Additionally), our participants (contestants) got the first (top) position, and our school got (bagged) the trophy. Using different words with the same meaning makes our writing richer.

4.3 Writing — Exercise 3: Read the story of Saifullah again and answer: (1) Which words in paragraph 1 tell us this is the beginning, and which tell us it is the middle/end? (2) How many characters are there in the story? (3) Fill in the table: Who was the main character? When did the peacock go missing — night or morning? (4) Count the dialogues of Saifullah and of the farmer. (Note: the book prints no Exercise 2 in Writing; the numbering jumps from 1 to 3.)

Question: Answer the questions about the story of Saifullah and Miru.

Answer: (1) Words like "Once there was a boy" / the introduction of Saifullah and his pet in paragraph 1 show the beginning of the story; words telling about the search and the meeting with the farmer show the middle, and the farmer's promise shows the end. (2) There are three main characters in the story: Saifullah, his father and the farmer (Miru the peacock is the pet). (3) The main character is Saifullah; the peacock went missing at night — he did not come back in the evening/night. (4) Saifullah speaks three main dialogues (asking about Miru, asking about the silver ring, and crying over Miru), and the farmer speaks four dialogues (asking what Saifullah is looking for, telling about the peacock he shot, answering "Yes, he was", and saying sorry with his promise).

4.4 Grammar — Exercise 1 (Possessive Adjectives): Rewrite the jumbled sentences in the correct order and underline the possessive adjectives.

Question: Rewrite in the correct order: i. with his mother was walking the little boy ii. my book has lost her new sister iii. lahore have gone to their parents iv. with her was angry her teacher v. good friends are my brother and your brother vi. sold our old car we have vii. its paw the cat is licking (Example: "near house my he lives" → "He lives near my house.")

Answer: i. The little boy was walking with his mother. (his) ii. Her new sister has lost my book. (her, my) iii. Their parents have gone to Lahore. (their) iv. Her teacher was angry with her. (her) v. My brother and your brother are good friends. (my, your) vi. We have sold our old car. (our) vii. The cat is licking its paw. (its) The words my, your, his, her, its, our and their are possessive adjectives; they show to whom a thing belongs.

4.4 Grammar — Exercise 2 (Use of 'used to'): Read the dialogue between Rani and her grandmother and fill in the blanks.

Question: Rani's grandmother used to _____ (three things from the dialogue).

Answer: From the dialogue: (i) Rani's grandmother used to be very naughty. (ii) Rani's grandmother used to climb trees. (iii) Rani's grandmother used to waste a lot of water. Her mother used to be angry with her for climbing trees. We use 'used to' for things that happened regularly in the past.

4.4 Grammar — Exercise 3: Write about five things that you used to do when you were in Class I / II / III. (Activity — model answer)

Question: Write five sentences with 'used to' about your early classes. (Activity — model answer; example in the book: "When I was in Class One

I used to collect feathers.")

Answer: (Model answer) When I was in Class One, I used to play with clay toys. When I was in Class Two, I used to draw pictures in my copy. I used to go to school with my elder sister. I used to sleep early in the evening. I used to listen to stories from my grandmother.

4.4 Grammar — Exercise 4: Find out from your grandmother, grandfather and parents what they used to do when they were of your age, and write ten sentences about them. (Activity — model answer)

Question: Write ten sentences about what your elders used to do at your age. (Activity — model answer; example in the book: "My grandfather used to walk to school every day.")

Answer: (Model answer) My grandfather used to walk to school every day. He used to help his father in the fields. My grandmother used to fetch water from the well. She used to make butter at home. My father used to play gilli danda with his friends. He used to study under a street lamp. My mother used to sew her own clothes. She used to walk two kilometres to school. My grandfather used to ride a bicycle to the town. My grandmother used to tell stories to the children at night.

4.4 Grammar — Exercise 5 (Use of Do and Have): Write 'M' if 'do'/'have' is used as a main verb and 'H' if it is used as a helping verb.

Question: Mark M or H: i. We must always do as our parents tell us. ii. They have finished their work before time. iii. She is a nice person and does many good things. iv. Our teacher has said that she will take our test next week. v. The doctors have agreed to work in villages once every week. vi. You do your homework now and play in the evening. vii. My father does not drink tea at night. viii. The soldiers do their duty and help us in all difficult times. ix. I have not paid my school fees as yet. x. My grandfather has a big house in the village.

Answer: i. M (do = main verb). ii. H (have finished). iii. M (does = main verb). iv. H (has said). v. H (have agreed). vi. M (do your homework). vii. H (does not drink). viii. M (do their duty). ix. H (have not paid). x. M (has = owns). Remember: with he, she and it, 'do' changes into 'does' and 'have' into 'has'.

4.4 Grammar — Exercise 6: Write two sentences for each group: 'do/does' as main verbs, 'do/does' as helping verbs, 'have/has' as main verbs, 'have/has' as helping verbs. (Activity — model answer)

Question: Write two sentences for each of the four groups. (Activity — model answer)

Answer: (Model answer) 'Do/does' as main verbs: I do my work myself. She does her duty honestly. 'Do/does' as helping verbs: Do you like mangoes? He does not waste time. 'Have/has' as main verbs: We have a small garden. Ali has a new bicycle. 'Have/has' as helping verbs: They have cleaned the classroom. She has finished her lesson.

4.4 Grammar — Exercise 7 (Degrees of Adjectives): Fill in the blanks in the table according to the degrees of the adjectives.

Question: Complete the table: 1. Positive ____, Comparative ____, Superlative 'tallest'. 2. 'clean', ____, ____. 3. 'pretty', ____, ____. 4. ____, 'smaller', ____. 5. 'slow', ____, ____. 6. ____, 'dirtier', ____. 7. ____, ____, 'sweetest'. 8. 'fast', ____, ____. 9. ____, 'tastier', ____. 10. ____, ____, 'shortest'.

Answer: 1. tall, taller, tallest. 2. clean, cleaner, cleanest. 3. pretty, prettier, prettiest. 4. small, smaller, smallest. 5. slow, slower, slowest. 6. dirty, dirtier, dirtiest. 7. sweet, sweeter, sweetest. 8. fast, faster, fastest. 9. tasty, tastier, tastiest. 10. short, shorter, shortest. For adjectives ending in

'y', the 'y' changes into 'i' before adding -er or -est.

4.4 Grammar — Exercise 8 (Conjunction 'or'): Ask three students what they like from a group of three items and write their responses. (Activity — model answer)

Question: i. Which is your favourite fruit, apple, orange or mango? ii. Which songs do you like, folk, pop or sufi songs? iii. What do you like to do in your free time, play games, read books or watch TV? Write the answers in the pattern of the book's example ("Sameera does not like black or orange. She likes green."). (Activity — model answer)

Answer: (Model answer) i. Umer: I like mango. Samad: I like apple. Umer's favourite fruit is not apple or orange. It is mango. Samad's favourite fruit is not orange or mango. It is apple. ii. Student 1: I like folk songs. Student 2: I like sufi songs. Their favourite songs are not pop songs. They are folk and sufi songs. iii. Student 1: I like to read books. Student 2: I like to play games. Student 1 does not play games or watch TV in his free time. He reads books. The conjunction 'or' joins the choices in a question.

4.4 Grammar — Exercise 9: Now answer the above three questions for yourself. (Activity — model answer)

Question: i. My favourite fruit is not _____ or _____. It is _____. ii. My favourite songs are not _____. iii. I do not _____ in my free time. (Activity — model answer)

Answer: (Model answer) i. My favourite fruit is not apple or orange. It is mango. ii. My favourite songs are not pop songs. They are folk songs. iii. I do not watch TV in my free time. I read books and play with my friends.

4.5 Study Skills — Exercise 1: Make as many words as you can with the word 'Farmyard'.

Question: Make as many words as you can with the word 'Farmyard'.

Answer: Words that can be made from 'Farmyard' are: farm, yard, arm, army, far, ram, yam, mar, may, day, ray, fry, dry, mad, dam, fad, fay, my, am, a, and, yard, radar (using the letters of the word). 'Farm' and 'yard' are the two parts of the word farmyard itself.

4.5 Study Skills — Exercise 2: Draw a ladder in your notebook and put the words in alphabetical order on each step of the ladder.

Question: Put the words made from 'Farmyard' in alphabetical order.

Answer: In alphabetical order: am, and, arm, army, dam, day, dry, fad, far, farm, fry, mad, mar, may, my, radar, ram, ray, yam, yard. On the ladder, each step carries one word in this order.

4.5 Study Skills — Exercise 3: Use as many of these words as you can in your own sentences. (Activity — model answer)

Question: Use the words made from 'Farmyard' in sentences. (Activity — model answer)

Answer: (Model answer) My uncle has a big farm. There are many animals in the farmyard. The farmer works the whole day. A ram has strong horns. In May the weather becomes hot and dry. We should not waste water in the yard.

4.6 Fun — Poem "Pretending": Exercise 1: Recite the poem loudly with actions. Exercise 2: Which creature would you like to be? Why? (Activity — model answer)

Question: In the poem "Pretending", which creatures does the child pretend to be? Which creature would you like to be, and why? (Activity — model answer)

Answer: In the poem the child pretends to leap like a lamb, climb like a cat, fly like a bird, hop like a frog, swim like a fish and trot like a horse.

(Model answer) I would like to be a bird, because a bird can fly high in the sky, see the whole world from above and go wherever it wants.

Unit 5: My Country

5.2 Reading (While Reading) — Exercise 1: In the text "Floods, blessing in disguise", find out how many people benefitted from the floods. Write down their names.

Question: How many people benefitted from the floods in the text, and what are their names?

Answer: Four people benefitted from the floods in the text: 1. Haseena Mai, 2. Rana Mumtaz Ali, 3. Muhammad Sharif and 4. Jamshed. Each of them lost much in the floods but worked hard and made a new, better life.

5.2 Reading (Post Reading) — Exercise 2: Find the words in the text that match these meanings.

Question: Find the word in the text for each meaning: i. (paragraph 1) animals kept on farms for their milk and meat — (given: cattle). ii. (paragraph 2) something that brings happiness. iii. (paragraph 2) something different from normal. iv. (paragraph 2) a woman whose husband has died. v. (paragraph 2) a woman who works as a servant in a house. vi. (paragraph 2) food for birds/animals. vii. (paragraph 2) moved back. viii. (paragraph 2) a person whom others want to follow. ix. (paragraph 3) an event that causes great damage or loss of life. x. (paragraph 3) land on which crop does not grow. xi. (paragraph 3) too much salt in the land. xii. (paragraph 3) land that can produce good crops. xiii. (paragraph 4) used for growing crops. xiv. (paragraph 5) source of income.

Answer: i. cattle (given in the book). ii. blessing. iii. disguise (a blessing in disguise looks different from a normal blessing). iv. widow. v. maid. vi.

feed. vii. receded (the flood water moved back). viii. inspiration. ix. disaster. x. barren. xi. salinity. xii. fertile. xiii. cultivated. xiv. livelihood.

5.2 Reading — Exercise 3: The statements are found in paragraphs one and two. First complete all the questions, then write the answers.

Question: Complete the questions and answers: i. Who was affected by the monsoon floods in 2010? (given) ii. How many people _____? _____ people became homeless. iii. What _____ did the people lose? The people lost their _____. iv. What did Haseena Mai do _____? Haseena Mai _____ in people's houses before the floods. v. What did _____ (NGO) give her? One of the non-governmental organisations (NGO) gave her _____. vi. What did she do _____? After selling the eggs, she _____.

Answer: i. (Given) People in all the four provinces of Pakistan were affected by the monsoon floods in 2010. ii. How many people became homeless? Hundreds of thousands of people became homeless. iii. What did the people lose? The people lost their family members, relatives or friends (and their cattle, chickens and other sources of income). iv. What did Haseena Mai do before the floods? Haseena Mai worked as a maid in people's houses before the floods. v. What did one of the non-governmental organisations (NGO) give her? One of the NGOs gave her 50 hens with feed for three months. vi. What did she do after selling the eggs? After selling the eggs, she bought more feed and also more hens.

5.2 Reading — Exercise 4: The following answers are given in paragraph three. Write the questions to which these answers are given.

Question: Write the questions for these answers from paragraph three: i. (given) Rana Mumtaz Ali's land was lying barren because of salinity. ii. The floods brought fertile soil to his land. iii. After the floods his land produced

1,760 kilogrammes of wheat per acre. iv. The crop was so thick that even a snake could not find place to go in.

Answer: i. (Given) Why was Rana Mumtaz Ali's land lying barren? ii. What did the floods bring to his land? iii. How much wheat did his land produce per acre after the floods? iv. How thick was the crop (after the floods)? A good question uses the same key words as its answer and ends with a question mark.

5.2 Reading — Exercise 5: Read paragraphs four and five and write three questions and their answers in your notebook. (Activity — model answer)

Question: Write three questions and answers from paragraphs four and five. (Activity — model answer)

Answer: (Model answer) 1. How much infertile land in Muhammad Sharif's region could be cultivated after the floods? An area of around 15 kilometres of infertile land in his region could now be cultivated. 2. How much did the wheat production per acre increase after the floods? It increased from around 2,200 kilogrammes per acre before the floods to 2,600 kilogrammes per acre after the floods. 3. How did Jamshed earn his living from the floodwater lake? Jamshed could easily catch up to 15 kilogrammes of fish from the lake and sell it in the market; the number of such fisheries increased by about thirty percent after the floods.

5.2 Reading — Exercise 6: Answer these questions from the whole text.

Question: i. How were the people affected by the floods? ii. Why did people not give up hope? iii. How were the floods a blessing in disguise for Haseena Mai? iv. How has Haseena Mai become an inspiration for the people in her area? v. How did Rana Mumtaz Ali benefit from the flood? vi. How did Muhammad Sharif benefit from the flood? vii. How did the floods affect Jamshed?

Answer: i. The people were badly affected: thousands lost their family members, relatives or friends, hundreds of thousands became homeless, huge areas of land were flooded, crops were destroyed, and people lost cattle, chickens and other sources of income. ii. People did not give up hope because they had faith in Allah; they believed that hard work would change things for the better. iii. The floods were a blessing in disguise for Haseena Mai because, after losing her house and her job as a maid, an NGO gave her 50 hens; she sold the eggs, bought more hens and now owns a small poultry farm. iv. Haseena Mai has become an inspiration because a poor widow, by her hard work, now earns around Rs. 30,000 each month and the men and women of her area want to follow her example. v. Rana Mumtaz Ali benefited because the floods brought fertile soil to his barren land; about 100 acres became fertile and produced 1,760 kilogrammes of wheat per acre. vi. Muhammad Sharif benefited because around 15 kilometres of infertile land in his region could now be cultivated, and wheat production rose from 2,200 to 2,600 kilogrammes per acre. vii. The floods formed a lake full of fish near Jamshed's area; he could catch up to 15 kilogrammes of fish and sell it in the market, so the lake proved to be a blessing for him.

5.3 Writing — Exercise 1: Read the two letters (Samina's letter to Maria, and Maria's reply to Samina) and fill in the blanks. The information missing in one letter can be found in the other letter.

Question: Fill in the blanks in the two letters.

Answer: Letter 1 (Samina to Maria, from N 36, Block Z, Pak Society, Karachi, 15 March 2015) — blanks in order: family; bi-monthly; papers; hard; marks; cousins; October; 11th; Karachi; day; celebrations; exams; student; snowfall; winter; parents; regards; niece; and the letter is signed Samina. Letter 2 (Maria to Samina, from House No. 94/2, Chishtia Street, Multan, 19 March 2015) — blanks in order: you; tests; well; studied; good; remember; married; 14th; Sukkur; whole; mehndi; half-yearly; hardworking; Murree; vacations; regards; little; and it ends "Yours sincerely, Maria." The two letters give each other's missing information.

5.3 Writing — Exercise 2: Following the above format, write a letter to your friend telling them about how you did in your annual exams and what your plans are for the summer holidays. (Activity — model answer)

Question: Write a letter to your friend about your annual exams and your summer holiday plans. (Activity — model answer)

Answer: (Model answer) H. No. 12, Street 4, Hyderabad. 10 June 2015. Dear Ali, I hope you are well. My annual exams are over and I did well in all my papers because I had studied hard. I hope to get good marks. In the summer holidays I plan to visit my uncle's village. I will also read story books and learn swimming. Please write and tell me about your plans. Yours sincerely, Ahmed.

5.3 Writing — Exercise 3: Exchange your letter with your partner, read the letter you receive and write a reply to your friend. (Activity — model answer)

Question: Write a short reply to your friend's letter. (Activity — model answer)

Answer: (Model answer) Dear Ahmed, Thank you for your letter. I am glad to know that you did well in your annual exams. My exams also went well. In the summer holidays I will stay at home and help my father in his shop. I will also practise my English. Do visit me when you come back from your uncle's village. Yours sincerely, Ali. A good reply answers the points of the first letter.

5.4 Grammar — Exercise 1 (Pronouns): Read the facts about Kaleem, his sister Jamila and their parents, and write one paragraph about each of them, using only pronouns (not their names) after the first line.

Question: Facts — Kaleem: ten years old, class V, good student, liked by teachers, plays with friends, favourite game football. Jamila: seven years old, class II, good at maths, wants to be an engineer, sometimes plays with her brother, favourite hobby computer games. Parents: love their children, father shopkeeper, mother teacher, work very hard, help children with homework, take good care of children. Write the three paragraphs.

Answer: Paragraph 1 (Kaleem): Kaleem is ten years old. He studies in class V. He is a good student and is liked by his teachers. He plays with his friends, and his favourite game is football. Paragraph 2 (Jamila): Kaleem has one sister. Her name is Jamila. She is seven years old and studies in class II. She is good at maths and wants to be an engineer. She sometimes plays with her brother, and her favourite hobby is computer games. Paragraph 3 (Parents): Kaleem has lovely parents. They love their children very much. His father is a shopkeeper and his mother is a teacher. They work very hard, help their children with their homework and take good care of them.

5.4 Grammar — Exercise 2 (Adjectives of colour): Mrs. Alvi was going shopping. Look at the pictures and write what each family member wants, with the colour of the item, using the article 'a'. Write the names in alphabetical order.

Question: Azeem — jacket; Seema — frock; Habib — mug; Nabeel — pair of shoes; Faiza — bunch of flowers; Moomal — bag. Write complete sentences with colours, names in alphabetical order. (First one given: Azeem wants a blue jacket.)

Answer: 1. Azeem wants a blue jacket (given in the book). 2. Faiza wants a bunch of red and pink flowers. 3. Habib wants a green mug. 4. Moomal wants a pink bag. 5. Nabeel wants a pair of black shoes. 6. Seema wants a red frock. The names are written in alphabetical order: Azeem, Faiza, Habib, Moomal, Nabeel, Seema.

5.4 Grammar — Exercise 3: Fill in the gaps in the degrees table with the correct words from the given list.

Question: Complete the table: 1. good, better, _____. 2. bad, _____, worst. 3. _____, earlier, _____. 4. many, _____, _____. 5. _____, lesser, _____. 6. useful, _____, _____. 7. _____, _____, happiest. 8. _____, more beautiful, _____.

Answer: 1. good, better, best. 2. bad, worse, worst. 3. early, earlier, earliest. 4. many, more, most. 5. little, lesser, least (the word list also gives 'less', the other comparative form of little). 6. useful, more useful, most useful. 7. happy, happier, happiest. 8. beautiful, more beautiful, most beautiful. Good, bad, many, little, happy and beautiful have irregular or special forms.

5.4 Grammar — Exercise 4: Look at the table of weight, height, marks and runs, and complete the sentences with the superlative degree of the given adjectives (heavy, light, tall, short, many, less, high, low).

Question: Table: Arif Rahim — 62 kg, 4'8", 509 marks, 143 runs. Bachal Allahyar — 79 kg, 4'4", 583 marks, 109 runs. Latif Memon — 74 kg, 4'9", 533 marks, 179 runs. Nasir Mureed — 69 kg, 4'2", 574 marks, 184 runs. Peer Bakhsh — 63 kg, 4'5", 594 marks, 112 runs. Complete: 1. Bachal Allahyar is _____ boy in the class (given: the heaviest). 2. Peer Bakhsh got _____ marks in the class. 3. Bachal Allahyar scored _____ runs in the class match. 4. Nasir Mureed is _____ student in the class. 5. Arif Rahim got _____ marks in the class. 6. Nasir Mureed scored _____ runs in the class match. 7. Latif Memon is _____ student in the class. 8. Arif Rahim is _____ boy in the class.

Answer: 1. Bachal Allahyar is the heaviest boy in the class (given in the book; 79 kg). 2. Peer Bakhsh got the highest marks in the class (594). 3. Bachal Allahyar scored the least runs in the class match (109). 4. Nasir Mureed is the shortest student in the class (4'2"). 5. Arif Rahim got the lowest marks in the class (509). 6. Nasir Mureed scored the most runs in the class match (184). 7. Latif Memon is the tallest student in the class (4'9"). 8. Arif Rahim is the lightest boy in the class (62 kg). 'The' is always used before a superlative degree.

5.4 Grammar — Exercise 5 (Punctuation): Rewrite the jumbled sentences in the correct order, using capital letters and full stops. Each sentence uses 'because'.

Question: Rewrite in the correct order: i. late there jam school was because a I today traffic reached ii. she school sick my is friend from today because absent is iii. done happy their teacher students very work our all was because the had iv. stick man is cannot because white carrying old see he the a v. because homework his wanted salim he play finished to quickly vi. mother washing razia their sick and hameed dishes are is because the vii. win practising the to team match is because the want hard they

Answer: i. I reached school late today because there was a traffic jam. ii. My friend is absent from school today because she is sick. iii. Our teacher was very happy because all the students had done their work. iv. The old man is carrying a white stick because he cannot see. v. Salim finished his homework quickly because he wanted to play. vi. Razia and Hameed are washing the dishes because their mother is sick. vii. The team is practising hard because they want to win the match. 'Because' gives the reason for something.

5.4 Grammar — Exercise 6: (A) Write three sentences to tell your mother why you want to: (a) buy a new bag (b) visit your friend (c) go to bed early. (B) Write three sentences to tell your mother why you don't want to: (a) play hockey (b) have dinner (c) go to your aunt's house. (Activity — model answer)

Question: Write the six 'because' sentences. (Activity — model answer)

Answer: (Model answer) (A) a. I want to buy a new bag because my old bag is torn. b. I want to visit my friend because he is ill. c. I want to go to bed early because I have to get up early for school. (B) a. I don't want to play hockey because I have hurt my foot. b. I don't want to have dinner because I am not feeling well. c. I don't want to go to my aunt's house because I have to finish my homework.

5.5 Study Skills — Exercise 1: Make as many words as you can with the word 'University'.

Question: Make as many words as you can with the word 'University'.

Answer: Words that can be made from 'University' are: university, unity, unit, unite, vein, vine, very, sun, run, runs, turn, tune, ten, tin, net, nut, sit, sir, stir, suit, sure, user, vent, vest, yet, yes, in, it, is, try, tier, tire, true, rest, nest, sent, test (using the letters of the word). Many small words hide inside this long word.

5.5 Study Skills — Exercise 2: Put the words in alphabetical order.

Question: Put the words made from 'University' in alphabetical order.

Answer: In alphabetical order: in, is, it, nest, net, nut, rest, run, sent, sir, sit, stir, suit, sun, sure, ten, test, tier, tin, tire, true, try, tune, turn, unit, unite, unity, university, user, vein, vent, very, vest, vine, yet, yes.

5.5 Study Skills — Exercise 3: Use as many of these words as you can in your own sentences. (Activity — model answer)

Question: Use the words made from 'University' in sentences. (Activity — model answer)

Answer: (Model answer) The sun is shining brightly today. We should run and play in the ground. My elder brother studies at a university. Unity is our strength. The bird made a nest in the tree. Please sit properly and rest for a while.

5.6 Fun — Exercise 1 (Poem "Our National Flag" by Zunaira H. Gwadri): Draw a flag of Pakistan, colour it and paste it on a stick. Wave the flag and recite the poem aloud, pointing out the white part, the green part, the crescent and the star. (Activity)

Question: What do the parts of our national flag stand for, according to the poem?

Answer: According to the poem, nations are recognized by their flags. The white part in our flag represents the minorities, and the green shows peace and prosperity. The crescent symbolizes Islamic grace, and the star indicates spiritual progress. We should always keep our national flag high and be ready to sacrifice our life for it to fly.

5.6 Fun — Poem (cuckoo bird): What do you wish to become? Write about it. Imagine things you would do if your wish came true. (Activity — model answer)

Question: The child in the poem wishes to be a cuckoo bird. What do you wish to become? Write about it. (Activity — model answer)

Answer: (Model answer) I wish to become a teacher like Zahra. If my wish comes true, I will teach the children of my village who cannot go to school. I will tell them stories, help them read and write, and make them good and clever students. Teaching is the best way to serve my country.

5.6 Fun — Exercises 1–3 (from 'Hospital', like the Unit 5 Study Skills pattern): Exercise 1: Make as many words as you can with the word 'Hospital'. Exercise 2: Put the words in alphabetical order. Exercise 3: Use as many of these words as you can in sentences.

Question: Make words from 'Hospital', put them in alphabetical order, and use them in sentences.

Answer: Words from 'Hospital': hospital, host, hop, top, pot, pat, tap, pit, tip, sit, sat, hat, hot, hit, hip, lip, lit, lot, opt, apt, pal, also, alto, past, post, path, pits, pots, tops, spit, spot, stop, salt, last, lost, host, pail, tail, sail, soil, oils, toil, this, ship, shop, soap, shot. In alphabetical order: also, apt, hat, hip, hit, hop, hospital, host, hot, last, lip, lit, lost, lot, pail, pal, past, pat, path, pit, post, pot, sail, salt, sat, ship, shop, shot, sit, soap, soil, spit, spot, stop, tail, tap, this, tip, toil, top. (Model sentences) My mother took my sick brother to the hospital. The shop is near the bus stop. We wash our hands with soap. A ship sails on the sea.

5.6 Fun — Exercise 4: Look at the pictures and write one sentence about each of them (hot-air balloon, bird and caterpillar, grasshopper and caterpillar).

Question: Write one sentence about each picture.

Answer: 1. A caterpillar is riding in a colourful hot-air balloon high in the sky. 2. A bird is looking at a small green caterpillar on the ground. 3. A grasshopper is talking to a caterpillar. These funny pictures show small creatures having big adventures.