ایمانیات: اللہ تعالیٰ تي ایمان — توحید: معنیٰ مفہوم (الف)

Question: What is meant by having faith in Allah Almighty?

Answer: Having faith in the Being of Allah Almighty means keeping firmly in one's heart with certainty that the Being of Allah Almighty has always existed and will always remain; He has neither a beginning nor an end. He is the Creator of the universe. He alone created this universe. For this reason, He is One and Unique in His Being and His attributes. No one else is worthy of worship.

Question: Prove with arguments that Allah Almighty exists — that there is a Being who created this universe.

Answer: If we examine the creation of this universe, we will realise that the sun, the moon and the stars are revolving in their orbits at fixed times. The coming of the day and the appearing of the night, the changing of the seasons, the falling of rain — all these things happen in an organised manner and with regularity, from which we can judge that only one Being runs the system of this universe. When even a small thing — for example, a needle — cannot exist in this world without a maker or without a craftsman, then how can this entire universe exist without a craftsman and a maker? That Being cannot be anyone other than Allah Almighty.

Question: What would have happened if there had been more than one god?

Answer: If there had been any other god, a partner besides Allah Almighty, the whole universe would have fallen into disorder and the system of this universe would have been thrown into chaos. One god would say the sun will come from above, while another would say, no, the sun will rise from the west. In this way, disorder would arise in this system and corruption would spread in the world. As Allah Almighty has said in the Holy Quran: لَوْ كَانَ فِيهِمَا آلِهَةٌ إِلَّا اللَّهُ لَفَسَدَتَا (Surah Al-Anbiya: Verse 22) Translation: "If there had been (many) gods in the heavens and the earth besides Allah, both (the earth and the heavens) would have been ruined."

Question: What are the important requirements of Tawhid?

Answer: Only and only the Being of Allah Almighty should be accepted as the Creator and Owner of the entire universe, without the partnership of anyone else. To place complete trust in Allah Almighty. To seek help from Him alone in all difficulties and calamities. To prostrate before Him alone.

Question: State any two results of Tawhid.

Answer: Tawhid is the means of success in the Hereafter. Without Tawhid, entering Paradise is impossible. Tawhid is the source of all good deeds. Courage, bravery, patience, steadfastness and trust (in Allah), the fear of Allah Almighty, and other virtues spring forth from a monotheist believer.

Mark on the correct answer: 1. The first of all beliefs is:

2. The literal meaning of Tawhid is:

۱- اذان: فضیلت اہمیت

Question: What is the literal meaning of Adhan?

Answer: The literal meaning of Adhan is to announce or to call.

Question: Of what is the Adhan a cause of preparation?

Answer: The Adhan is a cause of preparation for Salah, because through the Adhan the time for offering Salah in congregation has drawn near, and therefore preparation for Salah is made.

Question: Why does a desire to go to the mosque arise in Muslims through the Adhan?

Answer: After hearing the Adhan, a desire to go to the mosque arises in people, so that they may offer Salah in congregation, earn the reward of the congregation, and by joining the congregation, people may meet one another.

Question: Explain in your own words the virtue of the Adhan in Islam.

Answer: Great virtue of the Adhan and the Mu'adhdhin has been stated in the blessed Ahadith. The Holy Prophet (PBUH) said: "If a person knew how much reward there is in giving the Adhan and in offering Salah in the first row, then every person would try to move forward, to the extent that lots would have to be drawn to decide." On the Day of Judgement, the necks of the Mu'adhdhins will be raised high. At the time of the Adhan, Satan reaches a place where the sound of the Adhan cannot be heard. As far as the sound of the Adhan is heard, the jinn and humans living there will bear witness for the Mu'adhdhin on the Day of Judgement. Whoever gave the Adhan for seven years with the intention of reward, deliverance from outside will be written for him. (Note: the well-known wording of the hadith is 'deliverance from the Fire (Hellfire)'; the book prints 'outside', which appears to be a printing error.)

Question: In the Adhan of which Salah are the words "الصَّلٰوةُ خَيْرٌ مِّنَ النَّوْمِ" recited?

Answer: In the Adhan of Fajr, after "حَيَّ عَلَي الْفَلَاحِ", the words "الصَّلٰوةُ خَيْرٌ مِّنَ النَّوْمِ" are recited, which mean: "Salah is better than sleep."

Question: State any two etiquettes of the Adhan.

Answer: To remain silent at the time of the Adhan, to listen to the Adhan attentively, and to reflect upon the words of the Adhan. When the Mu'adhdhin says the words of the Adhan, the listener should also repeat the same words; at the time of "حَيَّ عَلَي الصَّلٰوةِ" and "حَيَّ عَلَي الْفَلَاحِ", the listener should say "لَا حَوْلَ وَلَا قُوَّةَ إِلَّا بِاللَّهِ".

Fill in the blank: 1. The literal meaning of Adhan is "to announce" or _____.

Answer: to call.

Question: What is meant by Fard-e-Kifayah?

Answer: The status of the funeral prayer (Namaz-e-Janazah) is that of Fard-e-Kifayah, meaning that if some people of the area in which a person has died offer the funeral prayer, then the funeral prayer will be considered offered on behalf of the whole area; but if no person at all offers this obligation (the funeral prayer), then all the people of that village or area will become sinners.

Question: What is the method of offering the funeral prayer?

Answer: After giving the deceased a bath (ghusl), dressing him in the shroud (kafan), close relatives bring him on a cot/charpoy, carrying it on their shoulders. The Muslims of the area gather at an open place and form rows. With the deceased placed in front, the Imam stands, and behind the Imam the people stand in rows. During the prayer, the Imam says four additional Takbirs, along with which the praise and glorification of Allah Almighty, Durood upon the Holy Prophet (PBUH), and the supplication for the forgiveness of the deceased are recited. Finally, by turning the Salam, the funeral prayer is completed. In the funeral prayer, Ruku and Sajdah are not performed.

Question: What is meant by Isar?

Answer: The literal meaning of Isar is 'to give preference'. Isar means sacrificing one's own need, fulfilling the needs of others and benefiting them, for example, staying hungry oneself and feeding another hungry person, staying in hardship oneself and caring for another's comfort and ease, lowering oneself and giving importance to another.

Question: How did the Ansar of Madinah demonstrate Isar?

Answer: When the Prophet (PBUH) established the bond of brotherhood between the Ansar and the Muhajirun, the Ansar happily not only accommodated the Muhajirun in their homes, but also made them partners in their properties. Allah Almighty says: وَيُؤْثِرُونَ عَلَىٰ أَنفُسِهِمْ وَلَوْ كَانَ بِهِمْ خَصَاصَةٌ (Al-Hashr: 9) "And they give others preference over themselves, even though they themselves are in need."

Question: Narrate an example of the demonstration of Isar in the Battle of Yarmouk.

Answer: In the Battle of Yarmouk, some Mujahideen were wounded. They began to writhe due to the severity of thirst, when one Mujahid asked for water. That Mujahid was about to drink the water, but then he pointed towards the wounded Mujahid at his side, that he too was writhing with thirst — give him water first. When the water-carrier pointed towards that Mujahid, he said, give the water to him. When the water-carrier reached him, he was severely wounded and had been martyred in the way of Allah. When he returned to the second Mujahid, he too had been martyred, and when he reached the first wounded Mujahid, he too had been martyred in the way of Allah. Such a lofty example of Isar, in which one sacrifices one's own life, is very rarely found.

Question: How can we show Isar when a difficult time comes upon the country and the nation? Write any two forms.

Answer: Whenever a difficult time has come upon the country, people have not only demonstrated Isar financially, but have also not hesitated to sacrifice their lives for the honour of the country. An example is the war of 1965 CE, in which people not only sold the goods of their homes and gave them for the defence of the country, but also kept standing in queues helping to donate blood for the wounded soldiers. Helping the victims financially and personally at the time of natural calamities such as storms, floods or earthquakes is also Isar.

Tick the correct answer: 1. The literal meaning of Isar is:

2. The greatest demonstration of Isar was made by the Ansar of Madinah for:

3. If you want to see the spirit of Isar, remember:

Fill in the blank: 1. The Prophet (PBUH) established the bond of _____ between the Muhajirun and the Ansar.

Answer: brotherhood

2. The Prophet (PBUH) said that whoever makes him a _____ tonight, Allah Almighty will have mercy on him.

Answer: guest
