حُسن معاشرت

Question: What is meant by Husn-e-Muashrat (good social conduct)?

Answer: Man is a social creature; therefore he cannot live alone, but is used to living together in his society. Whatever society a person lives in, his relations are established with the people there. To maintain those relations in a good manner is called "Husn-e-Muashrat". Husn-e-Muashrat means that everyone should be given his due, good relations should be kept with one's whole environment and all its members, they should be treated well, elders should be respected and the young should be treated with compassion, and every person should be honoured according to his rank and position.

Question: Write any verse about Husn-e-Muashrat with its translation.

Answer: In the Holy Quran, great emphasis has been laid on Husn-e-Muashrat. Allah Almighty has commanded, along with His worship and servitude, good conduct with parents, relatives, orphans, the poor, near and far neighbours, companions, travellers and one's subordinates. (An-Nisa: 36) Translation (meaning): Worship Allah Almighty and treat parents, relatives, orphans, the poor, near and far neighbours, companions, travellers and one's subordinates well.

Question: Tell any Hadith of the Holy Prophet (PBUH) about Husn-e-Muashrat.

Answer: The Holy Prophet (PBUH) said: "Whoever breaks ties with you, join ties with him; whoever wrongs you, forgive him; and whoever does evil to you, do good to him." He further said: "Greet every person, whether you know him or not."

Question: Describe the conduct of the Holy Prophet (PBUH) regarding Husn-e-Muashrat.

Answer: The Holy Prophet (PBUH) treated his near ones, relatives, friends, neighbours, young and old, all well. He helped them in every way — physically, financially and morally. If someone fell ill, he would go to visit him. When famine struck Makkah, a representative of the people of Makkah came to the Holy Prophet (PBUH) in Madinah and requested help; the Holy Prophet (PBUH) not only arranged gold coins (ashrafis) and grain for him but also prayed for the famine to end. The opposition of the Jews is hidden from no one; even so, the Holy Prophet (PBUH) continued dealings and good conduct with them. If even an opponent came to him, he would meet him with a smiling face and converse with such informality that he would not let him feel any dislike.

Question: Tell any points of the style of conversation of the Noble Prophet (PBUH).

Answer: When the Holy Prophet (PBUH) wanted to impress the importance of something, he would repeat it again and again. According to the occasion, he would adopt sharpness and softness in voice and tone. He would move his hands as needed. To attract people's attention, he would sometimes ask a question and sometimes repeat that question again and again so that people would become fully attentive. He would not make his talk so long that people would get tired. In a short time he would speak briefly but comprehensively. While speaking, he would pronounce words slowly in such a manner that the listeners could easily memorise them. The words were neither fewer nor more than needed. Generally, during conversation, a smile remained on his blessed face.

Question: Tell the meaning of any verse of the Holy Quran about the etiquette of conversation.

Answer: Allah Almighty says in the Holy Quran: قُل لَّهُمْ فِي أَنفُسِهِمْ قَوْلًا بَلِيغًا (An-Nisa: 63). Translation: "And say to them words that reach their hearts." That is, conversation should be such that it reaches the listener's heart and affects his heart.

Question: What guidance do we get from the style of conversation of the Holy Prophet (PBUH)?

Answer: From the Seerah and style of conversation of the Holy Prophet (PBUH) we get the guidance that our character and conduct, as well as our conversation, should also follow the way of the Holy Prophet (PBUH), so that feelings of love and respect for us may awaken in people and they may listen to our talk with attention and interest. If we adopt this wise style of preaching of our Noble Prophet (PBUH), surely our talk/advice will not go in vain.

Question: What is meant by the exemplary style of conversation of the Holy Prophet (PBUH)?

Answer: The Holy Prophet (PBUH) would explain a point with wisdom or by giving an example, to impress its importance and to make it fully remembered. For example: the Holy Prophet (PBUH) said in a gathering of the Companions in the mosque that if a canal flowed in front of someone's house and he bathed in it five times a day, would any dirt remain on his body? The Companions replied: "O Messenger of Allah! No dirt at all would remain on his body." He said: "Exactly the same is the example of the five prayers; Allah Almighty erases sins through them." Once he drew a straight line and, besides it, drew some crooked lines, and explained that the straight line is the straight path of safety, that is, "Sirat-e-Mustaqeem", and these crooked lines are the paths of misguidance.

امر بالمعروف نهي عن المنكر

Question: What is the literal meaning of Amr and Nahi?

Answer: The literal meaning of "Amr" is to command something and the literal meaning of "Nahi" is to forbid something.

Question: What is meant by Amr bil Maroof and Nahi anil Munkar?

Answer: In terminology, every good deed that Allah and His Messenger commanded to be done is "Maroof", and every evil deed that Allah and His Messenger forbade is "Munkar". Therefore, Amr bil Maroof and Nahi anil Munkar means "to command good and to forbid evil".

Question: What other words are used for Amr bil Maroof and Nahi anil Munkar?

Answer: For Amr bil Maroof and Nahi anil Munkar, the words "Dawat" and "Tabligh" are also used.

Question: Also state the principles and rules of Amr bil Maroof and Nahi anil Munkar.

Answer: 1_ Being practical: Islam first binds the caller to religion to himself act on the good to which he invites others; otherwise his call is useless. Allah Almighty says in the Holy Quran: أَتَأْمُرُونَ النَّاسَ بِالْبِرِّ وَتَنسَوْنَ أَنفُسَكُمْ (Al-Baqarah: 44). Translation: "Do you command people to do good and forget yourselves, while you read the Book? Then why do you not understand?" 2_ Beginning from one's own home: Similarly, Islam also wants the one who commands good and forbids evil to begin this work from his own home. In this regard Allah Almighty commanded the Holy Prophet (PBUH): وَأَنذِرْ عَشِيرَتَكَ الْأَقْرَبِينَ (Ash-Shuara: 214). Translation: "And warn your nearest relatives." Allah Almighty commands the believers: يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا قُوا أَنفُسَكُمْ وَأَهْلِيكُمْ نَارًا (At-Tahrim: 6). Translation: "O believers!

Save yourselves and your families from the Fire whose fuel will be people and stones." 3_ Wisdom and good advice (Hikmat and Mauizah Hasanah): Islam also guides for Amr bil Maroof and Nahi anil Munkar that this work should be done with wisdom and prudence, in a good and gentle manner. People should be spoken to according to their understanding, and a method should be adopted with which people are familiar. It is stated in the Holy Quran: ادْعُ إِلَىٰ سَبِيلِ رَبِّكَ بِالْحِكْمَةِ وَالْمَوْعِظَةِ الْحَسَنَةِ (An-Nahl: 125). Translation: "O Prophet! Invite people to the way of your Lord with wisdom and good advice, and argue with them in a good manner." 4_ Amr bil Maroof and Nahi anil Munkar according to one's capacity: Islam has imposed this responsibility according to a person's strength and position. In this regard the Noble Prophet (PBUH) said: "If any one of you sees an evil, he should stop it with his hand; if he cannot stop it with his hand, he should stop it with his tongue; if he cannot do even that, he should consider it bad in his heart — and that is the weakest degree of faith." Stopping evil by hand is the work of the government and rulers. Stopping evil by tongue is the work of the common person, who should stop evil by tongue. It is not his responsibility to try to stop everyone by hand; doing so risks harm instead of benefit.

Question: State the importance of Amr bil Maroof and Nahi anil Munkar.

Answer: The religion that began with Hazrat Adam (AS) was completed through the last Prophet Hazrat Muhammad (PBUH). Now no new Prophet will come until the Day of Judgement. Therefore, after the Holy Prophet (PBUH), it has been collectively made obligatory on the Muslim Ummah to inform one another and all the people of the world about the teachings of religion, to command them to do good and to forbid them from evil. Drawing attention to this duty, Allah Almighty says: وَلْتَكُن مِّنكُمْ أُمَّةٌ يَدْعُونَ إِلَى الْخَيْرِ وَيَأْمُرُونَ بِالْمَعْرُوفِ وَيَنْهَوْنَ عَنِ الْمُنكَرِ (Aal-e-Imran: 104). Translation:

"And there should be among you a group that calls towards good, commands good deeds and forbids evil deeds." In another verse Allah Almighty says: كُنتُمْ خَيْرَ أُمَّةٍ أُخْرِجَتْ لِلنَّاسِ تَأْمُرُونَ بِالْمَعْرُوفِ وَتَنْهَوْنَ عَنِ الْمُنكَرِ (Aal-e-Imran: 110). Translation: "You are the best Ummah raised for the people; you command good deeds and forbid evil deeds."

Question: State the meaning of Halal earning.

Answer: The literal meaning of "Halal" is lawful and correct. Halal earning means "that lawful and correct earning which is earned in a way that Shariah has declared lawful and correct." Allah Almighty commands His servants to earn livelihood by lawful and permissible means and, along with that, to use Halal and pure things, while He forbids earning by unlawful means and using Haram and unlawful things.

Question: Tell the Halal sources of income.

Answer: The sources by which Islam has declared earning livelihood lawful and Halal are these: trading according to Shariah principles, farming, craftsmanship and artistry, hunting Halal animals, employment and labour, etc.

Question: Give details of any three of the Haram sources of income.

Answer: Some of the sources by which Islam has declared earning livelihood unlawful and Haram are these: trading against the principles of Shariah, drugs, the business of interest (usury), gambling, theft, robbery, hunting Haram animals, lottery (parchi ka satta), etc. Similarly, that earning is also counted as Haram which is obtained by deceiving someone, adulterating goods, hoarding, giving bribes, or through oppression and force.

Question: State the meaning of any verse or Hadith about Halal earning.

Answer: The Holy Prophet (PBUH) said: طَلَبُ كَسْبِ الْحَلَالِ فَرِيضَةٌ بَعْدَ الْفَرِيضَةِ. Translation: "Seeking Halal livelihood is an important obligation after the obligatory acts of worship." Allah Almighty says in the Holy Quran: فَإِذَا قُضِيَتِ الصَّلَاةُ فَانْتَشِرُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ وَابْتَغُوا مِنْ فَضْلِ اللَّهِ (Al-Jumuah: 10). Translation:

"Then when the Salah is completed, disperse in the land and seek Allah's bounty (livelihood)."
