English Grade 4 — Solved Exercises

Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Textbook Board, Peshawar — Test Edition, Based on Curriculum 2020 — Complete Book

Solved Exercises — Complete Book

Contents

Unit 1: Great Caliphs of Islam (book pp. 1-12)

Unit 2: Beauty of Nature (book pp. 13-21)

Unit 3: The Journey of Chocolate (book pp. 22-30)

Review-1 (book pp. 31-33)

Unit 4: The Pride of Pakistan (book pp. 34-44)

Unit 5: Thank you, Lord (book pp. 45-54)

Unit 6: Valuing Others (book pp. 55-63)

Review-2 (book pp. 64-66)

Unit 7: Colours of Pakistan (book pp. 67-77)

Unit 8: Good Study Habits (book pp. 78-86)

Unit 9: Manners (book pp. 87-95)

Review-3 (book pp. 96-97)

Unit 10: Be Aware, Be Safe (book pp. 98-106)

Unit 11: The Fox and the Stork (book pp. 107-115)

Unit 12: Time to Think! (book pp. 116-126)

Unit 13: Little Things (book pp. 127-136)

Review - 4 (book pp. 137-138)

Unit 1: Great Caliphs of Islam (book pp. 1-12)

Getting Started — A true leader

Q: Which qualities should a true leader have?

A: A true leader should have courage, honesty, passion, determination and humility.

Let's Talk (sample answers — these are discussion questions)

Q: Do you want to be a leader? Why?

A: Yes, I want to be a leader, because a good leader guides people, helps them and works for the good of the country.

Q: Which leadership qualities do you want to have?

A: I want to have honesty and courage, so that people can trust me and I can stand for what is right.

Q: Why is determination important for a leader?

A: Determination is important for a leader because a leader must keep working even when things are difficult and must never give up.

Pre-reading

Q: What do you know about the great caliphs of Islam?

A: The great caliphs of Islam were the four Rashidun Caliphs — Hazrat Abu Bakr, Hazrat Umar, Hazrat Usman and Hazrat Ali. They ruled the Islamic state after Hazrat Muhammad (peace be upon him) and were his close friends.

Q: How many Rashidun Caliphs are in Islam?

A: There are four Rashidun Caliphs in Islam.

While-reading

Q: Who was the first man to accept Islam?

A: Hazrat Abu Bakr was the first man to accept Islam.

Q: What is the meaning of Al-Farooq?

A: Al-Farooq means the one who distinguishes between the right and the wrong.

Q: Why was Hazrat Usman called 'Ghani'?

A: Hazrat Usman was called 'Ghani' because he was a very rich merchant who was very generous and spent generously in the way of Allah.

Q: Who was the first child to accept Islam?

A: Hazrat Ali was the first child to accept Islam.

Post-reading

Q: Why was Hazrat Usman called 'Zun Noorain'?

A: Hazrat Usman was called 'Zun Noorain', the holder of two lights, because he married two daughters of Hazrat Muhammad (peace be upon him).

Q: Write a few lines about the life of Hazrat Ali in your own words.

A: Hazrat Ali was the son of Hazrat Abu Talib, the uncle of Hazrat Muhammad (peace be upon him). He lived with the Prophet from his early childhood and was brought up in his care. He was the first child to accept Islam, at the age of only ten years. He was a very courageous man, so he is also known as 'Asadullah', the Lion of Allah. He married Hazrat Fatima, the beloved daughter of the Prophet, and Hazrat Hassan and Hazrat Hussain were his sons. After the martyrdom of Hazrat Usman, he became the fourth caliph of Islam and performed his duties for almost five years.

A) Oral Communication — 1. Learning the Sounds: Vowel Sounds

Q: Read the words starting with vowel sounds: ants, elements, informed, ostrich, unknown.

A: These words all begin with vowel sounds: ants (a), elements (e), informed (i), ostrich (o), unknown (u).

Q: Write the words beginning with vowel sounds from: octopus, cloud, sister, envelope, apricot, umpire, trophy.

A: octopus, envelope, apricot, umpire. (Cloud, sister and trophy begin with consonant sounds, so they are not written.)

A) Oral Communication — 2. Learning to Speak: Greetings

Q: Sadia: Assalamu Alaikum! — Ayaan: _____

A: Ayaan: Wa Alaikum Assalaam.

Q: Sadia: How are you? — Ayaan: _____

A: Ayaan: I am fine. Thank you!

Q: Sadia: Are you going to the playground? — Ayaan: _____

A: Ayaan: Yes, I am. And you?

Q: Sadia: Yes, me too. Can we play together? — Ayaan: _____

A: Ayaan: Yes, we can.

Q: Express your willingness or unwillingness to participate in a debate competition. (Pair work — sample lines)

A: Willing: 'Yes, I would love to take part in the debate competition.' Unwilling: 'No, I do not want to take part this time, but I will watch and learn.'

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 1. Reading Comprehension (i) Answer these qu

Q: Why was Hazrat Abu Bakr given the title of 'Siddique'?

A: Hazrat Abu Bakr was given the title of 'Siddique', which means the truthful one, because he was a man of truth and good habits who loved the Prophet and was the first among men to accept Islam.

Q: Why is Hazrat Usman called the 'holder of two lights'?

A: Hazrat Usman is called the 'holder of two lights' (Zun Noorain) because he married two daughters of Hazrat Muhammad (peace be upon him).

Q: At what age did Hazrat Ali accept Islam?

A: Hazrat Ali accepted Islam at the age of only ten years.

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 1. Reading Comprehension (ii) Digraphs, trigra

Q: Which digraphs, trigraphs and silent letters can you notice in the paragraph about Hazrat Umar?

A: Digraphs (two letters, one sound): 'ph' in caliph and 'ch' in stretched. Trigraph (three letters, one sound): 'sch' in scholarships. Silent letters (spelled but not pronounced): 'k' in known and 'g' in reign.

Q: What is a digraph? What is a consonant digraph?

A: A digraph is a group of two letters that makes a single sound. When two consonant letters combine to make one sound, they are called a consonant digraph, for example 'ch' in chick, 'th' in think and 'wh' in wheel.

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 1. Reading Comprehension (iii) Make words wi

Q: Make at least two words with each: ch, wh, igh, tch.

A: ch: chair, chick. wh: wheel, when. igh: night, light. tch: watch, catch.

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 1. Reading Comprehension (iv) Words with sile

Q: Write five words with different silent letters.

A: lamb — silent 'b'; bike — silent 'e'; known — silent 'k'; reign — silent 'g'; write — silent 'w'.

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 1. Reading Comprehension (v) Fill in the blank

The first caliph of Islam was Hazrat Abu Bakr.

Hazrat Abu Bakr was a friend of Rasoolullah.

Hazrat Usman was a very rich trader.

Hazrat Ali was the first among children to accept Islam.

Hazrat Umar was the second caliph of Islam.

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 2. Analytical Reading: personality traits of the disciplined, just and a strong administrator. Hazrat Usman: pious, generous and helpful to Muslims in need. Hazrat Ali: courageous, loyal and brought up in the care of the Prophet.

Q: Note down some personality traits of the four caliphs.

A: Hazrat Abu Bakr: soft-hearted, loving, truthful and a man of good habits. Hazrat Umar:

C) Language Focus — 1. Vocabulary Building (i) Words with their meanings (as giv

Q: affection / distinguish / generous / treaties / martyrdom

A: affection — a person's feelings of love. distinguish — to recognise the difference. generous — willing to give and share. treaties — a formal agreement between two or more countries. martyrdom — death of a martyr.

C) Language Focus — 1. Vocabulary Building (ii) Naming, action and describing wo

Q: Pick three naming, action and describing words from the picture.

A: Naming words: tree, boy, flowers. Action words: walking, playing, sitting. Describing words: green, happy, red. (Other correct answers from the picture are also acceptable.)

C) Language Focus — Dictionary: alphabetical order (read and learn)

Q: What does a dictionary entry show? Use: amazing, ambassador, ambiguity.

A: A dictionary entry shows the word, its syllables, its pronunciation and its part of speech, and then its meaning. amazing (a-maz-ing) — adjective: causing great surprise or wonder; astonishing. ambassador (am-bas-sa-dor) — noun: a diplomat of the highest rank as resident representative in a foreign country. ambiguity (am-bi-gu-i-ty) — noun: a word or statement that is open to more than one interpretation. The words are arranged in alphabetical order.

C) Language Focus — 2. Learning to Spell: fill in the missing letters

Q: c__lipha__e / en__mies / l__ader / hu__ba__d / r__cite

A: caliphate, enemies, leader, husband, recite.

Q: In the passage about Sara and her friend, which nouns are countable and which are uncountable?

A: Countable nouns (things we can count): flowers, swings, butterflies. Uncountable nouns (things we cannot count): weather, air, fun. Countable nouns have singular and plural forms; uncountable nouns do not have plural forms, for example water, weather and air.

Q: Write five countable and five uncountable nouns.

A: Countable: book, pen, chair, apple, boy. Uncountable: water, milk, rice, sugar, honesty.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Articles (iii) Fill in the blanks with 'a', 'an' or 'th

The man who wrote this book is famous.

There is a bag on the table.

She has an old watch.

He is drinking a glass of milk.

Kalsoom is a pilot.

There is an airport in my city.

Do you know where I left the car keys?

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Adjectives (iv) Types of adjectives (as given in

Q: Give the book's examples of adjectives of colour, quality, quantity, size, shape and origin.

A: Colour: pink, blue. Quality: soft, kind. Quantity: four, much. Size: large, tiny. Shape: triangle, square. Origin: Pakistani, Afghan. Adjectives of quality describe the quality of a noun; of quantity, the quantity; of colour, the colour; of size, the size; of shape, the shape; and of origin, where something comes from.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Adjectives (v) More adjectives

Q: Think of more adjectives for: 1. Quantity, 2. Quality, 3. Size, 4. Age, 5. Shape, 6. Colour, 7. Origin.

A: 1. Quantity: two, some. 2. Quality: brave, honest. 3. Size: big, small. 4. Age: old, new. 5.

Shape: round, oval. 6. Colour: red, green. 7. Origin: Chinese, Turkish.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Capitalisation (vi) Rewrite with correct capitali

Q: peshawar, lahore, quetta and karachi are the most famous cities of pakistan.

A: Peshawar, Lahore, Quetta and Karachi are the most famous cities of Pakistan.

Q: the teacher asked danish to read the lesson.

A: The teacher asked Danish to read the lesson.

Q: mano is a naughty cat.

A: Mano is a naughty cat.

Q: we cannot go to islamabad on this friday.

A: We cannot go to Islamabad on this Friday.

Q: asif lives in gilgit.

A: Asif lives in Gilgit.

D) Writing — 1. Learning to Write (i) Multi-syllabic words (as given in the book)

Q: Read the multi-syllabic words.

A: com·pan·ions, grand·fa·ther, bal·loon, rain·bow, class·room, el·e·phant, teach·er, sis·ter, lead·er·ship, tel·e·phone. A word which carries more than one syllable is called a multi-syllabic word.

Q: Make eight multi-syllabic words of your own. Put a dot between syllables.

A: but·ter·fly, beau·ti·ful, com·put·er, um·brel·la, choc·o·late, to·mor·row, pic·ture, gar·den.

D) Writing — 1. Learning to Write (iii) Replace the underlined words and phrases

Q: His uncle has a house similar to Faisal's.

A: His uncle has a house like Faisal's.

Q: I love my brother and sister.

A: I love my siblings.

Q: He bought dresses which are very high in price.

A: He bought costly dresses.

Q: He, who creates everything, is the Creator.

A: Allah is the Creator.

D) Writing — 2. Creative Writing: a paragraph about Hazrat Muhammad (peace be

Q: Write a paragraph using the mind map: date of birth and place, date of death, personality traits, achievement, career, family.

A: Hazrat Muhammad (peace be upon him) was born in 570 AD in Makkah and passed away in 632 AD in Madinah. His father was Hazrat Abdullah and his mother was Hazrat Amina. He was known for his honesty and truthfulness, and people called him Al-Amin, the trustworthy. In his early life he worked as a trader, and later he became the Prophet of Islam. His greatest achievement was spreading the message of Islam and building a united Muslim community. He married Hazrat Khadijah, and his beloved daughter was Hazrat Fatima. He was kind, patient and just, and Muslims follow his teachings in their daily lives.

Unit 2: Beauty of Nature (book pp. 13-21)

Getting Started — Life Cycle of a Butterfly

Q: Look at the picture of the life cycle of a butterfly. How many stages are there? Name them.

A: There are four stages in the life cycle of a butterfly: egg, caterpillar (larva), pupa (chrysalis) and butterfly.

Q: Can you name some other insects?

A: Yes. Some other insects are the honeybee, ladybird, ant, mosquito, housefly and grasshopper.

Pre-reading — Caterpillar (poem)

Q: Read the title and guess what the poem can be about.

A: The poem can be about a caterpillar and how it grows and changes into a butterfly.

Q: What do you know about caterpillars?

A: A caterpillar is the young form of a butterfly. It is a small, crawling creature that eats leaves and later changes into a butterfly.

While-reading

Q: What is the colour of a caterpillar?

A: In the poem the caterpillar is brown and furry. Caterpillars can also be green, blue or other colours, as shown in the pictures.

Post-reading

Q: Do you like the poem? Why? or why not?

A: Yes, I like the poem, because it tells the story of a caterpillar in short, rhyming lines and shows how it becomes a beautiful butterfly.

Q: Have you ever seen a caterpillar? Share your experience in a few sentences.

A: Yes, I have seen a caterpillar on a leaf in our garden. It was small and green and was eating the leaf slowly. I watched it crawl and felt happy when I remembered that it would one day become a butterfly.

A) Oral Communication — 1. Learning the Sounds: Silent Letters (i)

Q: Read the words and notice the silent letters in them: climb, design, thumb, name, honest, autumn, wrap, colonel, fasten, knock, often, guide.

A: Silent letters (spelled but not pronounced): climb — silent 'b'; design — silent 'g'; thumb — silent 'b'; name — silent 'e'; honest — silent 'h'; autumn — silent 'n'; wrap — silent 'w'; colonel — silent 'o'; fasten — silent 't'; knock — silent 'k'; often — silent 't'; guide — silent 'u'. Silent letters can be vowels or consonants.

Q: Make more words with the silent letters above in your notebook.

A: Silent 'b': lamb, comb, bomb. Silent 'g': reign, foreign, sign. Silent 'h': hour, honour, heir. Silent 'k': knee, knife, know. Silent 'w': write, wrong, wrist. Silent 't': listen, castle, whistle.

A) Oral Communication — 2. Learning to Speak: Introducing Self and Others (i)

Q: Read and practise the dialogue (Caterpillar, Butterfly, Ladybird).

A: Caterpillar: Good morning, butterfly! How are you? Butterfly: Good morning! I am fine. Thank you. Caterpillar: Meet my friend, ladybird. Butterfly: Good to meet you, ladybird. What would you like to have, oak leaves or cherry leaves? Ladybird: Oh yes! Thank you so much. I would love to eat cherry leaves. Butterfly: Okay! Meet my friend, honeybee. Ladybird: Nice to meet you, honeybee.

Q: Practise the dialogue in pairs and introduce yourself and your friends. (Sample)

A: A: Good morning! I am Ahmed. Meet my friend, Sara. B: Good morning, Ahmed! Nice to meet you, Sara. What do you like to play? Sara: I like to play cricket. And you? B: I like to play football too.

Q: Where is the caterpillar going?

A: The caterpillar is going for a walk to the shady leaf or stalk, which may be its chosen spot.

Q: What does the caterpillar change into?

A: The caterpillar changes into a butterfly. It spins and dies as a caterpillar, and lives again as a butterfly.

Q: Do toads and birds eat caterpillars?

A: Yes, toads and birds of prey eat caterpillars. That is why the poem warns the caterpillar: 'No toad spy you, hovering bird of prey pass by you.'

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 1. Reading Comprehension (ii) Transitional De

Q: Read the paragraph about Mahnoor and notice the use of transitional devices. Which transitional devices are used?

A: The transitional devices used in the paragraph are: therefore, but, Consequently, Moreover and As a result. Transitional devices are words or phrases that help carry a thought from one sentence to another, or from one paragraph to another.

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 1. Reading Comprehension (iii) Fill in the blanl

Q: _____ wrote the poem 'Caterpillar'.

Mary Oliver

Maya Angelou

✓ Christina Rossetti

Sylvia Plath

Q: A caterpillar is an/a _____.

animal

✓ insect

bird

plant

Q: The caterpillar is walking to the _____.

garden

floor

tree

✓ shady leaf

Q: At the end, the caterpillar becomes a _____.

toad

✓ butterfly

frog

sparrow

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 2. Analytical Reading

Q: Select a little creature (e.g. honeybee) that is useful to humans. Note some interesting facts about it and share with your classmates.

A: The honeybee is a little creature that is very useful to humans. It makes honey, which we eat, and it helps plants grow by carrying pollen from flower to flower. Honeybees live together in a hive and work as a team. Without bees, many fruits and vegetables would not grow.

C) Language Focus — 1. Vocabulary Building (i) Words with their meanings (as giv

Q: furry / stalk / hover / toad / spy

A: furry — covered with fur. stalk — the main stem of a plant. hover — to remain in one place in air. toad — a kind of frog with a shorter leg and drier skin. spy — to watch and examine secretly.

C) Language Focus — 1. Vocabulary Building (ii) Rhyming Words: Complete the rh

Q: A little seed for me to sow / A little soil to _____ / A little hole, a little pat, / A little wish, and _____ / A little sun, a little shower / A little while, and then, _____

A: A little seed for me to sow, / A little soil to grow, / A little hole, a little pat, / A little wish, and that, / A little sun, a little shower, / A little while, and then, flower. (sow/grow, pat/that and shower/flower rhyme.)

C) Language Focus — 1. Vocabulary Building (iii) Create a poem of your own using

Q: Create a poem of your own using the given pairs of rhyming words (trees, bees; way, day) and write it in your notebook.

A: The birds sing in the tall trees, / And buzz around go the busy bees. / They fly together on their way, / And play happily all through the day.

C) Language Focus — 1. Vocabulary Building (iv) Expressing Likes and Dislikes, N

Q: Read the dialogues (Anum and Iqra; Adnan and Hamza). Note how different expressions are used in speaking.

A: Likes and dislikes: 'Yes, I did. It was good.' and 'No, I don't. But I prefer to read different funny storybooks.' Feelings: 'You look so excited.' and 'Yes, I'm very happy because I am going to visit my family.' Needs: 'Could I borrow your bag? I want to put my stuff in it.' Opinions and agreement: 'Wow! That's great!' and 'Sure, you can.'

C) Language Focus — 2. Learning to Spell: Fill in the missing letters

Q: cat__rpill__r / sta__k / __over / pr__y / sp__n

A: caterpillar, stalk, hover, prey, spin.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Collective Nouns (i)

Q: Read the sentences and notice the use of collective nouns. What is a collective noun?

A: A collective noun refers to a group of people or things taken as a whole, for example a team of players, a herd of deer and a swarm of bees. In the sentences: a crowd of people, a bouquet of flowers, a flutter of butterflies, a flock of birds and a class of students.

Q: Make sentences of your own using the given collective nouns: fleet, team, herd, cluster, pride.

A: A fleet of ships sailed across the sea. Our team of players won the match. A herd of cows is grazing in the field. A cluster of stars shone in the sky. A pride of lions rested under the tree.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Articles 'a' or 'an' (iii)

Q: Write 'a' or 'an' with the given words: _____ honest girl / _____ wrapper / _____ knife / _____ hour

A: an honest girl (the 'h' is silent, so the first sound is a vowel); a wrapper (the 'w' is pronounced); a knife (the 'k' is silent, but the next sound 'n' is a consonant); an hour (the 'h' is silent, so the first sound is a vowel). Some words have initial consonants which are not pronounced, so we choose 'a' or 'an' by focusing on the second letter's sound.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Articles (iv) Write 'a/an' or 'the' to complete th

Q: Aqsa brought _____ apple, _____ orange and _____ sandwich for lunch today. She cut the fruits with _____ knife. They were from her own garden. _____ fruits and _____ vegetables in her garden are always very fresh. She always shares her lunch with her friends.

A: Aqsa brought an apple, an orange and a sandwich for lunch today. She cut the fruits with a knife. They were from her own garden. The fruits and the vegetables in her garden are always very fresh. She always shares her lunch with her friends.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Adjectives of Origin (v)

Q: Read the sentences and notice the use of adjectives of origin. What is an adjective of origin?

A: An adjective of origin describes where something comes from, for example Chinese, Turkish, etc. In the sentences: Australian apples, Italian car, Pakistani culture and Multani dress.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Adjectives of Origin (vi) Use the given adjectiv

Q: Use the given adjectives of origin in sentences of your own: British, Pakistani, Spanish, Canadian, American.

A: I read a British storybook yesterday. We love Pakistani food. She speaks Spanish very well. My uncle bought a Canadian jacket. He watches an American film every week.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Capitalisation (vii) Rewrite with correct capital

Q: mohsin lives in faisalabad. sadia, maha and mohsin are my best friends. bunny is mohsin's pet rabbit. mr sohail is mohsin's father. he is a banker.

A: Mohsin lives in Faisalabad. Sadia, Maha and Mohsin are my best friends. Bunny is Mohsin's pet rabbit. Mr Sohail is Mohsin's father. He is a banker.

D) Writing — 1. Learning to Write: A paragraph on 'The Life Cycle of a Butterfly'

Q: Write a paragraph on 'The Life Cycle of a Butterfly' using topic sentence and supporting details. Use the joining words 'and', 'but' and 'because' to join sentences within a paragraph.

A: The life cycle of a butterfly has four stages. First, the butterfly lays tiny eggs on a leaf, and after some days the eggs hatch into caterpillars. The caterpillar eats leaves and grows quickly because it needs energy to change. Then it forms a pupa, or chrysalis, and rests inside it, but a great change is happening within. At last, a beautiful butterfly comes out of the pupa and flies away in the air. This is why the butterfly is one of the most beautiful creatures of nature.

D) Writing — 2. Creative Writing: A paragraph on 'Saving Earth'

Q: Write a paragraph on 'Saving Earth' in your notebook.

A: Saving the Earth is the duty of every one of us. The Earth is our home, and it gives us air, water, food and shelter. We should plant more trees, keep our surroundings clean and save water, because these small acts protect nature. We must not throw garbage in streets and rivers, and we should reuse things instead of wasting them. If we all work together, we can keep the Earth green, clean and safe for the future.

Unit 3: The Journey of Chocolate (book pp. 22-30)

Getting Started — Plants and Organic Fertilizer

Q: Getting Started: Look at the picture and guess what it is. What other things do plants need to grow, besides air, light and water?

A: Besides air, light and water, plants also need soil and food from the soil. The picture shows organic fertilizer, which is made by dumping organic matter in a hole and leaving it for some time. It is added to the soil to help plants grow.

Q: What do you do with the peels of fruits and vegetables?

A: We should put the peels of fruits and vegetables in a compost pit instead of throwing them away, so that they become organic fertilizer for plants.

Q: How can you educate your family to recycle things for better results? Share.

A: We can tell our family that recycling saves money and keeps the environment clean, and we can show them how to separate peels, paper and plastic for recycling.

Q: Think and share what other things can be recycled.

A: Paper, plastic bottles, glass, old clothes, cans and cardboard can also be recycled.

Pre-reading — The Journey of Chocolate

Q: Look at the given pictures and talk about the title.

A: The lesson is about chocolate — where it comes from and how it is made. Chocolate comes from cocoa trees, and the lesson follows its journey from the cocoa pod to the chocolate we eat.

Q: Why should we not eat so many sweets?

A: We should not eat too many sweets because they have a lot of sugar, which damages our teeth and is bad for our health. Sweets should be eaten only in small amounts, and we must brush our teeth after eating them.

While-reading

Q: What is pod?

A: A pod is the large, reddish fruit of the cocoa tree. Each pod contains 20 to 40 beans, and it takes about six months to ripen.

Post Reading

Q: Why is eating too much chocolate not good for health?

A: Eating too much chocolate is not good for health because chocolate contains sugar, and too much sugar damages our teeth and can make us ill. We should eat it only in small amounts and always brush our teeth after eating chocolate.

Q: What would you like to invent to make your life easier? (Sample)

A: I would like to invent a small robot that helps my mother in the house, for example a robot that cleans the rooms and washes the dishes, so that my family gets more time to rest and play.

A) Oral Communication — 1. Learning the Sounds: Diphthongs (i)

Q: Read the sentences with diphthongs: Now the process of delicious chocolate making starts. / I read a book about chocolate. / He bought a lot of chocolate and oil. / Aisha doesn't gain weight even though she eats a lot of chocolate. What is a diphthong?

A: A diphthong is a combination of two vowel sounds in a single syllable. The sound begins with one vowel sound and glides into another, e.g. coil, pain, now. In the sentences: Now (ow), about (ou), oil (oi), gain (ai).

A) Oral Communication — 1. Learning the Sounds: Diphthongs (ii) Fill in the blank

Q: Uzma f__nd her gold c__n. / Don't make n__se. / W__t for your turn. / There are cl__ds in the sky. / Ali is wearing a br__n shirt.

A: found, coin, noise, wait, clouds, brown.

A) Oral Communication — 2. Learning to Speak: Expressing Likes and Dislikes (i)

Q: Read and practise the dialogue (Rohma and Mina).

A: Rohma: Good morning, Mina. How are you? Mina: Good morning, I'm fine. What about you? Rohma: I'm good. Mina, do you like eating chocolate? Mina: Yes, I like chocolate. But I do not eat a lot. Eating too much chocolate is not good for health. What about you? Rohma: No, I do not. I prefer having a banana than eating chocolate. Mina: Great, I would also try to eat fruit instead of unhealthy food.

Q: Express your likes and dislikes about chocolates. (Sample)

A: Yes, I like chocolate, but I eat only a little of it, because eating too much chocolate is bad for my teeth. I prefer to eat fruits like bananas and apples instead of sweets.

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 1. Reading Comprehension (i) Answer these qu

Q: Where do the cocoa flowers grow?

A: The cocoa flowers grow on the trunk of the cocoa tree, not on its branches.

Q: How many seeds does a pod contain?

A: A pod contains 20 to 40 beans (seeds).

Q: What are nibs?

A: Nibs are the edible pieces that remain after the roasted cocoa beans have their shells removed. They are roasted and mixed with sugar to make chocolate paste.

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 1. Reading Comprehension (ii) Joining words

Q: Read the lesson again and underline all the joining words given in it.

A: The joining words used in the lesson are: First of all, Then, Next, Finally (and 'After that'). Joining words are words connecting one sentence to another or one paragraph to the next paragraph.

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 1. Reading Comprehension (iii) Read the given

Q: Read the survey. What does it show, and what is a pie chart / a bar graph?

A: The survey gives information about the favourite foods of children. The results also show the food items that the boys like and the food items that the girls like. The results are shown in a pie graph and a bar chart. A pie chart is used to compare parts of a whole. A bar graph is used to compare things in different groups.

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 1. Reading Comprehension (iv) Read the inform

Q: Which is the most favourite food item?

A: Chocolate is the most favourite food item (35 children).

Q: How many children like candy?

A: 25 children like candy.

Q: Which is the least favourite food item?

A: Chewing gum is the least favourite food item (7 children).

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 1. Reading Comprehension (v) Fill in the blank

Q: How many boys like chewing gum?

A: 62 boys like chewing gum.

Q: Who likes chocolate the most, girls or boys?

A: Girls like chocolate the most (66 girls, compared to 34 boys).

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 1. Reading Comprehension (vi) Fill in the blanl

Q: Historian say chocolate has been famous for almost _____ years.

100

1000

50

✓ 2000

Q: Chocolate comes from _____ trees in its raw form.

grapes

banana

mango

✓ cocoa

Q: Chocolate came to Spain in the _____.

1300s

1200s

✓ 1500s

1400s

Q: Chocolates are a good source of _____ and minerals.

✓ vitamins

carbohydrates calcium protein

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 2. Analytical Reading

Q: Read any article on chocolate and note down its advantages and disadvantages in your notebook.

A: Advantages of chocolate: it is a good source of vitamins and minerals, it gives energy, and it tastes good. Disadvantages of chocolate: it contains sugar, so eating too much of it damages our teeth and can make us unhealthy. We should eat it in small amounts and brush our teeth after eating it.

C) Language Focus — 1. Vocabulary Building (i) Words with their meanings (as giv

Q: contain / reddish / pod / heap / solid

A: contain — to hold something inside. reddish — slightly red. pod — case for peas, beans, pepper etc. heap — pile of mass. solid — strong, not weak.

C) Language Focus — 1. Vocabulary Building (ii) Anagrams: Read the given anagra

Q: Read the given anagrams: study/dusty, night/thing, race/care, part/trap. What is an anagram?

A: An anagram is a word that is made by re-arranging the letters of another word in a different order. Examples: study — dusty; night — thing; race — care; part — trap.

C) Language Focus — 1. Vocabulary Building (iii) Make anagrams from the given w

Q: Make anagrams from the given words: keen, teach, heart, lake, dear, listen.

A: keen — knee; teach — cheat; heart — earth; lake — kale; dear — read; listen — silent.

C) Language Focus — 2. Learning to Spell: Fill in the missing letters

Q: gra__ite / deli__ious / solidi__y / __inerals / con__ains

A: granite, delicious, solidify, minerals, contains.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Regular and Irregular Nouns (i)

Q: Read the given nouns. What are regular and irregular nouns?

A: Regular nouns form their plurals by adding either 's' or 'es' to the end: chocolate — chocolates; plant — plants; dish — dishes. Irregular nouns do not follow any particular pattern to form their plurals: tooth — teeth; ox — oxen; foot — feet.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Regular and Irregular Nouns (ii) Write the plur

Q: Write the plurals of the given singular nouns: goose, flower, man, apple, watch.

A: goose — geese; flower — flowers; man — men; apple — apples; watch — watches.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Action Words (Verbs) (iii)

Q: Find five action words in the text and write sentences of your own using them in your notebook.

A: grow — Flowers grow on the trunk of the cocoa tree. collected — Farmers collected the pods into heaps. heated — The beans are heated in the hot sun for drying. mixed — The nibs are mixed with sugar to make a paste. poured — The mixture is poured into big trays.

Q: Read the given sentences. What are prepositions of position?

A: Prepositions of position indicate where something is, for example around, up, between, under, below. In the sentences: The rabbit is under the bed. Our school is between the park and the market. A lamp hung over the table. The cat climbed up the tree. I saw people around the garden.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Prepositions of Position (v) Make sentences of

Q: Make sentences of your own using the prepositions of position given below: under, around, between, over, up.

A: The cat is sleeping under the table. Children are playing around the park. Our house is between the school and the mosque. The aeroplane is flying over the clouds. The monkey climbed up the tree.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Capitalisation (vi) Read the sentences to unde

Q: Samra is reading a book. She likes reading storybooks. Cocoa trees are grown in West Africa. Today is Wednesday. What are the rules of capitalisation shown here?

A: Sentences always begin with a capital letter. The specific names of people, places and things always start with a capital letter. The names of days of the week and months also start with capital letters.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Capitalisation (vii) Punctuate the following ser

Q: july comes after june / what is shazia doing / they eat nuts every sunday. / i live in pakistan.

A: July comes after June. What is Shazia doing? They eat nuts every Sunday. I live in Pakistan.

Q: Read the recipe: Title: Chicken Cheese Sandwich. Ingredients: Slices of bread, 3-4 pieces of boiled chicken, 2 slices of cheese, some lettuce leaves, 2-3 tomato slices, tomato ketchup. Method: Firstly toast the slices of bread. Secondly, put the pieces of boiled chicken on one slice of bread. Then, cover it with slices of cheese, a lettuce leaf and some tomato slices. Put some tomato ketchup on it. Finally, cover it with the other slice of bread and serve.

A: This is a procedure text. It gives the title, the ingredients and then the steps in order, using joining words: Firstly, Secondly, Then and Finally.

D) Writing — 1. Learning to Write (ii) Write a recipe of a chocolate milkshake

Q: Write a recipe of a chocolate milkshake. Ingredients: Chocolate Bar, 2 Glasses of Milk, 1 Teaspoon Sugar.

A: Title of recipe: Chocolate Milkshake. Ingredients: Chocolate Bar, 2 Glasses of Milk, 1 Teaspoon Sugar. Firstly, break the chocolate bar into small pieces. Secondly, put the milk, chocolate pieces and sugar in a blender. Then, blend them well until the mixture is smooth. Finally, pour the milkshake into glasses and serve it cold.

D) Writing — 2. Creative Writing: A paragraph about your favourite food

Q: Write a paragraph about your favourite food. Also write the reason why you like it.

A: My favourite food is chicken biryani. It is a tasty dish made of rice, chicken and spices, and it smells wonderful. I like it because my mother cooks it with love, and the whole family eats it together on Sundays. Biryani is also healthy when it is made with fresh vegetables and less oil. That is why chicken biryani is my favourite food.

Review-1 (book pp. 31-33)

Review-1 — A) Oral Communication: 1. Learning the Sounds

Q: Read the sentences and circle the words with silent letters: She is knocking at the door. / He often wakes up early in the morning. / Ahmed is an honest man. / Don't talk in class. / Don't throw wrappers on the road.

A: Words with silent letters: knocking (silent 'k'), often (silent 't'), honest (silent 'h'), talk (silent 'l'), wrappers (silent 'w').

Q: Write two words with the given diphthongs: /au/, /əu/, /ei/, /oi/, /ai/, /ɪə/, /eə/, /ʊə/.

A: /au/: now, cow. /eu/ (as printed /əu/): go, home. /ei/: pain, rain. /oi/: oil, coil. /ai/: gain, night. /ie/ (as printed /ɪə/): near, dear. /ea/ (as printed /eə/): hair, care. /ue/ (as printed /ʊə/): sure, poor.

Q: Arrange a role-play and introduce yourself and your families. (Sample)

A: A: Good morning! My name is Ali. This is my father, Mr Ahmed, and this is my mother, Mrs Fatima. B: Good morning, Ali! Nice to meet you all. My name is Sara, and this is my brother, Hassan.

Review-1 — B) Reading and Critical Thinking: 1. Reading Comprehension: Answer

Q: Where does the caterpillar go for a walk?

A: The caterpillar goes for a walk to the shady leaf or stalk, which may be its chosen spot.

Q: What part of the world did chocolate come from?

A: Chocolate came from Central and South America.

Q: What are the benefits of personal hygiene? (General question)

A: Personal hygiene keeps us healthy and clean. It prevents diseases, keeps our teeth and body strong, and makes us feel fresh and confident.

Review-1 — B) Reading and Critical Thinking: Digraphs, trigraphs and silent letter

Q: Make at least two words with each given digraph, trigraph and silent letter:

ch, tch, k, sh, sch, w.

A: ch — chair, chick. tch — watch, catch. k (silent) — knock, knee. sh — ship, shop. sch — school, scheme. w (silent) — write, wrong.

Review-1 — C) Language Focus: 1. Vocabulary Building

Q: Read the given words and write their meanings: edible, stalk, distinguish, furry, generous.

A: edible — safe to eat. stalk — the main stem of a plant. distinguish — to recognise the difference. furry — covered with fur. generous — willing to give and share.

Q: Read the paragraph about Ali and his mother. Circle the countable nouns and underline the uncountable nouns. Then write them in their rows.

A: Countable nouns: mother, shopping mall, eggs, cupcake, chocolate bar, school party, shirt. Uncountable nouns: rice, sugar, pizza.

Q: Read the paragraph about Alina's doll. Put a tick on the adjectives. Now re-arrange and write these adjectives in the given order in their specific column: 1. Quantity, 2. Quality, 3. Size, 4. Age, 5. Shape, 6. Colour, 7. Origin.

A: 1. Quantity: — (none in the paragraph). 2. Quality: pretty. 3. Size: small, big, long. 4. Age: — (none in the paragraph). 5. Shape: oval. 6. Colour: blue. 7. Origin: Russian.

Q: Write two collective nouns and use them in your own sentences.

A: A swarm of bees flew over the garden. Our team of players won the match.

Review-1 — C) Language Focus: Plurals and Action Words

Q: Write the plurals of the given nouns: mouse, tree, man, tooth, teacher, child.

A: mouse — mice; tree — trees; man — men; tooth — teeth; teacher — teachers; child — children.

Q: Look at the given picture (a family in the living room) and write five sentences using action words.

A: The mother is talking on the telephone. The boy is writing in his notebook. The boy is reading a book on the floor. The man is watching television. The dog is playing with a ball.

Review-1 — D) Writing: 1. Learning to Write: Write a recipe of your favourite dish

Q: Write a recipe of your favourite dish.

A: Title of recipe: Chicken Biryani. Ingredients: 2 cups rice, 1/2 kg chicken, 2 onions, 2 tomatoes, 1 cup yogurt, biryani masala, oil, salt. Firstly, boil the rice and fry the onions. Secondly, cook the chicken with tomatoes, yogurt and masala. Then, layer the rice and chicken in a pot. Finally, cook on low heat for 20 minutes and serve hot.

Unit 4: The Pride of Pakistan (book pp. 34-44)

Getting Started — Let's Talk

Q: Aren't these people our national heroes?

A: Yes, these people are our national heroes, because they serve the country and its people without caring for their own comfort.

Q: Do these people need to be encouraged and honoured? How?

A: Yes, these people need to be encouraged and honoured. We can honour them by thanking them, respecting their work, celebrating their services and remembering their sacrifices.

Q: How can we show love for the country?

A: We can show love for our country by keeping our neighbourhood clean, helping others, respecting the law, working honestly and serving the people around us.

Pre-reading — The Pride of Pakistan

Q: Look at the pictures and read the title of the lesson. Guess five words related to it.

A: Five words related to the title 'The Pride of Pakistan': museum, army, soldiers, heroes, sacrifice (and: Nishan-e-Haider, bravery).

Q: Do you know the highest military award of Pakistan?

A: The highest military award of Pakistan is the Nishan-e-Haider. It means 'Mark of the Lion'.

While-reading

Q: How many soldiers have been awarded the Nishan-e-Haider? Name any two of them.

A: Eleven soldiers have been awarded the Nishan-e-Haider, for example Captain Muhammad Sarwar (1948) and Major Raja Aziz Bhatti (1965).

Q: Who is awarded the Nishan-e-Haider?

A: The Nishan-e-Haider is awarded to soldiers and officers of the armed forces who sacrifice their lives for their country in an extraordinary act of bravery.

Post-reading

Q: What have you learned about the Nishan-e-Haider? Write 4-5 lines.

A: The Nishan-e-Haider is the highest military award of Pakistan. It means 'Mark of the Lion'. It is awarded to soldiers and officers of the armed forces who sacrifice their lives for their country in an extraordinary act of bravery. Eleven heroes have received this award, and their pictures are displayed in the Nishan-e-Haider Gallery of the Pakistan Army Museum.

Q: Why are soldiers our national heroes?

A: Soldiers are our national heroes because they protect our country and sacrifice their lives to safeguard our land. They face dangers bravely so that we can live in peace, and that is why the whole nation honours them.

A) Oral Communication — 1. Learning the Sounds: Diphthongs (i)

Q: Read the text about Kashif and notice the use of diphthongs in them. What is a diphthong?

A: A diphthong is a combination of two vowel sounds in a single syllable. The sound glides from one vowel sound to another, as in the words play, found, four. In the text: Sunday (ay), ground (ou), somehow (ow).

A) Oral Communication — 1. Learning the Sounds: Diphthongs (ii) Make more wor

Q: Make more words with the given diphthongs in your notebook: /ai/, /eu/, /ea/, /au/.

A: /ai/: night, light. /eu/: go, home. /ea/: hair, care. /au/: now, cow.

A) Oral Communication — 2. Learning to Speak (i)

Q: Read and practise the dialogue (Rida and Nazia).

A: Rida: Assalaamu Alaikum, Nazia! How are you? Nazia: Wa Alaikum Asalaam! I am fine, Thank you. What about you? Rida: I am fine too. Nazia: I am really excited about Defence Day celebrations in school. Rida: Yes, me too. Where are you going now? Nazia: I'm going to my cousin's house to borrow her army dress for the school function tomorrow. Rida: That's great. I hope that it will be a great day for us. Nazia: See you at school tomorrow.

Q: Act out a role-play to 'request your friend to lend you a storybook'. Use the expressions above in your dialogue. (Sample)

A: A: Assalaamu Alaikum! How are you? B: Wa Alaikum Asalaam! I am fine, thank you. A: Please, will you lend me your storybook for two days? B: Yes, sure. I hope you will enjoy it. A: Thank you very much! I will return it on Monday. B: See you at school tomorrow.

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 1. Reading Comprehension (i) Answer these qu

Q: Which gallery told us about martyrs?

A: The Shuhada Corner told us about the martyrs, and the Nishan-e-Haider Gallery showed the pictures of the martyrs who received the Nishan-e-Haider.

Q: What was displayed in the 'Rebirth of the Nation'?

A: Life-size portraits of the Quaid-e-Azam addressing the constituent assembly of Pakistan on August 11, 1947, were displayed there. The gallery told the story of the struggle for freedom through paintings, photographs and brief information.

Q: What do you learn by visiting a museum?

A: By visiting a museum we learn about our history, our heroes and their sacrifices. We see real things from the past, gain knowledge and feel proud of our country.

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 1. Reading Comprehension (ii) Read the given

Q: Read the mind map: My favourite personality — responsible, honest, compassionate, optimistic. What is mind mapping?

A: Mind mapping is a way of thinking to create good ideas. We use it to put together our ideas in the form of a diagram.

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 1. Reading Comprehension (iii) Make a mind m

Q: Make a mind map about your favourite national hero in your notebook.

(Sample: Major Raja Aziz Bhatti)

A: My favourite national hero: Major Raja Aziz Bhatti — brave, loyal, sacrificing, fearless.

He fought bravely for Pakistan and received the Nishan-e-Haider in 1965.

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 1. Reading Comprehension (iv) Fill in the given

Q: Pakistan Army is the _____ of our country. They are the _____ of the nation. They _____ our motherland. There are many great heroes in Pakistan Army. Many _____ soldiers have sacrificed their lives for this country. Pakistan Army is among the best armies of the _____.

A: Pakistan Army is the pride of our country. They are the protectors of the nation. They guard our motherland. There are many great heroes in Pakistan Army. Many brave soldiers have sacrificed their lives for this country. Pakistan Army is among the best armies of the world.

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 1. Reading Comprehension (v) Fill in the blank

Q: Kashif brought his _____ along with him.

camera

✓ diary

lunch

storybook

Q: The Nishan-e-Haider is the highest _____ in Pakistan.

performance award

✓ military award

civil award

academic award

Q: On entering the museum, the children saw _____ Indian tanks.

two three ✓ four five

Q: There are _____ great soldiers from the armed forces who received the Nishan-e Haider.

ten

✓ eleven twelve

thirteen

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 2. Analytical Reading

Q: Use the internet and read about the Nishan-e-Haider holders. Collect information about their personal lives and achievements. Note down information in your notebook.

A: From the Nishan-e-Haider Gallery: Captain Muhammad Sarwar (1948), Naik Saif Ali Janjua (1948), Major Tufail Muhammad (1958), Major Raja Aziz Bhatti (1965), Pilot Officer Rashid Minhas (1971), Major Shabbir Sharif (1971), Sowar Muhammad Hussain (1971), Major Muhammad Akram (1971), Lance Naik Muhammad Mahfuz (1971), Captain Karnal Sher Khan (1999) and Havildar Lalak Jan (1999). All of them sacrificed their lives for Pakistan in extraordinary acts of bravery.

C) Language Focus — 1. Vocabulary Building (i) Words with their meanings (as giv

Q: sacrifice / impatient / martyr / struggle / sacred / capture

A: sacrifice — to give away something valuable (such as life, etc.). impatient — restless. martyr — a person who sacrifices his life for a noble cause. struggle — to try hard to do or achieve something. sacred — entitled to very high respect. capture — to take control by force.

C) Language Focus — 1. Vocabulary Building (ii) Change in Parts of Speech: Read

Q: Read the given words and notice how the parts of speech change:

player/played/playful; sadness/sadden/sad; cooperation/cooperate/cooperative. How do parts of speech change?

A: Suffixes '-ive', '-ion', '-ing', etc. are used to convert verbs to nouns and adjectives.

C) Language Focus — 1. Vocabulary Building (iii) Complete the given table by writ

Q: Complete the table: Verb 'admire'; Adjective 'beautiful'; Noun 'selection'. Give the noun, verb and adjective forms of each.

A: admire (verb) — admiration (noun) — admirable (adjective). beautiful (adjective) — beauty (noun) — beautify (verb). selection (noun) — select (verb) — selective (adjective).

C) Language Focus — 1. Vocabulary Building (iv) Synonyms and Antonyms

Q: Read the given words with their synonyms and antonyms and write five more words with their synonyms and antonyms: brave, war, intelligent, victorious.

A: Synonyms are words that have similar meanings. Antonyms are words that have opposite meanings. brave — courageous / coward. war — battle / peace. intelligent — bright / stupid. victorious — successful / defeated. Five more: happy — joyful / sad; big — large / small; strong — powerful / weak; kind — gentle / cruel; rich — wealthy / poor.

C) Language Focus — 2. Learning to Spell: Rearrange the letters to form words

Q: milse / pseehc / nearl / tomenm / aitfh / oeridp

A: smile, speech, learn, moment, faith, period.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Nouns with No Change (i)

Q: Read the sentences and notice the use of nouns with an unchanged plural form: The sheep are grazing in the field. Sana has long hair. I saw deer in the forest.

A: Some nouns have an unchanged plural form: sheep, hair and deer stay the same in singular and plural.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Nouns with No Change (ii) Use the nouns highl

Q: Use the nouns sheep, hair, deer in sentences of your own.

A: The sheep are grazing in the field. Sana has beautiful long hair. We saw many deer in the forest.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Helping Verbs (iii)

Q: Read the sentences and notice the use of helping verbs: Ali is climbing the tree. Soldiers are fighting bravely. The boys did not finish their work. I am reading a book. Kashif's uncle had told us many stories about Pakistani soldiers. She has bought a new dress. What are helping verbs?

A: Helping verbs help the main verb by adding to its meaning in a sentence. For example, is, are, am, has, have, had, do, does, did are helping verbs.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Helping Verbs (iv) Use the given helping verbs

Q: Use the given helping verbs in your own sentences: is, are, am, has, have, had, do, did.

A: He is playing cricket. They are reading books. I am writing a letter. She has a new bag. We have two pens. He had a car. Do you like mangoes? They did their homework yesterday.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Prepositions of Time (v)

Q: Read the sentences and notice the use of prepositions of time: We have lunch at noon. I have a meeting at 9 a.m. They go to the beach in summer. They went for a walk in the morning. The test is on Wednesday. What did you do on Eid last year? What are prepositions of time?

A: Prepositions of time allow you to discuss a specific time period, for example a date, days of the week, etc. We use 'at' for noon and 9 a.m., 'in' for summer and the morning, and 'on' for Wednesday and Eid.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Prepositions of Time (vi) Use the prepositions

Q: Use the prepositions of time above in sentences in your notebook.

A: We play at noon. I go to school at 8 a.m. We visit our village in summer. He walks in the morning. Our test is on Monday. We wore new clothes on Eid.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Degrees of Regular Adjectives (vii) Read the fo

Q: Read the adjectives: heavy/heavier/heaviest; large/larger/largest; lucky/luckier/luckiest; old/older/oldest. What are degrees of regular adjectives?

A: Regular adjectives take 'er' and 'est' to make comparative and superlative adjectives. Comparative adjectives compare two things using 'than'. Superlative adjectives compare two or more things.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Degrees of Regular Adjectives (viii) Write P, C

Q: Write P (positive), C (comparative) and S (superlative) for: biggest, smaller, thin, brighter, softer, smart, dark, greatest, busiest, wild.

A: biggest — S; smaller — C; thin — P; brighter — C; softer — C; smart — P; dark — P; greatest — S; busiest — S; wild — P.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Degrees of Regular Adjectives (ix) Make sente

Q: Make sentences with the given adjectives: lovely, smaller, greatest.

A: She is a lovely girl. My bag is smaller than yours. Quaid-e-Azam is the greatest leader of Pakistan.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Capitalisation (x) Read the sentences and noti

Q: Independence Day of Pakistan is celebrated on August 14. Pakistanis are brave people. They had arranged a speech competition on Defence Day. What is the rule?

A: The names of holidays, special events and proper nouns start with capital letters.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Capitalisation (xi) Read the given titles and no

Q: English Textbook for Grade 4; Two Little Kittens; Pride and Prejudice. What is the rule for titles?

A: In a title, the main words start with capital letters, while small words like 'for' and 'and' stay in small letters.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Capitalisation (xii) Rewrite the following sente

Q: Kashif is reading a book 'how to keep the earth safe'. / the title of my favourite story is 'honesty is the best policy'. / 'the dove and the ant' is an interesting story.

A: Kashif is reading a book 'How to Keep the Earth Safe'. The title of my favourite story is 'Honesty Is the Best Policy'. 'The Dove and the Ant' is an interesting story.

D) Writing — 1. Learning to Write (i) Read the given descriptive paragraph about

Q: Read the descriptive paragraph about the Nishan-e-Haider. What is a descriptive paragraph?

A: A descriptive paragraph describes a particular situation, person, place or thing. The paragraph tells us that the Nishan-e-Haider is the highest military award of Pakistan, meaning 'Mark of the Lion'. Usually, it is made from gun metal captured from the enemy, composed of 88 percent copper, 10 percent tin and 2 percent zinc. Since 1947, eleven men from the armed forces have won this award for their heroic acts in dangerous situations and for sacrificing their lives.

D) Writing — 1. Learning to Write (ii) Write a descriptive paragraph about 'Zoo'

Q: Write a descriptive paragraph about 'Zoo' in your notebook.

A: A zoo is a large place where many kinds of animals and birds are kept for people to see.

There are lions, tigers, elephants, monkeys and colourful parrots in big cages and open yards. Green trees, ponds and clean paths make the zoo beautiful. Children love to visit the zoo because they can learn about animals and enjoy their day with their families.

D) Writing — 2. Creative Writing: What would you do for the honour of your count

Q: What would you do for the honour of your country? Write a short paragraph on it. Use correct capitalisation, punctuation and spelling.

A: For the honour of my country, I would work hard and honestly in everything I do. I would keep my surroundings clean, respect the law and help the people around me. I would study well so that I can serve Pakistan as a good teacher, doctor or soldier one day. I would always speak the truth and protect the good name of my country. This is how I can honour Pakistan.

Unit 5: Thank you, Lord (book pp. 45-54)

Getting Started — Let's Talk

Q: Getting Started: Look at the picture and tell what is happening.

A: In the picture, a man is cutting a tree with an axe, while other trees have already been cut down. The tree is begging him, 'Please, don't kill me! I give you oxygen and shelter.'

Q: A man is cutting a tree. Is it a rightful act?

A: No, cutting a tree is not a rightful act, because trees give us oxygen and shelter and cutting them harms the environment.

Q: What will happen to the environment if trees are cut for wood and fuel?

A: If trees are cut for wood and fuel, the environment will be harmed: there will be less oxygen, less rain, more heat, and birds and animals will lose their homes.

Q: What other benefits can we get from trees?

A: From trees we get oxygen, shade, shelter, fruits, wood, medicines and homes for birds and animals. Trees also bring rain and keep the air clean.

Pre-reading — Thank you, Lord (poem by Mary Fairchild)

Q: Read the title and tell what the poem can be about.

A: The poem can be about thanking God for His blessings and starting each day with prayer and thanks.

Q: Do you pray for things you need? (Sample)

A: Yes, I pray for the things I need, for example good health, success in my studies and happiness for my family. I also thank Allah for everything He has given me.

While-reading

Q: How does the poet start her day?

A: The poet starts her day by taking a moment to bow and pray. She starts with thanks, and then gives praise for all God's kind and loving ways.

Post-reading

Q: How should we help our friends?

A: We should help our friends in need, just as the poet says, 'I will help my friends in need.' We should help them with our hands, our time and our kind words.

Q: Why do we thank Allah?

A: We thank Allah because He has given us life, health, family, food, water, air and everything in nature. Every blessing we enjoy is a gift from Him.

A) Oral Communication — 1. Learning the Sounds: Consonant Clusters/Blends (i)

Q: Read and say the given consonant clusters in initial and final positions. What is a consonant cluster?

A: A consonant cluster is a group of two or three consonants in a word. Each consonant retains its sound when we say the word. Initial clusters: str- (straight, strip, string), scr- (scream, screw, scrap), spl- (splash, split, splendid). Final clusters: -pts (accepts, adopts, interrupts), -lps (helps, scalps, pulps), -mps (lamps, stamps, jumps).

A) Oral Communication — 1. Learning the Sounds: Consonant Clusters/Blends (ii)

Q: Sort the words that begin or end with three-consonant clusters: split, gulps, script, pumps, attempts, strong.

A: Initial consonant clusters: split, script, strong. Final consonant clusters: gulps, pumps, attempts.

A) Oral Communication — 2. Learning to Speak (i) Read and practise the dialogue

Q: Read and practise the dialogue: Mahira: Assalaamu Alaikum! Aqsa: Wa Alaikum Assalaam! Mahira: Did you enjoy the visit to the Faisal Masjid? Aqsa: Yes, I enjoyed it. I really liked the beautiful architecture and the big prayer room. What do you say? Mahira: Yes, I liked it too. Usually, I don't like big light globes but I like the ones in the Faisal Masjid. They are very beautiful and attractive. Aqsa: Yes, you are right. They look very attractive.

A: This dialogue expresses opinions: Aqsa likes the beautiful architecture and the big prayer room of the Faisal Masjid, and Mahira likes its beautiful light globes.

A) Oral Communication — 2. Learning to Speak (ii) Classroom discussion: favourit

Q: Arrange a classroom discussion and ask students to express their views on their favourite places they have recently visited. (Sample)

A: My favourite place is the Pakistan Army Museum, Lahore. I visited it with my class. I liked the Nishan-e-Haider Gallery the most because it tells the stories of our brave soldiers. In my opinion, every student should visit a museum.

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 1. Reading Comprehension (i) Answer these qu

Q: What does the poet do in her difficult times?

A: In her difficult times, the poet does not doubt or hide in fear, because God is always near.

Q: What does the poet decide to do until she goes to sleep?

A: The poet decides to keep God close in sight until she crawls in bed tonight.

Q: How do you thank Allah for his blessings?

A: We thank Allah by praying to Him, praising Him, obeying His commands and helping others. We also thank Him by using His blessings in the right way.

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 1. Reading Comprehension (ii) Look at the give

Q: Read the time: 7:15 and 10:45.

A: 7:15 is read as 'quarter past seven'. 10:45 is read as 'quarter to eleven'.

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 1. Reading Comprehension (iii) Look at the giv

Q: Write the time shown on the two clocks (first: hour hand between 4 and 5, minute hand at 3; second: hour hand near 6, minute hand at 9).

A: First clock: 4:15 — quarter past four. Second clock: 5:45 — quarter to six.

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 1. Reading Comprehension (iv) Fill in the blanl

Q: 'Thank you, Lord' is a poem by _____.

Sylvia Plath

✓ Mary Fairchild

Mary Oliver

Christina Rossetti

Q: The poet is talking to _____.

✓ God

a friend

a sister

a brother

Q: The poet starts her day in the/at _____.

evening

afternoon

✓ morning night

Q: The poet will help her _____ in need.

sisters

parents

cousins

✓ friends

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 2. Analytical Reading

Q: Read any authentic book about Hazrat Muhammad (peace be upon him) and share any incident of his kindness towards animals.

A: Once, some companions took the chicks of a bird, and the mother bird flew over Hazrat Muhammad (peace be upon him) in distress. He at once ordered that the chicks be returned to their mother. This shows his great kindness towards animals: he taught that even small creatures must not be hurt or separated from their mothers.

C) Language Focus — 1. Vocabulary Building (i) Words with their meanings (as giv

Q: praise / hide / fear / command / crawl

A: praise — to say nice things about somebody. hide — to put or keep out of sight. fear — be afraid of. command — an order given to a person to do something. crawl — an act of moving on your hands and knees.

C) Language Focus — 1. Vocabulary Building (ii) Homophones: Read the following

Q: Read the pairs: son/sun, steel/steal, pray/prey, lessen/lesson. What are homophones?

A: Homophones are words that have same sound but different meanings and spellings.

C) Language Focus — 1. Vocabulary Building (iii) Write a homophone for each giv

Q: Write a homophone for each of the given words and use these homophones in sentences of your own: deer, night, sea, rein.

A: deer — dear: The deer is a beautiful animal. My dear friend came to my house. night — knight: The night is dark. The knight fought bravely. sea — see: The sea is blue. I can see the moon. rein — rain: Hold the rein tightly. It will rain today.

C) Language Focus — 2. Learning to Spell: Circle the correct spelling in each row

Q: cloud/cluod/cloude; mornning/morning/morrning; fammily/familly/family; praise/praize/prayise; cral/crowl/crawl.

A: cloud, morning, family, praise, crawl.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Gender Nouns (i) Read the following gender no wife, mother, aunt, tigress. Neuter: knife, chair, bag, pencil. What are masculine, feminine and neuter genders?

Q: Read the gender nouns: Masculine: husband, father, uncle, tiger. Feminine:

A: Nouns that name male creatures have the masculine gender. Nouns that name female creatures have the feminine gender. Nouns that name non-living things have the neuter gender.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Gender Nouns (ii) Write the given gender nour

Q: Write the given gender nouns in their correct columns: prince, queen, phone, bull, actress, flower, brother, lioness, crayons.

A: Masculine: prince, bull, brother. Feminine: queen, actress, lioness. Neuter: phone, flower, crayons.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Gender Nouns (iii) Underline the gender nouns

Q: My niece has a pet cat named Kitty. / The waiter is waiting for the order. / He is our headmaster. / The tigress is running in the jungle. / My aunt will come tomorrow.

A: My nephew has a pet cat named Kitty. The waitress is waiting for the order. She is our headmistress. The tiger is running in the jungle. My uncle will come tomorrow.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: 'Be', 'Do' and 'Have' as Helping Verbs (iv) Nega

Q: Read the sentences and notice the negative use of helping verbs: She is not playing with the doll. They are not going to Lahore. He was not on leave. We have not received the parcel. They were not tired. She has not completed her tasks. What is the rule?

A: 'Be', 'do' and 'have' are helping verbs when they are used with another verb in a sentence. 'Be', 'do' and 'have' are main verbs when they are used alone in a sentence. We use 'not' with be, do and have when they are used as helping verbs in a negative sentence.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: 'Be', 'Do' and 'Have' as Helping Verbs (v) Circle

Q: The cows are not grazing in the fields. / She has sewn her dress. / We did not watch the news channel. / He had not gone yet. / He is drinking mango juice.

A: Helping verbs (circled) and main verbs (underlined): are — grazing; has — sewn; did — watch; had — gone; is — drinking.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Apostrophe (vi) Read the phrases and sentenc

Q: The customers' trolleys; Student's notebook; Hurrah! We have won the match!; My daughter's hat; What an amazing car! What are apostrophes and exclamation marks?

A: An exclamation mark (!) is used to express sudden feelings or emotions. An apostrophe (') is used to show possession.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Apostrophe (vii) Rewrite the phrases and sent

Q: my brothers car / oh I forgot your name / please help me / i am not making my breakfast / wow what a beautiful scene

A: My brother's car. Oh! I forgot your name. Please help me. I am not making my breakfast. Wow! What a beautiful scene!

D) Writing — 1. Learning to Write (i) Fill in the given mind map about the blessing

Q: Fill in the mind map about the blessings of Allah: Topic Sentence, Supporting detail 1, Supporting detail 2, Conclusion.

A: Topic Sentence: Allah has blessed us with countless blessings. Supporting detail 1: He gave us life, health, family and food. Supporting detail 2: He gave us the sun, moon, rain, trees and animals. Conclusion: We should thank Allah for all His blessings.

D) Writing — 1. Learning to Write (ii) Write a paragraph on 'Blessings of Allah' usi

Q: Write a paragraph on 'Blessings of Allah' using the information you filled in the mind map.

A: Allah has blessed us with countless blessings. He gave us life, health, family and food, and He gave us the sun, moon, rain, trees and animals. Every blessing is a gift from Him, and we enjoy them every day. We should thank Allah for all His blessings by praying to Him and obeying His commands.

D) Writing — 2. Creative Writing: A paragraph about the five senses of the human

Q: Write a paragraph about the five senses of the human body and their functions in daily life.

A: The human body has five senses, and each one helps us in daily life. With our eyes we see the world around us, and with our ears we hear sounds and voices. With our nose we smell flowers and food, and with our tongue we taste sweet, sour and salty things. With our skin we feel heat, cold and touch. All five senses work together and make our life easy and enjoyable.

Unit 6: Valuing Others (book pp. 55-63)

Getting Started — Let's Talk

Q: Getting Started: What made Faraz sad? What does his sister say to him?

A: Faraz feels sad because he thinks he is not like others. His sister Ayesha tells him that Allah made him special because he is a Math genius.

Q: What do you think about disappointment of Faraz?

A: Faraz's disappointment is sad but unnecessary. He is not less than others; Allah has made him special with his own talent in Mathematics.

Q: Does he need to be disappointed?

A: No, he does not need to be disappointed, because every person is special in some way, and being different from others is not a weakness.

Pre-reading — Valuing Others

Q: Is it good to treat a differently-abled person rudely?

A: No, it is not good to treat a differently-abled person rudely. Every person deserves kindness and respect, whatever his or her physical condition may be.

While-reading

Q: What could be the reason for Saad's sadness?

A: Saad was sad because he felt guilty for his rude behaviour towards his classmate Faraz.

Q: Can you guess the meaning of the word 'deformity'?

A: 'Deformity' means a physical defect or difference in the body. In the lesson, Faraz limped while walking.

Q: Have you ever felt bad about yourself? If yes, why? (Sample)

A: Yes, sometimes I felt bad about myself when I could not do something well. I felt sad because I thought others were better than me, but later I learnt that everyone has his own talent.

Q: How would you feel if you were Faraz?

A: If I were Faraz, I would feel very sad and hurt by the rude behaviour, but I would feel happy and relieved when Saad apologised and became my friend.

Post-reading

Q: How should we treat a differently-abled person? Discuss.

A: We should treat a differently-abled person with kindness, respect and equality. We should never make fun of them or treat them rudely, and we should help them whenever they need help.

Q: If you meet a differently-abled person, how will you treat him/her?

A: If I meet a differently-abled person, I will treat him or her kindly and respectfully, as a friend. I will talk politely, include them in games and offer help without showing pity.

A) Oral Communication — 1. Learning the Sounds: Sounds of 'the'

Q: Read the text pronouncing 'thee' or 'thuh'. When is 'the' pronounced as 'thee' and when as 'thuh'?

A: When 'the' comes before a vowel sound, it is pronounced as 'thee': the orange, the apples, the umbrellas, the iguanas. When it comes before a consonant sound, it is pronounced as 'thuh': the bottles, the match, the file, the house.

A) Oral Communication — 2. Learning to Speak

Q: Read and practise the given dialogues (Faraz/Saad; Asma/Samra).

A: Faraz: May I borrow your helmet? I need it for tomorrow's match. Saad: Of course, but please try to return it soon. Faraz: Sure, thank you. Asma: Could you please help me complete my new painting? Samra: Yes, sure. But I think you should first try it yourself. Asma: You are right. I should try it at least once. Samra: I am sure you can do it. Asma: Thank you!

Q: Ask your friend to let you use his/her storybook. Practise asking permission to borrow different things (a spare pencil, a sharpener, etc.) from your friend.

(Sample)

A: A: May I use your storybook for one day, please? B: Of course, but please return it tomorrow. A: Sure, thank you. A: May I borrow your spare pencil? B: Yes, here it is. A: May I use your sharpener? B: Yes, sure.

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 1. Reading Comprehension (i) Answer these qu

Q: Why was Saad sitting sad?

A: Saad was sitting sad because he was feeling guilty for his rude behaviour towards his classmate Faraz, who limped while walking.

Q: Why did Faraz leave the school? Explain in a few sentences.

A: Faraz left the school because he was depressed by Saad's rude behaviour. Saad had made fun of him for his limp, ignored his good performance and treated him unkindly because of his physical deformity, even after Faraz was selected as wicket keeper.

Q: How did Faraz treat Saad?

A: Faraz treated Saad with great kindness. He forgave him at once and hugged him, and they became good friends.

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 1. Reading Comprehension (ii) Inflectional end

Q: Read the sentences and notice the inflectional endings. What is an inflectional ending?

A: An inflectional ending is a letter or a group of letters added to the end of a word to change the form of the word. Some inflectional endings are '-s', '-es', '-ing' and '-ed'. In the sentences: goes (-es), complains (-s), listened (-ed), going (-ing), started (-ed).

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 1. Reading Comprehension (iii) Inflectional en

Q: Write at least two words with '-s', '-es', '-ed' and '-ing' each as inflectional endings. Then use these words in sentences of your own.

A: '-s': books — I have many books. cats — The cats are playing. '-es': watches — He watches television. goes — She goes to school. '-ed': played — We played cricket. walked — He walked to school. '-ing': reading — I am reading a book. singing — She is singing a song.

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 1. Reading Comprehension (iv) Compound wor

Q: Read the given compound words. What is a compound word?

A: Two words combine to make a compound word. Each word has its own meaning but when we join them, they give a single new meaning. Examples: butter + fly = butterfly; rain + bow = rainbow.

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 1. Reading Comprehension (v) Circle the thing

Q: Look at the picnic picture. Circle the things that can be written as compound words. Write down their names and break them down into words they are made of. One has been done: sunflower = sun + flower.

A: football = foot + ball; cupcake = cup + cake; ladybird = lady + bird; butterfly = butter + fly; strawberry = straw + berry.

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 1. Reading Comprehension (vi) Read the lesso

Q: Rehan is the best friend of _____. / Saad was feeling _____ for his rude behaviour. / Faraz _____ while walking. / Faraz was selected as _____ of cricket team. / Saad said _____ to Faraz for his bad behaviour.

A: Rehan is the best friend of Saad. Saad was feeling guilty for his rude behaviour. Faraz limped while walking. Faraz was selected as wicket keeper of cricket team. Saad said sorry to Faraz for his bad behaviour.

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 1. Reading Comprehension (vii) Match the sym

Q: Match the symbols with their meanings: eye symbol, ear with T symbol, wheelchair with standing person, person on a ramp; labels: Facilities for the hard of hearing, Ramped Access, Accessible Toilet, Facilities for the visually impaired.

A: Eye symbol — Facilities for the visually impaired. Ear with T symbol — Facilities for the hard of hearing. Wheelchair with standing person — Accessible Toilet. Person on a ramp — Ramped Access.

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 2. Analytical Reading

Q: Read the information about any differently-abled person on the internet and make a list of five qualities about him/her. (Sample: Helen Keller)

A: Helen Keller was a differently-abled person who was blind and deaf. Her five qualities were: determined, brave, intelligent, hardworking and inspiring. She learnt to read, write and speak, and she worked all her life for the rights of differently-abled people.

C) Language Focus — 1. Vocabulary Building (i) Words with their meanings (as giv

Q: gloomy / guilty / rude / deformity / apologise

A: gloomy — sad. guilty — feeling ashamed for wrongdoing. rude — bad mannered. deformity — defect to become misshapen. apologise — to say sorry.

C) Language Focus — 1. Vocabulary Building (ii) Compound Words: Think about ar

Q: Think about and write four compound words. Then break them down into individual words they are made of.

A: homework = home + work; classroom = class + room; football = foot + ball; blackboard = black + board.

C) Language Focus — 2. Learning to Spell: Fill in the missing letters

Q: depres__ / li__p / guil__y / h__g / b__nch

A: depressed, limp, guilty, hug, bench.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Common and Proper Nouns (i) Read the paragraph and notice the use of nouns

Q: Read the paragraph about the visit to Nathia Gali. What are common and proper nouns? Which nouns in the paragraph are proper and which are common?

A: Common nouns are the names of people, places, animals or things in general, for example book, cat, woman, etc. Proper nouns are the names of particular persons, places, animals or things. They always start with a capital letter, for example Azam, Lahore, etc. In the paragraph: Proper nouns — Nathia Gali, Mukeshpuri Top, National Park. Common nouns — week, hill station, holidays, things, horse, cricket.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Common and Proper Nouns (ii) Circle the comm

Q: Saeeda is going to Murree. / Lahore is a big city. / Kiran is an obedient student. / Aneela has a cat. / I love my country, Pakistan. / The Ravi is a river.

A: Common nouns (circled): city, student, cat, country, river. Proper nouns (underlined): Saeeda, Murree, Lahore, Kiran, Aneela, Pakistan, Ravi.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Common and Proper Nouns (iii) Make sentence

Q: Make sentences of your own using common and proper nouns.

A: My friend Ali lives in Karachi. The dog is barking at the stranger. Sara bought a new book from Lahore. Our teacher is very kind.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Common and Proper Nouns (iv) Punctuate the

Q: sara is going to murree tomorrow / what is your name / lahore is the capital of punjab / it is a lovely day

A: Sara is going to Murree tomorrow. What is your name? Lahore is the capital of Punjab. It is a lovely day.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Common and Proper Nouns (v) Fill in the blank

Q: She _____ making tea. / I _____ a book. / We _____ not go to school on Sunday.

/ They _____ gone to Lahore. / He _____ a new bicycle. / You _____ not tell a lie.

A: She is making tea (is — helping verb). I have a book (have — main verb). We do not go to school on Sunday (do — helping verb). They have gone to Lahore (have — helping verb). He has a new bicycle (has — main verb). You do not tell a lie (do — helping verb).

D) Writing — 1. Learning to Write (i) Read the given mind map about a narrative p

Q: Read the mind map about a narrative paragraph: central idea 'A trip that was unexpected or surprising', with branches 'Any message?', 'When and where did it take place?' and 'Proper beginning, middle and ending.' What is a narrative paragraph?

A: A narrative paragraph tells a story. It has a proper beginning, middle and ending, tells when and where the event took place, and may give a message at the end.

D) Writing — 1. Learning to Write (ii) Write a narrative paragraph of your own on

Q: Write a narrative paragraph of your own on any event of your life which you have never forgotten.

A: I will never forget my first day at school. In the morning, my mother took me to school and I felt afraid because everything was new. My teacher welcomed me with a smile and gave me a seat next to a kind boy. We played, sang songs and learnt new things together. At the end of the day, I did not want to go home. That day taught me that school is a happy place, and I still remember it clearly.

D) Writing — 2. Creative Writing: How should we take care of differently-abled pe

Q: How should we take care of differently-abled people of our society?

A: We should take care of differently-abled people with love and respect. We should never make fun of them or treat them rudely. Schools, hospitals and parks should have ramps, accessible toilets and special facilities for them. We should include them in games and studies, help them when they need help, and treat them as equal members of society. In this way, they can live a happy and confident life.

Review-2 (book pp. 64-66)

Review-2 — A) Oral Communication

Q: Make two words with each given diphthong: /ai/, /ei/, /oi/, /ou/, /au/.

A: /ai/: night, light. /ei/: rain, pain. /oi/: oil, coil. /ou/: go, home. /au/: now, cow.

Q: Ask your mother for permission to use her cell phone. (Sample dialogue)

A: A: Assalaamu Alaikum, Ammi! May I use your cell phone for a few minutes, please?

Mother: Wa Alaikum Asalaam! Yes, but please return it soon. A: Sure, thank you, Ammi!

Q: Arrange a discussion in class and ask students to express their likes and dislikes about any of their favourite food. (Sample)

A: A: I like biryani very much because it is tasty and full of spices. B: I don't like biryani. I prefer chicken karahi because it is soft and juicy. A: I don't like very spicy food. I like sweet dishes like kheer.

Review-2 — B) Reading and Critical Thinking: 1. Reading Comprehension: Answer

Q: What is the highest military award of Pakistan?

A: The highest military award of Pakistan is the Nishan-e-Haider.

Q: How does the poet start her day?

A: The poet starts her day by taking a moment to bow and pray. She starts with thanks, and then gives praise for all God's kind and loving ways.

Q: Write the names of any three soldiers who got the Nishan-e-Haider.

A: Three soldiers who got the Nishan-e-Haider: Captain Muhammad Sarwar (1948), Major Raja Aziz Bhatti (1965) and Pilot Officer Rashid Minhas (1971).

Q: Why did Saad mistreat Faraz?

A: Saad mistreated Faraz because Faraz limped while walking. Saad made fun of him for his physical deformity, ignored his good performance, and was unkind to him even though Faraz was selected as wicket keeper.

Q: How should we take care of the differently abled in our surroundings?

A: We should take care of the differently abled in our surroundings with kindness and respect. We should include them in games and studies, provide ramps and accessible facilities, and help them without showing pity.

Review-2 — B) Reading and Critical Thinking: Mind map of your favourite persona

Q: Make a mind map of your favourite personality. (Sample: Quaid-e-Azam)

A: My Favourite Personality: Quaid-e-Azam — honest, determined, wise, brave, great leader, founder of Pakistan, hardworking, kind.

Review-2 — C) Language Focus: 1. Vocabulary Building

Q: Read the given words and write their meanings: sacrifice, hinder, praise, crawl, stubborn.

A: sacrifice — to give away something valuable (such as life, etc.). hinder — to stop or delay someone or something. praise — to say nice things about somebody. crawl — an act of moving on your hands and knees. stubborn — refusing to change one's mind.

Q: Read the given text about Asim and Salman. Underline the common nouns and circle the proper nouns.

A: Common nouns (underlined): cousin, friend, holidays, week, cat, beach. Proper nouns (circled): Asim, Salman, Taffy, Mazar-e-Quaid, Karachi Safari Park, Clifton, Hawke's Bay.

Q: Rewrite the given paragraph by adding full stops, question marks, exclamation marks and capitalisation.

A: After a four hour journey, we finally got there. I could not stop myself. Wow! What a beautiful place it is! I said. I ran towards the beach as soon as we went there. I walked on the soft sand. I saw some green little turtles. Where are these tiny turtles going? I thought.

Review-2 — C) Language Focus: Prepositions, Helping Verbs, Gender Nouns

Q: Use the given prepositions of time in your own sentences: in, on, at.

A: in — We go to Murree in summer. on — Our test is on Monday. at — I get up at 6 a.m.

Q: Tick the correct helping verbs in the sentences below: The children is/are going to the school. / The boys was/were sleeping in his room. / I am/is making a greeting card. / They have/has completed their homework. / Do/does the students make a noise?

A: The children are going to the school. The boys were sleeping in his room. I am making a greeting card. They have completed their homework. Do the students make a noise?

Q: Underline the gender nouns in the given passage. Then rewrite it by changing the gender.

A: I visited my grandmother's house in a village. I went there with my aunt and niece. She had a cow and two hens on her farm. I enjoyed visiting there. I ate fresh fruit and vegetables. Then I returned home with my mother.

Review-2 — D) Writing: 1. Learning to Write

Q: Write five sentences about any of the Nishan-e Haider holders from Pakistan Army.

A: Major Raja Aziz Bhatti was a brave soldier of the Pakistan Army. He received the Nishan-e-Haider in 1965. He fought bravely for his country. He sacrificed his life for Pakistan. The whole nation remembers him with pride.

Unit 7: Colours of Pakistan (book pp. 67-77)

Getting Started — Let's Talk

Q: Getting Started: Look at the given political map of Pakistan and colour the part which you belong to.

A: We are Pakistanis and we love our country. On the political map of Pakistan, we colour the part we belong to — for example, a student from Punjab colours Punjab, a student from Sindh colours Sindh, and so on.

Q: Let's Talk: Conduct a group discussion about the cultural aspects (food, language, dresses, festivals, etc.) of different areas of Pakistan and share it with the class. (Sample)

A: In our group discussion, we talked about the cultural aspects of different areas of Pakistan: their foods, languages, dresses and festivals. For example, Punjabis wear kurta and tahmat, Sindhis wear the Sindhi cap and ajrak, and every area has its own festivals like Jashan-e-Baharan in Punjab. We shared our discussion with the class.

Pre-reading — Colours of Pakistan

Q: Look at the given pictures and talk about the title.

A: The title 'Colours of Pakistan' means the different cultures of Pakistan — the different dresses, foods, languages and festivals of its people, which together make the country colourful and beautiful.

Q: What is the national dress of Pakistan?

A: The national dress of Pakistan is Shalwar Kameez.

While-reading

Q: Name some major cultural groups of Pakistan.

A: The major cultural groups of Pakistan are Punjabis, Sindhis, Balochis, Pakhtuns, Kashmiris and Gilgit-Baltistanis.

Q: How many Eid festivals do Pakistanis celebrate in a year?

A: Pakistanis celebrate two Eid festivals in a year: Eid-ul-Fitr and Eid-ul-Azha.

Post-reading

Q: Write a few sentences about the religious festivals of Pakistan.

A: The religious festivals of Pakistan are Eid-ul-Fitr and Eid-ul-Azha, the two major religious festivals. The Christian community celebrates Christmas, Easter and other religious festivals, and other minorities like Hindus, Sikhs and Parsis also celebrate their religious days with zeal and enthusiasm.

Q: Which province of Pakistan do you live in? Write a few lines about its cultural festivals. (Sample)

A: I live in Punjab. The cultural festivals of Punjab include Jashan-e-Baharan, the Spring Festival celebrated in the mid of February, and the Horse and Cattle Show, a famous local festival. (Sample — write about your own province.)

A) Oral Communication — 1. Learning the Sounds: Long Vowel Sounds and Diphth

Q: Read and say the given words with long vowel sounds and diphthong. What is a long vowel sound?

A: A vowel sound is long if it sounds like the vowel's name. For example, a long 'a' in 'sake' and a long 'e' in 'weep'. In the table: /ei/: brave, game. /i:/: sheep, keep. /ai/: kind, find. /eu/: boat, float. /u:/: cube, huge.

A) Oral Communication — 1. Learning the Sounds: Long Vowel Sounds and Diphth

Q: Make more words with long vowel sounds: /i:/, /o:/, /3:/, /u:/, /a:/.

A: /i:/: see, tree. /o:/: ball, tall. /3:/: bird, girl. /u:/: school, moon. /a:/: car, star.

A) Oral Communication — 2. Learning to Speak

Q: Read and practise the given dialogue (Huma and Irum).

A: Huma: Assalaamu Alaikum, Irum! How are you? Irum: Wa Alaikum Assalaam, I am good. Where are you coming from? Huma: I am coming from a flower exhibition. It was really very beautiful and colourful. Irum: Wow! That's really great. I also wanted to go there. Can you please tell me the way to the flower exhibition? Huma: Yes, sure. First, go right. You will find a masjid at the corner. Then turn left and then turn second right. After a few steps, you will find the flower exhibition being held in a garden. Irum: Thank you for your guidance. Huma: You are welcome.

Q: Conduct a role-play activity and ask students to tell their friend the way to their house using the expressions of directions given above. (Sample)

A: A: Assalaamu Alaikum! Can you tell me the way to your house, please? B: Wa Alaikum Assalaam! Yes, sure. First, go straight. Then turn left at the corner. You will find a masjid. Turn right after the masjid, and my house is the third house on the left. A: Thank you very much! B: You are welcome.

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 1. Reading Comprehension (i) Answer these qu

Q: Which festival is celebrated in mid of February in Punjab?

A: Jashan-e-Baharan, the Spring Festival, is celebrated in the mid of February in Punjab.

Q: What are the traditional dresses worn by the people of Sindh and Kashmir?

A: The people of Sindh wear the Sindhi cap and ajrak (men) and kameez or kurta shalwar (women). The people of Kashmir wear Phiran, and Kashmiri women also wear traditional hand-embroidered clothes.

Q: Which festivals are celebrated by Christians?

A: The Christians celebrate Christmas, Easter and other religious festivals.

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 1. Reading Comprehension (ii) Map reading

Q: This is a map of the city. Look and read its key symbols to locate the places on the map.

A: The map of the city uses key symbols: Road, Playground, Masjid, Hospital, Home, Zigzag road, Railway track, Park, Water tank and Bridge, with a compass (North, East, South, West) and a scale. To locate a place, we find its symbol in the Map Key and then look for the same symbol on the map. For example, the Masjid is shown near the road at the top of the map, the Hospital is on the right side, the Park is marked by the tree symbol, and the Home is shown by the house symbol.

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 1. Reading Comprehension (iii) Read the lesso

Q: Shinas and Burusho cultures exist in _____.

Sindh

✓ Gilgit-Baltistan

Punjab

Kashmir

Q: Ajrak is a part of _____ culture.

✓ Sindhi

Punjabi

Kashmiri

Balochi

Q: Poetry and storytelling are very popular among the _____.

Punjabi

Pakhtun

✓ Baloch

Sindh

Q: The spring festival is celebrated in Punjab in the mid of _____.

✓ February

April

June

August

Q: The _____ festival is celebrated every year in Shandur.

Spring

✓ Polo

Jashan-e-Larkana

Jashan-e-Baharan

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 2. Analytical Reading

Q: Read more information about the different areas of Pakistan from the internet and note down some important points about their local festivals in your notebook.

A: Important points about local festivals from the lesson: Jashan-e-Baharan (Spring Festival) is celebrated in Punjab in the mid of February. The Sibi Festival in Balochistan attracts people from all over the country. The Polo Festival is celebrated every year in Shandur, Khyber Pakhtunkhwa. The Nauroz Festival is celebrated every year in Gilgit-Baltistan. Pirchinasi is celebrated every year in Kashmir. The Sindh Festival and Jashan-e-Larkana are celebrated in Sindh.

C) Language Focus — 1. Vocabulary Building (i) Words with their meanings (as giv

Q: culture / tradition / distinctive / jolly / dominate

A: culture — a way of life, or customs and beliefs of people. tradition — custom or way of living. distinctive — noticeably different. jolly — cheerful. dominate — to rule or control.

C) Language Focus — 1. Vocabulary Building (ii) Compound Words: Read the given

Q: Read the given compound words: finger + print, tooth + paste.

A: finger + print = fingerprint; tooth + paste = toothpaste.

C) Language Focus — 1. Vocabulary Building (iii) Compound Words: Circle the con

Q: Circle the compound words in the given sentences: My father brought strawberries for me. / I wrote a letter to my friend in my notebook. / There are many sunflowers in the garden. / What is your password? / Sara likes to eat cupcakes. / The shopkeeper is wasting my time.

A: strawberries (straw + berries); notebook (note + book); sunflowers (sun + flowers); password (pass + word); cupcakes (cup + cakes); shopkeeper (shop + keeper).

C) Language Focus — 2. Learning to Spell: Circle the correct spelling in each row

Q: Circle the correct spelling in each row: aartistic/artistic/artisstic; religious/riligious/religius; sacrifise/sacrifize/sacrifice; festivall/festival/fastival; hospitality/hospiitality/hozpitality.

A: artistic, religious, sacrifice, festival, hospitality.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Pronouns (i) Fill in the blanks with the correct

Q: Fill in the blanks with the correct pronouns.

A: This is my favourite painting. It is very beautiful. Uzma and Asma are neighbours. They study together. Can I borrow your Kashmiri dress? Umar is very busy today. He is preparing for the competition.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Use of 'Be', 'Do' and 'Have' with Pronouns (ii)

Q: Read the following sentences to notice the use of 'be', 'do' and 'have' with pronouns. What is the rule?

A: The verbs be, do and have and their different forms are used as main and helping verbs. When they are used with the main verb, they help express tense, mood or voice of the main verb, for example: He is playing with a football. The verbs be, do and have are main verbs when they are used alone, for example: She has a doll. In the tables: I — main: I am angry. I have a rabbit. / helping: I am reading a story. I have memorised the lesson. We — main: We did our homework. We had a house. / helping: We did not go there. We had bought a house. You — main: You are late. You had a backache. / helping: You are going to the mall. You had eaten a sandwich. He/She — main: He/she is cute. He/she has two siblings. / helping: He/she was writing a story. He/she has gone shopping. It — main: It is a small bunny. It has beautiful hair. / helping: It was jumping. It has drunk water. They — main: They have a bicycle. They had no bicycle. / helping: They have played football. They do not play cricket.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Use of 'Be', 'Do' and 'Have' with Pronouns (iii)

Q: Write sentences using 'be', 'do' and 'have' as main and helping verbs with the given pronouns. (Sample)

A: I am happy (main verb). I am reading a book (helping verb). You are kind (main verb).

You have finished your work (helping verb). He is tall (main verb). He has eaten his lunch (helping verb). They are players (main verb). They do not tell lies (helping verb).

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Punctuation (iv) Punctuate the following sente

Q: Punctuate the following sentences using the full stop, question mark and exclamation mark. Remember to capitalise words where required.

A: Balochistan is also known for its tribes and festivals. Where is Shandur located? Wow! You look pretty in Sindhi dress! When is Eid-ul-Azha celebrated? The Horse and Cattle Show is a local festival.

D) Writing — 1. Learning to Write (i) Words in columns

Q: Read the given words and write them in their respective columns: flowers, horse, food, camel, kites, cow — Spring Festival / Horse and Cattle Show.

A: Spring Festival: flowers, kites, food. Horse and Cattle Show: horse, camel, cow.

D) Writing — 1. Learning to Write (ii) Dialogue about festivals

Q: Write a dialogue between two friends discussing the different festivals of Pakistan. (Sample)

A: A: Did you ever attend the Spring Festival? B: Yes, we went there last year. A: What did you see there? B: We saw beautiful flowers, colourful kites and tasty food, and we heard lovely music. A: I would love to go there one day! B: Yes, let us go together next year.

D) Writing — 2. Creative Writing

Q: Have you ever attended any cultural festival? Share your experience in a short paragraph. (Sample)

A: Yes, I have attended a cultural festival. Last year, I went to Jashan-e-Baharan, the Spring Festival, with my family. We saw beautiful flowers of many colours, colourful kites in the sky and happy people singing songs. We ate tasty food and enjoyed the music. It was a wonderful day, and I will never forget it.

Unit 8: Good Study Habits (book pp. 78-86)

Getting Started — Let's Talk

Q: Getting Started: Look at the pictures showing good manners and tell which manners do you like to adopt.

A: I like to adopt all the good manners shown in the pictures: respecting elders, dressing neatly, caring for each other, healthy eating habits and washing hands. All of them are important for a good life.

Q: Which good manners are the most important and why?

A: Respecting elders and caring for each other are the most important manners, because they make us good human beings and keep our relationships happy.

Q: Why is it important to have good manners?

A: It is important to have good manners because good manners make us liked and respected by others, keep us healthy, and make our society peaceful and happy.

Q: Which good manners do you have? Share some good manners. (Sample)

A: I have many good manners: I respect my elders, dress neatly, wash my hands before eating, eat healthy food and care for others.

Pre-reading — Good Study Habits

Q: Look at the title and guess, what this lesson is all about.

A: The lesson is about good study habits — the habits that help us become better students, like making a timetable, making notes and revising classwork.

Q: Share any of your good study habits. (Sample)

A: My good study habits are: I do my homework on time, revise my lessons daily, keep my books neat and make notes in my notebook.

While-reading

Q: Where was the poster displayed?

A: The poster was displayed in the classroom.

Post-reading

Q: Why are good study habits important? What happened when the writer adopted them?

A: Good study habits help us become better students. They improve our reading and writing skills. When we adopt good study habits, we get good results, as the writer did in the final term. That is why Miss Hina asked the students to share the importance of good study habits with their classmates.

Q: Write about any two good study habits you have and share with classmates. (Sample)

A: I have two good study habits: I make a timetable for studying, and I revise my classwork over the weekend. I shared them with my classmates.

Q: Why should we follow good study habits?

A: We should follow good study habits because they help us become better students, improve our reading and writing skills, and get good results in examinations.

Lesson — The poster and the invitation

Q: Read the poster 'Good Study Habits' in the lesson and list the habits given in it.

A: Set your goals for study times. Make a timetable for studying. Make notes in your notebooks. First work on the subject that you consider challenging. Revise classwork over the weekend. Don't spend too much time watching television. Get information from books, your teachers and parents.

Q: Read the invitation written by the writer to his/her cousin (as given in the lesson).

A: March 31, 2018. Dear Asif, How are you? I did wonderfully well in my final examination and want to celebrate this success with my friends and family. I am arranging a party this Friday evening at my house. You are invited to join us. It'll be great fun. Hope to see you on Friday. Your cousin, Maheen.

A) Oral Communication — 1. Learning the Sounds: Short Vowel Sounds (i)

Q: Read and say the given short vowel sounds. What is a short vowel sound?

A: A short vowel sound does not sound like its letter name. The table: /ae/: man, can. /e/: set, let. /I/: pill, hill. /o/: cot, hot. /U/: cub, hub.

A) Oral Communication — 1. Learning the Sounds: Short Vowel Sounds (ii)

Q: Make two words with each short vowel sound and write them in your notebook.

A: /ae/: cat, hat. /e/: pen, hen. /I/: bit, sit. /o/: pot, dog. /U/: sun, bun.

A) Oral Communication — 2. Learning to Speak

Q: Read and practise the given dialogue (Father and Mohsin).

A: Father: Listen, my son! Where have you been for the last two hours? Mohsin: Baba, I have been playing in the playground with my friends. Father: Have you prepared for your test? Mohsin: Oh no! I just forgot I had a test tomorrow. What will I do now? There is no time left. Father: I have always asked you to do things on time. There is a time for play and a time for study. Mohsin: I am sorry, Baba. Father: Be careful next time. Mohsin: I will.

Q: Express some regrets on your mistakes in pairs. (Sample)

A: A: I am sorry, I broke your pencil by mistake. B: It is all right. Please be careful next time. A: I am sorry, I forgot to bring your book. B: Never mind, bring it tomorrow.

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 1. Reading Comprehension (i) Answer these qu

Q: What did Miss Hina ask the students to make?

A: Miss Hina asked the students to make a poster about good study habits.

Q: Write any two good study habits mentioned in the text.

A: Two good study habits mentioned in the text are: make a timetable for studying, and make notes in your notebooks.

Q: Who arranged the party and why?

A: The writer's parents arranged the party for his friends and cousins to celebrate his success in the final term.

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 1. Reading Comprehension (ii) Alphabetical Or

Q: Read the given words and notice the alphabetical order.

A: According to the first letter: good (g), habit (h), play (p), study (s). According to the second letter (all begin with c): cat (a), centre (e), change (h), class (l).

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 1. Reading Comprehension (iii) Alphabetical O

Q: Arrange these words in alphabetical order according to the second letter:

bake, butter, bee, bring, bite, blue.

A: bake, bee, bite, blue, bring, butter.

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 1. Reading Comprehension (iv) Note-taking

Q: Read the given information to make notes.

A: Title: 'First Prize'. Note new words: success, sweating, wipe, glad. Make important points: Danish worked hard in his studies. His parents also helped him. He stood first in his exams. He wrote a letter to them. Note-taking is a technique to gather information about a topic. It is very useful.

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 1. Reading Comprehension (v) Fill in the blank

Q: Miss Hina asked students to make a _____.

card

model

✓ poster

booklet

Q: The poster was displayed in the _____.

bedroom

✓ classroom drawing room

staffroom

Q: Good study habits can help us to become _____ students.

bad

average

poor

✓ better

Q: We should make a _____ for studying.

✓ timetable

chart

card

poster

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 2. Analytical Reading

Q: Use the internet to make a list of ten eating habits and write them down in your notebook. (Sample)

A: Ten eating habits: wash hands before eating; eat on time; eat slowly and chew food well; eat fresh fruits and vegetables; drink enough water; avoid junk food; do not overeat; eat breakfast daily; keep the eating place clean; thank Allah for the food.

C) Language Focus — 1. Vocabulary Building (i) Words with their meanings (as giv

Q: timetable / celebrate / display / invite

A: timetable — schedule. celebrate — to engage in joyful activity on an event. display — show. invite — to request someone to attend an event.

C) Language Focus — 1. Vocabulary Building (ii) Adjectives

Q: Read the given adjectives and use them in your own sentences.

A: Words which describe nouns in phrases or sentences are called adjectives. Two adjectives may have a similar meaning with slight difference in usage. Pairs: new/fresh, obedient/dutiful, great/amazing, silent/quiet. Sentences: I have a new book. We eat fresh fruit. He is an obedient student. She is a dutiful daughter. It was a great day. The show was amazing. The class was silent. Please keep quiet.

C) Language Focus — 2. Learning to Spell

Q: Fill in the missing letters to complete the words: im__rove, __isplay, p__ster, cel__brate, arran__e.

A: improve, display, poster, celebrate, arrange.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Pronouns (i) Subject and Object Pronouns

Q: Read the given sentences and notice the use of pronouns (subject and object).

A: Subject pronouns and object pronouns: I/me — I love Allah. / Allah loves me. we/us — We study together. / Come study with us. you/you — You like Ali. / Ali likes you. he/him — He is my classmate. / I play with him. she/her — She is my best friend. / I love her. it/it — It is a colourful dress. / Maha likes it. they/them — They go to the park. / Ali also goes with them.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Possessive Pronouns (ii)

Q: Read the following sentences with the highlighted possessive pronouns. What is the rule?

A: Possessive pronouns are used to specify the ownership of an item. Sentences: This bag is yours. You forgot to take it with you. This cycle belongs to Amir. It is his. These shops are ours. We work here. That old car was mine. I have sold it. They are in the apple orchard. That orchard is theirs. It is his book not hers.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Possessive Pronouns (iii)

Q: Use the possessive pronouns above in your own sentences. (Sample)

A: This pen is mine. That house is ours. The book is yours. The bicycle is his. The doll is hers. The toys are theirs.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Use of Can/Cannot and May/May Not (iv)

Q: Read the given sentences and notice the use of can/cannot and may/may not. What is the rule?

A: Can is used to show ability while cannot is used to show inability in sentences. May can be used to ask for permission while may not is used to deny permission in sentences. Examples: Saad can work in a bank but he cannot teach in a school. He can ride a bike but he cannot drive a car. May I go to drink water? May I use your pencil? You may not leave the classroom now.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Use of Can/Cannot and May/May Not (v)

Q: Make two sentences of your own using can/cannot and may/may not each. (Sample)

A: I can swim but I cannot fly. I can read English but I cannot speak French. May I go out to play? May I borrow your book? You may not watch television now. You may not go out in the rain.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Adverbs (vi)

Q: Read the following sentences and notice the use of adverbs. What is an adverb?

A: Words which add meaning to the verbs, adjectives and adverbs are called adverbs. Examples: My mother speaks politely. The birthday party was decorated beautifully. She wrote a story neatly. She cleans the room hurriedly. The old woman walked slowly.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Adverbs (vii)

Q: Make sentences by using the adverbs given above. (Sample)

A: He talks politely to everyone. She sings beautifully. I write my homework neatly. Do not drive hurriedly. Walk slowly on the road.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Punctuation (viii)

Q: Rewrite and punctuate the given sentences using the full stop (.), question mark (?) and exclamation mark (!).

A: The last time I went to Murree, it rained all day. I forgot my umbrella, so I got soaked. Have you ever done that? It was really a very silly thing to do. Next time I'll be careful.

D) Writing — 1. Learning to Write (i) Birthday invitation

Q: Write a short invitation to your friend to your birthday party. (Sample)

A: Dear Ali, You are invited to my birthday party. I am turning ten years old and I want to celebrate it with my friends. There will be cake, games and music. Date, time and location: Saturday, 5:00 pm, at my house. Your friend, Ahmed.

D) Writing — 1. Learning to Write (ii) Acceptance note

Q: Write a short note accepting the invitation above. (Sample)

A: Dear Ahmed, Thank you for inviting me to your birthday party. I am happy to accept your invitation. I will come on Saturday at 5:00 pm. I am looking forward to celebrating with you. Your friend, Ali.

D) Writing — 2. Creative Writing

Q: Make a chart of your own and write some classroom rules on it. (Sample)

A: Classroom Rules: Listen to the teacher. Raise your hand to speak. Keep the classroom clean. Respect your classmates. Do your homework on time. Speak politely.

Unit 9: Manners (book pp. 87-95)

Getting Started — Let's Talk

Q: Getting Started: Look at the pictures below and express your feelings.

A: The messy room makes me feel sad and confused, because nothing can be found and the room looks untidy. The tidy room makes me feel happy and peaceful, because everything is in its place. I like the tidy room.

Q: Do you keep your room, messy or tidy? (Sample)

A: I keep my room tidy. I put my toys and books in their places after using them.

Q: Do you help your mother at home? (Sample)

A: Yes, I help my mother at home. I tidy my room, put my toys in their places and help in small household work.

Pre-reading — Whole Duty of Children

Q: Read the title and tell what it can be about.

A: The title 'Whole Duty of Children' tells us about the duties of children — the good manners a child should follow, like speaking the truth and behaving well at the table.

Q: What do you know about good manners? Share some good manners.

A: Good manners are: speaking the truth, respecting elders, behaving well at the table, washing hands before eating, and keeping your room tidy.

While-reading

Q: What should a child always say?

A: A child should always say what's true.

Lesson — Poem

Q: Read the poem 'Whole Duty of Children' by Robert Louis Stevenson (full text).

A: A child should always say what's true

And speak when he is spoken to,

And behave mannerly at table;

At least as far as he is able.

— Robert Louis Stevenson

Post-reading

Q: What do you know about table manners? Share any three.

A: Three table manners are: wash your hands with soap before eating; eat quietly and do not talk with your mouth full; sit properly at the table and thank Allah and others for the food.

Q: What is the main idea of the poem?

A: The main idea of the poem is that the whole duty of children is good manners: a child should always speak the truth, speak politely when spoken to, and behave well at the table as far as he is able.

A) Oral Communication — 1. Learning the Sounds: Three Sounds of -ed (i)

Q: Read the different sounds for the -ed ending in words. What are the three sounds of -ed?

A: The -ed ending has three sounds: /d/: loved, tired, behaved. /id/: visited, painted, decided. /t/: watched, dropped, asked. Rules: if the 'ed' ending follows the letters 'p, k, sh, ch, s, f', the ending sound will be 't'. If it follows 'b, g, l, m, n, v, z', the ending sound will be 'd'. If it follows 't or d', the ending sound will be 'id'.

A) Oral Communication — 1. Learning the Sounds: Three Sounds of -ed (ii)

Q: Say the words and write them in the correct columns: wanted, helped, rubbed, motivated, thanked, loved, started, pushed, closed.

A: /d/: rubbed, loved, closed. /id/: wanted, motivated, started. /t/: helped, thanked, pushed.

A) Oral Communication — 2. Learning to Speak

Q: Read and practise the given dialogue (Sidra and Mother).

A: Sidra: Good morning, Mama. Mother: Good morning, dear Sidra. Sidra: Mama, could you please bring breakfast for me? I am hungry. Mother: Yes, sure. First tell me if you brushed your teeth and took a bath. Sidra: Yes, I have brushed my teeth, but haven't taken a bath yet. Mother: Go and take a bath first, then I will serve you breakfast. We should always take care of our personal hygiene. Sidra: Okay sure, Mama.

Q: Engage in a group discussion and talk about good manners which you should adopt in your daily lives. (Sample)

A: In our daily lives we should adopt these good manners: speak the truth, respect elders, behave well at the table, wash hands before eating, keep our rooms tidy, and help our mothers at home.

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 1. Reading Comprehension (i) Answer these qu

Q: How should a child behave at the table?

A: A child should behave mannerly at the table, at least as far as he is able.

Q: Why should we follow table manners?

A: We should follow table manners because they show good behaviour, make eating pleasant for everyone at the table, and are part of a child's duty. Good table manners also earn us respect.

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 1. Reading Comprehension (ii) Table of Conten

Q: Read the given title and table of contents. Then fill in the blanks: The title of the book is _____. The title of unit 3 is _____. The title of the unit that starts at page 13 is _____.

A: The table of contents helps us to find different chapters in a book. From it: The title of the book is English 4. The title of unit 3 is The Journey of Chocolate. The title of the unit that starts at page 13 is Beauty of Nature.

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 1. Reading Comprehension (iii) Fill in the blanks with the correct options

Q: The poet _____ wrote the poem 'Whole Duty of Children'.

Robert Frost

William Wordsworth

✓ Robert Louis Stevenson

John Keats

Q: In the poem, the poet is talking about _____.

meals

✓ manners

games

sports

Q: A child should always say what is _____.

false

✓ true

right

wrong

Q: A child should behave mannerly at the _____.

sofa

bed

chair

✓ table

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 2. Analytical Reading

Q: Look for a poem on the internet about good manners. Write it down in your notebook. (Sample)

A: Always say please and thank you,

Speak the truth in all you do.

Wash your hands before you eat,

Keep your room and classroom neat.

(Sample poem about good manners, as found on the internet.)

C) Language Focus — 1. Vocabulary Building (i) Words with their meanings (as giv

Q: behave / mannerly / at least / able

A: behave — act. mannerly — having good manners. at least — at a lower limit. able — to have the skill to do something.

C) Language Focus — 1. Vocabulary Building (ii) Similes

Q: Read the given stanzas from different poems to notice the use of highlighted similes. What is a simile?

A: A simile is a figure of speech used to compare two things by using the words 'like' or 'as'. For example 'as brave as a lion', 'like a diamond'. In the stanzas: An emerald is as green as grass; A ruby is as red as blood; A sapphire shines as blue as heaven; A flint lies in the mud. 'Twinkle, twinkle little star, How I wonder what you are Up above the world so high, Like a diamond in the sky.'

C) Language Focus — 1. Vocabulary Building (iii) Similes in sentences

Q: Use the given similes in your own sentences. (Sample)

A: Her dress is as green as grass. His face turned as red as blood. The sky today is as blue as heaven. The star shines like a diamond in the sky.

C) Language Focus — 2. Learning to Spell

Q: Fill in the missing letters and learn the spelling: be__ave, __ble, __poken, c__ild, t__ue.

A: behave, able, spoken, child, true.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Possessive Adjective (i)

Q: Read the given sentences and notice the use of possessive adjective. What is a possessive adjective?

A: A possessive adjective shows ownership. My, our, your, his, her, etc. are possessive adjectives. Examples: I had bought my new phone. We have sold our old house. Ali is working on his computer. Could you please give me your camera? She has lost her handbag. The parrot is eating its food.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Possessive Adjective (ii)

Q: Make sentences using the possessive adjective given above. (Sample)

A: This is my book. That is our school. Please open your bag. He is driving his car. She loves her mother. The dog is wagging its tail.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Use of 'Should' and 'Should not' (iii)

Q: Read the given sentences and notice the use of 'should' and 'should not'. What is the rule?

A: Should is used to make recommendations, to give advice or to talk about an obligation. Should not is used in negative sentences. Examples: We should drink at least eight glasses of water every day. You should listen to your teacher carefully. Abeera should complete her homework on time. You should take some rest after a long trip. Children should not watch a lot of television. We should not make fun of others.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Use of 'Should' and 'Should not' (iv)

Q: Read the given sentences and circle the correct options: We (should / should not) speak rudely to our elders. You (should / should not) go to school on time. She (should / should not) eat too many chocolates. He (should / should not) study hard to get first position. We (should / should not) follow good manners.

A: We should not speak rudely to our elders. You should go to school on time. She should not eat too many chocolates. He should study hard to get first position. We should follow good manners.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Use of 'Should' and 'Should not' (v)

Q: Make six sentences of your own using 'should' and 'should not'. (Sample)

A: We should speak politely. You should respect your elders. Children should do their homework on time. We should not tell lies. You should not waste water. Children should not shout in the classroom.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Joining Words (Conjunction) (vi)

Q: Read the given sentences and notice the use of joining words. What are joining words?

A: Joining words are used to join words or sentences. Some joining words are 'and', 'or', 'but', etc. Examples: A child should speak and behave mannerly at the table. Do you want to eat pancakes or eggs for breakfast? Umar wanted to drive to the mall, but his car wouldn't start. My mother bought fruit and vegetables from the market. Mina reads storybooks, but she doesn't like to read the newspaper. Do you like to play football or basketball?

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Joining Words (Conjunction) (vii)

Q: Write three sentences of your own using 'and', 'but' and 'or'. (Sample)

A: and: I like apples and mangoes. but: I wanted to play, but it rained. or: Do you want tea or milk?

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Adverbs of Manner (viii)

Q: Read the given sentences and notice the use of adverbs of manner. What are adverbs of manner?

A: Adverbs of manner tell us the manner or way in which something happens. Examples: Sara washes her hands slowly. Ahmad plays the piano beautifully. They walked in the park quickly. Speak to your elders politely.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Adverbs of Manner (ix)

Q: Circle the adverbs in the given sentences: The car avoided the motorbike easily. It's cold outside so you need to dress up warmly. He does exercise regularly. Complete your homework carefully. We have won the match luckily.

A: The car avoided the motorbike easily (easily). It's cold outside so you need to dress up warmly (warmly). He does exercise regularly (regularly). Complete your homework carefully (carefully). We have won the match luckily (luckily).

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Punctuation (x)

Q: Rewrite the given sentences by using correct capitalisation and punctuation marks.

A: We should wash our hands with soap before and after every meal. Wow! What an interesting story! My uncle is a good looking man. Father bought some eggs, onions, tomatoes and potatoes.

D) Writing — 1. Learning to Write (i) Central idea

Q: Write the central idea of the poem 'Whole Duty of Children' in your notebook.

A: The central idea of a poem discusses the main thought of the whole poem. It is also called the main idea. The central idea of 'Whole Duty of Children' is that the whole duty of children is good manners: a child should always speak the truth, speak politely when spoken to, and behave well at the table as far as he is able.

D) Writing — 1. Learning to Write (ii) Poem about Brushing Your Teeth

Q: List four pairs of rhyming words and write a simple poem about 'Brushing Your Teeth' using them. (Sample)

A: Four pairs of rhyming words: bright/night, care/fair, clean/seen, smile/while. Poem 'Brushing Your Teeth': Brush your teeth in the morning bright, / Brush them again at night. / Use your brush and paste with care, / Keep your smile shiny and fair. / Brush them clean so all have seen, / A healthy smile, a happy while.

D) Writing — 2. Creative Writing

Q: Write a poem using the given rhyming words: please/lease, turn/learn, find/kind, fuss/us. (Sample)

A: Please, my friend, do not fuss, / Come and learn along with us. / Turn the page and you will find, / Words that please, and thoughts so kind. / Take the book on lease today, / Read and learn in every way.

Review-3 (book pp. 96-97)

Review-3 — A) Oral Communication: 1. Learning the Sounds

Q: Read the given sentences. Underline the words with -ed endings and write them in their relevant columns: They walked in the morning. His teacher granted him permission to go. They lived in Lahore with their family. His father decided to buy a new house. Rida showed a new painting to the class. Yesterday, Zara watched a match.

A: /d/: lived, showed. /id/: granted, decided. /t/: walked, watched.

Q: Write five words with each vowel sound in the table: Short vowel sound / Long vowel sound.

A: Short vowel sound: cat, pen, sit, pot, sun. Long vowel sound: cake, tree, kite, boat, cube.

Review-3 — B) Reading and Critical Thinking: 1. Reading Comprehension

Q: What is your favourite cultural festival and why? (Sample)

A: My favourite cultural festival is Jashan-e-Baharan, the Spring Festival, because we see beautiful flowers of many colours, colourful kites in the sky, happy people and lovely music. (Sample)

Q: Write some good study habits.

A: Some good study habits are: make a timetable for studying; make notes in your notebooks; first work on the subject you consider challenging; revise classwork over the weekend; do not spend too much time watching television.

Q: Why should we wash our hands before and after a meal?

A: We should wash our hands before and after a meal to remove germs and dirt from our hands, so that we stay healthy and do not fall ill.

Q: Arrange the given words in alphabetical order according to the first letter and look up their meanings in the dictionary: habit, study, tradition, festival, manners.

A: Alphabetical order by first letter: festival, habit, manners, study, tradition. Meanings: festival — a day or period of celebration; habit — a regular practice; manners — polite behaviour; study — learning by reading and practice; tradition — a custom passed down from the past.

Q: Arrange the given words in alphabetical order according to the second letter and look up their meanings in the dictionary: celebrate, culture, competition, cattle. (Note: only four words are given in the book.)

A: Alphabetical order by second letter: cattle (a), celebrate (e), competition (o), culture (u). Meanings: cattle — cows and bulls kept for milk or meat; celebrate — to engage in joyful activity on an event; competition — a contest in which people try to win; culture — the way of life of a group of people.

Review-3 — C) Language Focus

Q: Read the given words and write their meanings: behave, tradition, celebrate, cheerful, invite.

A: behave — act. tradition — custom or way of living. celebrate — to engage in joyful activity on an event. cheerful — happy and jolly. invite — to request someone to attend an event.

Q: Write sentences with the given modal verbs in your notebook: can, may. (Sample)

A: I can swim. I can read English. May I go out to play? May I borrow your book?

Q: Read the given text and circle the adverbs.

A: One day, Nida was walking slowly to school. On the way, she saw a poor beggar under a tree. He almost fainted with hunger. She felt sorry for the beggar so she quickly took out her lunch box. She generously gave it to him. The beggar ate the food eagerly. He thanked her happily. Adverbs: slowly, almost, quickly, generously, eagerly, happily.

Q: Rewrite the given text by adding full stops (.), question marks (?) and exclamation marks (!) correctly.

A: Yasir went to visit a nearby market with his uncle. He was very happy to see different kinds of things. He saw fresh fruit and vegetables. The fruit and vegetables were so colourful. He asked his uncle where the pet shop was. Then they went to the pet shop. "Wow! What a beautiful cat this is!" he said to his uncle.

Q: Fill in the blanks with possessive pronouns.

A: Our neighbour asked our family and me to water their plants while they were on vacation. Monday will be my day to water. My brother offered to take his turn on Tuesday and Wednesday. My mother will take her turn on Thursday and Friday. So our father only has to water on the weekend.

Review-3 — D) Writing: 1. Learning to Write

Q: Write a short dialogue between two friends discussing how to celebrate the spring festival in their school. (Sample)

A: A: How should we celebrate the spring festival in our school? B: We can decorate our classroom with flowers and colourful kites. A: We can also sing songs and share food with each other. B: Yes! And we can invite our teachers and parents. A: Let us ask our teacher for permission tomorrow.

Unit 10: Be Aware, Be Safe (book pp. 98-106)

Getting Started — Let's Talk

Q: Getting Started: Read the given dialogue (Brother and Sister).

A: Brother: Have you seen them before? (Two persons getting out of the car.) Sister: No, they seem to be strangers. Brother: Watch out, they are coming towards us. Sister: Yes, we should not talk to strangers, or accept anything from them. Brother: Oh, yes! Let's ignore them.

Q: What would you do if you come across the same situation? (Sample)

A: If I come across the same situation, I will not talk to the strangers, I will not accept anything from them, and I will go to a safe place and tell my parents or teacher immediately.

Pre-reading — Be Aware, Be Safe

Q: Look at the title words and guess its meaning.

A: 'Be Aware, Be Safe' means: be careful and alert (aware) so that you stay protected from danger (safe).

Q: Is it right to get anything from a stranger?

A: No, it is not right to get anything from a stranger. It is not good to accept gifts from strangers, because it might be harmful.

While-reading

Q: Will you allow a stranger to come closer to you?

A: No, I will not allow a stranger to come closer to me. I will step away and say 'No!' to him.

Q: How would you react if a stranger offers you a toy?

A: If a stranger offers me a toy, I will step away, say 'No!' loudly, leave that place quickly, and tell my parents or teacher immediately.

Lesson — Dialogue

Q: Read the lesson dialogue 'Be Aware, Be Safe' (full text: Sara, Ahsan and Mother).

A: Sara was holding a doll when she and her brother Ahsan entered home. Sara (Excitedly): Hello, Mama. Look, what I have got! Mother (Worriedly): Who gave you this doll? Sara: There was a man in the street. Mother (Politely): Come here, and sit beside me. (Sara and her brother sat with their mother on the sofa.) Mother: You are good kids. Listen to me carefully. Sara: Okay, Mama! Mother: You should not get more friendly with people who you don't know. Never take anything from them without telling me or your Baba. Sara: Why, Mama? Is it wrong? Mother: Yes, it is not good to accept gifts from strangers. Sara: Sorry, Mama. I won't do it again. Ahsan: Mama, why is it wrong to be more friendly with strangers? Mother: Because it might be harmful to you. Ahsan: Okay, Mama! Sara: If someone comes close to me, what should I do? Mother: If a stranger ever comes close to you and offers a ride, a toy, a candy or a chocolate, you should step away and say, 'No!' to him. Leave that place quickly. Remember, your Baba and I trust you a lot. So, share your daily routine and secrets with us only. Sara: Which secrets, Mama? Mother: Do not leave class/school without informing your teacher. If someone makes you feel uncomfortable or if you feel like something is not right, you need to walk away at once and share with me. Did you get my point? Ahsan: Sure, Mama! Sara: I promise to share all my activities with you. Mother: Good girl. I love you both.

Post-reading

Q: Why should we not take things from strangers?

A: We should not take things from strangers because it might be harmful to us. Strangers may have bad intentions, and their gifts could be a trick to harm us.

Q: If any stranger comes to you, what will you do? Discuss. (Sample)

A: If any stranger comes to me, I will step away, say 'No!' loudly, leave that place quickly, and tell my parents or teacher immediately. I will never share my daily routine or secrets with strangers, and I will not leave class or school without informing my teacher.

A) Oral Communication — 1. Learning the Sounds: Weak Forms of 'and', 'of', 'or' a

Q: Read and say the given weak forms of 'and', 'of', 'or' and 'but' in these phrases/sentences. What are weak forms?

A: Weak forms are syllable sounds that become unstressed in speech, for example of, and, or, but. Phrases: Day and night. The chair is made of wood. The food is good but the service is bad. Are you ready or not? Black and white.

A) Oral Communication — 2. Learning to Speak

Q: Read and practise the given dialogue (Teacher and Jawad).

A: Teacher: Haris, come in front and read the lesson. Jawad: Sir, can I come first? Teacher: No, you have to wait for your turn. Jawad: Okay, sir.

Q: Hold a dialogue between two friends on 'Sharing'. (Sample)

A: A: I have two pencils. Would you like one? B: Thank you! Sharing is caring. A: Yes, when we share, everyone is happy. B: I will share my lunch with you tomorrow.

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 1. Reading Comprehension (i) Answer these qu

Q: Who gave a doll to Sara?

A: A man in the street — a stranger — gave a doll to Sara.

Q: Why is it wrong to be friendly with strangers?

A: It is wrong to be friendly with strangers because it might be harmful to us.

Q: Should we take things from strangers or not? Write in your own words.

A: No, we should not take things from strangers, because it is not good to accept gifts from strangers and it might be harmful to us. We should tell our parents first.

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 1. Reading Comprehension (ii) Elements of a S

Q: Read the given elements of a story. What are the elements of a story?

A: Characters are people or animals who take part in the action of a story. Setting is the place and time where the story events take place. Beginning provides answers to who, when and where questions; in the beginning of a story, the writer describes the characters and setting. Middle is the climax of action in the story. Conflict is a problem that the characters try to resolve. Ending is the conclusion or resolution of conflict (internal/external) in the story.

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 1. Reading Comprehension (iii) Outline a story

Q: Think and outline a story of your own keeping the story elements in view. Share your story with your teacher and classmates. (Sample outline)

A: Characters: Ali and his cat Milo. Setting: Ali's house, one morning. In the beginning: Ali wakes up and cannot find Milo. Conflict: Milo is missing and Ali is worried. In the middle: Ali searches the house and garden. Solution: Ali finds Milo sleeping in the garden and brings him home happily.

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 1. Reading Comprehension (iv) Calendar

Q: Look at the given calendar. Read it and answer the given questions: How many Fridays are there in the month of July? How many school days were there in the July?

A: In the July calendar, the Fridays are 3, 10, 17, 24 and 31 — so there are 5 Fridays. The weekdays from Monday to Friday are the school days: there are 23 school days in July.

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 1. Reading Comprehension (v) Fill in the blank

Q: Read the lesson again and fill in the blanks.

A: We should not accept gifts from strangers. If any stranger comes to us, we should say 'No!' to him/her. If you feel uncomfortable with any person, you should walk away at once. We should share our secrets with our parents. If any stranger tries to be friendly with us, it might cause harm to us.

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 2. Analytical Reading

Q: Read the story 'Aladdin and the Magic Lamp'. Do you like or dislike the story? Share your opinion with your classmates. (Sample)

A: I like the story 'Aladdin and the Magic Lamp' because Aladdin is brave and kind, and the magic lamp helps him in difficult times. The story teaches us that good wins over evil and that we should use our blessings to help others. (Sample opinion)

C) Language Focus — 1. Vocabulary Building (i) Words with their meanings (as giv

Q: carefully / stranger / friendly / harmful / uncomfortable

A: carefully — with a lot of attention. stranger — a person that you do not know. friendly — showing kindness and warmth. harmful — hurtful. uncomfortable — uneasy.

C) Language Focus — 1. Vocabulary Building (ii) Parts of Speech

Q: Read the given words and write them in the relevant columns: Sara, you, permit, nice, mother, harsh, promise, home, dangerous, accept, they, it.

A: Noun: Sara, mother, home. Verb: permit, accept, promise. Adjectives: nice, harsh, dangerous. Pronouns: you, they, it.

C) Language Focus — 2. Learning to Spell

Q: Fill in the missing letters to complete the words: ch__col__te, c__ndi__s, s_rang_r, pr__mise, s__cret.

A: chocolate, candies, stranger, promise, secret.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Pronoun-antecedent Agreement (i)

Q: Read the given paragraph to understand pronoun-antecedent agreement. What is the rule?

A: Pronouns must agree with their antecedents in gender and number. If the antecedent is in the female gender, the pronoun must be in the same gender. If an antecedent is singular, the pronoun must represent a single person, place or thing. In the paragraph: Sara (female, singular) is referred to by 'She' and 'her'; Sara and her mother (plural) are referred to by 'they' and 'their'.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Pronoun-antecedent Agreement (ii)

Q: Now write a paragraph on 'Respect for Family Members' taking care of pronoun-antecedent agreement. (Sample)

A: I respect my family members. My mother takes care of me. She cooks food for us. My father works hard for our family. He loves us all. My brother and sister play with me. They are kind to me. We all love and respect one another.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Regular Verbs (iii)

Q: Read the given forms of regular verbs. What is the rule for regular verbs?

A: Regular verbs form their past and past participle forms by adding -d or -ed to them. Table: start/started/started; play/played/played; touch/touched/touched; decide/decided/decided.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Regular Verbs (iv)

Q: Complete the table using the -ed rule: ask, need, demand, accept.

A: ask — asked (past form), asked (past participle). need — needed, needed. demand — demanded, demanded. accept — accepted, accepted.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Present, Past and Future Tenses (v)

Q: Read the given sentences to understand the type of tense (simple present, past and future tenses). What do the three tenses show?

A: The present tense shows actions which happen in the present time. The past tense shows actions that happened in the past time. The future tense shows actions that will happen in the future time. Table: Sara plays with a doll (present). Sara played with a doll (past). Sara will play with a doll (future). Mother explains stranger danger to Sara (present). Mother explained stranger danger to Sara (past). Mother will explain stranger danger to Sara (future).

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Present, Past and Future Tenses (vi)

Q: Write the correct tense for each sentence.

A: Ali writes a letter to his uncle — Present tense. They will water the plants — Future tense. I will go to Gilgit next month — Future tense.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Adverbs of Time (vii)

Q: Read the given sentences to understand adverbs of time. What are adverbs of time?

A: Adverbs of time tell when something happens. For example tonight, yesterday, tomorrow, daily, weekly. Examples: He saw a stranger outside his house yesterday (yesterday). I will call you later (later). I'm going to Lahore tomorrow (tomorrow). We are doing our homework now (now).

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Full Stop with Abbreviations (viii)

Q: Read the given words with their abbreviations. What is an abbreviation?

A: An abbreviation is a shortened form of a word. In most cases, the first letter of each word is capitalised and joined using full stops. Examples: November — Nov.; minute — min.; Limited — Ltd.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Full Stop with Abbreviations (ix)

Q: Match the abbreviations with their full forms.

A: Aug. — August. St. — Street. Dr. — Doctor. Dept. — Department.

D) Writing — 1. Guided Writing (i) Story boxes

Q: Think of a story of your own and fill in the following story boxes: Character, Setting, In the beginning, Conflict, In the middle, Solution. (Sample)

A: Character: Ali and his cat Milo. Setting: Ali's house, one morning. In the beginning: Ali wakes up and cannot find Milo. Conflict: Milo is missing and Ali is worried. In the middle: Ali searches the house and garden. Solution: Ali finds Milo sleeping in the garden and brings him home happily.

D) Writing — 1. Guided Writing (ii) Story

Q: Now write a story of your own using the information above in your notebook. (Sample)

A: One morning, Ali woke up and could not find his cat Milo. He was worried and searched his house and garden. At last, he found Milo sleeping under a tree in the garden. He brought him home happily and gave him milk.

D) Writing — 2. Creative Writing

Q: Write some rules of staying safe. (Sample)

A: Rules of staying safe: Do not talk to strangers. Do not accept gifts, rides, toys or sweets from strangers. If a stranger comes close to you, step away and say 'No!'. Leave that place quickly and tell your parents or teacher. Share your daily routine and secrets only with your parents. Do not leave class or school without informing your teacher.

Unit 11: The Fox and the Stork (book pp. 107-115)

Getting Started — Let's Talk

Q: Getting Started: Look at the pictures. They show what true friends do for one another. What are the friends in the pictures doing?

A: In the first picture, a boy is helping his fallen friend to stand up. In the second picture, the lion and the mouse are friends together (from the story of the lion and the mouse).

Q: Can you share other things that friends do to help one another? (Sample)

A: Friends also share their things, help one another in studies, care for each other when they are ill, play together, and stand by each other in good times and bad times.

Q: How can you be a good friend to someone? (Sample)

A: I can be a good friend by helping my friends, sharing my things with them, caring for them, telling the truth, and standing by them in good times and bad times.

Pre-reading — The Fox and The Stork

Q: Have you ever seen a fox and a stork? Share some information about them. (Sample)

A: A fox is a clever wild animal with a bushy tail, and a stork is a tall bird with long legs and a long beak. I have seen them in pictures and books. (Sample)

While-reading

Q: What will happen next? (Prediction)

A: The stork will invite the fox to dinner and teach her a lesson by serving the meal in a jar with a narrow neck, which the fox cannot eat from.

Lesson — Story

Q: Read the story 'The Fox and The Stork' (full text).

A: Once there were a fox and a stork living in a jungle. The fox was very clever. She always teased others. One day she decided to prank the stork. She went to his home and invited him to a treat. The stork went to her place for a meal. The fox cunningly served the meal in flat dishes. The stork was unable to eat because of his long beak. It was difficult for him to eat from the flat dish. The hungry stork got angry but he did not show his anger and quickly went home. The stork had understood the scheme of the fox. He decided to teach the fox a lesson. He invited her to dinner with him the next evening. The fox arrived happily at his place. The stork served the meal in a jar with a narrow neck. The stork easily ate all his food with his long beak, but the fox could not. She could not put her mouth into the jar. The stork said to the fox calmly, "Do not ridicule or degrade anyone for any reason. Allah (Subhanahu wa Ta'ala) has made us all equal." The fox was ashamed. She said sorry to the stork. They became friends again.

Post-reading

Q: What did you learn from this story?

A: I learnt from this story that we should not ridicule or degrade anyone for any reason, because Allah has made us all equal. We should treat others as we want to be treated.

Q: Which character of the story did you like the most? Why? (Sample)

A: I liked the stork the most, because he was calm and wise. He did not show his anger; instead, he taught the fox a lesson politely and became friends with her again.

A) Oral Communication — 1. Learning the Sounds: Intonation Patterns (i)

Q: Read the given rules and their sentences. What are rising and falling intonation patterns?

A: Intonation tells us how the voice rises and falls in speaking. Rising intonation: in yes-no questions our voice rises at the end. Example: Do you obey traffic rules? (rising). Falling intonation: our voice falls on the final stressed syllable of a phrase or a group of words. Examples: We should follow traffic rules. (falling). Our voice falls at the end of a statement: Accidents can happen anywhere. (falling). In wh- questions: What is your name? (falling). In commands: Do not run on roads. (falling). In exclamations: That's great! (falling).

A) Oral Communication — 1. Learning the Sounds: Intonation Patterns (ii)

Q: Read the given sentences and tick the correct intonation.

A: Do they follow traffic signs? — rising (yes-no question). Always walk on the footpath. — falling (command). Why are you driving fast? — falling (wh- question). Hurrah! I came first. — falling (exclamation).

A) Oral Communication — 2. Learning to Speak

Q: Read and practise the given dialogue (Stork, Fox and Monkey).

A: Stork: Hello, how are you, friends (fox and monkey)? Fox: I am fine. Thank you. Monkey: I am also fine. Stork: Where are you both going? Monkey: We are going to drink water from the new pond. It is really beautiful. Fox: Yes, it is. Stork: Wow, I also want to go there but I am in a hurry now. By the way where is it? Fox: It is to the left of the big oak tree. Stork: Thank you, both of you. Monkey: You are welcome.

Q: Make a group of three students and ask them to discuss qualities of a good friend. Ask them to agree/disagree by using polite words. (Sample)

A: A good friend is honest, kind, helpful and caring. A: I agree, a good friend always tells the truth. B: I agree too, and a good friend helps in difficulty. C: I disagree that a good friend only plays with you — a good friend also guides you to do right.

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 1. Reading Comprehension (i) Answer these qu

Q: Who decided to make fun of the stork?

A: The fox decided to make fun of the stork.

Q: How did the fox serve the meal?

A: The fox served the meal cunningly in flat dishes, from which the stork could not eat because of his long beak.

Q: How should we treat our friends?

A: We should treat our friends with kindness and respect. We should never ridicule or degrade them, and we should treat them as we want to be treated.

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 1. Reading Comprehension (ii) Elements of a F

Q: Read the given elements of a fable. Then read the story 'The Fox and The Stork' again and fill in the given boxes.

A: Characters — the persons or animals in a story: The fox and the stork. Setting — time and place where the story happens: A jungle; the fox's home and the stork's home. Plot — events that make up a story: The fox pranks the stork by serving food in flat dishes; the stork teaches her a lesson by serving food in a narrow-necked jar. Conflict — problem between characters: The fox ridiculed the stork by serving food he could not eat. Resolution — the point when the problem between characters is resolved: The fox felt ashamed, said sorry, and they became friends again.

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 1. Reading Comprehension (iii) Fill in the blanl

Q: The stork could not eat _____.

✓ the meal

lunch

vegetables

fruits

Q: The fox was very _____.

innocent

✓ cunning

beautiful

ugly

Q: The fox served the meal in _____ dishes.

narrow

deep

✓ flat

round

Q: The fox and stork became _____.

enemy

✓ friends

cousins

sisters

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 2. Analytical Reading

Q: Read any fable and find out its moral. Write the moral in your notebook. (Sample)

A: The Hare and the Tortoise — moral: Slow and steady wins the race. (Sample)

C) Language Focus — 1. Vocabulary Building (i) Words with their meanings (as giv

Q: clever / tease / beak / degrade / prank

A: clever — sharp-witted, intelligent. tease — make fun of. beak — projecting part of a bird's face. degrade — to make people feel that they have no value. prank — to play a trick.

C) Language Focus — 1. Vocabulary Building (ii) Parts of Speech

Q: Read the story and fill in the columns with parts of speech: verb, noun, adjective, pronoun, adverb, preposition, conjunction, articles, interjection. (Sample)

A: From the story: verb: decided, invited, served. noun: fox, stork, jungle, meal. adjective: clever, hungry, narrow. pronoun: she, he, him, her. adverb: cunningly, easily, calmly, happily. preposition: in, to, from. conjunction: and, but. articles: a, the. interjection: Wow. In English, we have nine parts of speech: noun, pronoun, verb, etc. They are also called word classes.

C) Language Focus — 1. Vocabulary Building (iii) Alphabetical Order

Q: Read the given alphabetical order of words in a dictionary. How are words arranged in a dictionary?

A: In a dictionary, words are arranged in alphabetical order. Example: beak (beak) /bi:k/ noun — projecting part of a bird's face; beam (beam) /bi:m/ noun — a ray of light; bean (bean) /bi:n/ noun — pod containing edible seeds. The entry shows syllables, pronunciation, part of speech and meaning.

C) Language Focus — 1. Vocabulary Building (iv) Alphabetical Order

Q: Arrange the given words in alphabetical order in your notebook: pluck, degrade, favourite, ashamed, greediness, jar, cunning, narrow, place, meal.

A: ashamed, cunning, degrade, favourite, greediness, jar, meal, narrow, place, pluck. A dictionary is a reference book which helps to find the meanings of words. It has all words arranged in alphabetical order.

C) Language Focus — 2. Learning to Spell

Q: Fill in the missing letters. Also learn their spelling: cu__ning, sto__k, s_rang_r, fr__end, fo__d.

A: cunning, stork, stranger, friend, food.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Pronouns as Subject, Object and Possessive ca

Q: Read the given sentences and notice the use of pronouns as subject, object and for possessive cases. What are the three cases of pronouns?

A: Subject pronouns are used as subject of the verb. Object pronouns are used as object of the verb. Possessive pronouns show possession or ownership. Subject: I am ten years old. You look tired today. Rehan is angry, and he wants Salman to apologise. This table is old. It needs repairing. We are not coming. They do not like these cakes. Object: Give this book to me. Ali wants to talk to you. Junaid is hurt because Hamza hit him. Rida received a letter from her last week. Maryam cannot find it. Don't be angry with us. Possessive: This bag is mine. This bag is yours. That dress looks like his. These shoes are not hers. That house is ours. This isn't our car. It's theirs.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Pronouns as Subject, Object and Possessive ca

Q: Write two subject, object and possessive pronouns each with their sentences in your notebook. (Sample)

A: Subject: I am a student. They play cricket. Object: Give the book to me. She called him.

Possessive: This pen is mine. That house is theirs.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Tenses (iii)

Q: Read the given sentences. What are simple present, present continuous and simple past tenses?

A: The simple present tense is used for actions that take place in the present time. We use the present form of the verb to make the simple present tense. Examples: The fox eats grapes. The fox does not eat grapes. Does the fox eat grapes? The present continuous tense is used to express an ongoing action at the time of speaking. Examples: Villagers are eating. Villagers are not eating. Are villagers eating? The simple past tense is used for actions that took place in the past time. We add 'd' or 'ed' to the present form to convert it to the past form. Examples: The stork went to the fox's place. The stork did not go to the fox's place. Did the stork go to the fox's place?

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Tenses (iv)

Q: Make two sentences of your own using each tense given above and write them in your notebook. (Sample)

A: Simple present: Birds fly in the sky. She reads a book. Present continuous: I am writing my homework. They are playing football. Simple past: He visited his uncle yesterday. We watched a match last night.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Joining Words (v)

Q: Read the given sentences and notice the use of joining words. What are joining words?

A: Some words are used to connect words, phrases, and sentences. These words are called joining words. Examples: I have two goldfish and a cat. Rida speaks French although she has never been to France. Would you prefer coffee or tea? I got wet because I didn't take an umbrella. He was so hungry that he ate all the cake.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Joining Words (vi)

Q: Use the given joining words in your own sentences: and, although, or, because, so that. (Sample)

A: and: I like apples and mangoes. although: He came to school although he was ill. or: Do you want tea or milk? because: I stayed home because it rained. so that: He worked hard so that he could pass.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Question Words (vii)

Q: Choose the correct words from the given word bank: Which, what, Where, why.

A: Question words are used to ask questions. Why are you late today? Where do you live? What is behind the door? Which is your bag?

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Question Words (viii)

Q: Write two questions by using the above mentioned question words in your notebook. (Sample)

A: Why are you sad? Where is your school?

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Apostrophe (ix)

Q: Read the given words with their contractions. What is an apostrophe used for?

A: We use the apostrophe (') to mark the omitted letters in contractions. When we combine two words, we omit some letters. Table: do not — don't; could not — couldn't; they are — they're; I am — I'm.

D) Writing — 1. Learning to Write (i) Mind map for a fable

Q: Think of a fable of your own. Fill in the following mind map to organise your ideas: Character, Setting, Plot, Conflict, Resolution. (Sample)

A: Character: a little ant and a dove. Setting: a river bank. Plot: the ant falls into the river; the dove drops a leaf to save it. Conflict: the ant is drowning. Resolution: the ant climbs on the leaf and is saved; later the ant saves the dove from a hunter. Moral: kindness is repaid with kindness.

D) Writing — 1. Learning to Write (ii) Own fable

Q: Now write your own fable using the ideas above. (Sample)

A: Once, a little ant fell into a river while drinking water. A dove sitting on a tree saw the ant drowning. She quickly dropped a leaf into the water. The ant climbed on the leaf and floated safely to the bank. A few days later, a hunter aimed at the dove. The ant bit the hunter's foot, and the dove flew away safely. Moral: kindness is repaid with kindness.

D) Writing — 2. Creative Writing

Q: Write a story about how two friends revive their friendship after a quarrel. (Sample)

A: Ali and Ahmed were best friends. One day they quarrelled over a ball during a game. Both felt sad and did not talk to each other. The next day, Ali went to Ahmed and said sorry first. Ahmed forgave him at once. They played together again and promised never to fight over small things. Their friendship became even stronger.

Unit 12: Time to Think! (book pp. 116-126)

Getting Started — Let's Talk

Q: Getting Started: Look at the chart about classroom rules and tell about some rules of your own.

A: The classroom rules in the chart are: Raise your hand. Listen attentively. Be friendly. Help clean up. My own rules are: Do your homework on time. Respect your classmates. Keep the classroom clean. Speak politely.

Q: Which classroom rule is the most important? Why? (Sample)

A: Listening attentively is the most important classroom rule, because we learn only when we listen carefully to the teacher.

Q: Does every class need to follow rules? Why?

A: Yes, every class needs to follow rules, because rules keep the class peaceful and help everyone learn.

Q: Do we need rules at other places too? Why?

A: Yes, we need rules at other places too, because rules at home, on roads and in parks keep everyone safe and happy.

Pre-reading — Time to Think!

Q: Read the title and guess what the text is about.

A: The text is about traffic rules and road safety — thinking before acting on the road.

Q: Tell the colours and the purposes of the traffic lights.

A: The traffic lights are: Red — stop; Yellow (Amber) — get ready or wait; Green — go.

While-reading

Q: Do you think cyclists should also follow traffic rules?

A: Yes, cyclists should also follow traffic rules, because they also use the road and can meet accidents if they do not follow the rules.

Lesson — Text

Q: Read the lesson text 'Time to Think!' (Ahsan and his father).

A: "Good afternoon, Dad! I have something important to show you," Ahsan said while taking off his school bag. "Good afternoon, my son! I would love to see what you have," his father replied. Ahsan took out a brochure from his bag and showed it to his father. "Today, my teacher gave me this brochure on traffic rules. It has very interesting information about road safety," he said. His father read the brochure and said, "That's really nice. Everyone should follow traffic rules. These rules make us safe while travelling." "Yes, you are right. But everyone doesn't follow the rules. There is always a traffic jam in front of my school," said Ahsan. "Strange! Is there no traffic police there?" his father asked. "I don't think so. I have never seen anyone there," explained Ahsan. "That's not good. We should inform the traffic police about this issue. As a good citizen, it is our moral duty to help the police by informing them about traffic issues. Come, let's write a letter. I will help you to write it," said his father.

Lesson — The brochure on traffic rules

Q: Read the brochure pictures and list the road safety rules.

A: When travelling in cars: Fasten your seatbelt. Always sit quietly in the back seat. Always get out on the kerb side of the car. When walking to and from school: Avoid crossing between parked cars. Follow traffic signals. Obey traffic police. Cross only at zebra crossing. Always walk and never run. Look to your left and right before crossing the road. Watch for turning vehicles. When cycling to school: Wear a helmet. Use zebra crossing while crossing the road. Obey the traffic rules.

Lesson — Ahsan's letter

Q: Read the letter that Ahsan wrote to the head of traffic police (full text). What are the parts of a letter?

A: Ahsan, House No. 123, Sector A, Islamabad. (Writer's address) Inspector General, Traffic Police Headquarters, Islamabad. (Receiver's address) 22 February 2018 (Date). Respected

Sir, (Salutation) Body: I am writing this letter to inform you about the traffic jam issue in front of Little Primary School. Nobody follows the traffic rules because there is no traffic police on this road. I often get late for school due to this traffic jam. I also observe many people violating safety rules on the road. They risk their lives and create problems for others as well. I request you to solve this issue to help the citizens of this area. Yours sincerely, Ahsan (Signature). The parts of a letter are: Writer's address, Receiver's address, Date, Salutation, Body, Signature (Closing).

Post-reading

Q: How do traffic rules help us?

A: Traffic rules make us safe while travelling. They prevent accidents and traffic jams, and they help everyone reach their destination safely.

Q: Have you ever experienced a traffic jam? Did you try to find a solution? Share your experience in a few lines. (Sample)

A: Yes, once I was stuck in a traffic jam in front of my school. My father informed the traffic police, and they came and cleared the road. Then we reached school safely. (Sample)

A) Oral Communication — 1. Learning the Sounds: Weak Forms (i)

Q: Pronounce the weak forms of 'and', 'of', 'or' and 'but' in the given sentences. What are weak forms?

A: Weak forms are syllable sounds that become unstressed in speech, for example 'of', 'and', 'or', 'but'. Sentences: We need some sugar and tea leaves. The food is tasty but the quality is not good. Is this for us or for them? That's part of the problem.

A) Oral Communication — 1. Learning the Sounds: Weak Forms (ii)

Q: Say sentences of your own using the above weak forms. (Sample)

A: I like tea and coffee. This book is for you. Do you want apples or oranges? The bag is full but heavy.

A) Oral Communication — 2. Learning to Speak

Q: Read and practise the given dialogue (Saad and Usman).

A: Saad: Assalamu Alaikum, Usman. Where are you going? Usman: Wa Alaikum Assalaam. Actually, my grandfather is not feeling well. I'm going to get medicine for him. Saad: Oh, sad to know. Don't worry. He'll get well soon. Usman: Thank you. Where are you going? Saad: My brother needs watercolours for his painting. I'm going to buy them. Usman: Ok. Take care!

Q: Read and practise the given dialogue (Sara and Amna).

A: Sara: You look so happy. What happened? Amna: I am going on a study trip with my school. Sara: That's great! Amna: But my best friend is not going with me. Sara: Why? Amna: Because she didn't get permission from her parents. Sara: Oh, I hope you enjoy your trip. Amna: Thank you!

Q: Read the dialogues given above and express your needs, joy, sadness and anger. (Sample)

A: Need: I need watercolours for my painting. Joy: I am going on a study trip! Sadness: My best friend is not going with me. Anger: I am angry because my brother broke my toy.

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 1. Reading Comprehension (i) Answer these qu

Q: What was the brochure about?

A: The brochure was about traffic rules and road safety.

Q: To whom did Ahsan write the letter and why?

A: Ahsan wrote the letter to the Inspector General, Traffic Police Headquarters, Islamabad, to inform him about the traffic jam in front of Little Primary School and to request him to solve this issue.

Q: Write a few sentences about traffic position in your city. (Sample)

A: In my city, traffic is heavy in the morning and evening. There are traffic jams near schools and markets. The traffic police manage the traffic at main crossings. (Sample)

Q: Read the Read Me box. How can keywords, verbs and tenses help us? What is an interpretive question?

A: Keywords, verbs and tenses used in a question can help us a lot to identify the question type. An interpretive question has more than one answer that can be explained with the help of examples from the text.

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 1. Reading Comprehension (ii) Prepositions

Q: Look at the picture and read the sentences. Notice the use of prepositions.

A: The family is standing in front of the camp. Clouds are above the mountains. Ali is sitting between his mother and father. The trees are behind the tent. The boys are standing next to the camp.

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 1. Reading Comprehension (iii) Position words

Q: Look at the picture. Use the given position words to describe the picture and write them in your notebook: in, on, between, under, in front of, behind, right, left. (Sample)

A: The sofa is on the left side of the room. The lamp is on the left of the sofa. The table is in front of the sofa. The radio is on the table. The books are on the table. The television is on the right side of the room. The bicycle is under the table. The flower pot is between the window and the cupboard.

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 1. Reading Comprehension (iv) Picture descrip

Q: Describe the pictures in sentences of your own in your notebook. (Sample)

A: First, the girl waters the small plant with a watering can. Then, the plant grows big and beautiful with white flowers. The girl is happy to see her plant grow.

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 1. Reading Comprehension (v) Fill in the blank

Q: Ahsan took out a/an _____ from his bag.

English book

✓ brochure

poetry book

storybook

Q: The brochure was about _____ rules.

special scientific religious

✓ traffic

Q: The traffic rules make us safe while _____.

✓ travelling playing reading

hiking

Q: Ahsan wrote a/an _____ to the head of the traffic police.

invitation

essay

application

✓ letter

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 2. Analytical Reading

Q: Use the internet or magazines and write about how you can become a good citizen. (Sample)

A: I can become a good citizen by following rules, respecting others, keeping my surroundings clean, helping the police by informing them about problems, and taking care of public property. (Sample)

C) Language Focus — 1. Vocabulary Building (i) Words with their meanings (as giv

Q: citizen / headquarters / traffic police / walker

A: citizen — a person living permanently in a particular society or country. headquarters — main offices. traffic police — a police official who controls traffic. walker — a person who walks, especially for exercise or enjoyment.

C) Language Focus — 1. Vocabulary Building (ii) Spellings

Q: Read and spell the given words.

A: travelling, brochure, strange, traffic, citizen, enquired, inform, vehicles.

C) Language Focus — 1. Vocabulary Building (iv) Spelling Change in Plural Form:

Q: Read the given regular plurals. What are the rules for regular plurals?

A: We add -s to most singular nouns to make plural nouns. Some words require -es at the end (words ending in -s, -x, -ch, -sh; some ending in -o). Words ending in -y which follow a consonant are converted by replacing -y with -i and adding -es. Irregular nouns do not follow any particular rule. Regular plurals: Adding 's': car/cars, house/houses. Adding 'es': bus/buses, match/matches. Adding 'ies': story/stories, party/parties.

C) Language Focus — 1. Vocabulary Building (v) Irregular plurals

Q: Read the given irregular plurals.

A: goose/geese, wolf/wolves, man/men, mouse/mice, ox/oxen, tooth/teeth.

C) Language Focus — 1. Vocabulary Building (vi) Plurals

Q: Change the given nouns into plurals and write them in your notebook: child, book, calf, foot, city.

A: child — children; book — books; calf — calves; foot — feet; city — cities.

C) Language Focus — 2. Learning to Spell

Q: Fill in the missing letters to complete the words: citi__en, inf__rm, stran__e, en__uire, __raffic.

A: citizen, inform, strange, enquire, traffic.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Pointing Words (i)

Q: Read the given sentences and notice the use of pointing words. What are pointing words?

A: This, that, these and those are used with nouns to refer to people or things. We use 'this' and 'these' for people or things close to us. We use 'that' and 'those' for people or things away from us. Examples: This is my favourite breakfast. That dress is beautiful. I like these vases. Those apples are very juicy.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Pointing Words (ii)

Q: Make sentences using each pointing word. (Sample)

A: This is my book. That house is far away. I like these flowers. Those birds are flying high.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Past Continuous Tense (iii)

Q: Read the given sentence structures for the past continuous tense. What is the past continuous tense?

A: The past continuous tense is used to express an ongoing action in the past time. Structures: Affirmative: Subject + was/were + base form of verb + -ing + object. Negative: Subject + was/were + not + base form of verb + -ing + object. Interrogative: Was/Were + subject + base form of verb + -ing + object? Examples: Sahar and Sofia were playing. He was not writing a letter. We were getting late for the flight. They were running a race. Was Salma going to Karachi?

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Past Continuous Tense (iv)

Q: Make two affirmative, negative and interrogative sentences each using the past continuous tense. (Sample)

A: Affirmative: I was reading a book. They were playing cricket. Negative: She was not sleeping. We were not watching television. Interrogative: Were you going to school? Was he driving a car?

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Connectors (v)

Q: Read the given paragraph and notice the use of connectors. What are connectors?

A: Connectors are used to show the order in which things happen. 'First', 'secondly' and 'then' are some connectors. Paragraph: Yesterday, I had a great time with my friends. Firstly, I met them in a park. Secondly, I bought a beautiful scarf for my sister then I went out to have dinner with my family. Finally, I returned home and completed my speech for the speech competition.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Connectors (vi)

Q: Write a short paragraph using connectors to show the sequence of your daily routine. (Sample)

A: Firstly, I wake up early in the morning. Secondly, I offer my prayers and take breakfast. Then I go to school. Finally, I return home, do my homework and go to bed early.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Hyphens (vii)

Q: Read the following rules of using hyphens with examples.

A: Uses of hyphens: to make compound numbers — The building has twenty-one floors. to join two words — Ahsan is a good-looking boy. between the numbers in a fraction — He ate one-fourth of the bread.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Hyphens (viii)

Q: Hyphenate the given words correctly. Then make sentences of these words: wellknown, thirtytwo, mindblowing, fourminutes. (Sample)

A: well-known: He is a well-known teacher. thirty-two: There are thirty-two students in my class. mind-blowing: The show was mind-blowing. four-minute: Our school is a four-minute walk from my house.

D) Writing — 1. Learning to Write (i) Letter

Q: Write a letter to your friend and share some traffic and safety rules for pedestrians. (Sample)

A: Dear Ali, I hope you are fine. I am writing to share some traffic and safety rules for pedestrians. Always walk on the footpath. Cross the road only at the zebra crossing. Look to your left and right before crossing. Never run on the road. Follow traffic signals and obey the traffic police. Take care. Your friend, Ahmed.

D) Writing — 1. Learning to Write (ii) Expository paragraph

Q: Read the given expository paragraph.

A: My grandfather has given me a computer as a present. I am about to set up my new computer. There are so many different parts! I don't know where to start. The instruction manual can help me. It tells what each part is and how to attach it. I will follow the instructions step by step. First, I will connect the monitor and the (CPU). Next, I will connect the keyboard, mouse and speakers. Then, I will turn on the computer.

D) Writing — 1. Learning to Write (iii) Expository paragraph

Q: Write a short expository paragraph on how to pack your bag for a trip. (Sample)

A: First, make a list of things you need for the trip. Next, put your clothes in the bag. Then, pack your toothbrush, soap and towel. Finally, keep your water bottle and snacks on top and close the bag.

D) Writing — 2. Creative Writing

Q: How do you follow traffic rules in your life. Share your experience briefly. (Sample)

A: I always walk on the footpath and cross the road at the zebra crossing. I look left and right before crossing. I wear a helmet while cycling and obey traffic signals. (Sample)

Unit 13: Little Things (book pp. 127-136)

Getting Started — Let's Talk

Q: Getting Started: Look at the picture and identify the different items used to shelter from rainwater.

A: The different items used to shelter from rainwater in the picture are: umbrellas, raincoats with hoods, and rain boots (gumboots).

Q: What do you wear if you have to go out in the rain? (Sample)

A: If I have to go out in the rain, I wear a raincoat and gumboots and carry an umbrella.

Q: What do you like to eat on a rainy day? (Sample)

A: On a rainy day, I like to eat pakoras and hot soup.

Q: Which game do you like to play while it rains? (Sample)

A: While it rains, I like to play indoor games like ludo and carrom.

Pre-reading — Little Things

Q: Read the title and tell what the poem can be about.

A: The poem can be about small things that seem unimportant but together make big and great things, like drops of water making an ocean.

Q: How little things make a person happy?

A: Little things make a person happy when they are acts of kindness and love — a kind word, a small help, or a smile can make someone's day happy.

While-reading

Q: What do you understand by the word 'little'?

A: By the word 'little', I understand something small in size or amount, but important when many little things join together.

Lesson — Poem

Q: Read the poem 'Little Things' by Julia A. Carney (full text).

A: Little drops of water,

Little grains of sand,

Make the mighty ocean

And the pleasant land.

So the little moments,

Humble though they may be,

Make the mighty ages

Of eternity.

So the little errors

Lead the soul away,

From the paths of virtue

Into sin to stray.

Little deeds of kindness,

Little words of love,

Make our earth an Eden,

Like the heaven above.

— Julia A. Carney

Post-reading

Q: Explain the last stanza of the poem in your own words.

A: The last stanza means that small deeds of kindness and small words of love make our earth like Eden, a paradise, just like the heaven above.

Q: Write five lines on an act of kindness done by you to anyone and its result. (Sample)

A: Once I helped an old man cross the road. He smiled and thanked me warmly. I felt very happy from inside. He prayed for my success. From that day, I always try to help people in need.

A) Oral Communication — 1. Learning the Sounds: Stress, Rhythm and Intonation

Q: Read the given stanza with correct pronunciation. What are stress, rhythm and intonation?

A: Stress is the emphasis placed on syllable in words. Rhythm is the repeated pattern of sounds and movements. Intonation is the rise and fall of the voice while speaking. Stanza: Now another day is breaking. Sleep was sweet and so is waking. Dear Lord, I promised You last night Never again to sulk or fight.

A) Oral Communication — 2. Learning to Speak (i) Signs

Q: Look at the given signs and read what they say: celebration, angry, consoling. What is non-verbal communication?

A: The signs show: celebration (two figures with arms raised in joy), angry (a figure shouting in anger), consoling (one figure putting an arm around another to comfort). Non-verbal communication is when we use different body parts and gestures to communicate our feelings and emotions.

A) Oral Communication — 2. Learning to Speak (ii) Pair activity

Q: Get students into pairs and have one student perform an action or express an emotion and ask the other student to guess the action or emotion by looking at his/her body language.

A: In pairs, one student performs an action or expresses an emotion, and the other student guesses the action or emotion by looking at his/her body language.

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 1. Reading Comprehension (i) Answer these qu

Q: Find and write pairs of rhyming words in the poem.

A: Pairs of rhyming words in the poem: sand — land; away — stray; love — above; breaking — waking; night — fight.

Q: Share any incident from your life in which you showed kindness to anyone. (Sample)

A: Once I shared my lunch with a classmate who had forgotten his lunchbox. He was very happy and thanked me. I felt good for helping him.

Q: What is the message of the poem 'Little Things'?

A: The message of the poem 'Little Things' is that little things are not useless. Small moments, small errors, and small deeds of kindness and love all join to make great results. We should value little things, no matter how little they may be.

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 1. Reading Comprehension (ii) Map directions

Q: Read the given map and write the correct directions using the direction key: post office from the school; hospital from the playground; playground from the hospital; police station from the post office.

A: Direction of the post office from the school: West. Direction of the hospital from the playground: South. Direction of the playground from the hospital: North. Direction of the police station from the post office: East.

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 1. Reading Comprehension (iii) Fill in the blanl

Q: The poem 'Little Things' is written by _____.

Evaleen Stein

Ann Taylor

✓ Julia A. Carney

Elizabeth Bishop

Q: The poem highlights the importance of _____.

big things bad things

good things

✓ little things

Q: Little grains of sand make the pleasant _____.

sea

✓ land

lake

river

Q: An ocean is made up of little drops of _____.

✓ water

juice

milk

rain

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 2. Analytical Reading

Q: Use the internet and read about different rivers in Pakistan. Collect some interesting facts about them and share them with your classmates. (Sample)

A: The Indus is the longest river of Pakistan. The Jhelum, Chenab, Ravi, Beas and Sutlej are its tributaries. The Kabul river joins the Indus near Attock. (Sample facts)

C) Language Focus — 1. Vocabulary Building (i) Words with their meanings (as giv

Q: eternity / pleasant / mighty / stray / virtue

A: eternity — infinite or unending time. pleasant — giving sense of enjoyment. mighty — strong and powerful. stray — to wander. virtue — a good act.

C) Language Focus — 1. Vocabulary Building (ii) Regular Verb Forms

Q: Read the given regular verbs. How are past and past participles of regular verbs formed?

A: Past and past participles of regular verbs are formed by adding '-d' and 'ed'. Regular verbs: allow/allowed/allowed; behave/behaved/behaved; jump/jumped/jumped; talk/talked/talked.

Q: Write the past and the past participles of the given verbs: enjoy, kick, need, punish.

A: enjoy — enjoyed/enjoyed; kick — kicked/kicked; need — needed/needed; punish — punished/punished.

C) Language Focus — 2. Learning to Spell

Q: Circle the correct spelling in each row.

A: mighty (myghty/mighty/mighti); eternity (eternity/aternity/iternity); heaven (heavan/heaaaven/heaven); virtue (virtuee/virtue/vartue); pleasant (pleasant/pleasantt/pleesant).

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Question Words (i)

Q: Fill in the blanks using the correct wh-question words: _____ is your new school? _____ storybook is yours? _____ is your favourite game? _____ are you looking so happy? _____ is absent today?

A: Question words are used to ask questions. Answers: Where is your new school? Which storybook is yours? What is your favourite game? Why are you looking so happy? Who is absent today?

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Question Words (ii)

Q: Read the given sentences and notice the use of some other question words: When, How many, How much.

A: When — it is used to ask about time or any occasion. Example: When will you go to Dubai? How many — it is used to ask about the number of countable nouns. Example: How many people work in his company? How much — it is used to ask about quantity, price of uncountable nouns. Example: How much sugar would you like in your tea?

Q: Write two questions by using each given question word: When, How many, How much. (Sample)

A: When will you come? When is your birthday? How many books do you have? How many students are in your class? How much milk do you drink? How much money do you have?

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Simple Future Tense

Q: Read the sentence structure of the simple future tense. What is the simple future tense?

A: The simple future tense refers to actions and events that will happen in the future time. Structures: Affirmative: Subject + will/shall + base form of verb + object. Negative: Subject + will/shall + not + base form of verb + object. Interrogative: Will/shall + subject + base form of verb + object?

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Simple Future Tense (iv) Sentences

Q: Read the given sentences (simple future tense).

A: They will buy a new car at the end of this month. She will not go to school tomorrow. It will rain tomorrow. Will he plan to start a new business? I will play football with my friends. The student will not appear in the exams this year.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Simple Future Tense (v)

Q: Make five sentences of your own using the simple future tense in your notebook. (Sample)

A: I will visit Murree next month. We shall go to Karachi in summer. She will buy a new dress tomorrow. They will not play cricket today. Will you help me with my homework?

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Kinds of Sentences (vi)

Q: Read the instructions, commands and exclamatory sentences given below.

What are command, instructional and exclamatory sentences?

A: Command sentences are used to give commands. We use a full stop at the end of these sentences. These sentences are also called imperative sentences. Instructional sentences give instructions on how to do things. These sentences end in a full stop. Exclamatory sentences show sudden feelings and emotions. They end with an exclamation mark. Instructions: Fry the onion for 5-7 minutes. Take your medicine before sleeping. Read the given non-verbal cues. Commands: Clean your room. Drink juice. Please sit down. Exclamatory Sentences: What a lovely waterfall! You won a gold medal! What a cold day!

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Kinds of Sentences (vii) Tick the correct type

Q: Tick (✓) the correct options for the given sentences: Do your chores after breakfast (Command/Exclamatory/Instruction); Serve drinks with the meal (Command/Exclamatory/Instruction); Wow, what a lovely dress! (Command/Exclamatory/Instruction).

A: Do your chores after breakfast — Command. Serve drinks with the meal — Instruction. Wow, what a lovely dress! — Exclamatory.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Questions (viii) do/does

Q: Read the given questions and notice the use of 'do' and 'does'. What is the rule for do/does questions?

A: Do and does are also used at the start of a sentence to ask a question. Such questions end with a question mark (?). Questions and answers: Do you play hide and seek? — Yes, I play hide and seek. Do they live in Karachi? — No, they don't. Does she like Italian food? — Yes, she likes it very much. Does he work in a bank? — Yes, he does.

C) Language Focus — 3. Grammar: Questions (ix) do/does

Q: Write four questions of your own using 'do' and 'does' in your notebook. (Sample)

A: Do you like mangoes? Does Ali go to school? Do we have class today? Does she speak

D) Writing — 1. Learning to Write (i) Central idea

Q: Read the central idea of the poem 'Little Things' (as given in the book).

A: The poem 'Little Things' highlights the importance of little things. It teaches us that little things are not useless. Therefore, we should not ignore little things. Everything has its importance, no matter how little it may be.

D) Writing — 1. Learning to Write (ii) Central idea of the third stanza

Q: Now write the central idea of the third stanza in your notebook. (Sample)

A: The third stanza warns that small errors lead the soul away from the paths of virtue into sin — small wrongs, if repeated, can lead us astray.

D) Writing — 2. Creative Writing

Q: List four pairs of rhyming words and use them to write a simple poem about your favourite thing (e.g. toys, books). (Sample)

A: Rhyming words: day/play, ball/hall, book/look, rain/train. Poem 'My Favourite Thing': I have a little red ball, / I play with it in the hall. / It bounces high and it bounces low, / It is my friend wherever I go.

Review - 4 (book pp. 137-138)

A) Oral Communication — 1. Learning the Sounds

Q: Read the given sentences and mark the sentences with rising or falling intonation.

A: Do you brush daily? — rising intonation (yes-no question). Where is your school? — falling intonation (wh-question). We should obey our parents. — falling intonation (statement). Hurrah! We have won the match. — falling intonation (exclamation).

Q: Look at the given signs and write what they say.

A: The signs say: celebration (two figures with arms raised in joy), angry (a figure shouting in anger), consoling (one figure putting an arm around another to comfort).

Q: Hold a discussion on how students will respond to a stranger trying to be friendly with them. Ask them to express their feelings. (Sample)

A: If a stranger tries to be friendly with me, I will step away from him, say 'No!' loudly, leave quickly, and tell my parents or teacher about it. I will not accept anything from a stranger.

B) Reading and Critical Thinking — 1. Reading Comprehension

Q: Why did the fox invite the stork to his house?

A: The fox invited the stork to his house to play a prank on him — he served soup in flat dishes which the stork could not eat with his long beak.

Q: Write any three traffic rules.

A: Three traffic rules are: Cross the road only at the zebra crossing. Follow traffic signals. Wear a helmet while cycling.

Q: Why should we respect others?

A: We should respect others because Allah has made us all equal, and respect makes our society peaceful and happy.

Q: Write two examples for each given part of speech: Noun, Verb, Pronoun, Adjective, Adverb, Preposition, Conjunction.

A: Noun: fox, school. Verb: decided, invited. Pronoun: she, he. Adjective: clever, narrow.

Adverb: cunningly, happily. Preposition: in, to. Conjunction: and, but.

C) Language Focus — 1. Vocabulary Building

Q: Read the given words and write their meanings: harsh, degrade, jogger, stranger, mighty.

A: harsh — rough or unkind. degrade — to make someone feel less important or respected. jogger — a person who jogs for exercise. stranger — a person whom you do not know. mighty — strong and powerful.

Q: Read the given sentences carefully and write their correct tense.

A: The fox is making prank on the stork — Present Continuous. Did the children sleep late? — Past Simple (interrogative). Ahsan takes out the brochure — Present Simple. They will visit your house soon — Future Simple. Ali was talking with his friend — Past Continuous.

Q: Rewrite the given sentences by adding the hyphen correctly: This building has thirty four floors. He has eaten one fourth of this cake. He is a well known artist.

A: This building has thirty-four floors. He has eaten one-fourth of this cake. He is a well-known artist.

Q: Write sentences for each given kind in your notebook: Instruction, Command, Exclamatory sentence. (Sample)

A: Instruction: Fry the onion for 5-7 minutes. Command: Clean your room. Exclamatory sentence: What a lovely waterfall!

Q: Fill in the blanks by using suitable connectors: Sunday was a great day. I spent that day with my friends. _____, we visited the National Museum with my father. _____ we went to the nearby park and played cricket. _____, we ate pizza and fries in the evening.

A: Sunday was a great day. I spent that day with my friends. Firstly, we visited the National Museum with my father. Secondly, we went to the nearby park and played cricket. Finally, we ate pizza and fries in the evening.

Q: Make a mind map about the given topic. Write a story with the help of the mind map in your notebook: A Brave Girl. (Sample)

A: Mind map branches (sample): Who? A brave girl named Sana. Where? In her village near a river. What happened? A small child fell into the river. What did she do? She jumped in and saved the child. Result? Everyone praised her bravery. Story 'A Brave Girl' (sample): Once there was a brave girl named Sana. She lived in a village near a river. One day, a small child fell into the river. Sana did not waste time. She jumped into the river and saved the child. Everyone in the village praised her bravery.