Sindhi

Class 6 (English Medium)

Solved Exercises — Sindh Textbook Board

27 lessons — 309 questions

The Greatness of God

Question: (a) 1. Which qualities of Allah Almighty are described in this verse?

Answer: In the verse, Allah Almighty is described as the First, the All-Knowing, the Highest, the Knower of the world, the Powerful, the Ever-Enduring, the Worthy of praise, the Wise and the Generous Creator, who made the pairs of the whole world.

Question: (a) 2. By which names does the poet remember God?

Answer: The poet remembers God by names such as Aleem, Aala, Qadir, Qadeem, Wali, Wahid, Raziq, Rabb, Raheem, Hakeem and Kareem.

Question: (a) 3. Who made this world?

Answer: Allah Almighty made this world; all the pairs of the world are made by Him.

Question: (b) 1. Write the meaning of the word: Aleem

Answer: Aleem: the One who knows everything.

Question: (b) 2. Write the meaning of the word: Aalam

Answer: Aalam: the world, the universe.

Question: (b) 3. Write the meaning of the word: Raziq

Answer: Raziq: the One who gives sustenance.

Question: (b) 4. Write the meaning of the word: Hakeem

Answer: Hakeem: the Wise, the sagacious.

Question: (c) 1. Fill in the blank part of the first line of the verse.

Answer: Aala, Aalam jo Dhani

Question: (c) 2. Fill in the blank part of the second line of the verse (the part before the Raziq line).

Answer: Wali Wahid Wahdahu,

Question: (c) 3. Fill in the blank part of the third line of the verse (the part before the Hamd line).

Answer: So Saraah Sacho Dhani,

Question: (c) 4. Fill in the blank part of the last line of the verse.

Answer: Joroon Jor Jhan ji.

The Prophet's (PBUH) Conduct with Enemies

Question: (a) 1. Why did the people of Arabia become enemies of the Holy Prophet (PBUH)?

Answer: Because the Holy Prophet (PBUH) conveyed to them the message of Allah and called them towards Islam; therefore the people of Arabia became his enemies and began giving him all kinds of troubles.

Question: (a) 2. What did the old woman do every day?

Answer: Every day the old woman threw rubbish and dirt on the path by which the Holy Prophet (PBUH) used to pass.

Question: (a) 3. Why did the Holy Prophet (PBUH) go to the old woman's house?

Answer: One day no rubbish was thrown on the path, so the Holy Prophet (PBUH) thought that the old woman had fallen ill, and therefore he went to her house to inquire about her health.

Question: (a) 4. What made the old woman feel ashamed?

Answer: The love and sympathy of the Holy Prophet (PBUH) made the old woman feel ashamed; she felt ashamed of her own daily bad conduct.

Question: (a) 5. What effect did the noble character of the Holy Prophet (PBUH) have on the old woman?

Answer: The noble character of the Holy Prophet (PBUH) had such an effect that the old woman at once recited the Kalima and became a Muslim.

Question: (b) 1. Write the opposite of the word: enemy

Answer: Opposite of enemy: friend.

Question: (b) 2. Write the opposite of the word: bad

Answer: Opposite of bad: good.

Question: (b) 3. Write the opposite of the word: old (woman)

Answer: Opposite of old: young.

Question: (b) 4. Write the opposite of the word: ill

Answer: Opposite of ill: healthy.

Question: (b) 5. Write the opposite of the word: going

Answer: Opposite of going: coming.

Question: (b) 6. Write the opposite of the word: love

Answer: Opposite of love: hatred.

Question: (c) 1. Use the word in a sentence: message

Answer: The teacher gave us the message of truth.

Question: (c) 2. Use the word in a sentence: enemy

Answer: A good person behaves well even with an enemy.

Question: (c) 3. Use the word in a sentence: rubbish

Answer: We should not throw rubbish on the road.

Question: (c) 4. Use the word in a sentence: at once

Answer: Hearing the news, he at once ran towards home.

Question: (c) 5. Use the word in a sentence: sympathy

Answer: In difficult times we should show sympathy to friends.

Question: (c) 6. Use the word in a sentence: shame

Answer: He felt shame at his own mistake.

Question: (c) 7. Use the word in a sentence: character

Answer: Good character is the greatest quality of a human being.

Question: (c) 8. Use the word in a sentence: Kalima

Answer: The old woman recited the Kalima and became a Muslim.

Naat

Question: (a) 1. What light spread with the coming of the Noble Prophet (PBUH)?

Answer: With the coming of the Noble Prophet (PBUH), light spread in every direction; he came as a lamp of truth which lit up the whole world.

Question: (a) 2. Who granted man the greatness of being human?

Answer: The Noble Prophet (PBUH) granted man the greatness of being human and removed the burden of sorrows from hearts.

Question: (b) 1. Write the meaning of the word: Hamsari

Answer: Hamsari: equality, rivalry.

Question: (b) 2. Write the meaning of the word: Bartari

Answer: Bartari: superiority, excellence, being higher.

Question: (b) 3. Write the meaning of the word: Aamad

Answer: Aamad: coming, arrival.

Question: (b) 4. Write the meaning of the word: Kon-o-Makan

Answer: Kon-o-Makan: the whole universe, the entire world.

Question: (c) 1. Write the opposite of the word: bad

Answer: Opposite of bad: good.

Question: (c) 2. Write the opposite of the word: cheap/low

Answer: Opposite of cheap/low: expensive/high.

Question: (c) 3. Write the opposite of the word: light

Answer: Opposite of light: darkness.

Question: (c) 4. Write the opposite of the word: sorrows

Answer: Opposite of sorrows: joys.

Greed Is a Bad Evil

Question: (a) 1. How did the farmer earn his living?

Answer: The farmer was poor; he earned his livelihood by working in other people's fields and returned home in the evening.

Question: (a) 2. How did the farmer become rich?

Answer: The farmer bought a goose which laid a golden egg every day; he became rich by selling the eggs.

Question: (a) 3. What did the wife think in order to earn much at one time?

Answer: The wife thought that instead of waiting for one egg every day, the goose's belly should be cut open and all the gold taken out at once.

Question: (a) 4. How did the farmer feel after cutting open the goose's belly?

Answer: The farmer felt deep regret, because the goose died and nothing came out of its belly; greed ruined him.

Question: (a) 5. Why is greed called a bad calamity?

Answer: Because greed makes a person lose even what he already has; in his greed the farmer lost both the goose and the daily gold.

Question: (b) 1. Write the opposite of the word: poor

Answer: Opposite of poor: rich.

Question: (b) 2. Write the opposite of the word: early morning

Answer: Opposite of early morning: late / evening.

Question: (b) 3. Write the opposite of the word: ruined

Answer: Opposite of ruined: flourishing.

Question: (b) 4. Write the opposite of the word: outside

Answer: Opposite of outside: inside.

Question: (b) 5. Write the opposite of the word: here

Answer: Opposite of here: there.

Question: (c) 1. Identify singular and plural: karo (black)

Answer: Karo is singular; plural: kara.

Question: (c) 2. Identify singular and plural: aana (eggs)

Answer: Aana is plural; singular: aano (egg).

Question: (c) 3. Identify singular and plural: bazaroon (markets)

Answer: Bazaroon is plural; singular: bazar (market).

Question: (c) 4. Identify singular and plural: shay (thing)

Answer: Shay is singular; plural: shayoon (things).

Question: (c) 5. Identify singular and plural: raat (night)

Answer: Raat is singular; plural: raatiyoon (nights).

Question: (d) Write the names of any eight birds.

Answer: Crow, sparrow, pigeon, parrot, peacock, koel, hawk, owl.

Thatta

Question: (a) 1. Which historical places are there in Thatta?

Answer: In Thatta there are the Shah Jahan Mosque, the tombs and shrines on the Makli hill, and many other old buildings and monuments.

Question: (a) 2. Why is the Shah Jahan Mosque famous?

Answer: The Shah Jahan Mosque is famous for its hundred domes and its beautiful coloured tile-work; it is also called the mosque of a hundred domes.

Question: (a) 3. Why is Makli famous?

Answer: Makli is famous for the tombs and shrines of many kings, nobles, nawabs and saints, and for the fine carving done on stone.

Question: (a) 4. Why is Thatta famous in the world?

Answer: Thatta is famous in the world because it remained the capital of Sindh for about four hundred years and remained a centre of knowledge, literature and Islamic learning.

Question: (b) 1. Fill in the blank: By how many domes is the Shah Jahan Mosque also known?

Answer: The Shah Jahan Mosque is also called the mosque of a hundred domes.

Question: (b) 2. Fill in the blank: For how many years did Thatta remain the capital of Sindh?

Answer: Thatta remained the capital of Sindh for about four hundred years.

Question: (b) 3. Fill in the blank: Near Natti, there is a hill by which name?

Answer: Near Natti, there is a hill by the name of Makli.

Question: (c) 1. Pick out the nouns from the given sentences (first sentence: about Thatta being an ancient city).

Answer: Nouns of the first sentence: Thatta, the Sindh River, city.

Question: (c) 2. Pick out the nouns from the given sentences (second sentence: about the tombs and shrines on Makli).

Answer: Nouns of the second sentence: Makli, kings, nobles, elders, tombs, shrines.

Civic Awareness

Question: (a) 1. What is the general meaning of "citizen"?

Answer: The general meaning of citizen is: a resident of a city.

Question: (a) 2. What is the special meaning of "citizen"?

Answer: The special meaning of citizen is: a resident of a country; just as we are residents of Pakistan, therefore we are Pakistani citizens.

Question: (a) 3. When does one benefit from the things heard?

Answer: One benefits from the things heard when we act upon them; merely hearing them brings no benefit.

Question: (a) 4. What are the duties of a good citizen?

Answer: The duties of a good citizen are: to love one's country, to respect the feelings of the people of the country, to use one's vote correctly, to obey the laws of the country, and to pay the country's tax. His rights are: protection of life and property, facility of education, medical treatment, employment, and the right to vote.

Question: (a) 5. How can a good citizen assess his own qualities and abilities?

Answer: A good citizen can assess his own qualities and abilities through self-awareness.

Question: (a) 6. What is self-awareness?

Answer: Self-awareness is the process in which a person becomes aware of his own personality, feelings, attitudes, qualities and faults, and tries to give purpose to his life and to gain self-respect.

Question: (b) 1. Use the word in a sentence: awareness

Answer: Without civic awareness a country cannot progress.

Question: (b) 2. Use the word in a sentence: resident

Answer: We are residents of this city.

Question: (b) 3. Use the word in a sentence: organisation-building

Answer: Through organisation-building, people can together solve their problems.

Question: (b) 4. Use the word in a sentence: duty

Answer: Obeying the laws of the country is the duty of every citizen.

Question: (b) 5. Use the word in a sentence: citizen

Answer: Every citizen should use his vote correctly.

Question: (b) 6. Use the word in a sentence: tax

Answer: A good citizen pays the country's tax on time.

Question: (b) 7. Use the word in a sentence: self-respect

Answer: Self-awareness helps a person gain self-respect.

Hazrat Umar bin Abdul Aziz

Question: (a) 1. To which family did Hazrat Umar bin Abdul Aziz belong?

Answer: Hazrat Umar bin Abdul Aziz belonged to the Banu Umayya family.

Question: (a) 2. How did he live before becoming Caliph?

Answer: Before becoming Caliph he lived a life of utmost comfort and luxury; he spent much on his comfort and luxury.

Question: (a) 3. Why did Hazrat Umar bin Abdul Aziz call the noble?

Answer: He called the noble so that he might be appointed the governor of a country.

Question: (a) 4. What did the noble see when he reached the Caliph?

Answer: When the noble arrived, he saw that the Caliph was sitting and playing with his children and living a simple life.

Question: (a) 5. What did the noble say about playing with the children?

Answer: The noble said: "Sir! Pardon my rudeness! You are the ruler of the country, so how do you play with children?" And then he went back.

Question: (a) 6. What answer did he give to the noble?

Answer: He said: A person who has no love for his own children, how will he treat the public! To hope for comfort for the public from a man like you is useless. Go back; we have no need of you.

Question: (b) 1. Write the opposite of the word: rich

Answer: Opposite of rich: poor.

Question: (b) 2. Write the opposite of the word: simple

Answer: Opposite of simple: splendid.

Question: (b) 3. Write the opposite of the word: subjects

Answer: Opposite of subjects: ruler.

Question: (b) 4. Write the opposite of the word: useless

Answer: Opposite of useless: necessary / useful.

Question: (b) 5. Write the opposite of the word: comfort

Answer: Opposite of comfort: suffering.

Question: (b) 6. Write the opposite of the word: good

Answer: Opposite of good: bad.

Question: (c) 1. Write the meaning of the word: family

Answer: Family: household, clan.

Question: (c) 2. Write the meaning of the word: comfort

Answer: Comfort: ease, rest.

Question: (c) 3. Write the meaning of the word: change

Answer: Change: alteration, transformation.

Question: (c) 4. Write the meaning of the word: ruler

Answer: Ruler: governor, sovereign.

Question: (c) 5. Write the meaning of the word: conduct

Answer: Conduct: behaviour, treatment.

Hard Work

Question: (a) 1. What does a person gain by hard work?

Answer: By hard work a person gains success, progress, prosperity and peace; hard work itself is the key to success and the way to reach the destination.

Question: (a) 2. What does the poet mean by "songs of progress"?

Answer: The poet means that hard work itself sings the songs of progress, that is, progress and prosperity are produced only by hard work.

Question: (a) 3. What happens when a person works hard?

Answer: When a person works hard, he becomes prosperous, is saved from sorrows, his life passes in comfort, he remains dependent on no one, and lives with honour as a self-respecting person.

Question: (b) 1. Write the meaning of the word: songs

Answer: Songs: melodies, tunes.

Question: (b) 2. Write the meaning of the word: reaching

Answer: Reaching: conveying, arrival.

Question: (b) 3. Write the meaning of the word: prosperity

Answer: Prosperity: a state of comfort and well-being.

Question: (b) 4. Write the meaning of the word: comfort

Answer: Comfort: ease, peace.

Question: (b) 5. Write the meaning of the word: needy

Answer: Needy: dependent, one who relies on another.

Question: (b) 6. Write the meaning of the word: self-respecting

Answer: Self-respecting: dignified, self-reliant.

Question: (b) 7. Write the meaning of the word: honour

Answer: Honour: dignity, respect.

Question: (c) Fill in the blanks of the couplet about the key to success.

Answer: Answers for the blanks: (1) aahi ahai (2) rasaai thee mehnat.

Question: (d) 1. Identify singular and plural: progress

Answer: Progress is singular; plural: progressions/developments.

Question: (d) 2. Identify singular and plural: key

Answer: Key is singular; plural: keys.

Question: (d) 3. Identify singular and plural: destinations

Answer: Destinations is plural; singular: destination.

Question: (d) 4. Identify singular and plural: songs

Answer: Songs is plural; singular: song.

Question: (d) 5. Identify singular and plural: age/life

Answer: Age is singular; plural: ages/lives.

Question: (d) 6. Identify singular and plural: hand

Answer: Hand is singular; plural: hands.

Khan Bahadur Hassan Ali Effendi

Question: (a) 1. Where was Hassan Ali Effendi born?

Answer: Hassan Ali Effendi was born in Hyderabad in 1830, in a respectable family.

Question: (a) 2. What steps did he take for the educational progress of Muslims?

Answer: He thought about the educational progress of Muslims, founded an association for it, and in 1885 founded Sindh Madrasatul Islam in Karachi, from where many Muslims received education.

Question: (a) 3. What is his memorial in Karachi?

Answer: His memorial in Karachi is Sindh Madrasatul Islam, which was founded in 1885 and remains established to this day.

Question: (a) 4. Who gave him the title "Effendi" and why?

Answer: The Sultan of Turkey gave him the title "Effendi" for his services to Turkey; he had collected funds for the Turkish soldiers in the Greek-Turkish war and served Turkey.

Question: (b) 1. Give singular and plural: mund (wish)

Answer: Mund is singular; plural: mundoon.

Question: (b) 2. Give singular and plural: wish

Answer: Wish is singular; plural: wishes.

Question: (b) 3. Give singular and plural: patoran (to strive)

Answer: Patoran is the infinitive of a verb; singular/plural does not apply to it.

Question: (b) 4. Give singular and plural: monthly

Answer: Monthly is an adjective (of the month); singular/plural does not apply to it.

Question: (b) 5. Give singular and plural: association

Answer: Association is singular; plural: associations.

Festivals of Sindh

Question: (a) 1. What role do the fairs of Sindh play in acquainting people with the culture of Sindh?

Answer: The fairs of Sindh acquaint people with the culture of Sindh and play an important role in that work.

Question: (a) 2. Who reads papers at the literary conference?

Answer: The country's renowned writers and scholars read papers at the literary conference.

Question: (a) 3. What great importance does meeting at the fairs hold?

Answer: At the fairs the wrestlers meet one another, they get a chance to display their strength, and they receive prizes for good performance.

Question: (a) 4. What is given to the shops with the best decoration at the fairs?

Answer: Prizes are given to the shops with the best decoration at the fairs.

Question: (b) 1. Use the word "smile" in a sentence.

Answer: Seeing the guests, a smile came to his face.

Question: (b) 2. Use the word "exhibition" in a sentence.

Answer: An exhibition of Sindhi crafts was put up at the fair.

Question: (b) 3. Use the word "success" in a sentence.

Answer: The one who works hard attains success.

Question: (b) 4. Use the word "decoration" in a sentence.

Answer: The decoration of the shops at the fair was worth seeing.

Question: (b) 5. Use the word "wrestling bout" in a sentence.

Answer: A wrestling bout between the wrestlers took place at the fair.

Question: (b) 6. Use the word "fun" in a sentence.

Answer: The children had a lot of fun at the fair.

Islamic Summit Conference, Lahore

Question: (a) 1. When was the Islamic Summit Conference held?

Answer: The Islamic Summit Conference was held in Lahore from 22 February 1974 to 24 February 1974.

Question: (a) 2. Through whose effort was the Islamic Summit Conference held?

Answer: The Islamic Summit Conference was held through the effort of Prime Minister Zulfikar Ali Bhutto.

Question: (a) 3. What decisions did the Muslim leaders make for the betterment of the Muslim world?

Answer: The Muslim leaders decided to make a joint effort for the betterment and progress of the Muslim world, to end exploitation, to help one another in trade, to save the Islamic countries from poverty, disease and ignorance, and to set up a permanent fund of the Muslim countries.

Question: (a) 4. Which issues were considered at the conference?

Answer: At the conference, important issues such as the condition of the Muslim world, the Palestine issue and the liberation of Bait-ul-Muqaddas were considered, and a resolve was made for a joint struggle against oppression and for the freedom of the Muslims.

Question: (b) 1. Use the word "memorable" in a sentence.

Answer: 22 February 1974 is a memorable day for Pakistan.

Question: (b) 2. Use the word "leader/head" in a sentence.

Answer: The leaders of the Muslim countries gathered at the conference.

Question: (b) 3. Use the word "struggle" in a sentence.

Answer: The Muslims decided to struggle against oppression.

Question: (b) 4. Use the word "resolve" in a sentence.

Answer: At the conference, a resolve was made for the progress of the Muslims.

Question: (b) 5. Use the word "exploitation" in a sentence.

Answer: At the conference, it was decided to end the exploitation of the Islamic countries.

Health

Question: (a) 1. Whose child was Saleem?

Answer: Saleem was the child of poor parents; his father was a farmer.

Question: (a) 2. Whose child was Qurban?

Answer: Qurban was the child of rich parents; his father was a landlord.

Question: (a) 3. Why did Qurban not come to school?

Answer: Qurban did not come to school because of laziness and bad habits; he slept late and woke up late, reached school late, and mostly remained absent.

Question: (a) 4. How did Qurban begin to stay healthy?

Answer: Qurban began to stay healthy by acting on Saleem's advice: waking up early, sleeping early, going for a morning walk, fresh air, clean water and proper food, and acting on these things.

Question: (b) 1. Use the word "cattle-pen" in a sentence.

Answer: The farmer ties his cattle in the cattle-pen.

Question: (b) 2. Use the word "trust" in a sentence.

Answer: The teacher has trust in his pupils.

Question: (b) 3. Use the word "fodder" in a sentence.

Answer: The farmer gives fodder to the cattle.

Question: (b) 4. Use the word "free/leisure" in a sentence.

Answer: Having finished the work, he became free.

Question: (b) 5. Use the word "to play" in a sentence.

Answer: The children go to the field to play.

Question: (b) 6. Use the word "together" in a sentence.

Answer: All the children play the game together.

Question: (b) 7. Use the word "lazy/sluggish" in a sentence.

Answer: A lazy person lags behind in work.

Question: (c) 1. Write the singular of "holidays".

Answer: The singular of "holidays" is "holiday".

Question: (c) 2. Write the singular of "windows".

Answer: The singular of "windows" is "window".

Question: (c) 3. Write the singular of "class".

Answer: "Class" is already singular; its singular is "class" itself.

Question: (c) 4. Write the singular of "room".

Answer: "Room" is already singular; its singular is "room" itself.

Question: (c) 5. Write the singular of "nature/temperament".

Answer: "Nature" is already singular; its singular is "nature" itself.

O Muslim (Poem)

Question: (a) 1. Which era does the poet remind the Muslim of?

Answer: The poet reminds the Muslim of the past era, when the Muslims had rule, politics, honour and greatness, and they had glory and grandeur.

Question: (a) 2. From whom does the poet direct us to learn the lesson of true martyrdom?

Answer: The poet directs us to learn the lesson of true martyrdom from Hussain ibn Ali.

Question: (a) 3. What guidance does the poet give at the end?

Answer: At the end the poet gives this guidance: that one's head, wealth and children should be sacrificed for the faith.

Question: (b) 1. Find and tell the rhyming words of the word "grandeur" in the whole poem.

Answer: The rhyming words of "grandeur" in the poem are these: grandeur, government, greatness, bravery, service, trust, protection, favour, martyrdom.

Question: (c) 1. Correct the following sentence: "You went home" (with wrong verb agreement).

Answer: You went home. (Corrected verb agreement.)

Question: (c) 2. Correct the following sentence: "She eats bread" (with wrong masculine verb).

Answer: She eats bread. (Corrected to the feminine verb.)

Question: (c) 3. Correct the following sentence: "We give five rupees" (with wrong verb).

Answer: We give five rupees. (Corrected verb form.)

Question: (c) 4. Correct the following sentence: "My book is placed on the table" (with wrong gender agreement).

Answer: My book is placed on the table. (Corrected gender agreement.)

The Farmer

Question: (a) 1. What all does the farmer do until the harvest is reaped?

Answer: Until the harvest is reaped, the farmer ploughs the land, sows seed in it, waters the plants, watches over the crop day and night, and protects the crop from animals and harm.

Question: (a) 2. How does the farmer spend his life?

Answer: The farmer spends his life working hard day and night; whether it is heat or cold, he remains busy in his work and lives a simple life.

Question: (a) 3. What lesson should be learned from the farmer's life?

Answer: From the farmer's life this lesson should be learned: that through hard work a person can achieve everything, and that one should work hard and serve others.

Question: (b) 1. Write the feminine of "camel".

Answer: The feminine of "camel" is "she-camel".

Question: (b) 2. Write the feminine of "male buffalo".

Answer: The feminine of "male buffalo" is "female buffalo".

Question: (b) 3. Write the feminine of "male calf".

Answer: The feminine of "male calf" is "female calf".

Question: (b) 4. Write the masculine of "ewe".

Answer: The masculine of "ewe" is "ram".

Question: (b) 5. Write the masculine of "she-goat".

Answer: The masculine of "she-goat" is "he-goat".

Question: (b) 6. Write the feminine of "horse".

Answer: The feminine of "horse" is "mare".

Question: (b) 7. Write the masculine or feminine of "middle".

Answer: "Middle" has no masculine or feminine pair; "middle" is not the name of an animal.

Hide and Seek

Question: (a) 1. Who gather together to play hide-and-seek?

Answer: Girls gather together to play hide-and-seek.

Question: (a) 2. What is tied over the eyes of the girl who is the seeker?

Answer: A cloth band is tied over the eyes of the girl who is the seeker.

Question: (a) 3. What do the girls try to escape from?

Answer: The girls try to escape being caught by the seeker.

Question: (b) 1. Write the opposite of "come".

Answer: The opposite of "come" is "go".

Question: (b) 2. Write the opposite of "girl".

Answer: The opposite of "girl" is "boy".

Question: (b) 3. Write the opposite of "tied".

Answer: The opposite of "tied" is "untied/open".

Question: (b) 4. Write the opposite of "hand".

Answer: The opposite of "hand" is "foot".

Question: (b) 5. Write the opposite of "start".

Answer: The opposite of "start" is "end".

Hosh Muhammad Sheedi

Question: (a) 1. Why is Hoshu's name famous?

Answer: Hoshu's name is famous because of his bravery, loyalty and martyrdom; he gave his life fighting bravely for his homeland Sindh.

Question: (a) 2. Between whom was the Battle of Miani fought?

Answer: The Battle of Miani was fought on 17 February 1843 between Mir Nasir Khan and the English.

Question: (a) 3. How was Hosh Muhammad martyred?

Answer: Hosh Muhammad fought bravely; the enemy's bullets struck his chest, he kept fighting, and he was martyred.

Question: (a) 4. From what things is it known that the English were impressed by Hosh Muhammad's bravery?

Answer: It is known from this: the English had Hosh Muhammad's body buried with full military honours inside the fort of Hyderabad, and a cannon was placed on his grave as a mark of bravery.

Question: (b) 1. Write the opposite of "war".

Answer: The opposite of "war" is "peace".

Question: (b) 2. Write the opposite of "successful".

Answer: The opposite of "successful" is "unsuccessful".

Question: (b) 3. Write the opposite of "enemy".

Answer: The opposite of "enemy" is "friend".

Question: (b) 4. Write the opposite of "to cut".

Answer: The opposite of "to cut" is "to join".

Question: (b) 5. Write the opposite of "to die".

Answer: The opposite of "to die" is "to live".

Question: (b) 6. Write the opposite of "difficult".

Answer: The opposite of "difficult" is "easy".

O Homeland (Poem)

Question: (a) 1. In this poem, for whom does the poet pray?

Answer: In this poem, the poet prays for his homeland.

Question: (a) 2. What prayers does the poet make for the homeland?

Answer: The poet makes these prayers for the homeland: may it rain, may the gardens and fields be green, may the flowers bloom, may the crops ripen, may grain come and the stores be filled, may sorrows and grief end, may the people live happily, and may friends sacrifice life and body for the homeland.

Question: (a) 3. What happens after the rain?

Answer: After the rain the land turns green, the gardens and fields bloom, the crops ripen, grain comes, and the stores are filled.

Question: (b) 1. Write the opposite of "flower".

Answer: The opposite of "flower" is "thorn".

Question: (b) 2. Write the opposite of "to bloom".

Answer: The opposite of "to bloom" (flowers blooming) is "to wilt".

Question: (b) 3. Write the opposite of "your".

Answer: The opposite of "your" is "my".

Question: (b) 4. Write the opposite of "to reap".

Answer: The opposite of "to reap" (harvesting the crop) is "to sow".

Question: (b) 5. Write the opposite of "friends".

Answer: The opposite of "friends" is "enemies".

Question: (c) 1. Write, in order, the rhyming words of "homeland" and "are held" from this poem.

Answer: The rhyming words of "homeland" and "are held" in the poem, in order, are these: garden, may it rain, may bloom, may die, may be held, garden, grief, may plough, may be yoked, may ripen, may come, may be filled, may reap, body, may do, brave ones.

The Skilful Woman

Question: (a) 1. Who is called a wise/skilful wife?

Answer: A wise and skilful wife is the woman who keeps her home clean, tidy and orderly at all times, keeps the household things each in its own place, runs the household expenses according to the income, and keeps the family happy and healthy.

Question: (a) 2. Explain the meaning of the wise saying in which the wife is called the home and the home without a wife is called desolate.

Answer: The meaning of this saying is that a home is a home only through the wife's wisdom and good management; without a wife the home is desolate and disorderly.

Question: (a) 3. How should the household expenses be run?

Answer: The household expenses should be run thoughtfully according to the income; one should save from the expenses and should not spend more than the income.

Question: (a) 4. How do the family members of a wise wife live?

Answer: The family members of a wise wife live happily and healthily; their home is like paradise.

Question: (b) 1. Which is the adjective in "wise wife"?

Answer: In "wise wife", the adjective is "wise".

Question: (b) 2. Which is the adjective in "clean clothes"?

Answer: In "clean clothes", the adjective is "clean".

Question: (b) 3. Which is the adjective in "good food"?

Answer: In "good food", the adjective is "good".

Question: (b) 4. Which is the adjective in "warm wind"?

Answer: In "warm wind", the adjective is "warm".

Question: (b) 5. Which is the adjective in "sweet milk"?

Answer: In "sweet milk", the adjective is "sweet".

Question: (c) 1. What is the relation "mother's brother's son" called?

Answer: "Mother's brother's son" is called "mamiyat".

Question: (c) 2. What is the relation "mother's brother's daughter" called?

Answer: "Mother's brother's daughter" is called "mamiyati".

Question: (c) 3. What are the relations "paternal aunt's (chachi's) son and daughter" called?

Answer: "Chachi's son" is called "chachat" and "chachi's daughter" is called "chachati".

Question: (c) 4. What are the relations "maternal aunt's (masi's) son and daughter" called?

Answer: "Masi's son" is called "masat" and "masi's daughter" is called "masati".

Watayo Faqir

Question: 1. (a) What was Watayo Faqir's original name?

Answer: Watayo Faqir's original name was Wato; his parents had given him that name.

Question: 2. (a) For what thing is Watayo Faqir famous in Sindh?

Answer: Watayo Faqir is famous in Sindh for his humorous manner of speaking and his wise sayings; his sayings are still famous in every corner of Sindh today.

Question: 3. (a) What advice is gained from Watayo Faqir's sayings?

Answer: From Watayo Faqir's sayings this advice is gained: every person carries his own deeds along with himself, so one should take care of one's deeds; reflecting on his sayings gives many lessons.

Question: 1. (b) Write the plural of the given word: talk/thing said

Answer: Talks/things said.

Question: 2. (b) Write the plural of the given word: prayer

Answer: Prayers.

Question: 3. (b) Write the plural of the given word: night

Answer: Nights.

Question: 4. (b) Write the plural of the given word: fire

Answer: Fires.

Question: 1. (c) Change the given affirmative sentence into a negative sentence: He goes home.

Answer: He does not go home.

Question: 2. (c) Change the given affirmative sentence into a negative sentence: I ate food.

Answer: I did not eat food.

Question: 3. (c) Change the given affirmative sentence into a negative sentence: The boy is playing in the field.

Answer: The boy is not playing in the field.

Horse Fair in Jacobabad

Question: 1. (a) For what thing is Jacobabad famous?

Answer: Jacobabad is famous for its horse fair.

Question: 2. (a) Who started the horse fair in Jacobabad?

Answer: The horse fair in Jacobabad was started by Commissioner John Jacob during the British rule.

Question: 1. (b) Pick out the verb from the given sentence: John Jacob started the horse fair.

Answer: Verb: started.

Question: 2. (b) Pick out the verb from the given sentence: One should not eat too much.

Answer: Verb: to eat.

Question: 3. (b) Pick out the verb from the given sentence: Laughing of a horse is not good.

Answer: Verb: to laugh.

Question: 1. (c) Write the opposite of the given word: horse

Answer: Horse has no opposite, because it is the name of an animal.

Question: 2. (c) Write the opposite of the given word: city

Answer: Village.

Question: 3. (c) Write the opposite of the given word: winter

Answer: Summer.

Company of Birds (Poem)

Question: 1. (a) What thing increases in the company of good people?

Answer: Honour and dignity increase in the company of good people.

Question: 2. (a) What is the company of good people like?

Answer: The company of good people is like the philosopher's stone (paras).

Question: 3. (a) What thing is gained from the company of good people?

Answer: From the company of good people one gains gentleness (good character and sweetness) and the way of good habits.

Question: (b) Pick out the adjective from the given words: company — gentle/sweet — far apart — notorious

Answer: Adjective: gentle/sweet (this word tells the quality or attribute of someone). Sentence: Gentleness is gained from good company.

Raising Hens

Question: 1. (a) Why do people keep hens?

Answer: People keep hens for profit; by selling the hens' eggs, chicks and meat a good income is earned, while keeping them does not cost much.

Question: 2. (a) About how many eggs does a hen lay in a year?

Answer: A hen lays about two hundred eggs in a year.

Question: 3. (a) What is called a poultry farm?

Answer: A poultry farm is the place where hens are kept in large numbers and from where chicks are obtained for keeping at home.

Question: 4. (a) What are "aaro" or "chaar"?

Answer: "Aaro" or "chaar" is the hen's sitting on her eggs and keeping them warm.

Question: 1. (b) Change the given statement into a question. Example: Did Ahmed go to Karachi yesterday? — My father gets up early.

Answer: Does my father get up early?

Question: 2. (b) Change the given statement into a question: He has received the salary.

Answer: Has he received the salary?

Question: 3. (b) Change the given statement into a question: I write a letter.

Answer: Do I write a letter?

The Postman

Question: 1. (a) How is the postman recognised?

Answer: The postman is recognised by his khaki uniform, the bag on his shoulder and his bicycle; he goes from house to house distributing the mail.

Question: 2. (a) What is the postman's work?

Answer: The postman's work is to take the mail — letters, parcels, money orders and so on — from the post office and deliver it from house to house.

Question: 3. (a) From where does he collect the mail?

Answer: He collects the mail from the post office.

Question: 4. (a) From what thing is the postman's fulfilment of his duty proved?

Answer: The postman's fulfilment of his duty is proved by the fact that he delivers the mail to every house regardless of heat, cold or time, and performs his duty with truthfulness and honesty.

Question: 1. (b) Write the meaning of the given word: uniform

Answer: Uniform: a special kind of dress which an employee of a department wears.

Question: 2. (b) Write the meaning of the given word: address

Answer: Address: the address of a house, that is, the place where a person lives.

Question: 3. (b) Write the meaning of the given word: post office

Answer: Post office: the mail office, from where mail is sent and received.

Question: 4. (b) Write the meaning of the given word: beat

Answer: Beat: the postman's fixed area or circle, whose mail is in his charge.

Question: 5. (b) Write the meaning of the given word: sincere

Answer: Sincere: truthful and working with all one's heart.

Question: 1. (c) Write the opposite of the given word: heat

Answer: Cold.

Question: 2. (c) Write the opposite of the given word: night

Answer: Day.

Question: 3. (c) Write the opposite of the given word: truth

Answer: Falsehood.

Question: 4. (c) Write the opposite of the given word: hard work

Answer: Laziness.

Sindhi Language in Sindh

Question: 1. (a) What is the name of our country?

Answer: The name of our country is Pakistan.

Question: 2. (a) What is the name of our province?

Answer: The name of our province is Sindh.

Question: 3. (a) Tell the names of Pakistan's national language and provincial languages.

Answer: Pakistan's national language is Urdu. The provincial languages: Sindhi of Sindh, Punjabi of Punjab, Balochi of Balochistan and Pashto of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa.

Question: 4. (a) How many letters are there in the Sindhi alphabet?

Answer: There are fifty-two letters in the Sindhi alphabet.

Question: 1. (b) Write the meaning of the given word and use it in a sentence: ancient

Answer: Meaning: old. Sentence: The Sindhi language is a very ancient language.

Question: 2. (b) Write the meaning of the given word and use it in a sentence: about/approximately

Answer: Meaning: approximately, roughly. Sentence: There are about fifty students in the class.

Question: 3. (b) Write the meaning of the given word and use it in a sentence: near

Answer: Meaning: close, near. Sentence: Through language, people come near to one another.

Question: 4. (b) Write the meaning of the given word and use it in a sentence: simple

Answer: Meaning: easy, simple. Sentence: The grammar of the Sindhi language is simple.

Question: 5. (b) Write the meaning of the given word and use it in a sentence: to pronounce

Answer: Meaning: to speak, to utter. Sentence: By learning the mother tongue, the words of other languages can also be pronounced with ease.

The Educated and the Uneducated

Question: 1. (a) What question did the educated man ask the boatman?

Answer: The educated man asked the boatman whether he had learnt the knowledge of grammar.

Question: 2. (a) What answer did the boatman give?

Answer: The boatman answered that he had heard of that knowledge only that day; he did not even know what grammar was.

Question: 3. (a) When the storm came, what question did the boatman ask the educated man?

Answer: When the storm came, the boatman asked the educated man: Sir, do you know how to swim?

Question: 4. (a) What answer did the educated man give to that question?

Answer: The educated man answered that he did not know how to swim; he had spent his whole life in acquiring knowledge.

Question: 5. (a) What lesson is gained from this story?

Answer: From this story this lesson is gained: along with acquiring knowledge one should also learn some skill, because sometime or other in life that skill comes in handy.

Question: 1. (b) Change the given negative sentence into an affirmative sentence: He will not go to school today.

Answer: He will go to school today.

Question: 2. (b) Change the given negative sentence into an affirmative sentence: I do not know how to swim.

Answer: I know how to swim.

Question: 3. (b) Change the given negative sentence into an affirmative sentence: He is not at home.

Answer: He is at home.

Question: 1. (c) Write the meaning of the given word: poor fellow

Answer: Poor fellow: helpless, needy, one who arouses pity.

Question: 2. (c) Write the meaning of the given word: silence

Answer: Silence: quietness, keeping quiet.

Question: 3. (c) Write the meaning of the given word: force

Answer: Force: strength, intensity.

Question: 4. (c) Write the meaning of the given word: by swimming

Answer: By swimming: through swimming, while swimming.

Question: 5. (c) Write the meaning of the given word: having lost

Answer: Having lost: to lose, to waste.

Unity

Question: 1. (a) How many sons did the rich man have?

Answer: The rich man had three sons.

Question: 2. (a) What does our religion Islam teach?

Answer: Our religion Islam teaches unity.

Question: 3. (a) What should we do for the progress of Pakistan?

Answer: For the progress of Pakistan we should live in unity, so that our country can progress.

Question: 1. (b) Write the opposite of the given word: unity

Answer: Division, discord.

Question: 2. (b) Write the opposite of the given word: son

Answer: Daughter.

Question: 3. (b) Write the opposite of the given word: decreased

Answer: Increased.

Question: 4. (b) Write the opposite of the given word: love

Answer: Hatred.

Question: 5. (b) Write the opposite of the given word: easy

Answer: Difficult.

Question: 1. (c) Write the meaning of the given word: rich

Answer: Rich: wealthy, one who has much property and wealth.

Question: 2. (c) Write the meaning of the given word: oneness

Answer: Oneness: unity, becoming one.

Question: 3. (c) Write the meaning of the given word: bond

Answer: Bond: coming together, unity, being united.

Question: 4. (c) Write the meaning of the given word: bundle

Answer: Bundle: a tied bunch of sticks.

Question: 5. (c) Write the meaning of the given word: rope

Answer: Rope: cord, rope.

Question: 6. (c) Write the meaning of the given word: divided

Answer: Divided: separate, in pieces.

Question: 7. (c) Write the meaning of the given word: to win

Answer: To win: to gain victory.

Prayer (Poem)

Question: 1. (a) Who provides us with sustenance?

Answer: God (Allah) provides us with sustenance; He is the giver of sustenance to all.

Question: 2. (a) At whose door do we present our request?

Answer: We present our request at the door of God (Allah).

Question: 1. (b) Write the opposite of the given word: we

Answer: You (this is not a true opposite, but the difference between the first and second person).

Question: 2. (b) Write the opposite of the given word: You kill

Answer: You give life.

Question: 3. (b) Write the opposite of the given word: refuge

Answer: Without refuge, without support.

Question: 4. (b) Write the opposite of the given word: good

Answer: Bad.

Question: 5. (b) Write the opposite of the given word: old age

Answer: Youth.

Question: (c) Find other rhyming words from the poem like "sadaeen" and "nupaeen" and write them.

Answer: Jeeyareen — maareen; ddisseen — passeen; Saaeen — wasaaeen; upaaeen — nupaaeen.

1. (d) Fill in the blank of that line of the poem in which God is called incomparable, and write its meaning: _____ You are incomparable!

Answer: no equal to You, O Master" — Meaning:

2. (d) Fill in the blank of that line of the poem in which our being in God's refuge is mentioned, and write its meaning: _____ You are the Lord, O

God!

Answer: Your refuge.

3. (d) Fill in the blank of that line of the poem in which God's seeing everywhere is mentioned, and write its meaning: You see, You approve, _____

Answer: see us.

4. (d) Fill in the blank of that line of the poem in which there is a prayer to stay pleased through God's grace, and write its meaning: _____ May You, with Your own words, _____

Answer: O God.

Question: 1. (e) Write the singular or plural of the given word: shelters

Answer: Shelters is plural; singular: shelter.

Question: 2. (e) Write the singular or plural of the given word: we Answer: We is plural; singular: I.

Question: 3. (e) Write the singular or plural of the given word: you (singular)

Answer: You (singular) is singular; plural: you (plural).

Question: 4. (e) Write the singular or plural of the given word: mouth

Answer: Mouth is singular; plural: mouths.