Questions on Memorisation, Recitation and Translation (from the chapter)

Question: Which Surahs and verses are prescribed in this book for Nazira (reading by looking)?

Answer: For Nazira, the Surahs of the thirtieth Juz are prescribed: Surah Al-Fil, Quraysh, Al-Ma'un, Al-Kauthar, Al-Kafirun, An-Nasr, Al-Lahab, Al-Ikhlas, Al-Falaq and An-Naas. Along with these, the first five verses and the last two verses of Surah Al-Baqarah and the last three verses of Surah Al-Hashr are also to be read by looking.

Question: Which portions are prescribed for Hifz (memorisation)?

Answer: For memorisation, Ayat-ul-Kursi from Surah Al-Baqarah, Surah Al-Falaq and Surah An-Naas are prescribed. Besides these, Surah Al-Mulk is taught to the students by heart, and the first sixteen (16) verses of Surah Ar-Rahman are also given for memorisation.

Question: Write the translation of Surah Al-Fatiha.

Answer: Translation: All praises are for Allah, the Lord of all the worlds. The Most Gracious, the Most Merciful. Master of the Day of Judgement. You alone we worship, and You alone we ask for help. Guide us on the straight path — the path of those whom You have blessed, not of those who earned Your anger, nor of those who went astray.

Question: Write the translation of Tashahhud (At-Tahiyyat).

Answer: Translation: All verbal, physical and monetary worships are for Allah. O Prophet! Peace be upon you and the mercy and blessings of Allah. Peace be upon us and upon the righteous servants of Allah. I bear witness that there is no god but Allah, and I bear witness that Muhammad (PBUH) is His servant and Messenger.

Question: Write the translation of Durood-e-Ibrahimi.

Answer: Translation: O Allah! Bestow Your mercy upon Muhammad (PBUH) and his progeny, as You bestowed mercy upon Hazrat Ibrahim (A.S.) and his progeny; indeed You are Praiseworthy and Glorious. O Allah! Bestow Your blessings upon Muhammad (PBUH) and his progeny, as You bestowed blessings upon Hazrat Ibrahim (A.S.) and his progeny; indeed You are Praiseworthy and Glorious.

Question: Which supplications (duas) are given in the chapter to memorise?

Answer: The chapter gives these supplications: the dua before sleeping, the dua after waking up, the dua for leaving the home, the dua for entering the home, and a dua asking forgiveness for oneself and for all Muslims (Rabbana zalamna...). These duas should be memorised and recited daily.

Question: Write the translation of the supplication recited before sleeping.

Answer: Translation: O Allah! In Your name I die (sleep) and I live (awake). This dua teaches us that sleep is also in Allah's power and waking up is also by His grace, so we should take Allah's name before sleeping.

Activity — Write two sentences about "The world is a cultivating field of the Hereafter".

Question: (Activity) Write two sentences about "The world is a cultivating field of the Hereafter".

Answer: (i) Just as a farmer reaps whatever he sows in his field, a person will receive the reward of whatever deeds he does in this world, in the Hereafter. (ii) Therefore we should sow the seeds of good deeds in this world so that we may harvest the crop of Paradise in the Hereafter.

Answer the following questions

Question: 1. What will happen after Hazrat Israfil (A.S.) blows the trumpet for the first time?

Answer: When Hazrat Israfil (A.S.) blows the trumpet for the first time, the whole world will be destroyed, all living beings will die and everything will come to an end. This will be the beginning of the Day of Judgement; after it, by Allah's order, the trumpet will be blown a second time and all human beings will come back to life.

Question: 2. What are the duties of Kiraman Katibeen?

Answer: Kiraman Katibeen are the two honourable angels appointed with every human being. Their duty is to keep writing down all the good and bad deeds of the person. On the Day of Judgement, this same written record of deeds will be presented before the person.

Question: 3. Why is this worldly life given to us?

Answer: This worldly life is given to us as a trial and a test, to see who performs good deeds and who does evil. The world is a cultivating field of the Hereafter; whoever does good deeds here will receive their good reward in the Hereafter, and the real purpose of life is the worship and obedience of Allah.

Question: 4. What will be done with the records of deeds on the Day of Judgement?

Answer: On the Day of Judgement every person will be given his record of deeds; the righteous people will receive their record in their right hand, while the wicked will receive it in their left hand or from behind their back. Then the deeds written in these records will be weighed, and whoever's good deeds are heavy will enter Paradise, and whoever's sins are heavy will go to Hell.

Question: 5. How can the success and happiness in the Hereafter be achieved?

Answer: Success and happiness in the Hereafter can be achieved by believing in Allah, obeying the Nabi Karim (PBUH) and performing good deeds. Whoever offers Namaz, keeps fasts, pays Zakat and does other good deeds in this world and stays away from sins, Allah will bless him with the blessings of Paradise on the Day of Judgement.

Activity — Make a chart of Quranic verses and Ahadith related to the obedience of the Nabi Karim (PBUH) and display it in the classroom.

Question: (Activity) Write verses and Ahadith for a chart about the obedience of the Nabi Karim (PBUH).

Answer: These verses and Ahadith should be written on the chart: (i) "O believers! Obey Allah and obey the Rasool." (ii) "Whoever obeys the Rasool has indeed obeyed Allah." (iii) Hadith: "Whoever obeys me will enter Paradise." These should be written in beautiful writing on the chart and displayed in the classroom.

Answer the following questions

Question: 1. What is meant by the obedience of the Nabi Karim (PBUH) (Ita'at-e-Rasool)?

Answer: Obedience of the Nabi Karim (PBUH) means accepting every command of his and acting upon everything he said. Whoever obeys the Nabi Karim (PBUH) from the heart and spends his life according to his way is his true obedient follower.

Question: 2. Write down the importance of the obedience of the Nabi Karim (PBUH) in your own words.

Answer: The obedience of the Nabi Karim (PBUH) is very important because Allah Almighty has commanded his obedience again and again in the Holy Quran and has declared obedience to him as obedience to Allah Himself. Without obeying the Nabi Karim (PBUH), faith does not become complete, and success in this world and the Hereafter is also gained only through his obedience, while disobeying him leads to going astray and failure.

Question: 3. Describe the conduct of the Companions (R.A.) about the obedience of the Nabi Karim (PBUH).

Answer: The Companions (R.A.) were unmatched in obeying the Nabi Karim (PBUH). They followed his footsteps in every matter, accepted his every command without delay and gave preference to his liking over their own. Whether it was war or peace, happiness or hardship, they kept obeying the Nabi Karim (PBUH) in every condition.

Question: 4. What is essential for success in both the worlds?

Answer: For success in both the worlds (this world and the Hereafter), obedience to Allah and His Rasool (PBUH) and following the way (Sunnah) of the Nabi Karim (PBUH) is essential. Whoever believes, performs good deeds and spends his life in obedience to the Nabi Karim (PBUH) gains honour in this world and becomes deserving of Paradise in the Hereafter.

Tick (✓) the correct answer

Activity — Write the Ayat "لَقَدْ كَانَ لَكُمْ فِيْ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ اُسْوَةٌ حَسَنَةٌ" with its translation on a chart and display it in the classroom.

Question: (Activity) Write the translation of the Ayat "لَقَدْ كَانَ لَكُمْ فِيْ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ اُسْوَةٌ حَسَنَةٌ".

Answer: Translation: "Indeed, in the Rasool of Allah ((PBUH)) there is an excellent model for you." This Ayat tells us that the life of the Nabi Karim (PBUH) is the best example and model for every Muslim in every matter, so we should follow his Sunnah.

Answer the following questions

Question: 1. What is meant by the Sunnah of the Nabi Karim (PBUH)?

Answer: The Sunnah of the Nabi Karim (PBUH) means his way, his sayings and his actions. Whatever the Nabi Karim (PBUH) said, whatever he did and whatever he permitted in his life is all his Sunnah, and it is necessary for Muslims to act upon it.

Question: 2. What is the importance of Sunnah regarding Namaz (Prayer)?

Answer: Namaz is the most important pillar of Islam, but the detailed method of offering Namaz (the number of Rakats, the manner and the details of timings) is not fully described in the Quran. The Nabi Karim (PBUH) taught the complete method of Namaz through his Sunnah and said: "Offer Namaz as you see me offering it." Therefore, without the Sunnah, Namaz cannot be offered correctly.

Question: 3. What was said by the Nabi Karim (PBUH) about the method of Hajj?

Answer: About the method of Hajj, the Nabi Karim (PBUH) said: "Learn the rites (methods) of Hajj from me." This means that all the rituals and methods of Hajj are learnt from the Sunnah of the Nabi Karim (PBUH), because the details of Hajj are brief in the Quran and its practical form becomes clear through the Sunnah.

Question: 4. Whose life has Allah Almighty declared "a pattern of action" for the people?

Answer: Allah Almighty has declared the life of the Nabi Karim (PBUH) to be the best pattern of action (Uswa-e-Hasana) for all people. Every aspect of his life — worship, morals, dealings and way of living — is an example worth following for every Muslim.

Question: 5. Write the translation of one Ayat of the Holy Quran about the importance of the Sunnah.

Answer: Ayat: "وَمَا آتَاكُمُ الرَّسُوْلُ فَخُذُوْهُ وَمَا نَهَاكُمْ عَنْهُ فَانْتَهُوْا" — Translation: "And whatever the Rasool gives you, take it, and whatever he forbids you, abstain from it." This Ayat tells us that acting upon every command and every prohibition of the Nabi Karim (PBUH) is following the Sunnah, and it is obligatory.

Tick (✓) the correct answer

1. Saum (fasting) is obligatory in the month of:
    (a) Muharram
✓ (b) Ramadan
    (c) Shawwal
    (d) Dhu Al-Hijjah
2. The Sunnah of the Holy Prophet (PBUH) in Islam means:
3. The details of performing Hajj are mentioned in:
    (a) Torah
    (b) Zabur

(c) Injeel

4. The way of success is:

(a) To forget the Holy Quran

(b) To leave the Namaz

(c) To forget the Sunnah

Fill in the blanks

1. Allah Almighty has made the personality of the Nabi Karim (PBUH) comprehensive, perfect and _____.

Answer: every human being.

2. The most important pillar of Islam is _____.

Answer: known through the Sunnah.

3. Whatever the Nabi Karim (PBUH) ordered the Muslims, he himself _____ upon it first.

Answer: and showed

4. Hajj is one of the five pillars of Islam.

5. For explanation about the rulings and problems related to Saum, we need to look into the _____.

Answer: Sunnah of the Nabi Karim (PBUH).

Identify true and false

✓ 1. Hazrat Muhammad (PBUH) is the last Rasool of Allah.

Activities — (1) Write in detail the activities performed on Friday, from the Adhan till the offering of the Friday Namaz. (2) How do you celebrate Eids? Tell your friends about it.

Question: (Activity) Write the activities performed on Friday from the Adhan till the Friday Namaz.

Answer: On Friday, a Muslim takes a bath, wears good and clean clothes, applies fragrance and goes to the masjid. After the Adhan, the Imam delivers the Khutbah (sermon), which everyone listens to silently; then the two obligatory Rakats of Friday Namaz are offered in congregation. After the Namaz, people meet one another and ask about each other's well-being.

Question: (Activity) How do you celebrate Eids? Describe it.

Answer: On the day of Eid we take a bath in the morning and wear new or clean clothes, apply fragrance and offer the Eid Namaz in the Eidgah or masjid. Then we meet relatives and friends and say "Eid Mubarak", take Eidi from the elders, and also include the poor and needy in our happiness. On Eid-ul-Adha, animals are also sacrificed.

Answer the following questions

Question: 1. What are the objectives of congregational Namaz?

Answer: The objectives of congregational Namaz are: unity and brotherhood are created among Muslims, everyone worships Allah standing equal in one row, people learn about each other's conditions, and an opportunity arises to help the weak and the poor. Through congregational Namaz, the masjid remains inhabited and religious teaching spreads.

Question: 2. Write down an introduction to Friday Namaz.

Answer: Friday Namaz is offered in congregation every Friday at the time of Zuhr, and it is obligatory upon every adult Muslim male. It has two obligatory Rakats, which are offered after the Khutbah (sermon). Friday has been declared the best day of the week, and its Namaz cannot be missed without a genuine and legitimate (Shariah) excuse.

Question: 3. Describe the etiquettes of Friday Namaz.

Answer: The etiquettes of Friday Namaz are: taking a bath (Ghusl), wearing clean and good clothes, applying fragrance, reaching the masjid early, listening to the Khutbah silently and avoiding talking during the Khutbah. Reciting Durood abundantly on this day and making dua are also among its etiquettes.

Question: 4. Write about the social significance of Eid festivals.

Answer: The social significance of Eids is very great: on Eid all Muslims gather together, love and brotherhood increase among them, and people forgive each other and end enmities. On Eid-ul-Fitr, the poor are included in the happiness by giving Fitrana, and on Eid-ul-Adha the meat of the sacrifice is distributed among the poor, which creates feelings of equality and caring for one another in society.

Question: 5. Write about the manners of Eid Namaz.

Answer: The manners of Eid Namaz are: taking a bath and wearing clean or new clothes, applying fragrance, eating something sweet before the Namaz on Eid-ul-Fitr, going to the Eidgah by one route and returning by another, reciting Takbeers on the way, and saying "Eid Mubarak" to one another after the Namaz. On Eid-ul-Adha, the sacrifice is offered after the Namaz.

صوم (روزو)

Activity — Tell your class fellows about the virtues, significance and benefits of Saum.

Question: (Activity) Tell about the virtues, significance and benefits of Saum.

Answer: The virtue of Saum is that Allah Almighty says that the fast is for Me and I Myself will give its reward, and all the previous sins of the fasting person are forgiven. Its significance is that it is one of the five pillars of Islam and is obligatory in Ramadan. Its benefits are that it improves health, creates patience and compassion, and keeps a person away from sins.

Answer the following questions

Question: 1. What is meant by Saum?

Answer: Saum is an Arabic word which literally means "to stop / to prevent". In Shariah, Saum means abstaining from eating, drinking and every bad deed from dawn (Subh-e-Sadiq) till sunset, with the intention of worshipping Allah. Fasting is obligatory upon every adult Muslim in Ramadan-ul-Mubarak.

Question: 2. Mention any Quranic Ayat which shows that Saum is obligatory.

Answer: Ayat: "يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ آمَنُوْا كُتِبَ عَلَيْكُمُ الصِّيَامُ كَمَا كُتِبَ عَلَى الَّذِيْنَ مِنْ قَبْلِكُمْ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَتَّقُوْنَ" — Translation: "O believers! Fasting has been made obligatory upon you, as it was made obligatory upon those before you, so that you may become pious." This Ayat clearly shows that Saum is obligatory upon every Muslim.

Question: 3. Write about the social significance of Saum in your own words.

Answer: The social significance of Saum is that fasting creates compassion in a person for the poor and the hungry, because the fasting person himself feels hunger and thirst. In Ramadan people give more charity, gather in masjids and care for one another, which increases love, brotherhood and equality in society.

Question: 4. Briefly discuss the virtues of Saum.

Answer: Saum has great virtues: Allah Almighty says that the fast is for Me and I Myself will give its reward. The previous sins of the fasting person are forgiven; in Paradise there is a special gate called "Rayyan" through which only the fasting people will enter, and the fast will intercede for the fasting person on the Day of Judgement.

Question: 5. Write about the benefits of Saum.

Answer: Saum has many benefits: fasting improves health and saves a person from many diseases, control over the self (nafs) is gained and the habit of patience is formed. Fasting keeps a person away from sins, creates compassion for the poor, and nearness to Allah and piety (Taqwa) are achieved.

Tick (✓) the correct answer

1. Saum creates an emotion for others:

Activity — Present a play in the class related to Muwakhat.

Question: (Activity) Describe an incident for a play related to Muwakhat.

Answer: In the play, present the incident that when Hazrat Abdul Rehman bin Auf (R.A.) came to Madinah as a Muhajir, the Nabi Karim (PBUH) made him the brother of Hazrat Saad bin Rabi' (R.A.). Saad offered half of his wealth and his house, but Abdul Rehman thanked him and said: "Just show me the way to the market", and he became prosperous through hard work. This incident teaches brotherhood, sacrifice and self-respect.

Answer the following questions

Question: 1. What is meant by Muwakhat?

Answer: Muwakhat is an Arabic word which means brotherhood. The bond of brotherhood which the Nabi Karim (PBUH) established in Madinah between the Muhajireen of Makkah and the Ansar of Madinah is called Muwakhat-e-Madinah. Through this bond, the Muhajireen and the Ansar became helpers of each other like real brothers.

Question: 2. What is meant by Muhajireen and Ansar?

Answer: Muhajireen are those Muslims who, fed up with the cruelties of the disbelievers of Makkah, left their homes and wealth and migrated to Madinah for the sake of Allah and His Rasool. Ansar are those Muslims of Madinah who helped the Muhajireen, gave them space in their homes and shared their wealth with them; "Ansar" means the helpers.

Question: 3. What method was adopted by the Nabi Karim (PBUH) to establish a support system between Muhajireen and Ansar?

Answer: The Nabi Karim (PBUH) adopted the method of Muwakhat: he made each Muhajir the brother of one Ansari. Under this bond, the Ansar shared their wealth, homes and land with the Muhajireen, and the housing, employment and needs of the Muhajireen were fulfilled. In this way both became partners in each other's joys and sorrows, and a strong Islamic society was established in Madinah.

Question: 4. Write about the sacrifices of Ansar regarding Muwakhat.

Answer: The Ansar made great sacrifices in Muwakhat: they shared their homes, gardens and lands with the Muhajireen, offered to give half of their wealth, and kept the Muhajireen like their own families. Hazrat Saad bin Rabi' offered half of his wealth to his Muhajir brother Hazrat Abdul Rehman bin Auf. Through these sacrifices of the Ansar, the economic problems of the Muhajireen came to an end.

مسجدِ نبوي

Activity — Write a brief note on the virtues and social significance of Masjid-e-Nabawi.

Question: (Activity) Write a note on the virtues and social significance of Masjid-e-Nabawi.

Answer: Virtue: The Nabi Karim (PBUH) said that one Namaz in my this Masjid carries more reward than a thousand Namaz in other Masjids, except Masjid-e-Haram. Social significance: Masjid-e-Nabawi was the centre of the Muslims; along with Namaz, teaching, consultation, decisions and the stay of guests were all arranged there. The Ashab-e-Suffah lived there and gained knowledge, so it also served as a school and a social centre.

Answer the following questions

Question: 1. What was the first order given by the Nabi Karim (PBUH) after his arrival in Madinah?

Answer: After arriving in Madinah, the first order given by the Nabi Karim (PBUH) was to build a Masjid. He selected the place where his camel had sat; that land belonged to two orphans, Sahal and Suhail. Its price was paid and the construction of Masjid-e-Nabawi was started, and he himself took part in the work along with the Companions.

Question: 2. What did the Nabi Karim (PBUH) say about the virtues of Masjid-e-Nabawi?

Answer: The Nabi Karim (PBUH) said that the reward of offering one Namaz in my this Masjid (Masjid-e-Nabawi) is more than offering a thousand Namaz in other Masjids, except Masjid-e-Haram (the Ka'bah).

Therefore, offering Namaz in Masjid-e-Nabawi is a deed of great virtue and reward.

Question: 3. What is meant by Suffah and Ashab-e-Suffah?

Answer: A platform was built on the northern side of Masjid-e-Nabawi, which was called "Suffah". The poor and needy Companions who lived there and gained knowledge from the Nabi Karim (PBUH) were called "Ashab-e-Suffah" (the Companions of the Platform). They remained busy day and night in worship and in gaining knowledge.

Question: 4. Describe the social significance of Masjid-e-Nabawi.

Answer: The social significance of Masjid-e-Nabawi was very great: it was the centre of the Muslims' worship, education and gatherings. The decisions and consultations of the state were made there, delegations and guests stayed there, and the Ashab-e-Suffah gained education there and spread out to preach Islam. In this way, Masjid-e-Nabawi was a place of worship as well as a school, a court and a social centre.

Activity — Students need to write down the important articles and significance of the Charter of Madinah and narrate it to each other.

Question: (Activity) Write the important articles and the significance of the Charter of Madinah.

Answer: Important articles: (i) all tribes will live in peace and harmony; (ii) in case of an attack by an external enemy, all will defend Madinah together and bear the costs of war collectively; (iii) every party will have religious freedom; (iv) the oppressed will be helped; (v) no party will give shelter to the Quraysh of Makkah; (vi) in case of a disagreement, the decision of the Nabi Karim (PBUH) will be binding on all. Significance: it was the first written agreement, which made Madinah a city of peace and laid the foundation of the Islamic state.

Answer the following questions

Question: 1. Explain the meaning of Charter of Madinah.

Answer: "Mithaq" is an Arabic word which means a charter, treaty, agreement or covenant. The Charter of Madinah (Mithaq-e-Madinah) is the agreement which the Nabi Karim (PBUH) concluded between the Muslims, the Jews and other tribes of Madinah to establish peace in the city and to make the new state strong and stable. This charter consisted of 54 articles.

Question: 2. How many Jewish tribes were settled in Madinah?

Answer: Three Jewish tribes were settled in Madinah: Banu Qainqa, Banu Nadhir and Banu Qurayzah. Besides them, the two Ansar tribes Banu Aws and Banu Khazraj and other tribes around Madinah also lived there, and the Charter of Madinah was made among all of them.

Question: 3. Which Ansar tribes were living in Madinah?

Answer: Two big tribes of the Ansar were living in Madinah: Banu Aws and Banu Khazraj. Both these tribes accepted Islam and became the helpers of the Muhajireen, so they are called "Ansar".

Question: 4. Write any five articles of the Charter of Madinah.

Answer: Five important articles of the Charter of Madinah are: (1) All the tribes will live in peace and harmony and will participate in establishing peace. (2) In case of an attack by an external enemy on Madinah, all will fight the enemy together and collectively bear the costs of the war. (3) All parties will recognise Madinah as "Haram" (a place of honour and peace) and will not cause any unrest in it. (4) Each party will have freedom of religion and there will be no interference in the religious affairs of any other party. (5) No party will give shelter to the Quraysh of Makkah, and in case of a disagreement, the decision of the Rasool-ul-Allah (PBUH) will be accepted by all.

Question: 5. Write any three benefits of the Charter of Madinah.

Answer: Three benefits of the Charter of Madinah are: (1) Through this agreement, the Nabi Karim (PBUH) became the head of the state of Madinah, and Madinah was declared the City of Peace, which ended all kinds of internal revolt and corruption. (2) People of different tribes and religions gathered under one banner, and getting the support of the Jews was a great political achievement. (3) Through this agreement, the defence of Madinah became stronger and the foundation of the Islamic state was laid.

Activity — Narrate the causes, events and results of the Battle of Uhud to each other.

Question: (Activity) Narrate the causes, events and results of the Battle of Uhud.

Answer: Causes: To take revenge for the defeat at Badr and the killing of their chiefs, the Quraysh came to Madinah with an army of three thousand. Events: The battle was fought at the foot of Mount Uhud on 7th Shawwal, 3 A.H.; in the beginning the Muslims prevailed, but most of the archers posted at the mountain pass disobeyed the order and left the pass, so Khalid bin Walid attacked from behind and the Muslims suffered a great loss; 70 Muslims were martyred and the Nabi Karim (PBUH) was also wounded. Results: The infidels returned without achieving their objective (eliminating the Muslims), the hypocrites were exposed, and the Muslims learnt the lesson of the importance of obedience.

Answer the following questions

Question: 1. State the causes of the Battle of Uhud.

Answer: The causes of the Battle of Uhud were: (i) In the Battle of Badr, 70 disbelievers of Makkah were killed and 70 were made captives, so the Quraysh wanted to take revenge from the Muslims. (ii) The tribes sympathetic to the Makkans also provoked them to take revenge and promised to support them. (iii) The Quraysh were the custodians of the Ka'bah in Arabia; the defeat at Badr destroyed their honour, so to restore their dignity they considered it necessary to launch a big attack on the Muslims.

Question: 2. Which advice did the Nabi Karim (PBUH) accept in Masjid-e-Nabawi about the Battle of Uhud?

Answer: The Nabi Karim (PBUH) and the senior Companions were of the opinion that they should stay inside the city and defend it, but the young Companions advised going out of the city and fighting the enemy. Seeing the young people's passion for Jihad, the Nabi Karim (PBUH) accepted their advice and set out for Uhud with the army.

Question: 3. Who was leading the army of the infidels of Makkah during the Battle of Uhud?

Answer: During the Battle of Uhud, the army of three thousand infidels of Makkah was led by Abu Sufyan, who had not yet converted to Islam. This army had 200 horses and 3000 camels, and it encamped near Mount Uhud on 6th Shawwal, 3 A.H.

Question: 4. How many archers were appointed by the Nabi Karim (PBUH) at the mountain pass?

Answer: The Nabi Karim (PBUH) appointed 50 archers at the mountain pass of Uhud (Jabal Rumaat) under the leadership of Hazrat Abdullah bin Jubayr Ansari (R.A.) and strictly instructed them not to leave this pass until told, whether the Muslims won or lost. Later, most of the archers left the pass due to a misunderstanding, which changed the course of the battle.

Question: 5. Which woman participated practically in the Battle of Uhud and got injured?

Answer: Hazrat Umme Amara (R.A.) participated practically in the Battle of Uhud; she defended the Nabi Karim (PBUH) with the sword and received 12 wounds. Besides her, Hazrat Aisha, Umme Saleet, Umme Aiman and Umme Sulaim (R.A.) kept providing water to the wounded soldiers.

Activity — Students need to write down, in their note books, the causes and results of the Battle of Trench and the number of Muslims and infidels' armies.

Question: (Activity) Write the causes, results and the number of armies in the Battle of Trench.

Answer: Causes: After the defeat of Badr and the undecided battle of Uhud, the infidels allied together to take revenge and attacked Madinah, and the trade of the Makkans had also come into danger. Numbers: The combined army of the infidels was ten thousand (four thousand from Makkah alone under Abu Sufyan), while the Muslims were 3000. Results: After about a month's siege, a stormy wind and shortage of supplies, the infidels returned unsuccessful; the power of the Quraysh was broken and after this they did not have the courage to attack Madinah.

Answer the following questions

Question: 1. Describe the meanings of "Trench" and "Allies".

Answer: "Khandaq" (Trench) means a ditch — a long and deep ditch dug for the defence of a city. In this battle the Muslims dug a trench around Madinah, so it is called Ghazwa-e-Khandaq (Battle of Trench). "Ahzab" means groups or allied parties; in this battle many tribes and groups of infidels allied together against the Muslims, so it is also called Ghazwa-e-Ahzab (Battle of Allies).

Question: 2. Where was the Battle of Trench fought?

Answer: The Battle of Trench was fought at Madinah. On three sides of Madinah there were mountains, houses and gardens; only the northern side was an open field, so a trench 3.5 miles long was dug on that side and the battle took place around this trench. This battle took place in Shawwal, 5 A.H.

Question: 3. Which of the Companions of the Nabi Karim (PBUH) advised to dig a trench?

Answer: Hazrat Salman Farsi (R.A.) advised to dig a trench. He told that in Persia (Iran), trenches were dug for the defence of cities. Everyone liked this opinion and the Nabi Karim (PBUH) also adopted it; he himself took part in the digging and the trench was completed within a week.

Question: 4. What were the causes of the Battle of Trench?

Answer: The causes of the Battle of Trench were: (i) After the defeat of Badr and the indecisive battle of Uhud, the infidels were restless and wanted to fight a decisive war for revenge, so they gathered under the banner of Abu Sufyan. (ii) The trade of the Makkans with Syria was already under threat, and after the Muslims' control over the trade region of Najd and Iraq, it became necessary for them to take extreme measures against the Muslims.

Activity — Students need to organise a speech competition in their class about the fulfilment of promise.

Question: (Activity) Write the main points for a speech about the fulfilment of promise.

Answer: Main points of the speech: (i) the meaning of a promise and its wide meaning in Islam; (ii) the Quranic command: "O you people who have believed! Fulfil your promises"; (iii) the example of the Nabi Karim (PBUH), who declared breaking a promise a sign of hypocrisy; (iv) the benefits of keeping promises: people's trust in each other, and peace and honesty in society; (v) conclusion: to become good Muslims and reliable citizens, we should always keep our promises.

Answer the following questions

Question: 1. State the purpose of keeping a promise.

Answer: The purpose of keeping a promise is that whatever statement, word or oath is made to someone should be fulfilled. Through it, trust is established among people, an atmosphere of truth and honesty is created in society, and a person is known as a good Muslim and a responsible citizen. Whether the promise is made to Allah and His Rasool, to people, or to an organisation, it must be fulfilled in every case.

Question: 2. Who was the person who fulfilled all the promises?

Answer: The Nabi Karim (PBUH) was the great person who fulfilled all the promises in his life. He was so famous for keeping his promises that even his enemies admitted this virtue of his. While leaving for the Battle of Badr, he stopped Hazrat Hudhayfah and his father from joining the battle because of the promise they had made to Abu Jahl, and said: "Fulfil what you have promised; we will pray for help from Allah against them."

Question: 3. Explain the importance of keeping promises in Islam.

Answer: Keeping promises has great importance in Islam: Allah Almighty has commanded again and again in the Holy Quran to fulfil promises, and He has declared keeping promises one of His own attributes. The Nabi Karim (PBUH) said: "He who does not keep his promise has no faith", and he declared breaking promises a sign of hypocrisy. On the Day of Judgement, a person will also be questioned about his promises, so fulfilling promises is obligatory upon every Muslim.

Question: 4. What did Abu Sufyan (R.A.) say in the court of the Roman Emperor Caesar about the Nabi Karim (PBUH)?

Answer: When Abu Sufyan (who had not yet accepted Islam and was an opponent of the Nabi Karim (PBUH)) appeared in the court of the Roman Emperor Caesar, Caesar asked whether Muhammad (PBUH) kept his promises or not. Abu Sufyan replied: "He does not break promises." This is a great testimony about the promise-keeping of the Nabi Karim (PBUH) from the mouth of an opponent.

Tick (✓) the correct answer

11. The Nabi Karim (PBUH) declared that breaking the promise is a sign of:

(a) Disbelief

✓ (b) Hypocrisy

(c) Sinfulness

(d) Belief

12. The Nabi Karim (PBUH) instructed the following companions to fulfil their promise with Abu Jahl regarding their participation in the war:

13. The Nabi Karim (PBUH) stated that he has no faith who:

(a) Does not fulfil his promise

(b) Does not offer his Namaz

Activity — Present a role play on the topic of forgiveness and forbearance under the supervision of your teacher.

Question: (Activity) Describe an incident for a role play about forgiveness and forbearance.

Answer: In the role play, present the incident of the conquest of Makkah: the people of Makkah had committed many cruelties against the Nabi Karim (PBUH) and the Muslims, but when Makkah was conquered, the Nabi Karim (PBUH), despite having power and authority, granted a general pardon to all of them and did not think of any revenge. This incident teaches that forgiving despite having power is the greatest quality of a human being.

Answer the following questions

Question: 1. Explain the meaning of forgiveness.

Answer: Forgiveness means to be merciful and not to take revenge. It is explained as: to forgive the mistakes and faults of the people and not to take revenge from them for your own sake despite having power and authority to do so. Forgiveness is included in good manners, and it is also an attribute of Allah Almighty.

Question: 2. Write down the translation of an Ayat from the Quran about forgiveness.

Answer: Ayat (Surah Al-Nisa: 43): "Indeed, Allah is the Most Pardoning, Often Forgiving." This Ayat shows that forgiveness is a great attribute of Allah Almighty, so we too should forgive the mistakes of others.

Question: 3. What is meant by forbearance?

Answer: Forbearance means patience. It is explained as: to bear people's ignorance, unnecessary harshness and their offensive words with courage, and not to take personal revenge from them despite having the power and authority to do so. A forbearing person controls his anger and replies to harsh words in a gentle manner.

Question: 4. Give an example of forbearance from the life of the Nabi Karim (PBUH).

Answer: When the Nabi Karim (PBUH) went to Taif, the people there threw stones at him and he was injured, to the extent that his blessed shoes were filled with blood. On this occasion, the angel of the mountains came and said that if you give the order, I will crush the town of Taif between the two mountains. But the Nabi Karim (PBUH) acted with forbearance and forgiveness and said: "I hope that people of faith will be born from their generations." This is the best example of his forbearance.

Question: 5. Explain the benefits of forgiveness and forbearance.

Answer: The benefits of forgiveness and forbearance are: through them, love and brotherhood increase in society, enmities and quarrels come to an end and peace is established. The person who forgives gains honour in this world and attains the pleasure of Allah and success in the Hereafter. These qualities are a great quality of a human being and a sign of human dignity.

Activity — Students need to write a five-line essay on the topic of tolerance in nice handwriting and present it to the class.

Question: (Activity) Write a five-line essay on the topic of tolerance.

Answer: Tolerance means to bear the beliefs, opinions and thoughts of others with patience and to treat them with kindness. Islam is a religion of tolerance and forbids forcing anyone in the matter of religion. The Nabi Karim (PBUH) always treated non-Muslims with tolerance and kindness. Through tolerance, peace, love and brotherhood are established in society. Therefore, we should respect the people of all religions and sects living in Pakistan.

Answer the following questions

Question: 1. Write down the meaning of tolerance.

Answer: Tolerance means to bear, to endure, to accept and to allow. It means to tolerate the beliefs, opinions and ideas of others against your own with patience, to treat them with kindness, and to give them the right to live according to their own thoughts and beliefs. To force a person to follow a belief other than his own belief is against tolerance.

Question: 2. Write down the meaning of an Ayat of the Quran related to tolerance.

Answer: Ayat (Surah Al-Baqarah: 256): "There is no compulsion in religion." Meaning: no human being can be forced to become a Muslim or to leave his religion; everyone has the freedom to live according to his own belief. In another Ayat (Surah Al-Kafiroon: 6) it is stated: "To you be your religion and to me my religion."

Question: 3. How did the Nabi Karim (PBUH) treat the Christian delegation of Najran?

Answer: When a delegation of Christian scholars and leaders from Najran came to meet the Nabi Karim (PBUH), he accommodated them in Masjid-e-Nabawi and treated them with great hospitality. Since it was Sunday, the Christians wanted to perform worship according to their Christian beliefs and practices, so the Nabi Karim (PBUH) allowed them to worship in his own Masjid. This is a great example of his tolerance.

Question: 4. Which rights were given by Hazrat Abu Bakr (R.A.) and Hazrat Umar (R.A.) to Dhimmis (non-Muslims living in an Islamic state under protection)?

Answer: During the reign of the Rightly Guided Caliphs, the Dhimmis were given these rights in writing: (i) they will have religious freedom and their places of worship and monasteries will be protected; (ii) no pressure shall be imposed on them in respect of faith and religion; (iii) their forts and strongholds will not be damaged; (iv) their lives and properties will be protected; (v) their disabled and deprived people will be supported from Bait-ul-Mal (the public treasury), and Jizya (government tax) will not be taken from their poor and deprived ones.

Activity — Write the Ayat وَمَا أَرْسَلْنَاكَ إِلَّا رَحْمَةً لِّلْعَالَمِينَ with its translation in a neat and clean manner and show it to your teacher.

Question: (Activity) Write the translation of the Ayat "وَمَا أَرْسَلْنَاكَ إِلَّا رَحْمَةً لِّلْعَالَمِينَ".

Answer: Translation: "And (O Prophet!) We have not sent you but as a Mercy for the worlds." (Surah Al-Ambiya: 107) This Ayat tells us that the Nabi Karim (PBUH) is a mercy not only for the Muslims but for every creature of the whole universe.

Answer the following questions

Question: 1. What is meant by mercy?

Answer: Mercy means treating Allah's creatures with gentleness, love and compassion and practically giving them all kinds of sympathy and help, whether it is physically, financially or morally. Allah Almighty is the Most Compassionate and the Most Merciful, and He demands from His servants that they adopt a merciful attitude towards His creation.

Question: 2. Write down the meaning of any Hadith of the Nabi Karim (PBUH) related to mercy.

Answer: Hadith: "Have mercy on those on earth, the One in heaven (Allah) will have mercy on you." Meaning: whoever shows mercy to Allah's creation in this world, Allah Almighty also shows mercy to him; and in another Hadith: "He who does not show mercy to others will not be shown mercy."

Question: 3. State any example of the Nabi Karim's (PBUH) mercy.

Answer: Once a Companion picked up a baby bird, and the mother bird started circling over his head in distress. When the Nabi Karim (PBUH) came to know about the distress of the mother bird, he immediately instructed the Companion to put the baby bird back in its nest. This incident shows how merciful the Nabi Karim (PBUH) was even towards animals and birds.

Question: 4. What did Allah Almighty say about the mercy of the Companions (R.A.)?

Answer: About the mercy of the Companions, Allah Almighty said in Surah Al-Fath (verse 29): "They are kind-hearted and merciful amongst themselves." The Companions treated each other with love, kindness and compassion; the wealthy Companions used to help the poor Companions with their wealth and tried to surpass each other in goodness and kindness.

Activity — Students need to present a role play in front of their teachers on the topic of frugality.

Question: (Activity) Describe an example for a role play about frugality.

Answer: In the role play, show two friends: one is extravagant, who spends all his money on useless things at the start of the month and then goes around asking others for loans; the other is frugal, who spends according to his need, saves something, and even helps his friend in difficult times. This example teaches that frugality brings honour and peace, while extravagance brings disgrace and worry.

Answer the following questions

Question: 1. What is meant by frugality?

Answer: Frugality means to spend wealth according to the needs while avoiding extravagancy and unnecessary spending of wealth. It refers to the careful management of material resources, especially money. It is a moral quality which makes a person wealthy and peaceful, and it saves him from debt and from begging from others.

Question: 2. Explain miserliness.

Answer: Miserliness is the opposite of frugality; it means being so stingy in spending money that even legitimate needs are not met. A miser does not fulfil even the lawful needs of himself and his family. Miserliness is itself a bad trait and is the root of many other evils such as betrayal, dishonesty, cruelty and greed, and Islam dislikes it.

Question: 3. Explain the attribute of extravagance.

Answer: Extravagance means wasteful and unnecessary spending of wealth. An extravagant person spends beyond the limit and without need, due to which he suffers financial hardship. Then he adopts illegal means to earn his sustenance and indulges in sinful acts. Allah Almighty does not like the extravagant, and they are condemned in the Holy Quran.

Question: 4. Write a Hadith of the Nabi Karim (PBUH) about moderation and balance.

Answer: Hadith: "The best work is that which is based on moderation." Meaning: adopting the middle path in every matter is the best; neither miserliness should be practised nor extravagance. Islam teaches moderation and balance in every matter.

Question: 5. Write the meaning of any Quranic Ayat about frugality.

Answer: Ayat (Surah A'raaf: 31): "Eat and drink, but do not spend extravagantly, because certainly He does not like the extravagant." Meaning: it is lawful to use the blessings of Allah, but wasting them and spending beyond the limit is disliked by Allah. In another Ayat (Surah Al-Furqan: 67), the quality of Allah's special servants is described: when they spend, they are neither extravagant nor miserly, and their spending is a balance between the two extremes.

Tick (✓) the correct answer

1. Frugality means:

(a) Extravagance

(b) Miserliness

(c) To spend wealth without any need

✓ (d) To spend wealth according to the need

2. Islam's view about extravagant people:

✓ (a) It condemns them

(b) It praises them

(c) It appreciates them

(d) It promotes brotherhood

3. Opposite of frugality:

(a) Honesty

(b) Truthfulness

(c) Faithfulness

Fill in the blanks

1. By adopting frugality, a person can spend a great _____.

Answer: good life of honour and peace and does not remain needy of anyone.

2. Islam praises those who spend with moderation.

3. Extravagance may instigate a person to indulge in _____.

Answer: turn towards unlawful and illegal means.

Tick (✓) the right answer and cross (✗) the wrong answer

✓ 1. Islam teaches a person to be moderate and balanced in each and every matter.

✗ 2. A person who adopts moderation remains destitute.

✗ 3. Frugality means miserliness and extravagance.

✓ 4. Islam does not like miserliness and stinginess.

Activity — Students need to present a play about brotherhood.

Question: (Activity) Describe an example for a play about brotherhood.

Answer: In the play, present the scene of Muwakhat-e-Madinah: an Ansari Companion welcomes his Muhajir brother into his home, offers half of his wealth and garden, and makes him a member of his family. The Muhajir brother thanks him and prefers to earn through hard work. This example teaches that Islamic brotherhood is not just a verbal claim but the name of practical sacrifice.

Answer the following questions

Question: 1. State the meaning of Islamic brotherhood.

Answer: Islamic brotherhood means that all Muslims, regardless of colour, race, language and country, are brothers of one another. In Arabic, the word "Ukhuwwat" is used for brotherhood. Allah Almighty states: "The Muslims are brothers to one another." This brotherhood is based on faith and makes respect and help of every Muslim obligatory upon another Muslim.

Question: 2. Write down the translation of a Quranic Ayat related to brotherhood.

Answer: Ayat (Surah Al-Hujrat: 10): "Indeed, the believers are brothers to one another." In another Ayat (Surah Al-Tauba: 71) it is stated: "The believers, men and women, are helpers and friends of one another." These Ayaat tell us that all the believers are brothers and companions of one another.

Question: 3. Explain the importance of Islamic brotherhood.

Answer: The importance of Islamic brotherhood is that it created unity and harmony among Muslims. Islam not only gave teachings about the bond of brotherhood but also gave such orders which promote unity among Muslims: all Muslims read a single Kalimah, they offer Namaz five times a day in congregation, they fast together in Ramadan, Zakat has been made obligatory on the rich for the poor, and in Hajj Muslims from all over the world are seen together at one place. All these orders and commands create unity and harmony among the Muslims and are clear examples of the unity of the Islamic nation.

Question: 4. Write down the benefits of Islamic brotherhood.

Answer: The benefits of Islamic brotherhood are: it creates love, compassion, benevolence and self-sacrifice among the Muslims. The principle of brotherhood promotes respect for other Muslims; due to this relationship, Muslims take part in each other's sufferings and help them, which increases love and makes society strong.

Question: 5. How do Islamic worships and Namaz strengthen the relationship of Islamic brotherhood?

Answer: Islamic worships strengthen brotherhood in this way: by offering the five daily prayers in congregation, Muslims gather in the masjid five times a day and the rich and the poor stand equal in one row. Through Zakat, the right of the poor comes out of the wealth of the rich and hearts are connected. The fasts of Ramadan give everyone the same experience, and in Hajj, Muslims of the whole world gather at one place in one dress and practically demonstrate brotherhood.

Activity — Students should recite from the Holy Quran, one after the other, in front of the teacher while taking care of the manners of reciting it, and practically demonstrate the manners of recitation.

Question: (Activity) How should the manners of recitation be practically demonstrated? Describe.

Answer: For the practical demonstration, a student should first perform Wudu and sit at a clean place facing the Qiblah. Then, after reciting Ta'awwuz and Tasmiyah, he should recite slowly, distinctly and in a pleasant voice with Tajweed. During the recitation he should avoid talking and take care of the Rumooz-e-Awqaaf (where to stop and where to continue). The other students should listen silently and attentively.

Answer the following questions

Question: 1. State the meanings of the word "Quran".

Answer: Quran means "the book which is read the most". As this book is read the most of all books, hence it is named as the Quran. The Holy Quran is the last divine book of Allah and is the source of guidance for all human beings.

Question: 2. How long did it take for the Holy Quran to be revealed?

Answer: The Holy Quran was revealed to the Nabi Karim (PBUH) through Hazrat Jibreel (A.S.) gradually over a period of about 23 years. Allah Almighty has Himself taken the responsibility of protecting it, so despite the passage of more than fourteen hundred years, it is preserved in its original form without any change.

Question: 3. Write down any three manners of recitation of the Quran.

Answer: Three manners of recitation are: (1) It is very important to be neat, clean and purified (with Wudu) before touching the Quran, and recitation should be done while sitting at a clean and purified place. (2) Before starting the recitation, it is necessary to read Ta'awwuz (A'uzu billahi minash-shaytanir-rajeem) and Tasmiyah (Bismillah-ir-Rahman-ir-Rahim). (3) Recitation should be done slowly and distinctly with serenity and contentment, in a beautiful and pleasant voice, and it is not appropriate to talk during the recitation.

Question: 4. What is meant by Ta'awwuz and Tasmiyah?

Answer: Ta'awwuz means reciting "A'uzu billahi minash-shaytanir-rajeem", i.e. seeking Allah's refuge from the accursed Satan. Tasmiyah means reciting "Bismillah-ir-Rahman-ir-Rahim", i.e. beginning in the name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful. Reciting both before starting the recitation is among the manners of recitation.
