Religious Studies

Class 7 (English Medium)

Solved Exercises — Sindh Textbook Board

20 lessons — 320 questions

فنونِ لطیفه مذہبں جو کردار

Question: 1. (a) What is meant by fine arts?

Answer: "Funoon" is the plural of "fan", which means skill, craft and artistry. "Lateef" means something fine and small. Fine arts means those skills of a human being through which he expresses his feelings, emotions and thoughts — such as painting, music, poetry, sculpture, dance, architecture, film-making, etc.

Question: 2. (a) Which religions are famous with regard to dance?

Answer: In the lesson, dance (Nrit) is specially mentioned in Hindu Dharma, where along with music and art, Nrit, that is, dance, is permitted.

Question: 3. (a) Describe the role of Christianity, Sanatan Dharma and Sikh Dharma regarding music.

Answer: Christianity: music and instruments are used in churches, and Christian artists, influenced by their religion, passionately expressed their beliefs through music. Sanatan Dharma (Hindu Dharma): along with music and art, Nrit (dance) is permitted. Sikh Dharma: in this lesson there is no separate mention of music for Sikh Dharma; in gurdwaras the art of sacred painting and photography is found, which is a special example of fine arts in the Sikh religion.

Question: 4. (a) What is the role of Islam in fine arts?

Answer: Muslims adopted calligraphy, bookbinding and painting, along with Islamic architecture, to express their feelings and emotions. Muslims used calligraphy when copying their religious books, and those scholarly books are still present in many libraries today.

Question: 5. (a) Earlier, fine arts consisted of which five things?

Answer: In the earlier period, fine arts consisted of only five things: music, painting, poetry, sculpture and dance. Nowadays architecture, film-making, graphics and photography are also included in it.

1. (b) Nowadays dance, film-making, architecture and photography are also included in fine arts.

2. (b) Muslims adopted calligraphy, bookbinding, painting and Islamic architecture.

3. (b) Weapons of war are also counted among the fine arts.

4. (b) The meaning of "Nrit" is fasting.

5. (b) One of the symbols of Buddhism is also a wheel.

1. (c) Skill, craft and artistry are called:

(c) Skill, craft and artistry are called:

(a) art

(b) knowledge

(c) technology

(d) science

2. (c) The literal meaning of the word "Lateef" is:

(c) The literal meaning of the word "Lateef" is:

(a) big

(b) fine

(c) small

(d) low

3. (c) The meaning of "sculpture" (Sang Tarashi) is:

(a) cutting iron

(b) cutting a mine

(c) cutting stone

(d) cutting grass

4. (c) The word "Funoon" is the plural of:

(c) The word "Funoon" is the plural of:

(a) Fani

(b) Fanni

(c) Phone

✓ (d) Fan

5. (c) The meaning of "Nrit" is:

✓ (c) The meaning of "Nrit" is:

(a) Raag

(b) Jhamar

✓ (c) dance

(d) Alaap

Question: Activity for students: The students prepare charts and assignments on the following topics: 1. Music in any religion. 2. Painting in any religion.

Answer: This is a class activity, which has no single fixed answer. Method: each student chooses any religion and prepares a chart or assignment on the role of music or painting in it. Worked example — from the lesson's own material: 1. Music in a religion (Christianity): music and instruments are used in churches, and Christian artists expressed their beliefs through music. 2. Painting in a religion (Sikh Dharma): in gurdwaras the art of sacred painting and photography is found, which gives information about Baba Guru Nanak Dev Ji and the other Gurus.

ادب مذهبن جو ڪردار

Question: 1. (a) What is literature and how many kinds does it have?

Answer: "Adab" is an Arabic word, which is called "Sahit" in Sindhi. The written form in which a human being expresses his desires, thoughts, experiences or ideas is called literature or Sahit. Literature has two main forms: prose literature and poetic literature, which is also called poetry.

Question: 2. (a) What role does religion play in the promotion of literature?

Answer: An important part of literature is religious mystical (Sufi) poetry. In every religion there has been a tradition of such mystical poetry, through which the people get peace of heart and a world connected with religion and beliefs. Mystical poetry makes a human being's spiritual feeling a means of creating a relationship with his True Owner and turning towards Him.

Question: 3. (a) Give an example of the poetry of Hindu Dharma / Sanatan Dharma.

Answer: The religious books of Hindu Dharma, the Ramayana and the Mahabharata, contain a great treasure of poetry, and in the Shrimad Bhagavad Gita the message of Parmatma, that is, the True Owner, is mentioned in the form of verses. The meaning of one shloka of the Gita is this: those people who entrust all their works to Me and worship Me, I free them from all sorrows and carry them across the ocean.

Question: 4. (a) What is "Jap Ji"?

Answer: "Jap Ji" is the composition of Baba Guru Nanak Dev Ji, which is included in the holy book of the Sikh religion, Guru Granth Sahib.

Question: 5. (a) State the names of the famous religious poets of Christianity.

Answer: The famous religious poets of Christianity are: Dante, William Blake, Boethius and Wordsworth.

1. (b) The Shabad Kirtan of Guru Granth Sahib is recited in the _____ and the _____.

Answer: morning, evening.

2. (b) In Islamic poetry, the lesson of _____, Tawhid and _____ is given.

Answer: morals,, humanity

3. (b) Dear Paro! _____ is merciful, the eternal guardian of the caretakers.

Answer: Christ

4. (b) The followers of Buddhism walk in the footsteps of _____.

Answer: Mahatma Buddha.

5. (b) The important poets of Hindu Dharma / Sanatan Dharma are _____ and Goswami Tulsidas.

Answer: Kalidas

1. (c) In Sindhi, literature is called:

(c) In Sindhi, literature is called:

(a) poetry

(b) story

(c) poem

✓ (d) Sahit

2. (c) The Shabads of Guru Granth Sahib are called:

(c) The Shabads of Guru Granth Sahib are called:

(a) Sachay Shabad

✓ (b) Shabad Kirtan

(c) Shabad Panjan

(d) Shabad

3. (c) "Awwal Allah Aleem, Aala, Aalam jo Dhani" is the poet's name:

(c) "Awwal Allah Aleem, Aala, Aalam jo Dhani" is the poet's name:

(a) Baba Guru Nanak

(b) Dante

(c) Shah Abdul Latif Bhittai

(d) Sachal Sarmast

4. (c) In Buddhism, the state in which poets sit and compose poetry is called:

(c) In Buddhism, the state in which poets sit and compose poetry is called:

(a) worship

(b) humility

(c) Kanan Jastju

(d) seclusion

5. (c) The word "Adab" belongs to which language:

(c) The word "Adab" belongs to which language:

(a) Arabic

(b) Sindhi

(c) Sanskrit

(d) Urdu

Question: Activity for students: Write selected religious poetry from the literature of any religion on your own charts and present it before your classmates in class under the teacher's supervision.

Answer: This is a class activity, which has no single fixed answer. Method: each student selects some religious poetry from the literature of any religion, writes it on his chart, and then presents it before his classmates in class under the teacher's supervision. Worked example — from the lesson's own material: from Islamic mystical poetry, the composition of Shah Abdul Latif Bhittai can be selected, in which the knowledge, power and oneness of Allah Almighty are mentioned.

عمارت سازي مذهبن جو ڪردار

Question: 1. (a) What is the concept of architecture?

Answer: Architecture means the art of designing, building and decorating buildings and residences, which is also called the science of architecture. In the modern age this art has progressed a great deal, and the most famous masterpiece of buildings in the world is the Burj Khalifa.

Question: 2. (a) How can any religion be recognised from a building?

Answer: The followers of every religion need a special place for their religious worship and rituals, seeing which that religion is recognised — such as a temple, mosque, church or gurdwara. The effect of that religion is clearly visible from the structure and decoration of these buildings.

Question: 3. (a) What are the special signs of the religious places of worship of Hindu Dharma / Sanatan Dharma?

Answer: The places of worship of Hindu Dharma are temples. In temples the art of decorating idols, sculpture and painting is seen a great deal, and in South India the temples of Madurai city are famous for their tall gates (Gopura).

Question: 4. (a) What are the characteristics of the buildings of Buddhism?

Answer: The places of worship of Buddhism are stupas, pagodas and monasteries. In them are found statues of Gautam Buddha, sculpture and other signs of Buddhist art. The shape of a stupa is like the statue of Gautam Buddha, in which a glimpse of the five elements — sky, earth, water, fire and air — is found.

Question: 5. (a) What are the unique characteristics of Islamic architecture?

Answer: In Islamic architecture, special care is taken of spaciousness, structure, painting, light and movement. Islamic buildings include famous masterpieces such as Masjid al-Haram, Masjid-e-Nabawi, Bait-ul-Muqaddas, Badshahi Mosque, Shalimar Garden and Faisal Mosque, in which especially a glimpse of oneness and spaciousness is seen.

1. (b) Painting, sculpture, dance, poetry and music are called:

(b) Painting, sculpture, dance, poetry and music are called:

(a) literature

(b) science

(c) art

✓ (d) fine arts

2. (b) The Burj Khalifa is a masterpiece of:

(b) The Burj Khalifa is a masterpiece of:

(a) fine arts

(b) art

✓ (c) architecture

(d) literature

3. (b) Sculpture is a part of religion in:

✓ (b) Sculpture is a part of religion in:

(a) Judaism and Islam

✓ (b) Christianity and Hindu Dharma

(c) Sikh Dharma and Zoroastrianism

(d) Buddhism

4. (b) The meaning of "Sang Tarashi" is:

(b) The meaning of "Sang Tarashi" is:

(a) running stone

(b) throwing stone

(c) finding stone

✓ (d) painting on stone

5. (b) The place of worship of the Sikh religion is called:

(b) The place of worship of the Sikh religion is called:

(a) church

(b) temple

(c) mosque

(d) gurdwara

1. (c) Islam does not believe in idol worship.

2. (c) Through fine arts, a human being expresses thought.

3. (c) Architecture means poetry.

4. (c) Architecture is a kind of literature.

5. (c) In churches, pictures and statues are placed.

Question: Activity for students: Discuss the following points in class: • The effect of religions on human life. • The importance of the place of worship in religion. • The places of worship of any religions and their characteristics.

Answer: This is a class discussion activity, which has no single fixed answer. Method: the students present their views on all three points in class. Worked example — from the lesson's own material: • Effect of religions on human life: the followers of every religion, influenced by their religion, build buildings in which the effect of that religion is clearly visible. • Importance of the place of worship in religion: the followers of every religion need a special place for their religious worship and rituals. • Places of worship of any religions and their characteristics: temple (Hindu Dharma, sculpture of idols), mosque (Islam, oneness and spaciousness), church (Christianity, pictures and statues), gurdwara (Sikh Dharma), stupa/pagoda (Buddhism).

زرتشت مذهب جو تعارف ترقي

Question: 1. (a) What did people worship before Zoroaster?

Answer: Before Zoroaster, the people of Iran worshipped the manifestations of nature — that is, they worshipped natural things such as the sun, moon, air, fire, water and earth. They considered every natural thing to be the form of some deity and worshipped it.

Question: 2. (a) When and where was the founder of Zoroastrianism born?

Answer: The founder of Zoroastrianism, Zoroaster, was born in 660 BC in western Iran.

Question: 3. (a) What are the important principles of Zoroastrianism?

Answer: There are three important principles of Zoroastrianism: good speech, good thought and good deeds.

Question: 4. (a) What are the important symbols of Zoroastrianism?

Answer: There are three important symbols of Zoroastrianism: Faravahar, the number five and the sacred fire.

Question: 5. (a) How much did Zoroastrianism progress?

Answer: Even after the attack of Alexander the Great, this religion progressed for four hundred years. After the arrival of Islam in Iran in 635 AD, this religion became limited. Nowadays the followers of this religion are present in small numbers in Iran, Azerbaijan, India and Pakistan.

✗ 1. (b) Worship of the earth is an important worship of Zoroastrianism.

✓ 2. (b) The sacred fire is an important symbol of Zoroastrianism.

✗ 3. (b) The number of planets close to the earth is seven.

✗ 4. (b) One century after the death of Zoroaster, Alexander the Great attacked Iran.

✓ 5. (b) Islam came to the land of Iran in 635 AD.

1. (c) The main source of earning of the people of Iran was:

(c) The main source of earning of the people of Iran was:

(a) industry

✓ (b) agriculture

(c) trade

(d) labour

2. (c) Before Zoroastrianism, the great virtue of the Iranians was:

✓ (c) Before Zoroastrianism, the great virtue of the Iranians was:

(a) love of music

(b) hatred of quarrels

✓ (c) hatred of lies

(d) travelling

3. (c) Pindar-e-Nek means that the tongue and organs are controlled by the:

✓ (c) Pindar-e-Nek means that the tongue and organs are controlled by the:

(a) heart

(b) eyes

✓ (c) brain

(d) Jaishiri

4. (c) Faravahar reflects life and _____:

(c) Faravahar reflects life and _____:

(a) goodness

(b) evil

(c) troubles

✓ (d) good or evil

5. (c) Zoroastrianism is recognised as:

(c) Zoroastrianism is recognised as:

(a) Aryan

(b) Greek

(c) Arab

(d) Mongol

Question: Activity for students: The students make pictures related to Zoroastrianism and put them up in class. On a chart, draw the map of the planets close to the earth. Arrange the historical events present in this lesson in order.

Answer: This is a class activity, which has no single fixed answer. Method: the students make pictures related to Zoroastrianism and put them up in class, draw the map of the planets on a chart, and write the historical events in order. Worked example — from the lesson's own material: Pictures: Faravahar, the sacred fire and the number five. Map of the planets: the five planets close to the earth — the sun, moon, Mercury, Mars and Venus. Order of historical events: 1. Birth of Zoroaster (660 BC, western Iran); 2. Alexander the Great's attack on Iran several centuries after Zoroaster's death; 3. After that, the progress of the religion for four hundred years; 4. Arrival of Islam in Iran in 635 AD.

زرتشت مذهب جا اهم تصور

Question: 1. (a) What is called Yazdan?

Answer: Yazdan is the name of the power of goodness. "Ahura Mazda" is also called Yazdan, who is the symbol of goodness, light and truth and who has created all goodness.

Question: 2. (a) What is meant by Ahriman?

Answer: Ahriman means the power of evil. Ahriman is the opposite of Yazdan; it is the power of wickedness and falsehood. Satan and his followers are on the side of Ahriman.

Question: 3. (a) What are the holy books of Zoroastrianism? Write their names.

Answer: The holy book of Zoroastrianism is the Avesta, which has five parts: Yasna, Visperad, Vendidad, Yasht and Khordeh Avesta. Besides that, the Gatha is also a holy book, which consists of five collections of hymns.

Question: 4. (a) What are the words of Zoroaster's prayer?

Answer: The meaning of Zoroaster's prayer is this: O Ahura Mazda! Tell me goodness, so that with Your love I may end evil forever and protect goodness. (The meaning of the prayer is written here in paraphrase.)

Question: 5. (a) Present a review of the teaching of Zoroastrianism in the British period.

Answer: During the British rule, Zoroastrianism obtained freedom of thought and preaching. The Parsi religion remained in India with its religious, cultural, national and social identity, and is still progressing today.

1. (b) The True Owner has created the whole universe for the good conditions of _____.

Answer: the human being.

2. (b) Satan and his followers are on the side of Ahriman. .

3. (b) Among the Indian Parsis, the book of _____ chapters, _____, is more famous.

Answer: 22, the Vendidad,

4. (b) The third hymn of the book of Gatha reflects the _____.

Answer: aims of Zoroaster.

5. (b) In the British period, Zoroastrianism obtained freedom of thought in the era of the _____.

Answer: British.

✓ 1. (c) The collection of 72 chapters of the Avesta is called Yasna.

✗ 2. (c) According to Zoroastrianism, the true victory will be of Ahriman.

✓ 3. (c) Zoroastrianism holds the concept of coming back to life after the end of the world.

✗ 4. (c) The meaning of Visperad is slave.

✗ 5. (c) The book of Gatha consists of ten collections.

Question: Activity for students: The students discuss the following points in class: • Why did Zoroaster invite people to the worship of one True Owner? • What is the belief of the followers of Zoroastrianism about the Hereafter? • There are powers of good and evil.

Answer: This is a class discussion activity, which has no single fixed answer. Method: the students present their views on all three points in class. Worked example — from the lesson's own material: • Zoroaster invited people because the manifestations of nature are not worthy of worship; there is one True Owner, who created this whole universe — worship Him. • Belief about the Hereafter: after death the soul of a human being is tested; the soul of a good person crosses the bridge with ease, and after the end of the world there is the concept of collective reckoning (Qayamat) and coming back to life. • Powers of good and evil: the power of goodness is Yazdan (Ahura Mazda) and the power of evil is Ahriman; in the end Yazdan will prevail.

قومي تعمير وقت جي پابندي جو ڪردار

Question: 1. (a) What is meant by time?

Answer: By time is meant that flow of life in which the past, the present and the future are included. Minutes, hours, days, months and years are all parts of time. Time is a priceless wealth which, once it slips out of one's hand, does not come back.

Question: 2. (a) How do the phenomena of nature tell us the importance of time?

Answer: The phenomena of nature tell us the importance of time in this way: every existing thing in the universe moves with great order, discipline and punctuality. The sun, the moon, the stars and the planets revolve in their orbits according to the system fixed by the True Owner, and every thing in the universe moves with order and discipline. It is this punctuality itself that tells us the importance of time.

Question: 3. (a) Which saying about time is famous?

Answer: This saying about time is famous: whatever work you want to do tomorrow, do it today itself, because "tomorrow" has never come. That is, every work should be done at its own proper time, and work should not be put off until tomorrow.

Question: 4. (a) How can the value of lost time be appreciated?

Answer: The value of lost time can be appreciated in this way: a person should understand that past time does not come back, so he should consider every moment precious, do every work on time and not waste time. The person who wastes time causes loss to his own blessings.

Question: 5. (a) What is the importance of punctuality in daily routines?

Answer: The importance of punctuality in daily routines is this: a punctual person remains ready to do every task, every action and every decision on time, and his life becomes purposeful. The nations which value time succeed, and those which do not value time are left behind.

1. (b) Time is the name of the rotation of day and night.
2. (b) Punctuality is an unnecessary thing.
3. (b) Time is a priceless wealth.
4. (b) Punctuality makes life purposeful.
5. (b) Every thing in the universe moves with order and discipline.

1. (c) By time is meant:

(c) By time is meant:

(a) past, present and future

(b) the three letters of time

(c) era

(d) year

2. (c) The model of punctuality is found in:

(c) The model of punctuality is found in:

(a) human beings

(b) the sun, the moon and the stars

(c) among animals

(d) in trees

3. (c) The important principle of benefiting from time is that every work should be:

(c) The important principle of benefiting from time is that every work should be:

(a) done beforehand

(b) done on time

(c) done late

(d) not done at all

4. (c) The benefits of punctuality are:

(c) The benefits of punctuality are:

(a) increase in honour

(b) progress

(c) sense of responsibility

(d) all of these

5. (c) Not observing punctuality is considered:

(c) Not observing punctuality is considered:

(a) decline

(b) laziness

(c) lack of understanding

(d) all of these

Question: Activity for students: The students write essays on the following topics and present them in class: benefits of punctuality; harms of not observing punctuality. The students show through pictures how nature displays the value of time at every moment.

Answer: This is a class activity, which has no single fixed answer. Method: the students write essays on two topics and present them in class. Worked example — from the lesson's own material: Benefits of punctuality: life becomes purposeful, honour increases, progress is made and nations succeed. Harms of not observing punctuality: time is wasted, blessings are lost, and a person fails and becomes worried in every field. Example from nature: the sun, the moon and the stars revolve in their orbits with punctuality.

بین سان نعمتون وندڑ

Question: 1. (a) With which blessings has the True Owner blessed human beings?

Answer: The True Owner has blessed human beings with countless blessings, such as: food, fruits of every kind, clothes, money, children, health, home, property, honour and status, peace of mind, travel facilities and many other blessings. These blessings make a human being's life peaceful and beautiful.

Question: 2. (a) State the meaning of sharing blessings with others.

Answer: The meaning of sharing blessings with others is this: the blessings given by the True Owner should not be kept only for oneself, but others should also be given a share from them. That is, the needy should be helped from one's food, clothes, money, knowledge and other blessings, so that they too may benefit.

Question: 3. (a) How did the rich man come to know the value of blessings?

Answer: The rich man came to know the value of blessings when he was injured in a motor-car accident and his legs were lost. He remained in hospital for a month and his wealth was of no use at that time. That accident brought a great change in his thinking, and he realised that wealth, comfort and ease are great blessings of the True Owner, for which thanks should be given and which should be shared with others.

Question: 4. (a) What lesson do all religions teach about blessings?

Answer: All religions teach this lesson about blessings: thanks should be given to the True Owner for the blessings He has given, and those blessings should be shared with others. This point has been emphasised in the holy books of all the great religions of the world.

Question: 5. (a) What are the ways of sharing blessings with others?

Answer: The ways of sharing blessings with others are these: the poor and the needy can be given food, clothes and other goods; a sick poor person can be bought medicine; help can be given in the wedding of some poor person's daughter; financial help can be given; a beggar should not be sent back empty-handed; poor students can be helped with school fees, books or buying supplies; orphans and the people of orphanages can be helped; a disabled student can be given a wheelchair; and sharing knowledge is equal to sharing wealth, so bright students can help other students in their studies.

1. (b) Blessings make life peaceful and beautiful. .

2. (b) While a blessing is present, its value is not realised.

3. (b) The rich man did not have the habit of _____.

Answer: giving thanks (gratitude).

4. (b) In the car accident his legs were lost.

5. (b) When trouble comes to a human being, he should show _____ and _____.

Answer: patience, endurance.

✓ 1. (c) In all religions, sharing blessings with others has been spoken of.

✓ 2. (c) The poor and the needy should be helped at once.

✗ 3. (c) A disabled student can be bought a bicycle.

✓ 4. (c) Sharing knowledge is also equal to sharing wealth.

✗ 5. (c) The rich man realised that blessings should be collected and kept.

Question: Activity for students: The students make a list of such works which, by carrying them out, they can share their benefit with others.

Answer: This is a class activity, which has no single fixed answer. Method: the students make a list of works through which they can share benefit with others. Worked example — from the lesson's own material: helping poor students with fees or books; giving food or clothes to the poor; buying medicine for a sick person; helping other students in their studies with one's own knowledge; not sending a beggar back empty-handed.

ايمانداري سچائي

Question: 1. (a) How did the teachers in the school settle the quarrel that arose among the students?

Answer: The teachers settled the quarrel with truthfulness and honesty. They listened carefully to both sides, found out the truth of the matter, and it came to light that Faria's copy was not completely written and she had made a baseless accusation. On the teacher's saying, Faria admitted her mistake and asked for forgiveness, and the other side forgave her, which ended the matter.

Question: 2. (a) Why was Neela late in coming to school?

Answer: Neela was late in coming to school because her vehicle had broken down on the way.

Question: 3. (a) What is the definition of honesty?

Answer: Honesty is a word of wide meaning and one of the highest moral values. Honesty means that a person is truthful, loyal and sincere in every dealing, does not deceive anyone, does not betray others in their things, is truthful in his speech and believes in transparency in every work.

Question: 4. (a) State the definition of truthfulness.

Answer: Truthfulness means that the truth is spoken in every dealing or behaviour, truth is called truth and falsehood is called falsehood, truth is given priority in every matter, and falsehood is hated. A truthful person gives priority to truth in every matter.

Question: 5. (a) On what is the foundation of relationships in the home based?

Answer: The foundation of relationships in the home is based on trust, and the foundation of trust is based on truthfulness and honesty.

1. (b) Crystal began crying because of Faria's accusation.

2. (b) The class teacher found out from her students about the _____.

Answer: truth.

3. (b) Neela had put Faria's copy in her bag _____.

Answer: by mistake. (Note: this blank is filled in the light of the lesson's story.)

4. (b) By moving with honesty and truthfulness, the country progresses _____.

Answer: rapidly.

5. (b) Teachers look at truthful students with a look of respect. .

✓ 1. (c) By acting with honesty and truthfulness, corruption in society will end.

✓ 2. (c) Honesty is a quality of wide meaning.

✗ 3. (c) The members of the household should act just as it comes into their heart.

✗ 4. (c) If someone makes a mistake, he should not confess it.

✓ 5. (c) A thing or money found in school should be given to the headmaster.

Question: Activity for students: The students present some incident of honesty and truthfulness from their own life, and under the teacher's supervision each student describes it in class.

Answer: This is a class activity, which has no single fixed answer. Method: each student narrates a true incident from his own life in which he showed honesty or truthfulness, and describes it in class under the teacher's supervision. Worked example — from the lesson's own material: giving a thing or money found in school to the headmaster; confessing one's mistake and asking for forgiveness; not making a baseless accusation against anyone and speaking the truth.

پاڑي رهڻ جا اصول

Question: 1. (a) Which important points must be kept in mind to keep good relations with neighbours?

Answer: To keep good relations with neighbours, these important points must be kept in mind: to care for the rights of neighbours; not to cause them any kind of trouble; to keep one's home and street clean and tidy; not to play the radio or sound at a loud volume; to help neighbours in time of need; to include them in one's joys and sorrows; and to speak while caring for their self-respect.

Question: 2. (a) How should a good neighbour be looked after?

Answer: A good neighbour should be looked after in this way: his needs should be cared for; he should be helped in grief and trouble; he should be given respect; special care should be taken of his children; he should be included in one's joys and sorrows; and good conduct and pleasant conversation should be kept with him.

Question: 3. (a) Why is one's relationship with neighbours deeper than the relationship with one's family?

Answer: The relationship with neighbours is deep because neighbours are always nearby, they are the first to be of help in grief and happiness, and they are helpers of one another in daily life. For this reason the relationship with a neighbour becomes as deep as the relationship with family.

Question: 4. (a) What did Diane Gottsman, the founder of "The Protocol School of Texas", say about neighbours?

Answer: Diane Gottsman, the founder of "The Protocol School of Texas", said that on any problem with a neighbour one should speak while caring for their self-respect, and if the problem is not solved by talking, then the following methods should be used, such as greeting, smiling, helping and good conduct.

Question: 5. (a) If the problem is not solved by speaking politely, which methods should be used?

Answer: If the problem is not solved by speaking politely, these methods should be used: 1. On coming and going in the neighbourhood, greet one another and meet with a smile. 2. If the grass or garden in front of some house has not been cut, help the neighbour in it. 3. Neighbourly principles and rules should be followed properly. 4. Neighbours should be told from time to time about their health, education, weather, market and daily-use things. 5. Special care should be taken of the neighbours' children. 6. Neighbours should sometimes be invited for tea, included in one's joys and sorrows, and one should take part in their weddings and sorrows. 7. One should not pay attention to the neighbours' talk and should not jump into the middle of any of their matters. 8. Unsolicited advice should not be given about the neighbours' behaviour, dress, food and drink or the upbringing of their children.

1. (b) Helping neighbours in their work is a bad act.

2. (b) Neighbours should not be given anything from the food and drink of the home.

3. (b) One should hold conversations in the neighbourhood.

4. (b) One should go to court against a person who follows the rules of the neighbourhood.

5. (b) One should take part in one another's weddings and sorrows.

1. (c) The neighbourhood is the place where a person:

(c) The neighbourhood is the place where a person:

(a) spends his life

(b) plays games

(c) does business

(d) does a job

2. (c) Neighbours are for one another:

(c) Neighbours are for one another:

(a) friends

✓ (b) helpers

(c) enemies

(d) strangers

3. (c) Getting a good neighbour is:

(c) Getting a good neighbour is:

(a) difficult

✓ (b) a blessing

(c) impossible

(d) possible

4. (c) When matters go bad, people end up in:

(c) When matters go bad, people end up in:

(a) hospitals

(b) banks

(c) markets

✓ (d) courts

5. (c) The rules and laws of the neighbourhood are to be made:

(c) The rules and laws of the neighbourhood are to be made:

✓ (a) with mutual consent

(b) with happiness

(c) with heart

(d) with passion

Question: Activity for students: The students collect material about "the principles of living in a neighbourhood", discuss it in class and note down those important principles.

Answer: This is a class activity, which has no single fixed answer. Method: the students collect material about the principles of living in a neighbourhood, discuss it in class and note down the important principles. Worked example — from the lesson's own material: caring for the rights of neighbours; not causing them trouble; keeping home and street clean; helping in time of need; taking part in joys and sorrows; speaking while caring for self-respect.

ٹریفک جا قاعدا قانون

Question: 1. (a) What is the meaning of traffic rules and laws?

Answer: The meaning of traffic rules and laws is: those rules and laws which the government has made for moving on the roads, so that pedestrians, riders and drivers may all travel safely and order is maintained on the roads.

Question: 2. (a) Why does the government get the traffic law followed?

Answer: The government gets the traffic law followed so that order is maintained on the roads, accidents are prevented, and people's lives and property are protected.

Question: 3. (a) Write some benefits of following the traffic law.

Answer: The benefits of following the traffic law are these: wearing a seat belt while driving protects life; it saves one's own vehicle and others from damage; it saves oneself and other people from becoming disabled; the country's production increases; and every person travels without fear, through which the country progresses.

Question: 4. (a) State the harms caused by not following the traffic law.

Answer: Not following the traffic law causes these harms: road accidents happen, in which people's lives are lost and property is damaged; people are injured or become disabled; the country's production decreases; and breaking the law can also lead to a fine or jail. According to the lesson, every year in the world about 1.35 million people are injured in road accidents and many become disabled, and accidents cost countries 3 percent of their total annual production.

Question: 5. (a) For which acts can a person be fined?

Answer: A person can be fined for these acts: driving at over-speed beyond the limit; not keeping a proper distance between vehicles moving on the road; overtaking the vehicle ahead in a hurry or from the wrong side; driving the vehicle on the empty space below the edge of the road; stopping without any signal or sign; driving in the opposite direction on an expressway where traffic is one-way; keeping the vehicle's lights on high beam at night so that the driver coming from the front can see nothing; climbing onto the road at speed without thinking, against the general principles or rules of traffic; using an intoxicating thing, or driving after using it; wrong parking and ignoring the city's signals or traffic signs on the road; not checking the vehicle's oil, water, brakes and tyre pressure before setting out on a journey; riding a motorcycle without a helmet or seating more than one person on a motorcycle; not fastening the seat belt on time; not holding a driving licence, doing one-wheeling, not wearing a helmet or wrong parking; and on taking any unlawful step, a person is fined or is even sent to jail.

Question: 6. (a) How many kinds of signs are there, and which are they?

Answer: There are three kinds of signs: 1. Mandatory signs — these signs are of round/circular shape, and it is compulsory to act on them; some of them are: No Parking, One Way, Speed Limit, U-Turn, No Overtaking, Right Turn. 2. Warning signs — these signs are of triangular shape, whose meaning is to warn you so that you can remain safe from any accident; some of them are: Traffic Signal, Cross Road, Two Way, Zebra Crossing, Truck and Road. 3. Informative signs — these signs are of square shape, whose meaning is to provide you with information; some of them are: Petrol Pump, Hospital, School, Mosque, Hotel/Restaurant.

1. (b) Walking on foot, riding, or mounted on some animal, moving on the roads and paths is called _____.

Answer: traffic.

2. (b) In the city, traffic signals are there to manage the traffic.

3. (b) The traffic police control the traffic with _____.

Answer: signals (hand signals).

4. (b) It is better to reach home late than never to reach home.

5. (b) Informative signs are of square shape.

✗ 1. (c) Following the traffic law earns a reward.

✗ 2. (c) Riding a motorcycle without a helmet.

✓ 3. (c) Traffic accidents become the cause of people's deaths.

✗ 4. (c) If the railway crossing is closed, the vehicle should be taken out from the side.

✓ 5. (c) Giving a vehicle to young children to drive is extremely dangerous.

Question: Activity for students: The students draw the shapes of traffic signs and write their meanings, and show them to their teacher.

Answer: This is a class activity, which has no single fixed answer. Method: the students draw the shapes of traffic signs, write their meanings and show them to the teacher. Worked example — from the lesson's own material: Mandatory signs (round shape): No Parking, One Way, Speed Limit. Warning signs (triangular shape): Traffic Signal, Zebra Crossing. Informative signs (square shape): Petrol Pump, Hospital, School.

رابطو ان جا طريقا

Question: 1. (a) What is meant by communication (raabto)?

Answer: Communication means the activity through which one person or one group conveys its message or information to another person or group. This communication takes place through language, conversation, gestures and bodily signs. Communication has three basic parts: the sender of the message, the message, and the receiver of the message.

Question: 2. (a) How many kinds of communication are there? Write their names.

Answer: There are four kinds of communication: verbal communication, symbolic communication, bodily/gesture communication, and telecommunication.

Question: 3. (a) Which is the effective medium of communication? Explain.

Answer: The effective medium of communication is conversational (verbal) communication, because in it the speaker can state his meaning directly, the listener can give timely feedback, and misunderstanding can be removed on the spot. For this, the speaker should choose suitable words, sentences and expressions, and the listener should give timely feedback.

Question: 4. (a) What is the difference between bodily gestures and symbols in communication?

Answer: In bodily-gesture communication, the message is given only through the action of the body without speaking, such as facial expressions, movement of the hands and a nod of the head. In symbolic communication, the message is given through signs, such as the arrow sign showing direction and companies' logos; symbols give the message even when the sender of the message is not present.

Question: 5. (a) What things are included in telecommunication?

Answer: Telecommunication includes radio, television, internet service, wireless service, cable and satellite services. In addition, web browsing, email, social media and social networking, video conferencing, phone service and file sharing are also included in it.

✓ 1. (b) Telecommunication helps in business.

✗ 2. (b) Radio, television and mobile are gesture-based media.

✗ 3. (b) Bodily gestures and expressions help in walking on the road.

✓ 4. (b) Verbal communication is the most effective medium.

✓ 5. (b) Good conversation is of great importance for establishing a good relationship.

1. (c) Conveying a message through verbal conversation, gestures and symbols is called:

(c) Conveying a message through verbal conversation, gestures and symbols is called:

✓ (a) communication

(b) relationship

(c) information

(d) news

2. (c) The medium of conveying a message through waves and sounds is called:

(c) The medium of conveying a message through waves and sounds is called:

(a) written medium

✓ (b) telecommunication medium

(c) bodily-gesture medium

(d) symbol medium

3. (c) The effective medium of communication is:

(c) The effective medium of communication is:

(a) telecommunication

(b) symbolic

(c) conversational

(d) written

4. (c) Giving a message through facial expressions and nods of the head is called:

(c) Giving a message through facial expressions and nods of the head is called:

(a) bodily-gesture medium

(b) telecommunication medium

(c) verbal medium

(d) symbols-and-signs medium

5. (c) The institution supervising telecommunication in Pakistan is:

(c) The institution supervising telecommunication in Pakistan is:

(a) WAPDA

(b) PEMRA

(c) NEPRA

(d) NAMRA

Question: Activity for students: In class, the students demonstrate a practical model of telecommunication and its five kinds for one day.

Answer: This is a class activity, which has no single fixed answer. Method: the students practically demonstrate the five kinds of telecommunication in class. Worked example — from the lesson's own material: 1. Conveying a message by speaking (a conversation between two students); 2. Telling something through bodily gestures (a message through hand and facial gestures); 3. Conveying a message in written form (a written letter or note); 4. Conveying a message through graphs, charts and logos or other symbols (an arrow sign or the school logo); 5. Conveying a message through the telephone (a conversation on the phone).

مواصلاتي رابطو

Question: 1. (a) What gift did Raj give to his grandmother?

Answer: Raj gave his grandmother the gift of a mobile phone. He worked in a computer software company, and when he received his salary he bought a mobile for his grandmother.

Question: 2. (a) What are the ways of putting balance in a mobile?

Answer: There are two ways of putting balance in a mobile: 1. Prepaid — that is, putting in money first, then talking through phone calls or messages; 2. Postpaid — that is, paying the bill after talking through phone calls and messages.

Question: 3. (a) What facilities of communication are obtained through the mobile?

Answer: These communication facilities are obtained through the mobile: talking on the phone, SMS (short message), email, chatting, WhatsApp, Twitter, Facebook, taking photos and making videos, setting a tune and alarm of one's choice, putting the phone on silent mode, and participating in seminars and meetings through video conferencing.

Question: 4. (a) What is the meaning of a conference or video call?

Answer: A conference or video call means that through modern programs people can talk to one another seeing and hearing each other, as if sitting face to face; through it one can also participate in seminars, interviews and meetings.

Question: 5. (a) What are the modern ways of communication?

Answer: The modern ways of communication are these: SMS, email, chatting, WhatsApp, Twitter, Facebook, Skype and video conferencing. Through them we can remain in contact with one another.

1. (b) Raj gave his grandmother as a gift:

(b) Raj gave his grandmother as a gift:

✓ (a) a mobile phone

(b) a motor car

(c) a mare

(d) a bicycle

2. (b) The name of paying through a bill after using a mobile phone is:

✓ (b) The name of paying through a bill after using a mobile phone is:

(a) prepaid

✓ (b) postpaid

(c) post office

(d) easy load

3. (b) In the early period, the only facility in a mobile was:

(b) In the early period, the only facility in a mobile was:

(a) playing video

(b) playing audio

✓ (c) messaging and calling

(d) video calling

4. (b) To make a video call with the other person, it is necessary that the mobile has their:

✓ (b) To make a video call with the other person, it is necessary that the mobile has their:

(a) name

✓ (b) number

(c) balance

(d) time

5. (b) The most important educational role of the mobile is:

(b) The most important educational role of the mobile is:

(a) playing video

(b) messaging

(c) calling

(d) giving online education

1. (c) The present age is called the age of technology.

2. (c) The world has changed into a global village.

3. (c) The mobile phone has no mentionable role in education, trade, politics and society.

4. (c) SMS means Short Machine System.

5. (c) Raj gave his whole salary to his mother.

Question: Activity for students: Hold a discussion on the advantages and disadvantages of the mobile phone in common use in the present age, and prepare lists of the advantages and disadvantages.

Answer: This is a class activity, which has no single fixed answer. Method: a discussion on the advantages and disadvantages of the mobile phone is held in class, and lists of both are prepared. Worked example — from the lesson's own material: Advantages: easy contact with any part of the world; facilities of phone, SMS, email, chatting, WhatsApp and video conferencing; options such as tune, alarm, camera and silent mode; access to books and information. Disadvantages: the harms of wrong use, which must be avoided; excessive use of the mobile can waste time and cause trouble to others.

زبان ذريعي رابطو

Question: 1. (a) What is meant by the proper manner of conversation?

Answer: The proper manner of conversation means that one should speak in a soft and suitable voice, with manners and courtesy; when addressing the other person, one should use "you" respectfully or take their name in a nice manner; one should behave with elders with manners and courtesy and speak with the young with love.

Question: 2. (a) What are the benefits of soft conversation?

Answer: The benefits of soft conversation are these: people like us and want to be friends with us; we receive honour among our own people and strangers; family members treat us with love and affection; in society we are looked upon with respect; and problems are solved through soft speech. All these virtues play an important role in building our personality.

Question: 3. (a) What things should we keep in mind while speaking?

Answer: While speaking we should keep these things in mind: speaking in a soft tone and suitable voice, keeping the etiquette of conversation in view, addressing the other person respectfully with "you" or by name, behaving with elders with manners and courtesy, speaking with the young with love, and being satisfied with our own way of conversation.

Question: 4. (a) What harm is caused by speaking too slowly/quietly?

Answer: By speaking too slowly/quietly, the listener cannot understand the purpose; the speech is so quiet that the listener does not understand the meaning.

Question: 5. (a) When is speaking in a loud voice harmful?

Answer: Speaking in a loud voice is harmful because it not only pollutes the environment, but the sharp voice also creates difficulty for the listener and spoils the environment psychologically; conversation in a loud voice often takes the form of a quarrel.

1. (b) Speak nicely with people.

2. (b) Through patience, the ruler becomes pleased. .

3. (b) A soft tongue breaks even the bone. .

4. (b) The lighthouse gives travellers from afar the direction to the _____.

Answer: destination.

5. (b) Great personalities too taught _____ conversation in their _____.

Answer: soft, lives. The great elders and prophets of the world invited people with love, affection, a soft tone and sweet language.

✓ 1. (c) A loud voice creates pollution in the environment.

✓ 2. (c) People get fed up with a quarrelsome voice.

✗ 3. (c) Conversing in a proper manner makes a person undignified.

✓ 4. (c) Through speaking nicely, the minds of others can be won.

✓ 5. (c) Conversation is an important medium of communication.

Question: Activity for students: The students discuss good and bad manners of conversation among themselves and make lists of the good and bad manners.

Answer: This is a class activity, which has no single fixed answer. Method: the students discuss good and bad manners of conversation among themselves and make lists of both manners. Worked example — from the lesson's own material: Good manner: speaking in a soft tone, suitable voice, etiquette of conversation, addressing with "you" or by name in a nice manner, manners and courtesy with elders, love with the young. Bad manner: speaking in a loud and sharp voice, a quarrelsome manner, rudeness, speech that hurts the other person, speaking so quietly that the purpose is not understood.

حضرت رابعہ بصری

Question: 1. (a) How did the thieves treat Hazrat Rabia Basri and her sisters?

Answer: The thieves seized all four sisters and sold them to a trader. Hazrat Rabia Basri was sold to a cruel man, who made her a slave and kept oppressing her.

Question: 2. (a) By what name is Hazrat Rabia Basri famous in history?

Answer: Hazrat Rabia Basri is famous in history by the name "Umm-ul-Khair" (Mother of Goodness), because through worship and spirituality she attained a high rank and obtained the love of the True Owner.

Question: 3. (a) Write a note on the personality of Hazrat Rabia Basri.

Answer: Hazrat Rabia Basri was very intelligent, wise and devoted in worship. She remained engaged in the worship of the True Owner day and night and considered worship the purpose of her life. She was the greatest ascetic (zahida) of her age, famous for renunciation (zuhd), piety, humility and modesty. Even in poverty, orphanhood, slavery and other hardships, she did not abandon patience and accepted those hardships as the will of the True Owner. Her patience and endurance are an example for the reformers of every age.

Question: 4. (a) What did Hazrat Rabia Basri say about the worship of the True Owner?

Answer: Hazrat Rabia Basri said that the worship of the True Owner should not be done out of fear of hell or greed for paradise, but considering Him worthy of worship, worship should be done in His love.

✗ 1. (b) Hazrat Rabia Basri was born in the Saudi city of Basra.

2. (b) Her father's name was Muhammad Ismail.

3. (b) The word "Rabia" means the third number.

4. (b) Rabia Basri was an intelligent and wise woman.

5. (b) In her view, the True Owner should be worshipped considering Him the truly-worthy deity.

1. (c) Hazrat Rabia Basri is famous in history by the name:

(c) Hazrat Rabia Basri is famous in history by the name:

(a) Umm-ul-Khair

(b) Umm-ul-Masakeen

(c) Umm-ul-Momineen

(d) Umm-ul-Kabaair

2. (c) The number of Hazrat Rabia Basri's sisters was:

(c) The number of Hazrat Rabia Basri's sisters was:

(a) two

(b) three

(c) four

(d) five

3. (c) The word "Rabia" means:

(c) The word "Rabia" means:

(a) pious

(b) truthful

(c) virtuous

(d) the fourth number

4. (c) The thieves pushed Hazrat Rabia and her sisters into a life of:

(c) The thieves pushed Hazrat Rabia and her sisters into a life of:

(a) slavery

(b) poverty

(c) rejection

(d) theft

5. (c) "Zuhd" means:

(c) "Zuhd" means:

(a) becoming rich

(b) becoming alone

(c) giving up the world

(d) meeting the True Owner

Question: Activity for students: The students discuss these points: 1. Hazrat Rabia Basri was very strict in the matter of her worship and spiritual exercise. 2. The words spoken by Hazrat Rabia Basri in the love of the True Owner.

Answer: This is a class activity, which has no single fixed answer. Method: the students discuss both given points. Worked example — from the lesson's own material: 1. Hazrat Rabia Basri remained engaged in worship day and night, took little from worldly works, and made spiritual exercise and striving in the worship of the True Owner the purpose of her life. 2. The meaning of her spoken words: worship should be done not out of fear of hell or greed for paradise, but in the love of the True Owner.

زرتشت

Question: 1. (a) Where was Zoroaster (Zarathushtra) born?

Answer: Zoroaster was born in the city of "Rai" in the Azerbaijan province of Iran. Traditions differ about his birth, but mostly his birth is given as about 660 BC.

Question: 2. (a) To which family did Zoroaster's parents belong?

Answer: Zoroaster's parents belonged to a family engaged in farming and the care of animals; his ancestral occupation was cultivation and rearing animals. His parents wanted him to do that same ancestral work, but Zoroaster made the service of creation his goal.

Question: 3. (a) From which teacher did Zoroaster receive education in childhood?

Answer: In childhood Zoroaster received his early education from the famous teacher Hakeem Bazakarza. In less than ten years he became expert in the knowledge of countless religions, cultivation and the care of animals.

Question: 4. (a) At what age did Zoroaster obtain the recognition (ma'rifat) of the True Owner?

Answer: At about the age of thirty, Zoroaster was granted the recognition of the True Owner, and he received from "Ahura Mazda" those words which are the foundation of his teachings and of the "Gatha".

Question: 5. (a) How did Zoroaster die?

Answer: Zoroaster wanted to spread his religion in Turan with the help of the king of Iran, as a result of which war broke out between the countries, and a Turanian soldier martyred him with his dagger. At the age of 77, in 583 BC, he departed from this world.

1. (b) Zoroaster means _____.

Answer: the owner or keeper of a golden camel. This is the meaning of the word Zoroaster in the ancient Avestan language.

2. (b) The birthplace of Zoroaster is _____ the city of "Rai".

3. (b) Zoroaster received his early education from _____.

Answer: Hakeem Bazakarza.

4. (b) Ahura Mazda means _____.

Answer: the Wise Lord. "Ahura" means Lord and "Mazda" means Wise.

5. (b) A soldier martyred Zoroaster through a _____ dagger. .

✓ 1. (c) The king, his wife, children and other ministers together believed in Zoroaster.

✗ 2. (c) Zoroaster is a Turkish word.

✗ 3. (c) The Gatha is written in the form of prose.

✓ 4. (c) Zoroaster opposed nature-worship and polytheism.

✓ 5. (c) Zoroaster's ancestral occupation was farming and rearing animals.

Question: Activity for students: The students discuss these points: 1. A human being sees the result of his word and deed. 2. Pity is on such a person who does not give charity, and whose heart is not happy.

Answer: This is a class activity, which has no single fixed answer. Method: the students discuss both given points. Worked example — from the lesson's own material: 1. A human being sees the result of his word and deed: as purity comes into a human being's thoughts, his deeds themselves become correct; the result of good thought and good deed is good, and the result of bad thought and deed is bad. 2. Zoroaster expressed pity for such a person who does not give charity and whose heart is not happy; according to the lesson, a wealthy person should help the needy and the deserving people of other religions too from his wealth.

مقدس توما حواري

Question: 1. (a) Who is called a disciple of Hazrat Jesus Christ (peace be upon him)?

Answer: The disciples of Hazrat Jesus Christ are called his apostles (Hawari). Hawari means companion, helper and supporter. They were his special disciples and companions, who always remained with him, and their number was twelve.

Question: 2. (a) Who gave St. Thomas the title of "Apostle"?

Answer: The name of any particular person who gave this title is not stated in the lesson. St. Thomas is called "Apostle of India and Pakistan" because, by the command of Hazrat Jesus Christ, he preached in the regions of India and present-day Pakistan in the course of the invitation of apostleship.

Question: 3. (a) Where and when did St. Thomas die?

Answer: St. Thomas died on 3 July 72 AD in Mylapore (Madras), India. At that time he was busy in his work of invitation and was killed by a spear.

Question: 4. (a) By what name is the church known at the place where St. Thomas died?

Answer: At the place where St. Thomas died, a church was later built, which is known by the name "St. Thoma Cathedral".

Question: 5. (a) Write a note about St. Thomas.

Answer: St. Thomas was one of the twelve apostles of Hazrat Jesus Christ. Before discipleship he was a Jew, and after accepting discipleship he followed his guide with heart and soul. His character was of a very serious and quiet nature, and he always remained ready to examine facts. He is known in connection with the testimony of the rising again of Hazrat Jesus Christ; at first he refused to accept that event and said that until he himself saw, he would not believe, which is why he is called "Doubting Thomas". Afterwards he himself saw Hazrat Jesus Christ and confessed faith. He preached in the regions of India and present-day Pakistan, and wherever he went he had churches built there, and that is why he is called "Apostle of India and Pakistan".

1. (b) The meanings of the words companion, helper and supporter are those of:

(b) The meanings of the words companion, helper and supporter are those of:

(c) Nazarene

(d) Christian

2. (b) The number of the apostles of Hazrat Jesus Christ is:

✓ (b) The number of the apostles of Hazrat Jesus Christ is:

(a) 11

✓ (b) 12

(c) 13

(d) 14

3. (b) Before the discipleship of Hazrat Jesus Christ, St. Thomas was:

(b) Before the discipleship of Hazrat Jesus Christ, St. Thomas was:

(a) a saint

(b) a pope

✓ (c) a Jew

(d) a Christian

Question: 4. (b) Doubting Thomas is the name given to: (a) St. Thomas (b) St. Albert (c) St. Thomas (d) St. Peter

Answer: (a) St. Thomas. (In the book, both (a) and (c) are printed as "St. Thomas".)

5. (b) St. Thomas went with his eleven companions to:

(b) St. Thomas went with his eleven companions to:

(a) Jerusalem

(b) Galilee

(c) Judea

(d) Hebron

1. (c) St. Thomas is also called the Apostle of Pakistan and China.

2. (c) Wherever he went, he had churches built there.

3. (c) When Hazrat Jesus Christ appeared to his disciples, St. Thomas was there.

4. (c) St. Thomas the Apostle was a disciple of Hazrat Jesus Christ.

5. (c) The Pope appointed St. Thomas as the patron of India.

Question: Activity for students: The students discuss these points: 1. Why is St. Thomas called "Doubting Thomas"? 2. Giving one's life in the work of invitation is a work of great reward.

Answer: This is a class activity, which has no single fixed answer. Method: the students discuss both given points. Worked example — from the lesson's own material: 1. St. Thomas is called "Doubting Thomas" because at first he refused to accept the event of the rising again of Hazrat Jesus Christ and said that until he himself saw, he would not believe. 2. Giving one's life in the work of invitation is a work of great reward: St. Thomas remained busy his whole life in teaching the recognition of Christ and faith, and gave his life in the very work of invitation.

عید الاضحیٰ

Question: 1. (a) What is the real purpose of Eid-ul-Adha?

Answer: The real purpose of Eid-ul-Adha is that it be celebrated with Islamic spirit, which includes purifying the human self, increasing Islamic brotherhood and unity, and keeping alive the feeling of human friendship in the world. On this occasion Muslims offer the Eid prayer, offer sacrifice following the Sunnah of Ibrahim, and distribute the meat among the poor, the needy, relatives and friends.

Question: 2. (a) Why is Eid-ul-Adha called the "Festival of Sacrifice"?

Answer: Eid-ul-Adha is called the "Festival of Sacrifice" because this festival is celebrated in memory of that great sacrifice in which Hazrat Ibrahim (peace be upon him), by the command of the True Owner, became ready to sacrifice his beloved son Hazrat Ismail (peace be upon him).

Question: 3. (a) What important messages does the spirit of goodness and piety indicate?

Answer: The message of goodness and piety is this: the meat and blood of the sacrifice do not reach the True Owner, but the intention and piety of a human being reach Him. The sacrifice teaches us this lesson: that we keep ourselves always ready to help the needy, and sacrifice our dearest thing in the name of the True Owner.

Question: 4. (a) Write a note about the historical event related to Eid-ul-Adha.

Answer: Hazrat Ibrahim (peace be upon him) received the command, by the order of the True Owner, to sacrifice his beloved son Hazrat Ismail (peace be upon him). Both father and son became ready for this sacrifice before the court of the True Owner. When Hazrat Ibrahim was about to sacrifice his son, the True Owner accepted his sacrifice and sent a ram in place of Hazrat Ismail, which was sacrificed. The day of Eid-ul-Adha is celebrated every year in memory of this great sacrifice, and the Sunnah of Hazrat Ibrahim is renewed.

Question: 5. (a) Where did the event of the sacrifice take place?

Answer: This question is not found directly in the lesson text; the name of the place of the sacrifice event is not stated in the lesson. According to the lesson, this event happened with Hazrat Ibrahim and Hazrat Ismail, who prepared for the sacrifice on the command of the True Owner.

1. (b) Eid-ul-Adha is also called the _____.

Answer: Festival of Sacrifice.

2. (b) By the command of the True Owner, Hazrat Ibrahim intended to slaughter his _____.

Answer: beloved son Hazrat Ismail.

3. (b) In place of Hazrat Ismail, a ram was sacrificed.

4. (b) Eid-ul-Adha is celebrated in memory of _____.

Answer: this great sacrifice.

5. (b) This Eid teaches us to sacrifice the _____ thing in our _____.

Answer: dearest, life.

✗ 1. (c) The meat of the sacrifice is only for oneself.

✓ 2. (c) Hazrat Ibrahim received the command to slaughter his son.

✗ 3. (c) In place of his son, a goat was sacrificed.

✗ 4. (c) On this day Muslims burst firecrackers.

✗ 5. (c) The meat and blood of animals reach the True Owner.

Question: Activity for students: The students discuss these points: 1. Piety is a beloved, lofty attribute of the True Owner. 2. Eid-ul-Adha gives us the feeling of sympathy for others.

Answer: This is a class activity, which has no single fixed answer. Method: the students discuss both given points. Worked example — from the lesson's own material: 1. Piety is a beloved, lofty attribute of the True Owner: not the meat and blood of the sacrifice, but the intention and piety of a human being reach the True Owner. 2. Eid-ul-Adha gives us the feeling of sympathy for others: the meat of the sacrifice is distributed among the poor, the needy, relatives and friends, and Eid teaches us to remain always ready to help the needy.

ایسٹر

Question: 1. (a) What is the way of knowing the date of Easter?

Answer: The way of knowing the date of Easter is this: after 21 March, the first Sunday coming after the full moon is Easter.

Question: 2. (a) Why do Christians celebrate Easter?

Answer: Christians celebrate Easter in memory of the rising of Hazrat Jesus Christ from the dead.

Question: 3. (a) How do the Christians of the whole world celebrate the day of Easter?

Answer: The Christians of the whole world celebrate the day of Easter with grandeur and splendour. On that day, in the worship services in churches, lessons of tolerance, love, affection and sacrifice are given. In homes, feasts and good foods are cooked, all families eat together, people of other religions also congratulate their Christian friends, and Easter eggs are eaten and given.

Question: 4. (a) Write a note about Easter.

Answer: Easter is a great festival of the Christian year, which is celebrated in memory of the rising of Hazrat Jesus Christ from the dead. The rising of Hazrat Jesus Christ from the dead is the fulfilment of the prophecies of the Bible. The Christians of the whole world believe that Hazrat Jesus Christ rose from the dead. That is why "Easter" or the "Festival of the Resurrection of Christ" is celebrated. On this day there are worship services in churches, feasts in homes, and Easter eggs are used, which are a symbol of new life.

Question: 5. (a) What is the meaning of Easter eggs?

Answer: Easter eggs are used in memory of the coming back to life of Hazrat Jesus Christ after being given on the cross. Inside an egg there is fertile life, so Easter eggs are a symbol of fertility and life. Nowadays, instead of real eggs, chocolate-filled eggs are given, especially to children.

1. (b) Easter is called in Sindhi and Urdu:

(b) Easter is called in Sindhi and Urdu:

✓ (a) Eid-e-Qayam-e-Masih

(b) Christmas

(c) Baisakhi

(d) Eid

2. (b) Easter is celebrated because of the _____ of Hazrat Jesus Christ:

(b) Easter is celebrated because of the _____ of Hazrat Jesus Christ:

(a) birth

(b) death

✓ (c) rising again

(d) revelation

3. (b) The belief of Christians is that Hazrat Jesus Christ came back to life after death:

✓ (b) The belief of Christians is that Hazrat Jesus Christ came back to life after death:

(a) after two days

✓ (b) after three days

(c) after four days

(d) after five days

4. (b) At one time, people together saw Hazrat Jesus Christ:

✓ (b) At one time, people together saw Hazrat Jesus Christ:

(a) 400

✓ (b) 500

(c) 300

(d) 100

5. (b) The special food of Easter is:

(b) The special food of Easter is:

(a) greens

(b) vermicelli

(c) meat

(d) eggs

1. (c) The coming back to life of Hazrat Jesus Christ is the fulfilment of the prophecy of the Bible.

2. (c) People also saw Hazrat Jesus Christ.

3. (c) Easter is an important festival of the Parsis.

4. (c) Easter eggs are filled with chocolate.

5. (c) Easter eggs are a symbol of fertility and life.

Question: Activity for students: The students write the names of the religious days of Christianity and their brief introduction, and hold a discussion on them in class.

Answer: This is a class activity, which has no single fixed answer. Method: the students write the names of the religious days of the Christian religion and their brief introduction, and hold a discussion on them in class.

Worked example — from the lesson's own material: Easter (Festival of the Resurrection of Christ) — a great festival of the Christian year, celebrated in memory of the rising of Hazrat Jesus Christ from the dead; the way of fixing the date: the first Sunday coming after the first full moon after 21 March.

هولي

Question: 1. (a) What is the message of Holi?

Answer: The message of Holi is that truth triumphs and goodness prevails over evil. The important purpose of the day is to keep oneself away from evils and adopt virtues, and to illuminate one's heart and soul with the colours of Holi. The shower of colours expresses love and affection.

Question: 2. (a) Write the historical background of the festival of Holi.

Answer: It is an old story that at some time a king, Hiranyakashipu, ruled from Kashmir to Multan. His prayer had been accepted that death would come to him at a time when there was neither day nor night, neither on earth, nor in the sky, nor in the air, neither inside the house nor outside. Because of this he became deluded and claimed divinity, and forced the people to accept him as their lord and prostrate to him. His son Prahlad refused this and said that a human being is mortal, and Bhagwan should be worshipped. Hiranyakashipu gave Prahlad various torments, threw him into the river and hurled him down from a mountain, but Prahlad survived every time. In the end Hiranyakashipu met defeat and perished along with his courtiers, while Prahlad remained alive by the will of the True Owner. The festival of Holi is celebrated in joy at this victory of Prahlad.

Question: 3. (a) How do Hindus themselves celebrate the day of Holi?

Answer: Hindus celebrate the day of Holi in the spring season. On this festival, fire is lit at night, which is called "Holika Dahan". In the daytime people shower colours on one another, which expresses love and affection. In Pakistan the Hindu community celebrates this day with great grandeur and splendour, and the Hindus of the whole world send messages of joy to one another.

Question: 4. (a) Write a note about the festival of Holi.

Answer: Holi is one of the important festivals of the Hindu religion, which is celebrated as the arrival of Basant, that is, the spring season. The day of Holi is a symbol of the victory of the joy of Prahlad, and is celebrated in joy at the triumph of truth. On this festival, the fire of "Holika Dahan" is lit at night, and in the daytime a shower of colours is poured. The message of Holi is that one should keep away from evils, adopt virtues, and illuminate the heart and soul with colours. While celebrating Holi, such colours should be used as are not harmful to the eyes and skin.

Question: 5. (a) What did Prahlad say to the people of the temple?

Answer: Prahlad said to the people of the temple that a human being is mortal, and we should worship Bhagwan. He refused to prostrate to Hiranyakashipu, and also stopped the people from prostrating to him.

1. (b) Holi is the festival of _____ joy. _____ .

2. (b) The day of Holi is celebrated in joy at the triumph of _____ truth. _____ .

3. (b) The purpose of Holi is to keep oneself away from _____ and adopt _____.

Answer: evils, virtues.

4. (b) The purpose of applying colours is to illuminate one's _____ and _____.

Answer: heart, soul.

5. (b) On this occasion people shower _____ of _____ on one another.

Answer: rains, colours

✓ 1. (c) In Holi, such colours should be used as are not harmful.

✗ 2. (c) Prahlad had claimed divinity.

3. (c) People were prostrating to Hiranyakashipu.

4. (c) The lighting of fire on the night of Holi is called "Holika Dahan".

5. (c) Holi is celebrated in the winter season.

Question: Activity for students: The students discuss these points: 1. In the war of truth and falsehood, truth is always the victory, that is, the victory of truth. 2. Truthfulness is the purpose of our life, just as Prahlad triumphed.

Answer: This is a class activity, which has no single fixed answer. Method: the students discuss both given points. Worked example — from the lesson's own material: 1. In the war of truth and falsehood, truth is always the victory, that is, the victory of truth: Prahlad remained firm on truth, and in the end Hiranyakashipu met defeat. 2. Truthfulness is the purpose of our life, just as Prahlad triumphed: because Prahlad remained firm on truthfulness, he survived even the torments and obtained victory; we too should make truthfulness the purpose of our life.

نوروز

Question: 1. (a) Of which language is the word "Nauroz" a word?

Answer: "Nauroz" is a word of the Persian language, which means "new day".

Question: 2. (a) What important thing is mentioned in this lesson about 21 March?

Answer: The important things about 21 March are these: on 21 March day and night are equal and the spring season begins; on that day the earth completes its orbit around the sun and begins a new journey; and on that day the festival of Nauroz is celebrated.

Question: 3. (a) When and by whom was the festival of Nauroz started in Iran?

Answer: According to historical traditions, the festival of Nauroz was started about two and a half thousand years ago by Jamshed, the king of Iran. He declared Nauroz a national festival.

Question: 4. (a) What celebrations take place on the day of "Nauroz"?

Answer: On the day of Nauroz these celebrations take place: the followers of the Zoroastrian religion spread a dining cloth (dastarkhwan), on which seven special things (Haft-Seen) are used — Sabzi, Samanu, Soof, Sanjid, Seer, Sumaq and Sirko; all members of the family participate in decorating the dastarkhwan; people give gifts to one another; and the celebrations of the arrival of spring continue for several days.

Question: 5. (a) Write a note about "Nauroz".

Answer: Nauroz is a word of the Persian language, which means "new day". Some of the followers of the Zoroastrian religion and Islam celebrate the festival of Nauroz every year on 21 March. On 21 March day and night are equal and the spring season begins. According to historical traditions, Nauroz was started about two and a half thousand years ago by Jamshed, the king of Iran, who declared Nauroz a national festival. To this day Nauroz is the national festival of Iran and is celebrated every year with great grandeur and splendour. On the day of Nauroz, the followers of the Zoroastrian religion spread the Haft-Seen dastarkhwan. The day of Nauroz brings the message of new hope, and is also a day of thanksgiving along with the feeling of the mercy and blessing of the True Owner.

1. (b) The word "Nauroz" is taken from the language:

(b) The word "Nauroz" is taken from the language:

✓ (a) Persian

(b) Arabic

(c) Urdu

(d) Sindhi

2. (b) The word "Nauroz" means:

✓ (b) The word "Nauroz" means:

(a) ninth day

✓ (b) new day

(c) first day

(d) big day

3. (b) Nauroz was declared a national festival by:

(b) Nauroz was declared a national festival by:

(a) Khusrau

(b) Khomeini

✓ (c) Jamshed

(d) Ahmadinejad

4. (b) The festival of Nauroz is celebrated by the followers of:

(b) The festival of Nauroz is celebrated by the followers of:

(a) Islam

(b) Judaism

(c) Christianity

(d) the Zoroastrian religion

5. (b) The number of things on the dastarkhwan in Nauroz is:

(b) The number of things on the dastarkhwan in Nauroz is:

(a) 4

(b) 5

(c) 6

(d) 7

1. (c) Nauroz is the national day of Pakistanis.

2. (c) Nauroz has been celebrated since a thousand years ago.

3. (c) Nauroz is celebrated every year on 25 December.

4. (c) On 21 March, the day and night are short.

5. (c) Nauroz is a day of thanksgiving for the blessing of the True Owner.

Question: Activity for students: The students discuss these points: 1. The festival of Nauroz is very close to this universe and nature. 2. The festival of Nauroz is based on cultural and religious aspects. 3. The message of hope and peace of Nauroz in practical life.

Answer: This is a class activity, which has no single fixed answer. Method: the students discuss all three given points. Worked example — from the lesson's own material: 1. The festival of Nauroz is very close to this universe and nature: on 21 March day and night are equal, the spring season begins, and the earth completes its orbit around the sun and begins a new journey. 2. The festival of Nauroz is based on cultural and religious aspects: Nauroz is a festival of the Zoroastrian religion and also the national festival of Iran; it includes cultural customs such as the Haft-Seen dastarkhwan and gifts. 3. The message of hope and peace of Nauroz in practical life: the day of Nauroz brings the message of new hope and preaches the spirit of friendship and human friendship.