Unit 6: Safety — 6.2.2 Good Touch and Bad Touch

Learn about good touch and bad touch from the table (میز سے اچھ اور بر لمس کے بارے میں جانیں)

Question: What is a good touch? Give the book's examples of good touch.

Answer: A good touch is a respectful and caring touch that makes us feel secure and comfortable. Examples: a hug from parents, a hi-five from friends, and holding hands with parents, siblings or friends while crossing the road.

Question: What is a bad touch? Give the book's examples of bad touch.

Answer: A bad touch is any touch that feels unwanted, uncomfortable or forceful. Examples: someone unknown hugs you, being hit or punched by someone unknown, and shaking hands with someone unknown.

Question: What should you do if you feel a bad touch?

Answer: We should say "No" loudly, move away, push the hands off our body, scream "help" loudly, and run to a trusted adult and tell him or her at once.

Activity VI: Draw the happy emoji for good touch and the sad emoji for bad touch situations (اچھ لمس کی صورتوں کے لیے خوش اور بر لمس کے لیے اداس ایموجی بنائیں)

Question: Mark good (happy) or bad (sad): Someone unknown touching your cheeks; Mother touching your cheeks; Someone known tickling on your body and you don't like it; Your sister tickling your body.

Answer: Someone unknown touching your cheeks — bad touch (sad). Mother touching your cheeks — good touch (happy). Someone known tickling your body and you don't like it — bad touch (sad), because any touch we do not like is a bad touch. Your sister tickling your body in play — good touch (happy).

Question: Mark good (happy) or bad (sad): A friend putting his/her hand on your shoulder; Someone unknown putting his hand on your shoulder; Your father kissing your forehead; Someone unknown kissing your forehead.

Answer: Zainab says: "Balochistan has the amazing National Parks and huge mountains." Gulnaz says: "Khyber Pakhtunkhuwa has tall mountains and green valleys." Nazia says: "Gilgit Baltistan has snowy peaks of mountains and sparkling lakes."

Unit 7: Unity in Diversity — 7.2 Unity in Diversity

(Story)

Pre-reading — Activity I: Discuss the questions in pairs and answer (جوڑوں میں سوالات پر بات کریں اور جواب دیں)

Question: What is famous city in your province?

Answer: Karachi is the famous city of Sindh. It is the biggest city of Pakistan and is near the sea. (Children of other provinces may name Lahore for Punjab, Peshawar for Khyber Pakhtunkhuwa, Quetta for Balochistan and Gilgit for Gilgit Baltistan.)

Question: What other famous cities of Pakistan do you know?

Answer: I know Karachi, Lahore, Islamabad, Peshawar, Quetta, Hyderabad, Multan and Faisalabad. Islamabad is the capital city of Pakistan.

Question: What colours are in Pakistan's flag?

Answer: There are two colours in Pakistan's flag: green and white. The flag also has a white crescent and a star in the green part.

While-reading — Activity II: Match Column A with Column B to complete the sentences (جملے مکمل کرنے کے لیے کالم A کو کالم B سے ملائیں)

Question: Match: All participated; Students were from; Marvi was.

Answer: All participated in a race competition. Students were from all over Pakistan. Marvi was from Sindh.

Question: Match: Zainab came from; Gulnaz was; Saima joined; Nazia played for.

Answer: Zainab came from Balochistan. Gulnaz was from Khyber Pakhtunkhwa. Saima joined from Punjab. Nazia played for Gilgit Baltistan.

Question: Match: Saima; Marvi.

Answer: Saima fell down. Marvi helped first. When Saima fell and cried, Marvi stopped at once and helped her stand up.

Activity III: Encircle the correct answer of the MCQs (درست جواب کو گھیرا لگائیں)

Question: 1. All participants in the race were from ___. a. Sindh b. Balochistan and Punjab c. Khyber Pakhtunkhuwa d. All over the Pakistan

Answer: Correct answer: d. All over the Pakistan. Correct option: All over the Pakistan.

Question: 2. It was the day of ___. a. annual Cycle race competition b. annual Science competition c. annual race competition d. annual cultural day

Answer: Correct answer: c. annual race competition. Correct option: annual race competition.

Question: 3. While running in the race, ___ was ahead of all. a. Marvi b. Zainab c. Nazia d. Gulnaz

Answer: As per the story, Saima was ahead of all, because she ran very fast. Saima's name is not given in the printed options (book misprint), so no printed option is correct; the story answer is Saima.

Question: 4. Zainab was crying because she was ___. (In the story it was Saima who fell, was hurt and cried; the book prints the name 'Zainab' by mistake.) a. happy b. sad c. hurt d. sick

Answer: Correct answer: c. hurt. Correct option: hurt. Saima fell down in the race, was hurt and started crying.

Question: 5. ___ was the first to help Zainab in the race. (Read: the first to help Saima, as in the story.) a. Gulnaz b. Nazia c. Marvi d. Saima

Answer: Correct answer: c. Marvi. Correct option: Marvi. Marvi stopped first and helped Saima; then Zainab, Gulnaz and Nazia also helped her.

Post-reading — Activity IV: Answer the questions in simple sentences (سادہ جملوں میں سوالات کے جواب دیں)

Question: What was the event about?

Answer: The event was about an annual race competition. Many students from all over Pakistan joined the race.

Question: Who fell down in the race?

Answer: Saima fell down in the race. She was running very fast and was ahead of everyone, but suddenly she fell, got hurt and started crying.

Question: Who joined to help Saima in the end?

Answer: Nazia joined to help Saima in the end. Marvi helped her first, Zainab and Gulnaz also gave their hands, and then Nazia also joined them to help Saima stand up.

Question: Who won the race in the end?

Answer: All the girls won the race in the end. The judges saw their spirit of helping, clapped for them, announced "You all are winners" and gave trophies to all the girls.

Question: What did all girls say in the end?

Answer: All the girls said: "We are from different provinces, yet we make one nation." This shows unity in diversity.

Activity V: Arrange the sentences in proper order using ordinal numbers (ترتیبی اعداد سے جملوں کو درست ترتیب میں لکھیں)

Question: Arrange in story order (the book's example has wrongly marked the last sentence as 'First'; the correct order is given here): Judges gave them the trophies; As the race began, Saima ran very fast; All the girls said, "yet we make one nation"; Marvi helped Saima; Saima stumbled and fell down; Zainab and Gulnaz helped Saima; The judges saw girls helping each other; Nazia came to help Saima.

Answer: First — As the race began, Saima ran very fast. Second — Saima stumbled and fell down. Third — Marvi helped Saima. Fourth — Zainab and Gulnaz helped Saima. Fifth — Nazia came to help Saima. Sixth — The judges saw girls helping each other. Seventh — Judges gave them the trophies. Eighth (Last) — All the girls said, "yet we make one nation."

Unit 7: Unity in Diversity — 7.3.1 Opposite Describing Words

A) Vocabulary — Activity I: Match the opposites and use five of them in simple sentences (متضاد ملائیں اور پانچ کو ساد جملوں میں استعمال کریں)

Question: The book's example sentence is: "Aslam is a tall boy but Ali is a small student in the class." Use five more pairs in simple sentences.

Answer: 1. Young–old: My grandfather is old, but my little brother is young. 2. Up–down: The bird flies up and the leaves fall down. 3. Easy–hard: This sum is easy, but that sum is hard. 4. Friend–enemy: Ali is my friend, not my enemy. 5. Bright–dim: The sun is bright, but the old lamp is dim. 6. Left–right: The school is on my left and the park is on my right.

Unit 7: Unity in Diversity — 7.3.2 Use of Prepositions

B) Grammar: Understand prepositions of place and position from the examples (مثالوں سے جگہ اور حالت کے حروفِ جار سمجھیں)

Question: Read the four example pictures and tell which preposition is used in each: a book on a table; a fish in a jar of water; a dog jumping over a wall; a cat sitting under a table.

Answer: 1. "The book is on the table." — on. 2. "The fish is in the water." — in. 3. "The dog jumps over the wall." — over. 4. "The cat is under the table." — under. Prepositions show the place or position of a thing.

Activity I: Complete the sentences with the correct preposition for the cat and the box: under, in, over, on, near (بلی اور ڈبہ کے لیے درست حرفِ جار سے جملے مکمل کریں)

Question: 1. The picture shows the cat sitting inside the box (given in the book). 2. The picture shows the cat sitting beside the box. Complete: "The cat is ___ the box."

Answer: 1. The cat is in the box. 2. The cat is near the box.

Question: 3. The picture shows the cat jumping above the box. Complete: "The cat jumps ___ the box." 4. The picture shows the cat sitting on top of the box. Complete: "The cat is ___ the box."

Answer: 3. The cat jumps over the box. 4. The cat is on the box.

Question: 5. The picture shows the cat hiding below an upside-down box; only its face and paws can be seen. Complete: "The cat is ___ the box."

Answer: The cat is under the box. All five prepositions — in, near, over, on, under — are now used once each.

Unit 7: Unity in Diversity — 7.4.1 Describing a Series of Three Pictures

Activity I: Look at the pictures and tell the story (تصویریں دیکھ کر کانی سنائیں)

Question: The three pictures show: three brothers quarrelling angrily with each other; their old father watching them break single sticks one by one; and a son giving a bundle of sticks to the father, which none of them could break. Tell the story in simple sentences.

Answer: Once three brothers always quarrelled with each other. Their old father was very sad. One day he gave one stick to each son, and they broke the sticks easily. Then he gave them a bundle of sticks, but no one could break the bundle. The father said: "If you stay together like this bundle, no one can break you." From that day the brothers stopped fighting and lived together happily.

Question: What lesson do you learn from this picture story?

Answer: We learn that there is strength in unity. If we stay together like the bundle of sticks, no one can harm or break us, but alone we are weak like a single stick.

Unit 7: Unity in Diversity — 7.4.2 Completing the Story

Activity I: Complete the story by adding the appropriate words from the options: old, fight, live, strong, stay, sad, bundle, lived, strength, stopped, break, weak (اختیارات سے مناسب الفاظ لگا کر کانی مکمل کریں)

Question: Complete the first paragraph: "Once upon a time, there was an ___ man. His three sons always fought with each other. The old man was very ___ about his sons. He wanted his sons to ___ in peace."
Answer: Once upon a time, there was an old man. His three sons always fought with each other. The old man was very sad about his sons. He wanted his sons to live in peace.

Question: Complete: "One day, the old man called his sons and gave one stick to each son. 'Try to ___ it,' he ordered. Each son broke his stick easily. Later, he gave them a ___ of sticks and said, 'Try to break these sticks.' Each son used all their ___. But, the bundle was too ___ to break."
Answer: "Try to break it," he ordered. Later, he gave them a bundle of sticks. Each son used all their strength. But, the bundle was too strong to break.

Question: Complete the ending: "Then the old man said, 'My sons, when you ___ together like the bundle, no one can break you. But, if you ___ and stay apart, you will be ___.' The sons understood. From that day, they ___ fighting and ___ together." What is the moral of the story?
Answer: "When you stay together like the bundle, no one can break you.

But, if you fight and stay apart, you will be weak." From that day, they stopped fighting and lived together. Moral: There is strength in unity.
