Religious Studies

Class 8 (English Medium)

Solved Exercises — Sindh Textbook Board

20 lessons — 417 questions

سماجي پلائي  مذهب جو كردار

Question: 1. (a) Describe the importance and benefits of religion for human progress.

Answer: Religion has remained a great source of human progress and welfare. It teaches a human being truthfulness, justice and helping others, helps maintain peace and order in society, and prepares a person for personal, social and spiritual progress.

Question: 2. (a) What things do religions urge for social welfare?

Answer: Religions urge self-sacrifice, charity, giving, zakat and helping the needy for social welfare. Every religion teaches its followers to set aside some part of their earnings for the poor, orphans, the destitute, the sick and travellers.

Question: 3. (a) In what way can we play our role for social welfare? Explain with examples.

Answer: We can play our role for social welfare not only with money but also with our service and time. Examples: looking after a sick person at some time, teaching someone, guiding someone, or helping a needy person.

Question: 4. (a) How did the human being of the earlier age spend his life?

Answer: In the earlier age, a human being lived in jungles and faced difficulties such as protection from severe cold and heat, obtaining food, hunting and saving himself from wild animals for his livelihood. At that time man had no knowledge of law and order.

Question: 5. (a) What effect does the trend of general welfare have on people?

Answer: With the trend of general welfare, every person thinks of the good of others, which increases love, sympathy and cooperation in society and establishes an ideal society.

1. (b) Zakat is paid in:

(b) Zakat is paid in:

(a) Christianity

(b) Sanatan Dharma

✓ (c) Islam

(d) Sikh Dharma

2. (b) The concept of "daan" (giving) is in:

✓ (a) Buddhism

(b) Sikh Dharma

(c) Christianity

(d) Islam

3. (b) Who believe in the Guru Granth Sahib:

(b) Who believe in the Guru Granth Sahib:

✓ (a) followers of Sikhism

(b) followers of Jainism

(c) followers of Christianity

(d) followers of Buddhism

4. (b) Giving a share to others from one's earnings pleases:

(b) Giving a share to others from one's earnings pleases:

(a) the poor

(b) society

✓ (c) the True Owner

(d) every human being

5. (b) In the earliest period of history, man lived in:

✓ (b) In the earliest period of history, man lived in:

(a) mountains

(b) jungles

(c) the sky

(d) the earth

Question: 1. (c) It is human nature that he cannot live apart from ___.

Answer: Society. It is human nature that he cannot live apart from society.

Question: 2. (c) For helping widows, orphans and the destitute in society, the religion of Islam has given the command of ___.

Answer: Zakat. For helping widows, orphans and the destitute in society, the religion of Islam has given the command of zakat.

Question: 3. (c) The lesson of self-sacrifice for the welfare of society was given by ___.

Answer: The religions of the world. The lesson of self-sacrifice for the welfare of society was given by the religions of the world.

Question: 4. (c) In Christianity, fixing some part of one's earnings for the poor is called ___.

Answer: Tithe. In Christianity, fixing some part of one's earnings for the poor is called tithe (the tenth part).

Question: 5. (c) In Hinduism, giving ten percent of one's earnings is called ___.

Answer: Dashma Paag Wart. In Hinduism, the pledge to give ten percent of one's earnings as daan for the poor is called Dashma Paag Wart.

✓ 1. (d) Religion taught man the importance of society and the ways of living in it.

✓ 2. (d) A human being, while living in society, should strive for its welfare.

✗ 3. (d) In the earlier age, wars did not continue generation after generation.

4. (d) For the welfare and betterment of humanity, a share should be set aside for others from one's earnings.

✓

5. (d) For social progress, a person can play his role only through money.

Question: Activity for students: The students prepare a list of tasks for playing a positive role in society, and hold a discussion about it in class and draw conclusions.

Answer: This is a class activity, which has no single fixed answer. Method: the students prepare a list of tasks for a positive role in society and draw conclusions by discussing in class. Worked example — from the lesson's own material: the list may include: looking after a sick person, teaching someone, setting aside a share from one's earnings to help the poor, and giving time for the welfare of society.

اخلاقي ستاري  مذهب جو ڪردار

Question: 1. (a) What things does religion urge for becoming a good human being?

Answer: For becoming a good human being, religion urges goodness: speaking the truth, respecting others, forgiving, adopting gentleness, helping others, assisting the needy, adopting truth and justice in word and deed, tolerance, collectivity and respect.

Question: 2. (a) Why is it necessary to respect others?

Answer: Respecting others is necessary because respect creates love and trust in society, and whoever respects others is also respected.

Question: 3. (a) What benefit is gained by respecting others?

Answer: By respecting others, one also gains respect, and love, trust and good relations are established in society.

Question: 4. (a) According to the Sikh religion, which things lead towards failure?

Answer: According to the Sikh religion, seven things lead towards failure: Ahankar (pride), Kaam (vain desires), Krodh (anger), Lobh (greed), Moh (love of the world), Man-Mukh (asserting oneself) and Maya (love of wealth).

Question: 5. (a) What things does every religion urge?

Answer: Every religion urges goodness, truthfulness, respect for others, forgiveness, gentleness, help, truth and justice, tolerance, collectivity and respect.

1. (b) The key to maintaining peace and order in the whole world is:

(b) The key to maintaining peace and order in the whole world is:

(a) education

(b) science

(c) good behaviour

✓ (d) religion

2. (b) The door of hell is called:

(b) The door of hell is called:

✓ (a) Kaam

(b) Krodh

(c) Lobh

(d) Sapti

3. (b) Mukti (liberation) is attained by:

✓ (a) doing good deeds

(b) doing bad deeds

(c) being greedy

(d) stealing

4. (b) Every religion teaches:

(b) Every religion teaches:

(a) tolerance

(b) collectivity

(c) respect

✓ (d) all of these

5. (b) Human character becomes strong by:

✓ (b) Human character becomes strong by:

(a) intention

✓ (b) firmness of deeds

(c) belief

(d) forgiving

Question: 1. (c) Belief has a deep connection with ___.

Answer: Deed. Belief has a deep connection with deed.

Question: 2. (c) Despite theoretical differences, we can remain ___ of one another.

Answer: Friends. Despite theoretical differences, we can remain friends of one another.

Question: 3. (c) For the reward of a good deed and the punishment of a bad deed, the philosophy of ___ exists in Hinduism.

Answer: Karma. For the reward of a good deed and the punishment of a bad deed, the philosophy of karma exists in Hinduism.

Question: 4. (c) In religion, adorning human character has great ___.

Answer: Importance. In religion, adorning human character has great importance.

Question: 5. (c) In every situation, with your own word and deed, you should show ___ to others.

Answer: Respect. In every situation, with your own word and deed, you should show respect to others.

✓ 1. (d) Raising a loud voice against cruelty is our responsibility.

✗ 2. (d) Since other cultures are different from ours, it is necessary to disagree with them.

✓ 3. (d) If you respect others, you too will be respected.

✗ 4. (d) According to the teaching of Sikhism, 20 things are necessary to attain mukti.

✓ 5. (d) Every religion of the world urges a person towards goodness.

Question: Activity for students: The students collect selected instructions from any religions and prepare an essay on the title "The role of every religion in moral adornment".

Answer: This is a class activity, which has no single fixed answer. Method: the students select instructions from any religions, collect them and prepare an essay on the given title. Worked example — from the lesson's own material: Islam: zakat and helping the needy; Christianity: tithe and forgiveness; Sikh religion: avoiding the seven blocking things; Buddhism: daan; Hinduism: karma and Dashma Paag Wart.

كنفيوشس ازم تائو ازم جو تعارف ترقي

Question: 1. (a) Explain Confucianism and Taoism.

Answer: Confucianism is a system based on the thought and philosophy of the great Chinese philosopher Confucius, which gives guidance about politics, society, domestic life and the universe. Taoism is a thought of China, whose founder is Lao Tzu; the literal meaning of "Tao" is way or path, and according to this thought there is a basic source or power that keeps everything in existence.

Question: 2. (a) What do you say about the basis of Confucianism and Taoism?

Answer: The basis of Confucianism is connected with ethics and a form of rule that includes the concept of public welfare and the best government. The basis of Taoism is also the concept of public welfare and well-being and government, in which emphasis is placed on spending life with peace and contentment.

Question: 3. (a) What are the special principles of Confucianism and Taoism?

Answer: The special principles of Confucianism: guidance about politics, society, domestic life and the universe, and improving five kinds of relationships in social life: (1) the ruler-people relationship, (2) the father-children relationship, (3) the younger-older brother relationship, (4) the wife-husband relationship, (5) the friend-friend relationship. The special principle of Taoism: a human being should not act against the Tao, but should obey it, and welfare lies in keeping harmony with the Tao.

Question: 4. (a) What are the special symbols of Confucianism and Taoism?

Answer: The symbol of Confucius shows his beliefs and views; it is a compound of four Chinese words: Confucius, water, expert person and well-wishing. The symbol of Taoism shows the Tao or the path, and is a symbol of the friendship and loyalty of the path and of a person's success on the path.

Question: 5. (a) Who were Confucius and Tao?

Answer: Confucius (real name Kong Qiu) was the great philosopher of China, who was born in 551 BC in the Lu state of China. The founder of Taoism was Lao Tzu, who was born in the Chu state and was a contemporary of Confucius.

1. (b) The original word of Confucius is:

✓ (b) The original word of Confucius is:

(a) Master King

✓ (b) Kung-Fu-tez

(c) Taoism

(d) Kong Zi

2. (b) The meaning of "Jen" is:

(b) The meaning of "Jen" is:

(a) kingdom

(b) nature

(c) philosophy

✓ (d) love

3. (b) The principles of Confucius give better guidance for thinking and understanding:

(b) The principles of Confucius give better guidance for thinking and understanding:

(a) politics

(b) society

(c) domestic life

(d) all of these

4. (b) "A human being should not act against the Tao" — this teaching is found in:

(b) "A human being should not act against the Tao" — this teaching is found in:

(a) Taoism

(b) Confucianism

(c) Yin and Yang

(d) all of these

5. (b) The symbol of Confucius is a compound of:

(b) The symbol of Confucius is a compound of:

(a) four words

(b) seven words

(c) three words

(d) five words

Question: 1. (c) The word Confucius is taken from the ___ language.

Answer: Latin. The word Confucius is taken from the Latin language.

Question: 2. (c) The other name of the Chinese philosopher of Tao was ___.

Answer: Lao Tzu (Er Li). The other name of the Chinese philosopher of Tao was Lao Tzu (Er Li).

Question: 3. (c) After his job, Confucius became attached to the field of ___.

Answer: Teaching. After his job, Confucius became attached to the field of teaching and education.

Question: 4. (c) A human being should not go against ___.

Answer: The Tao. A human being should not go against the Tao.

Question: 5. (c) Tao, in its ___ meaning, is ___ or ___.

Answer: Literal, way, path. The literal meaning of Tao is way or path.

1. (d) "Li" is the name of the correctness of morals and manners.

2. (d) The meaning of "Jen" is "enmity".

3. (d) The basis of "Taoism" is public welfare and well-being.

4. (d) "Yin" holds a masculine character.

5. (d) "Yang" means the sun.

Question: Activity for students: The students collect information from the internet about the ancient religions and philosophies of China and prepare notes on the following points: religions present in China; the philosophies and thoughts of China.

Answer: This is a class activity, which has no single fixed answer. Method: the students collect information from the internet about the ancient religions and philosophies of China and prepare notes on both given points. Worked example — from the lesson's own material: religions/thoughts present in China: Confucianism and Taoism. The philosophies and thoughts of China: the moral and social philosophy of Confucius (five relationships, Jen, Li) and the thought of Taoism (Tao, Wu Wei, Yin and Yang).

کنفیوشس ازم تائو ازم جا مقدس کتاب سکیائون

Question: 1. (a) What are the basic teachings of Confucianism?

Answer: The basic teachings of Confucianism: a human being is basically good and can be taught; improvement of personality and the importance of intention; emphasis on manners and respect — in the relations of king and subject, father and son, teacher and student, younger and elder, friend and friend; good morals, truthfulness, honesty and loyalty to the state; "do not do to others the behaviour you do not want for yourself"; knowledge without reflection is useless, and reflection without knowledge is dangerous; a careful person does not make a big mistake.

Question: 2. (a) Write an introduction to the books attributed to Confucianism.

Answer: Confucius himself left no book; after his death, his students compiled books in the light of his teaching: (1) Lun Yu / Analects — the most famous book, consisting of the conversations and answers of Confucius; (2) the Five Classics (Wujing) — a collection of five scriptures: Yi, Shu, Shi, Li, Chunqiu; (3) the Four Books (Shishu) — Lun Yu, Da Xue, Zhong Yong, Meng Zi.

Question: 3. (a) Describe the life of Confucius.

Answer: Confucius (Kong Qiu) was born in 551 BC in the Lu state of China. He belonged to the "Shi" (scholars) class. He served in the government, then became attached to teaching and taught thousands of students. His philosophy spread in China, Japan, Korea and East Asia.

Question: 4. (a) What are the books of Taoism?

Answer: The books of Taoism: (1) Lao Tzu / Tao Te Ching — attributed to Lao Tzu, a book of great fame in Chinese history, translated into more languages than any other book after the Bible; (2) Zhuangzi — the second famous book of Taoism.

Question: 5. (a) What are the important teachings of Taoism?

Answer: The important teachings of Taoism: a human being should not act against the Tao, but should obey it; every person should look at the benefit of society rather than personal benefit; do not remain of a merely human nature, but strive so that a nature like that of the True Owner is created within; the world is a spiritual seat, it cannot be changed by force; life is a person's faith — if contentment is attained, life is easy.

1. (b) A careful person never commits:

(b) A careful person never commits:

(a) goodness

(b) evil

(c) a mistake

(d) obedience

2. (b) In Confucianism, a unique point of faith is:

(b) In Confucianism, a unique point of faith is:

(a) the coming world

(b) this world

(c) the previous world

(d) the world of the grave

3. (b) The books written by Kong Zi, the founder of Confucianism, are:

(b) The books written by Kong Zi, the founder of Confucianism, are:

(a) 2

(b) 3

(c) 4

(d) none at all

4. (b) The Five Classics are actually a collection of how many scriptures:

(b) The Five Classics are actually a collection of how many scriptures:

(a) five

(b) six

(c) seven

(d) eight

5. (b) The second famous book of Taoism is:

(b) The second famous book of Taoism is:

(a) Tao Te Ching

(b) Zhuangzi

(c) Lao Tzu

(d) Tashio

Question: 1. (c) Confucianism began from ___.

Answer: China. Confucianism began from China.

Question: 2. (c) Confucius belonged to a class ___ of China.

Answer: Shi (scholars). Confucius belonged to the "Shi" (scholars) class of China.

Question: 3. (c) The most famous book of Confucianism is ___.

Answer: Lun Yu (Analects). The most famous book of Confucianism is Lun Yu (Analects).

Question: 4. (c) The world is a spiritual ___.

Answer: Seat. The world is a spiritual seat.

Question: 5. (c) The meaning of Tao Te Ching is ___.

Answer: Sati Wat. The Tao Te Ching is called by the name "Sati Wat".

1. (d) In Taoism, emphasis is placed on human welfare in beliefs.

2. (d) A careful person never makes a big mistake.

3. (d) In ancient China, "Shi" was a labourer class that worked very hard.

4. (d) In Confucianism, a detailed discussion about death is found.

5. (d) Taoism believed in all human beings being perfect.

Question: Activity for students: The students collect the names, brief introductions and effects of the holy books of Confucianism and Taoism and make an album.

Answer: This is a class activity, which has no single fixed answer. Method: the students collect the names, brief introductions and effects of the holy books of both religions and make an album. Worked example — from the lesson's own material: Confucianism: Lun Yu (Analects), Five Classics, Four Books. Taoism: Lao Tzu / Tao Te Ching, Zhuangzi.

حُب الوطني

Question: 1. (a) What should we do to express love of the homeland?

Answer: To express love of the homeland, we should treat our country as our own home and keep it clean, obey our parents and follow principles, cooperate with the government to save our country from evils and conspiracies and fully act upon the law, and sacrifice personal interest for national interest.

Question: 2. (a) What lesson do we get from this story?

Answer: From this story we get the lesson that love of the homeland is not limited to speeches and decoration only; its proof must be given through one's deeds, loyalty, observance of the law and sacrifice for the country.

Question: 3. (a) How should Independence Day be celebrated?

Answer: Independence Day should be celebrated with joy like Eid, but along with it practical proof of love and loyalty to the country should be given — keeping the home and the country clean, acting upon the law and giving priority to the interest of the country.

Question: 4. (a) What advice did Dada Sain give to Hamid?

Answer: Dada Sain advised Hamid to play the role of Quaid-e-Azam Muhammad Ali Jinnah well and to read books on that topic in his neighbourhood library for it.

Question: 5. (a) What should we do for our homeland?

Answer: For our homeland we should prove our love and loyalty through our deeds: keep the country clean, act upon the law, sacrifice personal interest for national interest and remain ready to sacrifice for the interest of the country.

1. (b) Hubb-ul-Watni means:

(b) Hubb-ul-Watni means:

(a) love for one's homeland

(b) loyalty to one's country

(c) national spirit towards one's state

✓ (d) all of these

2. (b) We all should ___ the law of our country:

(b) We all should ___ the law of our country:

✓ (a) act upon

(b) cooperate with

(c) think about

(d) revere

3. (b) One's own interest should be ___ over the interest of the country:

(b) One's own interest should be ___ over the interest of the country:

✓ (a) sacrificed

(b) kept pure

(c) bound

(d) kept safe

4. (b) The effort of practical work should begin:

(b) The effort of practical work should begin:

✓ (a) from today itself

(b) slowly

(c) late

(d) from winter

5. (b) We consider our country as our own:

(b) We consider our country as our own:

(a) village

(b) city

✓ (c) home

(d) neighbourhood

Question: 1. (c) Every person should give preference to ___ interest over personal interest.

Answer: National. Every person should give preference to national interest over personal interest.

Question: 2. (c) To save the country from evils and conspiracies, we should support the ___.

Answer: Government. To save the country from evils and conspiracies, we should support the government and act upon the law.

Question: 3. (c) Independence Day is like ___ for us.

Answer: Eid. Independence Day is like Eid for us.

Question: 4. (c) In the 14 August function, Hamid was playing the role of ___.

Answer: Quaid-e-Azam Muhammad Ali Jinnah. In the 14 August function, Hamid was playing the role of Quaid-e-Azam Muhammad Ali Jinnah.

Question: 5. (c) The title of Sara's speech was ___.

Answer: Hubb-ul-Watni. The title of Sara's speech was "Hubb-ul-Watni".

✓ 1. (d) We can prove our love of the homeland and loyalty through our deeds.

✓ 2. (d) We should obey the law of the country.

✗ 3. (d) On 14 August, decorating the home with flags is itself the important thing.

✗ 4. (d) The topic of Hamid's speech was "Hubb-ul-Watni".

✓ 5. (d) In the matter of the speech, Baba Sain guided Sara.

Question: Activity for students: The students should express national spirit and love of the homeland towards their country fully in the Independence Day programme held in school, such as: speeches, national songs and roles.

Answer: This is a class activity, which has no single fixed answer. Method: in the Independence Day programme, the students express national spirit and love of the homeland towards their country through speeches, national songs and roles. Worked example — from the lesson's own material: a speech on "Hubb-ul-Watni" like Sara's, the role of Quaid-e-Azam like Hamid's, and national songs.

هک شهري جا فرض ذميداريون

Question: 1. (a) Describe the meaning of responsibility and duty.

Answer: Duty: in social life, it is necessary for a person to observe certain things, whose command is issued by religion or by the government and the state; acting upon them is compulsory — this is called "duty".

Responsibility: responsibility is a general concept — whatever work a person makes compulsory for himself, that he has to carry it out, is called responsibility.

Question: 2. (a) In your opinion, what role can a citizen play for economic progress?

Answer: A citizen can play a role in economic progress by working with full attention, interest and honesty in his business and activities, never committing fraud or deception, paying his dues on time and in full, and benefiting from the inventions of the modern age.

Question: 3. (a) If citizens do not fulfil their duties and responsibilities, what will be the condition of the country? Write the answer in three lines.

Answer: If citizens do not fulfil their duties and responsibilities, disrespect of the law, unrest and corruption will increase in the country. Economic progress will stop and democracy will weaken. As a result, the country will fall behind.

Question: 4. (a) What responsibility is imposed on a citizen for general welfare?

Answer: For general welfare, the responsibility imposed on a citizen is that he works for the general progress and welfare of the country, such as striving for schools, hospitals, general well-being and the betterment of society.

Question: 5. (a) What is the meaning of fulfilling a duty?

Answer: Fulfilling a duty means that a person discharges his duties with full attention, honesty and on time, such as payment of dues, acting upon the law and respect for the rights of others.

1. (b) As a citizen of the country, along with rights, ___ are imposed on us:

(b) As a citizen of the country, along with rights, ___ are imposed on us:

(a) restrictions

(b) duties

(c) responsibilities

✓ (d) all of these

2. (b) With law-enforcing institutions one should:

(b) With law-enforcing institutions one should:

(a) hate

(b) fight

✓ (c) cooperate

(d) guard

3. (b) Never committing fraud or deception is an act of:

✓ (b) Never committing fraud or deception is an act of:

(a) respect

✓ (b) honesty

(c) general welfare

(d) national progress

4. (b) During elections, we all should vote so that representatives:

(b) During elections, we all should vote so that representatives:

(a) commit deception

(b) do not deposit tax

✓ (c) give correct representation

(d) rest in the assemblies

5. (b) Expressing one's opinion is a:

(b) Expressing one's opinion is a:

(a) right

(b) duty

(c) responsibility

(d) all of these

Question: 1. (c) It is necessary for every citizen to respect the ___ of others.

Answer: Rights. It is necessary for every citizen to respect the rights of others.

Question: 2. (c) Every citizen should discharge his duties ___.

Answer: On time. Every citizen should discharge his duties on time.

Question: 3. (c) The strengthening of democracy and ___ in the country should be promoted.

Answer: Economic progress. The strengthening of democracy and economic progress in the country should be promoted.

1. (d) Every citizen should pay his dues on time.

2. (d) Every citizen should respect the law of the country.

3. (d) Negligence in responsibilities is a guarantee of national progress.

4. (d) Every citizen has the right to give his opinion/vote in elections.

5. (d) Benefit should be taken from the inventions of the modern age.

Question: Activity for students: The students play roles of duties and responsibilities practically in class, including payment of dues and acting upon the law.

Answer: This is a class activity, which has no single fixed answer. Method: the students practically play roles of duties and responsibilities in class, including payment of dues and acting upon the law. Worked example — from the lesson's own material: by playing a role, it can be shown that a good citizen pays his dues on time, respects the law and takes care of the rights of others.

قانون جو احترام

Question: 1. (a) What is the definition of constitution and law, and what is the difference between them?

Answer: Law: the principles and rules fixed for running society with better management are called "law"; the real purpose of law is to give justice to people. Constitution: the principles and rules according to which the administration of the government is run are called "constitution", "manifesto" or "dastur". Difference: law is a collection of general rules and regulations, whereas the constitution consists of the basic principles and rules for running the country's system; the constitution stands above all laws.

Question: 2. (a) Write the characteristics of a good constitution.

Answer: The characteristics of a good constitution: it provides law for the running of the government; it gives citizens the power to hold the government accountable; it informs people about their rights and they can obtain their rights; it fixes the national goal; it binds the government to seek guidance from the constitution.

Question: 3. (a) What is the importance of the constitution for the country?

Answer: The constitution is important for the country because it fixes the principles for running the government, keeps the government within limits, protects the rights of citizens, fixes the national goal and helps maintain peace and justice in the country.

Question: 4. (a) Why is law necessary for society?

Answer: Law is necessary for society because without it peace and order cannot remain established in society, people cannot get justice, and because the criminal does not get punishment, disorder will spread in society.

Question: 5. (a) What are the kinds of constitution?

Answer: There are two kinds of constitution: (1) written constitution — which is written in book form, like the constitution of Pakistan; (2) unwritten constitution — which is not collected in book form at any one place, but comes down through ancient traditions and stories, like the constitution of Britain and New Zealand.

1. (b) Because the criminal does not get suitable punishment for the crime, ___ spreads:

✓ (b) Because the criminal does not get suitable punishment for the crime, ___ spreads:

(a) happiness in society

✓ (b) disorder in society

(c) education in society

(d) evil in society

2. (b) Along with moral law, the other law is:

(b) Along with moral law, the other law is:

(a) community law

(b) government law

(c) administrative law

✓ (d) all of these

3. (b) For running the administration of the government, there is:

✓ (b) For running the administration of the government, there is:

(a) an institution

✓ (b) a constitution

(c) the police

(d) the army

4. (b) The document or booklet through which people get information about their rights is called:

(b) The document or booklet through which people get information about their rights is called:

(b) goal

(c) accountability

(d) parliament

5. (b) The constitution or dastur is framed by:

(b) The constitution or dastur is framed by:

(a) judicial institutions

(b) constitution-making institutions

(c) local institutions

(d) all of these

Question: 1. (c) The world's very first constitution was found in ___.

Answer: 1877 AD. The world's very first constitution was found in 1877 AD.

Question: 2. (c) The dastur of Britain and New Zealand is ___.

Answer: Unwritten. The dastur of Britain and New Zealand is unwritten.

Question: 3. (c) Explaining the constitution is the work of the ___.

Answer: Courts. Explaining the constitution is the work of the courts.

Question: 4. (c) Acting upon the constitution is the responsibility of the ___.

Answer: People. Acting upon the constitution is the responsibility of the people.

Question: 5. (c) The basic purpose of law is to deliver ___.

Answer: Justice. The basic purpose of law is to deliver justice.

1. (d) The world's first constitution is the Hammurabi law.

2. (d) The constitution fixes the national goal.

3. (d) If any one of the constitution and the law is acted upon, society remains correct.

4. (d) An unwritten constitution is made from the stories and tales of the old age.

Question: Activity for students: Homework is given to the students to explain the constitution and the law, so that with the help of the internet they can find out their differences and the stages of their framing.

Answer: This is a class activity, which has no single fixed answer. Method: as homework, the students find out, with the help of the internet, the differences between the constitution and the law and the stages of their framing. Worked example — from the lesson's own material: Difference: law is a collection of general rules; the constitution consists of the basic principles of the country's system. Framing: the constitution is framed by constitution-making institutions; law is made by parliament and the relevant institutions.

ع وارو آئين  بنيادي انساني حق1973

Question: 1. (a) Of which basic rights of the citizens is the 1973 Constitution a guarantor?

Answer: The 1973 Constitution is a guarantor of these basic rights of the citizens: protection of life, freedom of expression, religious freedom, freedom of movement, the right to form associations and unions, the right to adopt a lawful profession, the right to transact property, the right to employment without religious and racial distinction, and equality of all in the eyes of the law.

Question: 2. (a) If basic rights are granted, in what way will citizens use their abilities? Write in your own words.

Answer: With basic rights granted, citizens can use their abilities in a better way, because they get protection of their life, property and honour, they can think and speak freely, and they can play their role in the service of the country and the nation.

Question: 3. (a) What is meant by law-enforcing institutions?

Answer: Law-enforcing institutions are those institutions which get the law implemented, such as: courts, police and institutions that obtain special information.

Question: 4. (a) What are the harms of a citizen not accepting the law wholeheartedly?

Answer: When a citizen does not accept the law wholeheartedly, unrest and disorder spread in society, the rights of people are affected, and the progress of the country stops.

Question: 5. (a) What are the kinds of the constitution of Pakistan?

Answer: There are three constitutions of Pakistan: the 1956 Constitution, the 1962 Constitution and the 1973 Constitution. The present government is running according to the 1973 Constitution.

1. (b) The state gives a guarantee to every citizen of:

(b) The state gives a guarantee to every citizen of:

(a) protection of job

(b) protection of life

(c) education

(d) all of these

2. (b) According to the 1973 Constitution, every citizen has:

(b) According to the 1973 Constitution, every citizen has:

(a) freedom of expression

(b) religious freedom

(c) freedom of movement

(d) all of these

3. (b) The responsibility imposed on every citizen is that towards the country he should be:

(b) The responsibility imposed on every citizen is that towards the country he should be:

(a) loyal

(b) obedient

(c) honest

(d) all of these

4. (b) A true Pakistani can render the best ___ to the nation:

(b) A true Pakistani can render the best ___ to the nation:

(a) help

(b) service

(c) employment

(d) protection

5. (b) The present government in Pakistan is running according to:

(b) The present government in Pakistan is running according to:

(a) the 1973 Constitution

(b) the 1956 Constitution

(c) the 1962 Constitution

(d) all of these

Question: 1. (c) The ___ Constitution of Pakistan has superiority over other constitutions with regard to basic rights.

Answer: 1973. The 1973 Constitution of Pakistan has superiority over other constitutions with regard to basic rights.

Question: 2. (c) In the second part of the constitution, in Chapter ___, basic rights are mentioned in clauses 8 to 28.

Answer: First. In the second part of the constitution, in Chapter First, basic rights are mentioned in clauses 8 to 28.

Question: 3. (c) Religious freedom is the ___ of every citizen.

Answer: Right. Religious freedom is the right of every citizen.

Question: 4. (c) Every citizen has the right to adopt a ___ profession.

Answer: Lawful. Every citizen has the right to adopt a lawful profession.

Question: 5. (c) Basic rights hold the position of ___ in human life.

Answer: The backbone. Basic rights hold the position of the backbone in human life.

1. (d) No citizen has the right to transact property.

2. (d) The 1956 Constitution of Pakistan does not have superiority over other constitutions.

3. (d) Employment without religious and racial distinction is the right of every citizen.

4. (d) According to the constitution we have the right to freedom of expression, so whatever the heart desires can be said or written on social media.

5. (d) To obtain the basic rights present in the constitution, it is necessary to be literate.

Question: Activity for students: The students form groups, write the clauses of the basic human rights of the 1973 Constitution on a chart and put it up in class.

Answer: This is a class activity, which has no single fixed answer. Method: the students form groups, write the clauses of the basic human rights of the 1973 Constitution on a chart and put it up in class. Worked example — from the lesson's own material: the chart may list: protection of life, freedom of expression, religious freedom, freedom of movement, the right to form associations and unions, the right to adopt a lawful profession, the right to transact property, the right to employment, equality in the eyes of the law.

سماجي زندگي  وقت جي پابندي جي اهميت

Question: 1. (a) What did Rajni's companion say about being late?

Answer: Rajni's mother said about being late that in our society people reach every programme late and this has become a custom, but observing punctuality is necessary because time is very precious.

Question: 2. (a) How important is punctuality in our social life?

Answer: Punctuality has great importance in social life; the charm of social programmes lies in punctuality, and punctuality can end many problems of our society.

Question: 3. (a) What problems arise by being late in a social function?

Answer: By being late in a social function, guests face inconvenience, the function starts and ends late, the guests' time is wasted, and the daily routine of life is affected.

Question: 4. (a) What convenience is obtained in daily life by observing punctuality?

Answer: By observing punctuality, the convenience obtained in daily life is that every work is done on its time, time is not wasted, and every person can do his necessary work easily.

Question: 5. (a) Tell any five harms of not observing punctuality.

Answer: Five harms: (1) time is wasted; (2) functions start and end late; (3) guests face inconvenience; (4) the daily routine of life is affected; (5) the wrong custom of being late becomes firm in society.

1. (b) We should reach every programme:

(b) We should reach every programme:

(a) late

(b) early

(c) with punctuality

(d) all of these

2. (b) Mrs. Khalid was ___ of time:

(b) Mrs. Khalid was ___ of time:

(a) punctual

(b) non-punctual

(c) serious

(d) all of these

3. (b) We should value:

(b) We should value:

(a) time

(b) money

(c) the host

(d) the guest

4. (b) Rajni and Rajni's mother went to:

(b) Rajni and Rajni's mother went to:

(a) the engagement function

(b) the wedding function

(c) the birthday function

(d) all of these

5. (b) Many social problems increase because of:

(b) Many social problems increase because of:

(a) not observing punctuality

(b) the function starting late

(c) the function ending late

(d) not doing necessary work

Question: 1. (c) In our society, reaching a function late is a ___ for some people.

Answer: Custom. In our society, reaching a function late is a custom for some people.

Question: 2. (c) In our society, ___ has great importance.

Answer: Time. In our society, time has great importance.

Question: 3. (c) Every person should begin the change of punctuality from his own ___.

Answer: Home. Every person should begin the change of punctuality from his own home.

Question: 4. (c) ___ can end many problems of our society.

Answer: Punctuality. Punctuality can end many problems of our society.

Question: 5. (c) The charm of social programmes is with ___.

Answer: Punctuality. The charm of social programmes is with punctuality.

✓ 1. (d) Punctuality should be observed in every programme.

✓ 2. (d) It is the duty of the host to value the guests' time.

✗ 3. (d) If the function is late, the routine of life will not be affected.

✗ 4. (d) Punctuality increases our problems.

✗ 5. (d) In a function, the responsibility of punctuality lies on the hosts instead of the guests.

Question: Activity for students: The students write the benefits and harms of punctuality separately and bring them.

Answer: This is a class activity, which has no single fixed answer. Method: the students write the benefits and harms of punctuality separately and bring them. Worked example — from the lesson's own material: Benefits: time is not wasted, functions take place on time, daily work is done easily. Harms (of not observing punctuality): time is wasted, functions take place late, guests face inconvenience.

میل جول جا آداب

Question: 1. (a) What things should be kept in mind to make a good impression on people?

Answer: To make a good impression on people, these things should be kept in mind: set out with mental peace and satisfaction; always enter with a smiling face; take some gift along according to the occasion of the function; meet every person present at the function with the same face; do not talk too much in a gathering and give others a chance to speak; overlook a talk against one's nature.

Question: 2. (a) Explain "the first impression is the last impression".

Answer: It means that whatever impression is made in the first meeting with people, it is remembered forever; therefore a good impression should be made in the first meeting, so that people remember us in a good way.

Question: 3. (a) What behaviour should be adopted while participating in a function?

Answer: While participating in a function, one should participate with mental peace and satisfaction, meet with a smiling face, treat everyone alike, not talk too much and give others a chance to speak.

Question: 4. (a) Describe the concept of meeting and mixing.

Answer: The concept of meeting and mixing is: meeting people, talking, inquiring about well-being and joining one another on social occasions — that is, the manners of social interaction.

Question: 5. (a) What is a co-curricular activity?

Answer: [note: the lesson does not directly define co-curricular activity] A co-curricular activity is an activity that takes place besides the curriculum (book study), such as: congratulating on getting marks in the examination, congratulating on winning a prize, etc.

1. (b) Shaking hands, talking and inquiring about well-being is called:

✓ (b) Shaking hands, talking and inquiring about well-being is called:

(a) manners of sitting and standing

✓ (b) manners of meeting and mixing

(c) manners of eating and drinking

(d) manners of travelling

2. (b) Always enter with a ___ face:

✓ (b) Always enter with a ___ face:

(a) disappointed

✓ (b) smiling

(c) angry

(d) emotional

3. (b) If something is against your temperament and nature, at that time make use of:

(b) If something is against your temperament and nature, at that time make use of:

✓ (a) overlooking

(b) haste

(c) anger

(d) hurry

4. (b) Through your conduct and talk, make the host feel that you share in his:

✓ (b) Through your conduct and talk, make the host feel that you share in his:

(a) wedding and mourning

✓ (b) sorrow and joy

(c) fair and festival

(d) eating and drinking

5. (b) Before returning from the function, to the host:

(b) Before returning from the function, to the host:

(a) make a phone call

(b) send a message

(c) say thanks and take leave

(d) say nothing at all

Question: 1. (c) Man is a ___ of society.

Answer: Individual. Man is an individual of society.

Question: 2. (c) Tribes and families together make ___.

Answer: Society. Tribes and families together make society.

Question: 3. (c) Sitting among people, one should not ___.

Answer: Whisper. Sitting among people, one should not whisper.

Question: 4. (c) Always ___ a talk against one's nature.

Answer: Overlook. Always overlook a talk against one's nature.

Question: 5. (c) Before returning from the function, the host should be given ___.

Answer: Thanks and leave-taking. Before returning from the function, the host should be given thanks and leave-taking.

1. (d) We should meet everyone with an open forehead (cheerful face).

2. (d) In a gathering with friends, one should talk a lot and listen little.

3. (d) In every programme, one should participate with mental peace.

4. (d) Children should not participate in the programmes of elders.

5. (d) On returning from the function, one should not greet the host.

Question: Activity for students: The students make a list of such things on which another person can be congratulated, such as: getting marks in the examination, winning a prize, etc.

Answer: This is a class activity, which has no single fixed answer. Method: the students make a list of such things on which another person can be congratulated. Worked example — from the lesson's own material: getting marks in the examination, winning a prize, succeeding in a competition, getting a new job, a wedding or the birth of a child.

میل جول جا طریقا

Question: 1. (a) What are the benefits of greeting (salam)?

Answer: Greeting gives proof of manners and respect, countless prayers of elders are received, honour increases in society, and love and good relations develop among people.

Question: 2. (a) What did the teacher explain to Patras about not greeting?

Answer: The teacher explained to Patras that greeting and praying is good manners and a sign of character; if one does not greet, people criticise and point fingers at the parents' upbringing; happiness is not available all the time — rather, occasions of happiness come only sometimes, so one should enjoy those occasions.

Question: 3. (a) How do elders feel when they are greeted?

Answer: When elders are greeted, they become happy and feel a sense of joy, and they give prayers.

Question: 4. (a) Why did the companions congratulate Arsalan?

Answer: The companions congratulated Arsalan because he had won a prize in the essay-writing competition.

Question: 5. (a) What are the signs of a person being great (mahan)?

Answer: The signs of a person being great are: greeting and praying, expressing happiness, congratulating others, welcoming a visitor, and honouring a guest.

1. (b) As soon as the recess bell rang, the students hurriedly went to:

✓ (b) As soon as the recess bell rang, the students hurriedly went to:

(a) home

✓ (b) the canteen

(c) the hospital

(d) the playground

2. (b) When the teacher entered the class, all the students respectfully:

(b) When the teacher entered the class, all the students respectfully:

(a) stood up

(b) remained seated

(c) remained silent

(d) kept reading

3. (b) Interfering in others' work seems:

(b) Interfering in others' work seems:

(a) improper

(b) unnecessary

(c) informal

(d) unnatural

4. (b) Expressing happiness leaves a ___ effect on a person's nature:

(b) Expressing happiness leaves a ___ effect on a person's nature:

(a) bad

(b) useless

(c) positive

(d) emotional

5. (b) By greeting and praying, countless ___ of elders are received:

(b) By greeting and praying, countless ___ of elders are received:

(a) curses

(b) expenses

(c) prayers

(d) gifts

Question: 1. (c) Among morally good habits and ways, there are also the manners of ___.

Answer: Greeting and praying. Among morally good habits and ways, there are also the manners of greeting and praying.

Question: 2. (c) By greeting elders, ___ are received.

Answer: Prayers. By greeting elders, prayers are received.

Question: 3. (c) By not greeting and praying, people point fingers at the upbringing of one's ___.

Answer: Parents. By not greeting and praying, people point fingers at the upbringing of one's parents.

Question: 4. (c) ___ a visitor is a sign of a person being great.

Answer: Welcoming. Welcoming a visitor is a sign of a person being great.

Question: 5. (c) The teacher explained to Patras in the ___.

Answer: Class. The teacher explained to Patras in the class.

✓ 1. (d) By greeting and praying, proof of manners and respect is obtained.

✗ 2. (d) By greeting elders, one has to feel ashamed in society.

✓ 3. (d) The prayers of elders give a feeling of happiness.

✓ 4. (d) Honouring a guest is our culture.

✗ 5. (d) Being happy in someone's happiness is a useless habit.

Question: Activity for students: The students fix one period in class for practically playing roles, where they practise congratulating and expressing happiness.

Answer: This is a class activity, which has no single fixed answer. Method: the students fix one period in class for practically playing roles, where they practise congratulating and expressing happiness. Worked example — from the lesson's own material: one student plays the role of the teacher, another plays the role of Patras, and a third plays the role of Arsalan who is congratulated on winning a prize in the essay-writing competition.

وڈن جو احترام

Question: 1. (a) Why is respect for elders necessary?

Answer: Respect for elders is necessary because elders are our teachers, parents and seniors; by respecting them we get prayers, sympathy, love and good upbringing, and honour in society.

Question: 2. (a) What benefits are obtained from respecting elders?

Answer: From respecting elders these benefits are obtained: the prayers of elders are received, their experience and advice are obtained, honour increases in society, and life becomes better.

Question: 3. (a) What harm did the farmer's younger son suffer from disrespect?

Answer: The farmer's younger son suffered this harm from disrespect: he fell in everyone's eyes, nobody helped him, and he had to face shame.

Question: 4. (a) What are the beauties of village life?

Answer: The beauties of village life are: clean air and water, green scenes, fresh food, healthy people, and love and respect for one another.

Question: 5. (a) Who helped the boy in his difficult time?

Answer: In his difficult time, the same elder helped the boy whom he had not helped before.

1. (b) Because of the village's clean air and water, green scenes and fresh food, the people there become:

(b) Because of the village's clean air and water, green scenes and fresh food, the people there become:

(a) lazy

(b) sick

(c) disabled

(d) healthy

2. (b) Out of shame, the child bent his neck:

(b) Out of shame, the child bent his neck:

(a) up

(b) sideways

✓ (c) down

(d) did nothing at all

3. (b) On reaching home, the boy went and took ___ from every young and old person of the village:

✓ (b) On reaching home, the boy went and took ___ from every young and old person of the village:

(a) pocket money

✓ (b) forgiveness

(c) greeting

(d) prayer

4. (b) Finally, in the difficult moment, by helping the elder, he took out the:

✓ (b) Finally, in the difficult moment, by helping the elder, he took out the:

(a) quto

(c) school card

(d) paton

5. (b) The elder's talk had an effect on the boy and that day he became:

✓ (b) The elder's talk had an effect on the boy and that day he became:

(a) disrespectful

✓ (b) respectful

(c) mischievous

(d) foolish

Question: 1. (c) The prayers of elders work as a ___ against troubles for love and affection.

✓

Answer: Shield. The prayers of elders work as a shield against troubles for love and affection.

Question: 2. (c) The farmer's younger son, because of pampering, had become ___ and ___.

Answer: Stubborn, disobedient. The farmer's younger son, because of pampering, had become stubborn and disobedient.

Question: 3. (c) The farmer's three elder sons were ___.

Answer: Obedient. The farmer's three elder sons were obedient.

Question: 4. (c) For a better life, ___ is very necessary.

Answer: Respect for elders. For a better life, respect for elders is very necessary.

Question: 5. (c) The behaviour of a disobedient child pricks in everyone's heart like a ___.

Answer: Thorn. The behaviour of a disobedient child pricks in everyone's heart like a thorn.

✓ 1. (d) The farmer's younger son was disobedient.

✗ 2. (d) The grandfather told the boy that elders should not be respected.

✓ 3. (d) The prayers of elders work as a shield for us.

✗ 4. (d) With the grandfather's explanation, the boy became ill-tempered and angry.

✗ 5. (d) Coming home, the boy went and taunted every young and old person.

Question: Activity for students: With the help of the internet, note the important instructions about "respect for elders" from the holy books of different religions in your copy and show them to the teacher.

Answer: This is a class activity, which has no single fixed answer. Method:

with the help of the internet, the students note the important instructions about "respect for elders" from the holy books of different religions in their copy and show them to the teacher. Worked example — from the lesson's own material: elders should be respected, work should be done with their advice, their prayers should be sought, and disobedience should be avoided.

بيمار جي طبع پُرسي

Question: 1. (a) What happened to Rajesh's friend?

Answer: Rajesh's friend Muhammad Ali's health suddenly became bad; he had severe pain in his stomach, he could not even straighten his legs, and the teacher gave him medicine for the stomach pain but it had no effect; then the headmaster called Muhammad Ali's parents and sent him to hospital.

Question: 2. (a) Why did Rajesh's mother send him to visit his sick friend?

Answer: Rajesh's mother sent him to visit his sick friend because visiting a sick friend is a work of great reward, and visiting a patient is worship.

Question: 3. (a) Why is it necessary to visit a patient?

Answer: Visiting a patient is necessary because it is worship, through it the patient gets emotional support, the patient feels better himself, and we strengthen ourselves.

Question: 4. (a) What things should be kept in mind while visiting a patient?

Answer: While visiting a patient, these things should be kept in mind: (1) one should avoid talking in a loud voice near the patient; (2) the patient should be encouraged and consoled that his illness is nothing, he will soon get well; (3) if he has a serious illness, that illness should not be mentioned before him; (4) one should not stay long near the patient, lest his rest be disturbed; (5) when going to visit, some flowers or fruit should be taken along.

Question: 5. (a) What help do sick people specially need?

Answer: Sick people specially need moral and psychological help — emotional support, good behaviour, consolation and prayers.

1. (b) Along with medicines, the patient needs:

(b) Along with medicines, the patient needs:

(a) moral help

(b) psychological help

(c) spiritual help

✓ (d) all

2. (b) Rajesh left his game and reached to inquire about:

(b) Rajesh left his game and reached to inquire about:

✓ (a) his friend's health

(b) the headmaster's health

(c) his father's health

(d) his mother's health

3. (b) Visiting a patient is:

(b) Visiting a patient is:

(a) worship

(b) reward

(c) medicine

✓ (d) a and b

4. (b) Companions in sorrow are:

(b) Companions in sorrow are:

(a) your friends

(b) your relatives

(c) your neighbours

✓ (d) all of these

5. (b) A patient needs ___ more than medicine and treatment:

(b) A patient needs ___ more than medicine and treatment:

✓ (a) good behaviour

(b) strength in himself

(c) psychological treatment

(d) all of these

Question: 1. (c) In illness, visiting strengthens ___.

Answer: Oneself. In illness, visiting strengthens oneself.

Question: 2. (c) While visiting, we give the patient an ___ support.

Answer: Emotional. While visiting, we give the patient an emotional support.

Question: 3. (c) The visitor should give the patient a taste of ___.

Answer: Encouragement. The visitor should give encouragement to the patient.

Question: 4. (c) Near the patient, no kind of ___ should be made.

Answer: Noise. Near the patient, no kind of noise should be made.

Question: 5. (c) We are all joined with one another like a ___.

Answer: Chain. We are all joined with one another like a chain.

✓ 1. (d) We are all joined in society like a chain.

✓ 2. (d) Patients need an emotional support.

✗ 3. (d) Sitting near the patient, one should talk to him in a loud voice.

✗ 4. (d) There should be a large crowd of visitors near the patients.

✓ 5. (d) One should not talk in a loud voice near the patient.

Question: Activity for students: The students prepare a list of such works which can be done to help a sick person. For example: taking care of his food, keeping his clothes clean, providing medicine and treatment.

Answer: This is a class activity, which has no single fixed answer. Method: the students prepare a list of such works which can be done to help a sick person. Worked example — from the lesson's own material: taking care of his food, keeping his clothes clean, providing medicine and treatment, visiting the patient, giving him consolation and encouragement, and praying for him.

ميران بائي

Question: 1. (a) What do you know about the life circumstances of Meeran Bai?

Answer: Meeran Bai was a famous poetess of sixteenth-century India and an active member of the Bhakti movement. She was the daughter of Raja Ratan Singh of Jodhpur. She was born in 1503 AD in the village of Chaukari in district Karki, Rajasthan. She was the only child of her parents. Her mother passed away in her childhood itself. Her marriage took place at a young age, against her will, with Rajkumar Yojraj.

Question: 2. (a) What are the characteristics of Meeran Bai's message?

Answer: The characteristics of Meeran Bai's message: emphasis on devotion and love of the True Master instead of rituals, fame in simplicity, meenach and bhajan, and love and brotherhood among human beings.

Question: 3. (a) Tell the names of the books written by Meeran Bai.

Answer: The four famous books of Meeran Bai are: 1. Narsinha ji Maira 2. Geet Govind Tika 3. Raag Govarn 4. Raag Surat.

Question: 4. (a) How did Meeran Bai become a disciple of Bhagat Ravi Das?

Answer: During that period, Meeran Bai herself adopted the discipleship of Ravi Das Sahib Chamar, the student of Ramanand.

Question: 5. (a) What is the tradition about the death of Meeran Bai?

Answer: According to tradition, the year of Meeran Bai's death is told as 1583 AD.

1. (b) Meeran Bai was a:

(b) Meeran Bai was a:

(a) poetess

(b) member of the Bhakti movement

(c) spiritual guru

✓ (d) all of these

2. (b) Meeran Bai's marriage took place:

✓ (b) Meeran Bai's marriage took place:

(a) with her will

✓ (b) against her will

(c) with the relatives' will

(d) with her mother's will

3. (b) The movement of the Sufi poets of India is called:

✓ (b) The movement of the Sufi poets of India is called:

(a) Indian movement

✓ (b) Bhakti movement

(c) political movement

(d) organisational movement

4. (b) Meeran Bai was a devotee of:

(b) Meeran Bai was a devotee of:

✓ (a) Shri Krishna Bhagwan

(b) Shri Ram Chandra

(c) Guru Nanak Sahib

(d) none

5. (b) In childhood, Meeran Bai remained busy in:

(b) In childhood, Meeran Bai remained busy in:

(a) playing with dolls

(b) entertaining works

✓ (c) worship

(d) all of these

Question: 1. (c) Meeran Bai was a devotee of ___.

Answer: Shri Krishna Bhagwan. Meeran Bai was a devotee of Shri Krishna Bhagwan.

Question: 2. (c) She became a disciple of ___, the student of Ramanand.

Answer: Ravi Das. She became a disciple of Ravi Das, the student of Ramanand.

Question: 3. (c) The style of love which she adopted was due to the effect of the ___.

Answer: Sufi poets. The style of love which she adopted was due to the effect of the Sufi poets.

Question: 4. (c) A specimen of her poetry is also in Guru Gobind Singh's book ___.

Answer: Prem Ambodh Poti. A specimen of her poetry is also in Guru Gobind Singh's book "Prem Ambodh Poti".

Question: 5. (c) She used to worship the idol of Bhagwan Krishna which is famous by the name ___.

Answer: Ranchhor. She used to worship the idol of Bhagwan Krishna which is famous by the name Ranchhor.

✓ 1. (d) Meeran Bai was the daughter of Raja Ratan Singh.

✗ 2. (d) Meeran Bai became a disciple of Tulsi Das.

✓ 3. (d) The Bhakti movement emphasised devotion and love of the True Master instead of rituals.

✗ 4. (d) The famous writings of Meeran Bai are ten.

✓ 5. (d) Meeran Bai left the palace and went to Dwarka, to the temple of Brindaban, in meditation.

Question: Activity for students: With the help of the internet, find a picture of Meeran Bai and some of her poetry and present it in class.

Answer: This is a class activity, which has no single fixed answer. Method: with the help of the internet, the students find a picture of Meeran Bai and some of her poetry and present it in class. Worked example — from the lesson's own material: the translation of one of her Hindi couplets: "Nand Lal, that is, Bhagwan Krishna! Come and dwell in my eyes. How large the eyes are in your beautiful face, O beloved of the mind!"

مقدس اگستین

Question: 1. (a) How did Saint Augustine spend his early life?

Answer: Saint Augustine spent his early life away from Christianity; he was entangled in some questions about religion and remained away from the Christian faith, although his mother had brought him up according to Christian teaching.

Question: 2. (a) Despite upbringing according to Christian teaching, why did Saint Augustine remain away from Christianity?

Answer: Despite upbringing according to Christian teaching, Saint Augustine remained away from Christianity because some questions about religion arose in his mind, whose answers he did not get.

Question: 3. (a) When and how did the change come in Saint Augustine's religious life?

Answer: The change came in Saint Augustine's religious life when he heard a child's voice from the unseen: "Take this! Read it" — he read the letter of Saint Paul the Apostle written to the Romans (Romans chapter 13, verses 13 to 14), which changed his life and he accepted Christianity.

Question: 4. (a) Write any five important pieces of advice of Saint Augustine.

Answer: Five pieces of advice: (1) trusting in an unseen thing is called faith; (2) if you want to do great works, begin with small works; (3) the more love increases inside you, the more beauty will increase, because love is the beauty of the soul; (4) the world is like a book, so those who do not travel have read only one page of this book; (5) think a little — what has the True Master not given you? Fulfil your need from it, and hand over the rest to other needy people.

Question: 5. (a) When and where did Saint Augustine die?

Answer: Saint Augustine died on 28 August 430 AD in the city of Hippo in Algeria.

1. (b) The word "muqaddas" is derived from:

(b) The word "muqaddas" is derived from:

✓ (a) quds

(b) muqaddasin

(c) pak

(d) aqeeda

2. (b) Saint Augustine often used to listen to the sermons of:

(b) Saint Augustine often used to listen to the sermons of:

✓ (a) Saint Ambrose

(b) Christian teaching

(c) the famous personality of Italy

(d) holy beings

3. (b) Once, Saint Augustine heard a child's voice from the unseen:

✓ (b) Once, Saint Augustine heard a child's voice from the unseen:

(a) what are we doing

✓ (b) take this! read it

(c) we cannot leave life

(d) all of these

4. (b) Augustine got the title of "Saint":

✓ (b) Augustine got the title of "Saint":

(a) in life

✓ (b) after death

(c) during the church service

(d) before choosing

5. (b) Trusting in an unseen thing is called:

(b) Trusting in an unseen thing is called:

(a) love

(b) faith

(c) belief

(d) spiritual peace

Question: 1. (c) Saint Augustine was born at the place ___ near Algeria.

Answer: Tagaste. Saint Augustine was born at the place Tagaste near Algeria.

Question: 2. (c) Many uneducated people became Christians after reading the life circumstances of Saint ___.

Answer: Anthony. Many uneducated people became Christians after reading the life circumstances of Saint Anthony.

Question: 3. (c) The name of Saint Augustine's friend was ___.

Answer: Alypius. The name of Saint Augustine's friend was Alypius.

Question: 4. (c) The letter of ___ written to the Romans brought a change in his religious life.

Answer: Saint Paul the Apostle. The letter of Saint Paul the Apostle written to the Romans brought a change in his religious life.

Question: 5. (c) In return for his performance, the church bestowed on Saint Augustine the title of ___.

Answer: Saint. In return for his performance, the church bestowed on Saint Augustine the title of Saint.

1. (d) In Christianity, the day of Saint Augustine is celebrated every year on 28 August.

2. (d) Saint Augustine was a famous Christian writer.

3. (d) Saint Augustine's mother had not brought him up according to Christian teaching.

4. (d) Because of religious distance, Augustine began listening to the sermons of Saint Anthony.

5. (d) In the Catholic Church, there is a congregation in the name of Augustine.

Question: Activity for students: Collect some prayers of Saint Augustine and paste them in your copy. A beautiful video about Saint Augustine is given on the channel named Catholic Heroes. Through its link for the children, so that they watch the video and discuss it in class.

Answer: This is a class activity, which has no single fixed answer. Method: the students collect some prayers of Saint Augustine and paste them in their copy, and watch the video and discuss it in class. Worked example — from the lesson's own material: his prayer: "O True Master! Alas, I spent much of my time separated from You. To make up for it, I spent my entire remaining life in the love of the True Master and in instructing people, so that they too come near the True Master."

ابن مسکویہ

Question: 1. (a) Write five sentences about the life of Ibn Miskawayh.

Answer: (1) The full name of Ibn Miskawayh is "Abu Ali Ahmad bin Muhammad bin Yaqub Miskawayh". (2) He was born in 932 AD in the city of "Ray" in Iran. (3) He was a contemporary of Ibn Sina and Al-Biruni. (4) He was a famous writer, historian, philosopher and poet. (5) He was a student of the historian Ibn Jarir Tabari.

Question: 2. (a) Tell the names of some books of Ibn Miskawayh.

Answer: Some books of Ibn Miskawayh: Tajareb al-Umam, Adab al-Arab wal-Fars, Tahdhib al-Akhlaq, Al-Fawz al-Akbar, Kitab al-Sayr.

Question: 3. (a) In which sciences did Ibn Miskawayh attain mastery?

Answer: Ibn Miskawayh attained mastery in these sciences: chemistry, botany, historiography, poetry, philosophy, prose and verse, and ethics.

Question: 4. (a) Write an introduction to the book Tahdhib al-Akhlaq.

Answer: The book "Tahdhib al-Akhlaq" is a famous book of Ibn Miskawayh, whose full name is "Tahdhib al-Akhlaq wa Tathir al-Araq". This book is about ethics, which has seven chapters. In the first chapter of the book, the soul and wisdom are discussed; in the remaining chapters, character and its kinds, goodness and happiness and their virtues are discussed. This book has been printed many times from Istanbul, Cairo and Beirut.

Question: 5. (a) When and where did Ibn Miskawayh die?

Answer: Ibn Miskawayh died in 1030 AD in Isfahan.

1. (b) Ibn Miskawayh was famous as a:

(b) Ibn Miskawayh was famous as a:

(a) writer

(b) historian

(c) philosopher

✓ (d) all of these

2. (b) In philosophy, Ibn Miskawayh was influenced by:

(b) In philosophy, Ibn Miskawayh was influenced by:

(a) Aristotle

(b) Al-Kindi

(c) Nasir al-Din

✓ (d) a and b

3. (b) Ibn Miskawayh had mastery in:

(b) Ibn Miskawayh had mastery in:

(a) prose

(b) verse

(c) ethics

✓ (d) a and b

4. (b) Tahdhib al-Akhlaq was printed from:

(b) Tahdhib al-Akhlaq was printed from:

(a) Istanbul

(b) Cairo

(c) Beirut

✓ (d) all of these

5. (b) Ibn Miskawayh was a contemporary of:

(b) Ibn Miskawayh was a contemporary of:

(a) Ibn Sina

(b) Al-Biruni

(c) Al-Kindi

✓ (d) a and b

Question: 1. (c) Ibn Miskawayh was a student of the famous ___ and ___

Ibn Jarir Tabari.

Answer: Commentator, historian. Ibn Miskawayh was a student of the famous commentator and historian Ibn Jarir Tabari.

Question: 2. (c) In the book "Tajareb al-Umam", the period from ___ to ___ is mentioned.

Answer: The flood of Noah, 931 AD. In the book "Tajareb al-Umam", the period from the flood of Noah to 931 AD is mentioned.

Question: 3. (c) He wrote approximately ___ books on different topics.

Answer: Twenty. He wrote approximately twenty books on different topics.

Question: 4. (c) The full name of the book "Tahdhib al-Akhlaq" is ___.

Answer: Tahdhib al-Akhlaq wa Tathir al-Araq. The full name of the book "Tahdhib al-Akhlaq" is "Tahdhib al-Akhlaq wa Tathir al-Araq".

Question: 5. (c) If his books are reviewed in ethics, his rank feels higher even than ___.

Answer: Ibn Sina. If his books are reviewed in ethics, his rank feels higher even than Ibn Sina.

✓ 1. (d) Among Muslim philosophers, Ibn Miskawayh is counted as the Imam of logic.

✗ 2. (d) Ibn Miskawayh's book "Adab al-Arab wal-Fars" is about ethics.

✓ 3. (d) Many books of Ibn Miskawayh are found in both prose and verse.

✗ 4. (d) "Al-Fawz al-Akbar" is the most famous book of Nasir al-Din Tusi.

✓ 5. (d) "Kitab al-Sayr" is about goodness, happiness and their virtues.

Question: Activity for students: Collect information on the personality and books of Ibn Miskawayh with the help of the internet, prepare notes and show them to the teacher.

Answer: This is a class activity, which has no single fixed answer. Method: the students collect information on the personality and books of Ibn Miskawayh with the help of the internet, prepare notes and show them to the teacher. Worked example — from the lesson's own material: the full name of Ibn Miskawayh is "Abu Ali Ahmad bin Muhammad bin Yaqub Miskawayh"; he was born in 932 AD in the city of "Ray" in Iran; his famous book is "Tahdhib al-Akhlaq".

ابراهام لنکن

Question: 1. (a) How did Abraham Lincoln's childhood pass?

Answer: Abraham Lincoln's childhood passed in poverty; his parents were poor farmers. When he was nine years old, his mother passed away, and his elder sister Sarah brought him up like a mother. He got very little formal education.

Question: 2. (a) How did Abraham Lincoln make himself famous in politics?

Answer: Abraham Lincoln made himself famous in politics through his honesty, truthfulness and speeches against slavery; he passed the law examination and became a lawyer, and at the age of 25 he was elected to the legislative assembly of the state of Illinois on the Republican Party ticket.

Question: 3. (a) In your opinion, what was the basic reason for Abraham Lincoln's popularity?

Answer: In my opinion, the basic reason for Abraham Lincoln's popularity was his honesty, truthfulness and struggle for the end of slavery — he stood for the rights of common people and protected democratic traditions.

Question: 4. (a) After becoming president, how did Abraham Lincoln bring the end of slavery?

Answer: After becoming president, Abraham Lincoln issued the "Emancipation Proclamation" on 1 January 1863, by which the slaves got freedom; after that, through the thirteenth amendment of the constitution, slavery was banned in America.

Question: 5. (a) Give a brief introduction of Abraham Lincoln's wife.

Answer: Abraham Lincoln's wife was Mary Todd, whom he married on 4

April 1842. She was a courageous, very wise and educated woman, who belonged to the Kentucky family. Abraham Lincoln had four sons from Mary Todd.

1. (b) Abraham Lincoln was born in:

(b) Abraham Lincoln was born in:

(a) 1909 AD

(b) 1880 AD

✓ (c) 1809 AD

(d) 1808 AD

2. (b) At the time of entering politics, Abraham Lincoln's age was:

✓ (b) At the time of entering politics, Abraham Lincoln's age was:

(a) 30 years

✓ (b) 25 years

(c) 29 years

(d) 28 years

3. (b) Besides politics, Abraham Lincoln was a:

(b) Besides politics, Abraham Lincoln was a:

(a) doctor

(b) engineer

✓ (c) lawyer

(d) teacher

4. (b) The name of Abraham Lincoln's wife was:

(b) The name of Abraham Lincoln's wife was:

(a) Lady Diana

(b) Lady Gaga

(c) Maria

✓ (d) Mary Todd

5. (b) Abraham Lincoln became the president of America in:

(b) Abraham Lincoln became the president of America in:

(a) 1865 AD

(b) 1842 AD

(c) 1861 AD

(d) 1860 AD

Question: 1. (c) After the death of Abraham's mother, his upbringing was done by ___.

Answer: Elder sister Sarah. After the death of Abraham's mother, his upbringing was done by elder sister Sarah.

Question: 2. (c) Abraham Lincoln became famous because of his nickname ___.

Answer: Honest (Diyantmadar). Abraham Lincoln became famous because of his nickname Honest.

Question: 3. (c) Abraham Lincoln's family moved from Indiana to the state of ___.

Answer: Illinois. Abraham Lincoln's family moved from Indiana to the state of Illinois.

Question: 4. (c) In the presidential election of the year ___, Abraham Lincoln got success.

Answer: 1860. In the presidential election of the year 1860, Abraham Lincoln got success.

Question: 5. (c) During his presidency, the civil war started in ___.

Answer: 1861. During his presidency, the civil war started in 1861.

1. (d) Abraham Lincoln was born in the house of a trader.

2. (d) Abraham Lincoln succeeded in the national legislative assembly.

3. (d) Abraham Lincoln always used to make speeches against freedom.

4. (d) During the presidency, Abraham Lincoln issued the "Emancipation Proclamation".

5. (d) One month after Abraham Lincoln became president, the civil war started.

Question: Activity for students: Collect some pictures of Abraham Lincoln and paste them in the copy. A link to a short book on the life of Abraham Lincoln is given in the book; one student should download that book and all should read it together.

Answer: This is a class activity, which has no single fixed answer. Method: the students collect some pictures of Abraham Lincoln and paste them in the copy, and download the book from the link given in the book and all read it together. Worked example — from the lesson's own material: Abraham Lincoln was born on 12 February 1809 AD in the state of Kentucky in America in the house of a poor farmer, and became the president of America in March 1861 AD.

ڈياري

Question: 1. (a) When and how is Diwali celebrated?

Answer: Diwali is celebrated in the month of Kartik of the Hindu calendar; it begins from the thirteenth date of Kartik, on the fourteenth date "Narak Chaturdashi" is celebrated, and on the fifteenth date the Diwali ceremony is held.

Question: 2. (a) Describe the rituals of Diwali briefly.

Answer: The rituals of Diwali: cleaning the house, lighting lamps, worshipping Goddess Lakshmi, congratulating one another, distributing sweets, and fireworks.

Question: 3. (a) What is the purpose of worshipping Goddess Lakshmi in Diwali?

Answer: The purpose of worshipping Goddess Lakshmi in Diwali is to pray for wealth and prosperity.

Question: 4. (a) How did Shri Ram defeat Ravan?

Answer: After the 14-year exile, Shri Ram fought a war with Ravan and defeated him, and freed Sita.

Question: 5. (a) What is the purpose of lighting lamps in Diwali?

Answer: The purpose of lighting lamps in Diwali is to show the sign of the victory of light — the victory of light over darkness, and the victory of good over evil.

1. (b) On the occasion of Diwali, the house is cleaned and decorated for:

(b) On the occasion of Diwali, the house is cleaned and decorated for:

(a) Shri Ramchandra

(b) Sita ji

(c) Lakshman ji

(d) Lakshmi ji

2. (b) The exile (banwas) of Shri Ramchandra, Sita ji and Lakshman ji was:

(a) 10 years

(b) 12 years

(c) 13 years

✓ (d) 14 years

3. (b) Shri Ramchandra is the ___ incarnation of Vishnu:

(b) Shri Ramchandra is the ___ incarnation of Vishnu:

(a) fifth

(b) sixth

✓ (c) seventh

(d) eighth

4. (b) The one who kidnapped Sita ji by deceit was:

(b) The one who kidnapped Sita ji by deceit was:

✓ (a) Ravan

(b) Hirna Kashyap

(c) Duryodhan

(d) Bali

5. (b) The light of Diwali lamps is a sign of:

(b) The light of Diwali lamps is a sign of:

(a) evil

(b) goodness

(c) defeat

✓ (d) victory

Question: 1. (c) The day of Diwali is celebrated in the month of ___.

Answer: Kartik. The day of Diwali is celebrated in the month of Kartik.

Question: 2. (c) According to some traditions, Diwali is the wedding day of ___ and Bhagwan Krishna.

✓

Answer: Rukmini [note:this name was not found directly in the read lesson pages; according to tradition it is the wedding day of Rukmini and Krishna]. According to some traditions, Diwali is the wedding day of Rukmini and Bhagwan Krishna.

Question: 3. (c) Lakshmi is the goddess of ___.

Answer: Wealth. Lakshmi is the goddess of wealth.

Question: 4. (c) In "Lakshmi Panch Mak", Vishnu, Indra, ___, Ganjandar and ___ are included.

Answer: Kabir, Lakshmi. In "Lakshmi Panch Mak", Vishnu, Indra, Kabir, Ganjandar and Lakshmi are included.

Question: 5. (c) On the day of Diwali, Hindu traders open new ___.

Answer: Accounts. On the day of Diwali, Hindu traders open new accounts.

1. (d) "Diwali" is a word of the Nepali language.

2. (d) On Diwali, lamps are lit the whole night.

3. (d) Diwali is the announcement of the beginning of the harvest season.

4. (d) On Diwali, the worship of Govardhan is also done.

5. (d) Lakshmi is the goddess of truth.

Question: Activity for students: Write in order the rituals which are done at home on the day of Diwali and show them to the teacher.

Answer: This is a class activity, which has no single fixed answer. Method: the students write in order the rituals which are done at home on the day of Diwali and show them to the teacher. Worked example — from the lesson's own material: cleaning the house, lighting lamps, worshipping Goddess Lakshmi, congratulating one another, distributing sweets, and fireworks.

جنم اشتمي

Question: 1. (a) When is the day of Janam Ashtami celebrated?

Answer: The day of Janam Ashtami is celebrated on the "Tareek Pak" day of the month of "Bhadon" of the Hindi calendar, which falls in August or September according to the English calendar.

Question: 2. (a) What works are done on the day of Janam Ashtami?

Answer: On the day of Janam Ashtami, these works are done: a fast is kept, the house is cleaned and decorated, the idols of Bhagwan Shri Krishna are bathed with patiyain (abhisheka), worship is done in temples, the Gita is read, and sweets are distributed.

Question: 3. (a) Write a brief note about the preparations of the Janam Ashtami day.

Answer: The preparations of Janam Ashtami begin many days before: women clean and decorate their houses, various kinds of sweets are prepared on this occasion, and preparations are made to bathe the idols of Bhagwan Shri Krishna with patiyain.

Question: 4. (a) What is the meaning of Janam Ashtami Hon?

Answer: The meaning of Janam Ashtami Hon is: janam = birth, ashtami = eighth — that is, the eighth day of the birth of Bhagwan Shri Krishna.

Question: 5. (a) How is Bhagwan Shri Krishna welcomed?

Answer: Bhagwan Shri Krishna is welcomed in this way: the house is cleaned and decorated, idols are decorated in temples, abhisheka is done, and the Gita is read.

1. (b) The name of Shri Krishna ji's mother was:

(b) The name of Shri Krishna ji's mother was:

(a) Meeran Bai

(b) Radha

(c) Lata

(d) Devaki ✓

2. (b) According to Hindu belief, "Vishnu":

(b) According to Hindu belief, "Vishnu":

(a) nourishes ✓

(b) creates

(c) kills

(d) brings back to life

3. (b) Bathing the idols of Bhagwan Shri Krishna with patiyain is called:

(b) Bathing the idols of Bhagwan Shri Krishna with patiyain is called:

(a) puja

(b) sadhna

(c) aarti

(d) abhisheka ✓

4. (b) On the day of Janam Ashtami, the sanyasis, yogis and gyanis throw light on the teaching of:

(b) On the day of Janam Ashtami, the sanyasis, yogis and gyanis throw light on the teaching of:

(a) science

(b) astronomy

(c) Bhagwan ✓

(d) all of these

5. (b) Before Janam Ashtami, the chap is read for:

(b) Before Janam Ashtami, the chap is read for:

(a) 2 days ✓

(b) 4 days

(c) 6 days

(d) 8 days

Question: 1. (c) The holy book of the Hindus is ___.

Answer: Gita. The holy book of the Hindus is Gita.

Question: 2. (c) Janam Ashtami is the birthday of ___.

Answer: Shri Krishna. Janam Ashtami is the birthday of Shri Krishna.

Question: 3. (c) That day is celebrated in the month of ___.

Answer: Bhadon. That day is celebrated in the month of Bhadon.

Question: 4. (c) The favourite food of Bhagwan Shri Krishna is ___.

Answer: Butter. The favourite food of Bhagwan Shri Krishna is butter.

Question: 5. (c) Bhagwan Shri Krishna fought the war on behalf of the ___, whom he gave victory.

Answer: Pandavas. Bhagwan Shri Krishna fought the war on behalf of the Pandavas, whom he gave victory.

✓ 1. (d) On the day of Janam Ashtami, a fast is kept.

✗ 2. (d) The title of Bhagwan Shri Krishna is Ram.

✓ 3. (d) Bhagwan Shri Krishna is the new-numbered incarnation of Vishnu.

✓ 4. (d) Bhagwan Shri Krishna was born in Mathura.

✗ 5. (d) The celebrations of Janam Ashtami begin after the day has passed.

Question: Activity for students: The students write the brief meaning of these terms: * Gopal * Abhisheka * Janam Ashtami Hon.

Answer: This is a class activity, which has no single fixed answer. Method: the students write the brief meaning of these terms: Gopal, Abhisheka, Janam Ashtami Hon. Worked example — from the lesson's own material: Gopal = one who rears cows, a title of Shri Krishna; Abhisheka = bathing the idols of Bhagwan Shri Krishna with patiyain; Janam Ashtami Hon = the eighth day of the birth of Bhagwan Shri Krishna.

ويساكي

Question: 1. (a) When and how did Vaisakhi begin with religious status?

Answer: Vaisakhi began with religious status on 30 March 1699 AD, when Guru Gobind Singh held a historic gathering on Vaisakhi and laid the foundation of the "Khalsa Panth".

Question: 2. (a) Why is the day of Vaisakhi celebrated?

Answer: The day of Vaisakhi is celebrated because it is the fair of the spring season and farmers celebrate it in the joy of harvesting the crop; in the Sikh religion it also has religious status.

Question: 3. (a) In what way are the ceremonies of Vaisakhi celebrated?

Answer: The ceremonies of Vaisakhi are celebrated in this way: processions of Nagar Kirtan are taken out in gurdwaras, kirtans are sung, the Panj Pyare lead, langar is distributed, and dancing, singing and raag roop take place.

Question: 4. (a) Who are the Panj Pyare, and how did they get that title?

Answer: The Panj Pyare were those five brave people who showed readiness to sacrifice their lives on the call of Guru Gobind Singh; Guru Gobind Singh gave them the title of "Panj Pyare".

Question: 5. (a) What is the dress of Vaisakhi?

Answer: The dress of Vaisakhi is colourful — people wear special shining yellow-coloured clothes, then "Bhangra" and "Gidda" dances are performed.

1. (b) According to the English calendar, Vaisakhi is celebrated in:

✓ (b) According to the English calendar, Vaisakhi is celebrated in:

(a) March

✓ (b) April

(c) June

(d) August

2. (b) The meaning of the title "Singh" is:

(b) The meaning of the title "Singh" is:

(a) elephant

(b) brave

(c) king

✓ (d) lion

3. (b) Farmers celebrate Vaisakhi in the joy of:

(b) Farmers celebrate Vaisakhi in the joy of:

(a) sowing flowers

(b) sowing plants

✓ (c) harvesting the crop

(d) marriage

4. (b) The meaning of "nagar" is:

(b) The meaning of "nagar" is:

(a) house

(b) neighbourhood

(c) village

✓ (d) city

5. (b) Vaisakhi attained religious status in:

✓ (b) Vaisakhi attained religious status in:

(a) 1666 AD

✓ (b) 1699 AD

(c) 1799 AD

(d) 1999 AD

Question: 1. (c) Vaisakhi is celebrated in the fair season of ___.

Answer: Spring. Vaisakhi is celebrated in the fair season of spring.

Question: 2. (c) The ninth Guru of the Sikh religion is ___.

Answer: Gobind Singh. The tenth Guru of the Sikh religion is Gobind Singh.

Question: 3. (c) Guru Gobind Singh held the historic gathering on Vaisakhi on the date ___.

Answer: 30 March 1699 AD. Guru Gobind Singh held the historic gathering on Vaisakhi on the date 30 March 1699 AD.

Question: 4. (c) All the people present in the gathering got the name ___.

Answer: Singh. All the people present in the gathering got the name Singh.

Question: 5. (c) Kirtan is called ___.

Answer: Hymns and songs. Kirtan is called hymns and songs.

✓ 1. (d) Laddus made from gram flour are called "Karha Prasad".

✓ 2. (d) The holy book of the Sikh religion is Guru Granth Sahib.

✗ 3. (d) The meaning of "Khalsa Panth" is the class of brave people.

✓ 4. (d) The day of Vaisakhi is celebrated in the month.

✓ 5. (d) Guru Gobind Singh was appointed the tenth Guru of the Sikhs.

Question: Activity for students: The students write a brief note on the rituals, foods and raag roop of Vaisakhi and show it to the teacher.

Answer: This is a class activity, which has no single fixed answer. Method: the students write a brief note on the rituals, foods and raag roop of Vaisakhi and show it to the teacher. Worked example — from the lesson's own material: rituals: Nagar Kirtan processions, singing kirtan, distributing langar; foods: saag, makai bread, tehri and karha prasad; raag roop: Bhangra and Gidda dances.