Unit 3 — A Zoo (Book pages 26-37)

Reading (pages 26-27): A zoo is a place where many animals and birds are kept in closed areas or cages. We can see lions, monkeys, elephants, parrots, snakes, etc. in the zoo. People who take care of animals in the zoo are called zoo keepers. They give the animals food and water. We should not try to give anything to animals in the zoo — if we give anything to them, they may become ill and may die too. We should also keep a distance from them. Some animals and birds we keep at home, like hens, parrots and goats, are called pets, and we should take care of them at our homes.

Post-reading (page 27)

Q: Do you like animals and birds?

A: Model answer: Yes, I like animals and birds very much.

Q: What is your favourite animal/bird?

A: Model answer: My favourite animal is the lion. (Write your own favourite.)

Unit 4 — Fruits and Vegetables (Book pages 38-52)

Reading (pages 38-39): Fruits and vegetables are very important for us. They provide us energy and keep us fit. We eat watermelon, mango, melon and okra (ladyfinger) in the summer. We eat sweet potato, sugarcane, pomegranate, cauliflower and peas in the winter season. Some fruits, such as bananas, cherries and apples, grow on trees. Other fruits, such as grapes and watermelons, grow on vines. Fruits like blueberries and raspberries grow on bushes. Most fruits contain seeds. Fruits and vegetables are a good source of energy, so we should eat fruits and vegetables.

Post-reading (page 39)

Q: What is your favourite fruit?

A: Model answer: My favourite fruit is the mango. (Write your own favourite.)

Q: What is your favourite vegetable?

A: Model answer: My favourite vegetable is the potato. (Write your own favourite.)

Unit 9 — Cleanliness (Book pages 105-115)

Reading (pages 105-107): Cleanliness is a very important aspect of our lives. It helps to keep us healthy and free from diseases. We should know the importance of cleanliness and maintain good healthy habits. One of the most important things is to wash our hands with soap and water, especially before eating and after using the toilet. At school, we should keep our classroom clean and tidy by throwing garbage in the bin. We should also keep our desk clean by not writing anything on the desk or classroom walls. At home, we should make sure to put away our toys and belongings after playing, clean up any mess and help with household chores such as washing dishes or sweeping the floor. Taking a bath every day is also very important to keep our body clean and fresh. By maintaining good cleanliness habits, we can prevent the spread of germs and stay healthy. Let's make cleanliness a habit for life.

Post-reading (page 108) — What are kids doing in the given pictures?

The kids in the pictures are: taking a bath, brushing their teeth, washing their hands, eating food, cleaning the park, and putting books in order on a shelf.

Unit 10 — The Bee and the Dove, Story (Book pages 116-123)

Story (pages 116-117): Once upon a time, there was a bee which was very thirsty. It went to a stream to drink water. The flow of the water was very fast, so the bee fell into the stream, and its life was in danger. A dove was sitting on a branch of a nearby tree. It looked at the bee and dropped a leaf near the bee to save its life. The bee climbed up the leaf and saved its life. After some days, a hunter came and took aim at the dove. The bee was flying nearby. It looked at the hunter, so at once it flew near the hunter and stung his hand. The hunter missed the aim and the dove flew away. The dove thanked the bee for saving its life. The bee told the dove, 'One day you saved my life, so it was my duty to help you in your difficult time.'

Post-reading (page 117)

Q: Did you like the story?

A: Model answer: Yes, I liked the story very much.

Q: How did the bee save the dove's life?

A: The bee flew near the hunter and stung his hand, so the hunter missed his aim and the dove flew away.

Q: What lesson did you learn from the story?

A: The lesson of the story is that we should help others in their difficult time — one good turn deserves another, because kindness is repaid with kindness.

Unit 11 — Be Safe (Book pages 124-130)

Reading (pages 124-125): We all want to be safe at home, in school and outside. Being safe means we take care of ourselves. A stranger is a person we do not know. Strangers can be men, women or older children. We must never talk to a stranger. We must never go anywhere with a stranger. If someone we do not know calls us, we should walk away quickly. If a stranger asks for help, we should call an adult to help them. We should not help them alone. When we are outside, we should stay with our friends. We should walk on the sidewalk and stay away from the road. We should wait for our parents at the same place. If anyone offers us food, sweets, candy, toys or rides, we must say 'No, thank you.' We should never take anything from strangers. At home, we should not open the door to strangers. In school, we must follow our teacher's instructions. We should walk in a line, not run in the hall. We should play safely in the playground. When crossing the road, we always: Stop, look, then walk. If we ever feel scared or confused, we should ask our parents or teacher for help. Being safe means being smart. We should think before we act. We stay close to people we trust. We should take care of ourselves. When we follow safety rules, we can stay happy and safe.

Post-reading (page 125)

Q: When should we say 'No' to strangers?

A: We should say 'No, thank you' when a stranger offers us food, sweets, candy, toys or rides, and we should never take anything from strangers.

Q: How can we stay safe from strangers?
