Islamiat

Class 9 (English Medium)

Solved Exercises — Sindh Textbook Board

22 lessons — 301 questions

Translation and Explanation of Selected Verses

Question: 1. Write the translation of the following verse: وَلْيَخْشَ الَّذِينَ لَوْ تَرَكُوا مِنْ خَلْفِهِمْ ذُرِّيَّةً ضِعَافًا خَافُوا عَلَيْهِمْ فَلْيَتَّقُوا اللَّهَ وَلْيَقُولُوا قَوْلًا سَدِيدًا

Answer: Translation: And those (who fear Allah Almighty) should fear — those who, if they left weak offspring behind them, would fear for their (ruin) — so they should fear Allah and speak straightforward words.

Question: 1. Write the translation of the following verse: إِنَّ الَّذِينَ يَأْكُلُونَ أَمْوَالَ الْيَتَامَى ظُلْمًا إِنَّمَا يَأْكُلُونَ فِي بُطُونِهِمْ نَارًا وَسَيَصْلَوْنَ سَعِيرًا

Answer: Translation: Indeed, those who consume the wealth of orphans unjustly only consume fire in their bellies, and they will enter a blazing Fire.

Question: 2. In the light of verse 6 of Surah An-Nisa, write the rights of the orphan.

Answer: In the light of verse 6, the following rights of the orphan have been stated: (1) The orphan should be tested, and when he reaches the age of marriage and maturity (rushd) in managing wealth is seen in him, his wealth should be handed over to him. (2) The orphan's wealth should not be wasted in extravagance (israf), nor consumed hastily out of fear that the orphan will grow up. (3) A guardian who is rich should refrain from (consuming) the orphan's wealth, and one who is poor may consume according to custom. (4) When the orphan's wealth is handed over to him, witnesses should be appointed, and Allah Almighty is sufficient as One who takes account.

Question: Write the meanings of the following words — Word: فَلْيَسْتَعْفِفْ

Answer: He should refrain (from it).

Question: Write the meanings of the following words — Word: مَفْرُوضًا

Answer: Made obligatory / fixed as compulsory.

Question: Write the meanings of the following words — Word: فَارْزُقُوهُمْ

Answer: Feed them / give them.

Question: Write the meanings of the following words — Word: ذُرِّيَّةً

Answer: Offspring (ذُرِّيَّةً ضِعَافًا: weak offspring).

Question: Write the meanings of the following words — Word: خَافُوا

Answer: They fear.

Question: Write the meanings of the following words — Word: بُطُونِ

Answer: Bellies.

Question: Write the meanings of the following words — Word: سَعِيرًا

Answer: Blazing Fire.

Question: 1. What is the meaning of buloogh (puberty/maturity) and rushd (sound judgment)? Write.

Answer: Buloogh means reaching the age of marriage. Rushd means possessing sound judgment in managing wealth and business.

Question: 2. What method has been told in the Holy Quran for handing over wealth to the orphan?

Answer: The Holy Quran states: keep testing the orphans until, when they reach the age of marriage, if you then see any sound judgment in them, hand over their wealth to them; and when you hand over their wealth to them, appoint witnesses over them.

Question: 3. What responsibilities of the guardian/caretaker of the orphan has the Holy Quran stated?

Answer: The Holy Quran has stated these responsibilities of the guardian/caretaker of the orphan: (1) Protect the orphan's wealth and do not commit dishonesty in it. (2) Do not hand over wealth to an immature and minor orphan; instead arrange for his basic needs (food, clothing, education and upbringing). (3) Test the orphan, and when he becomes adult and sound in judgment, hand over his wealth to him in the presence of witnesses. (4) A rich guardian should refrain from the orphan's wealth, and a poor guardian may consume only according to custom.

Question: 4. What punishment has been stated for those who commit dishonesty in the orphan's wealth?

Answer: Those who consume the orphan's wealth unjustly only consume fire in their bellies and will enter a blazing Fire. In hadith too, consuming the orphan's wealth has been counted among the major sins. (Sahih Bukhari, Kitab-ul-Muharibeen, Hadith: 6857)

Question: 1. Write the translation of any two of the following verses: يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا لَا تَأْكُلُوا أَمْوَالَكُمْ بَيْنَكُمْ بِالْبَاطِلِ إِلَّا أَنْ تَكُونَ تِجَارَةً عَنْ تَرَاضٍ مِنْكُمْ وَلَا تَقْتُلُوا أَنْفُسَكُمْ إِنَّ اللَّهَ كَانَ بِكُمْ رَحِيمًا

Answer: Translation: O believers! Do not consume one another's wealth unjustly among yourselves, except when (the transaction) is trade with your mutual consent (then there is no harm); and do not kill yourselves. Indeed, Allah Almighty is Merciful to you.

Question: 1. Write the translation of the following verse: وَاعْبُدُوا اللَّهَ وَلَا تُشْرِكُوا بِهِ شَيْئًا وَبِالْوَالِدَيْنِ إِحْسَانًا وَبِذِي الْقُرْبَى وَالْيَتَامَى وَالْمَسَاكِينِ وَالْجَارِ ذِي الْقُرْبَى وَالْجَارِ الْجُنُبِ وَالصَّاحِبِ بِالْجَنْبِ وَابْنِ السَّبِيلِ وَمَا مَلَكَتْ أَيْمَانُكُمْ إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يُحِبُّ مَنْ كَانَ مُخْتَالًا فَخُورًا

Answer: Translation: And worship Allah alone, and do not associate anyone with Him; and do good to parents, relatives, orphans, the needy, the neighbouring relative, the distant neighbour, the companion by your side, the traveller, and those under your authority. Indeed, Allah does not love the arrogant and boastful (nor those who are miserly).

Question: 1. Write the translation of the following verse: مِنْ أَجْلِ ذَلِكَ كَتَبْنَا عَلَى بَنِي إِسْرَائِيلَ أَنَّهُ مَنْ قَتَلَ نَفْسًا بِغَيْرِ نَفْسٍ أَوْ فَسَادٍ فِي الْأَرْضِ فَكَأَنَّمَا قَتَلَ النَّاسَ جَمِيعًا وَمَنْ أَحْيَاهَا فَكَأَنَّمَا أَحْيَا النَّاسَ جَمِيعًا وَلَقَدْ جَاءَتْهُمْ رُسُلُنَا بِالْبَيِّنَاتِ ثُمَّ إِنَّ كَثِيرًا مِنْهُمْ بَعْدَ ذَلِكَ

فِي الْأَرْضِ لَمُسْرِفُونَ

Answer: Translation: For this reason We prescribed for the Children of Israel that whoever kills a person without (retribution for) a life or (punishment for) corruption in the land, it is as if he killed all mankind; and whoever saves a life, it is as if he saved all mankind. And indeed Our Messengers came to them with clear signs, yet many of them even after that are transgressors in the land.

Question: 2. Why has the unjust killing of one human being been declared the killing of all humanity?

Answer: This verse states the sanctity of human life and the importance of protecting it. The value of human honour can be judged from unjust killing. It is said for this reason: a person becomes a killer when he breaks the bonds of human blood relations, the feeling of sympathy with humanity leaves his heart, and only his own interest remains before him, as a result of which he kills others. Therefore the unjust killing of one innocent human being is as if all humanity has been killed.

Question: 3. What punishments have been fixed in the Holy Quran for those who disturb general peace and security?

Answer: For those who wage war against Allah and His Messenger and strive to spread corruption in the land, four kinds of punishments have been fixed: (1) they should be killed, (2) or crucified, (3) or their hands on one side and feet on the other side should be cut off, (4) or they should be exiled from the land. That is disgrace for them in this world, and for them in the Hereafter is a great punishment. But those who repent before you overpower them, then know that Allah Almighty is Forgiving, Most Merciful.

Question: Write the meanings of the following words — Word: لَا تَأْكُلُوا

Answer: Do not consume.

Question: Write the meanings of the following words — Word: مُخْتَالًا

Answer: Arrogant (one who walks proudly).

Question: Write the meanings of the following words — Word: مُسْرِفُونَ

Answer: Those who exceed limits.

Question: Write the meanings of the following words — Word: خِزْيٌ

Answer: Disgrace.

Question: Write the meanings of the following words — Word: تَقْدِرُوا

Answer: You overpower them / you gain control over them.

Question: 1. Write the translation of any two of the following verses: هُوَ الَّذِي أَرْسَلَ رَسُولَهُ بِالْهُدَى وَدِينِ الْحَقِّ لِيُظْهِرَهُ عَلَى الدِّينِ كُلِّهِ وَلَوْ كَرِهَ الْمُشْرِكُونَ

Answer: Translation: He (Allah Almighty) is the One who sent His Messenger with guidance and the true religion, so that He may make it prevail over all religions, even though the polytheists dislike it.

Question: 1. Write the translation of the following verse: أُذِنَ لِلَّذِينَ يُقَاتَلُونَ بِأَنَّهُمْ ظُلِمُوا وَإِنَّ اللَّهَ عَلَى نَصْرِهِمْ لَقَدِيرٌ

Answer: Translation: Permission (to fight) has been given to those against whom the disbelievers wage war, because they have been wronged; and indeed Allah is Able to help them.

Question: 1. Write the translation of the following verse: الَّذِينَ إِنْ مَكَّنَّاهُمْ فِي الْأَرْضِ أَقَامُوا الصَّلَاةَ وَآتَوُا الزَّكَاةَ وَأَمَرُوا بِالْمَعْرُوفِ وَنَهَوْا عَنِ الْمُنْكَرِ وَلِلَّهِ عَاقِبَةُ الْأُمُورِ

Answer: Translation: Those who, if We give them power in the land, establish Salah, give Zakat, enjoin good and forbid evil; and with Allah is the end of all matters.

Question: 2. In the light of verse 41 of Surah Al-Hajj, write the purpose and qualities of an Islamic state.

Answer: This verse mentions the virtue of the believers, the prophecy of their rule, the responsibility of the Islamic state, and the qualities of the helpers of the religion. The purpose and qualities of an Islamic state are: if the believers get government, they remain firm in faith, righteous deeds, worship, avoiding shirk, striving for the dominance of the religion, and steadfastness in fear and danger. They establish Salah and also observe Zakat. They use all their authority to spread goodness and remove evil. The purpose of establishing Salah is that man's connection with Allah Almighty becomes strong and purity of soul is attained. Zakat relates to the economy of society; therefore the state should create economic resources and make proper arrangements for the needs of the people.

Question: 3. In the light of verse 24 of Surah At-Tawbah, a true believer should love Allah Almighty and His Messenger (Prophet Muhammad, the Messenger of Allah, the Seal of the Prophets, peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) more than anything else — explain.

Answer: This verse states that believing in Allah Almighty, loving Allah Almighty and Prophet Muhammad, the Messenger of Allah, the Seal of the Prophets (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions), and striving (jihad) in the way of Allah Almighty come before everything in the world. Faith is the greatest wealth of the world; through it man not only gains benefit in this world but also keeps preparing for the Hereafter. The standard of love of a true believer should be that his fathers, sons, friends, wives, relatives, earned wealth, trade and places of residence — all of these — should not be more beloved to him than Allah and His Holy Messenger, and the love of relatives should not stop him from walking on the path of truth. If a person does not love Allah and His Holy Messenger above all, then he cannot escape the displeasure of Allah Almighty.

Question: 4. What will be the duties of Muslim rulers after gaining power? Explain.

Answer: After gaining power, the duties of Muslim rulers are: (1) Establish Salah — Salah is an important pillar of the religion and an act of worship; its purpose is that man's connection with Allah Almighty becomes strong and purity of soul is attained. (2) Pay Zakat — Zakat relates to the economy of society; therefore the state should create economic resources and make proper arrangements for the needs of the people. (3) Enjoin good and forbid evil — use all their authority to spread goodness and remove evil. (4) Provide peace and security to the subjects, and arrange for their education, health and economy. After the migration to Madinah Munawwarah, the first Islamic state came into being, for which the first constitution and charter was made under the name of the Charter of Madinah (Mithaq-e-Madinah), and the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) was made its head and responsible for making peace among the subjects.

Question: Write the meaning of the following words — Word: اِقْتَرَفْتُمْ

Answer: You earned.

Question: Write the meaning of the following words — Word: كَرِهَ

Answer: They dislike.

Question: Write the meaning of the following words — Word: صَوَامِعُ

Answer: Monasteries (hermitages).

Question: Write the meaning of the following words — Word: بِيَعٌ

Answer: Churches.

Question: Write the meaning of the following words — Word: مَكَّنَّا

Answer: We gave a place / We established.

Question: 1. What should be the standard of love for Allah and Prophet Muhammad, the Messenger of Allah, the Seal of the Prophets (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions)?

Answer: The standard of love should be that love for Allah Almighty and Prophet Muhammad, the Messenger of Allah, the Seal of the Prophets (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) should be greater than and before everything in the world — fathers, sons, friends, wives, relatives, earned wealth, trade and places of residence. The love of relatives should not stop a person from walking on the path of truth. If a person does not love Allah and His Holy Messenger above all, then he cannot escape the displeasure of Allah Almighty.

Question: 2. What wisdom of permission to fight (izn-e-qital) has been stated in the Holy Quran?

Answer: The wisdom of permission to fight (izn-e-qital) stated in the Holy Quran is: to redress the oppressed, to punish the corrupt and the promise-breakers, to bring peace and security in the world, to strive for the exaltation of the word of Allah Almighty, to protect people's lives, wealth, honour and dignity, religion and the sanctity of places of worship from the evil of corrupt people, and to defend the places of worship of the heavenly religions (monasteries, churches, places of worship and mosques).

Question: 3. What was the condition of the Muslims in the Makkan period?

Answer: The thirteen years in Makkah Mukarramah, from the announcement of Prophethood until the migration to Madinah, were extremely trying years of patience, trial and hardship for the Muslims and for the Holy Prophet himself (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions). There, instead of reacting to hardships and difficulties, patience was commanded, and every kind of retaliatory action was forbidden.

Question: 4. What is meant by Amr bil-Ma'roof wa Nahi anil-Munkar?

Answer: Ma'roof means such good and virtuous deeds which everyone calls good, and Munkar means evil deeds. That is, to enjoin good deeds and to forbid evil deeds.

Question: 5. Write a few forms in which help comes from Allah Almighty.

Answer: In the light of the lesson, the forms of Allah Almighty's help are: (1) Allah is Able to help the oppressed Muslims, and He has promised to help the Muslims. (2) Against the cruel enemies of Islam, Allah Almighty will defend the believers. (3) Those who help the religion of Allah, Allah will surely help them. Indeed, Allah is Powerful, Mighty.

1. Bay'ah is a place of worship of:

(a) the Hindus

✓ (b) the Christians

(c) the Sikhs

(d) the Jews

2. The reason for the migration of the Muslims from Makkah Mukarramah to Madinah Munawwarah was:

(a) unemployment

(b) famine

(c) severe hot weather

✓ (d) the oppression of the disbelievers

3. The Muslims were given permission for jihad:

✓ (a) in a state of compulsion

(b) in a state of happiness

(c) in a state of distress

(d) in a state of anger

4. The reason for the oppression of the disbelievers against the Muslims was:

(a) national enmity

(b) family enmity

(c) political enmity

✓ (d) religious enmity

5. The responsibility of enforcing Iqamat-e-Salah, Ita-e-Zakat and Amr bil-Ma'roof wa Nahi anil-Munkar lies with:

(a) the scholars

✓ (b) the rulers

(c) the mujahideen

(d) the teachers

Question: Write the translation of the following verse: وَآتُوا الْيَتَامَى أَمْوَالَهُمْ وَلَا تَتَبَدَّلُوا الْخَبِيثَ بِالطَّيِّبِ وَلَا تَأْكُلُوا أَمْوَالَهُمْ إِلَى أَمْوَالِكُمْ إِنَّهُ كَانَ حُوبًا كَبِيرًا

Answer: Translation: And hand over to the orphans the wealth that is under your care, and do not exchange their pure and fine wealth for your defective and bad wealth, nor consume their wealth by mixing it with your own wealth, for that is a very great sin.

Question: Write the translation of the following verse: وَآتُوا النِّسَاءَ صَدُقَاتِهِنَّ نِحْلَةً فَإِنْ طِبْنَ لَكُمْ عَنْ شَيْءٍ مِنْهُ نَفْسًا فَكُلُوهُ هَنِيئًا مَرِيئًا

Answer: Translation: And give women their dower (mahr) happily. Yes, if they willingly give up a part of it for you, then consume it with pleasure and delight.

Question: In the light of the verse لَيْسَ الْبِرَّ, write the points of Al-Birr.

Answer: Al-Birr means goodness, and it means doing good and pleasing deeds. In this verse, the following points of Al-Birr have been stated: (1) Beliefs: belief in Allah Almighty, the Day of Judgment, the angels, the Book of Allah Almighty and the Prophets. (2) Dealings: giving wealth, despite love for it, to relatives, orphans, the needy, travellers, and freeing slaves. (3) Acts of worship: establishing Salah and giving Zakat. (4) Morals: fulfilling a promise when made. (5) Patience: remaining steadfast at times of hardship, suffering and war. These very people are true believers, and they are those who fear Allah Almighty.

Question: Write the meanings of the following words — Word: الْيَتَامَى

Answer: Orphans.

Question: Write the meanings of the following words — Word: بَثًّ

Answer: Spread / scattered.

Question: Write the meanings of the following words — Word: حُوبًا

Answer: Sin.

Question: Write the meanings of the following words — Word: نِحْلَةً

Answer: Happily (as a gift).

Question: Write the meanings of the following words — Word: السُّفَهَاءَ

Answer: The foolish / those without understanding.

Question: In the verse لَيْسَ الْبِرَّ, state the occasions of patience.

Answer: In this verse, three occasions of patience have been stated: (1) the time of hardship, (2) the time of suffering and calamity, (3) the time of war. On these occasions one should remain steadfast.

Question: What is the meaning of Silah Rahmi? Write.

Answer: Silah Rahmi means maintaining relations with relatives and loving them and treating them well. Al-Arham is the plural of Rahm, which means blood and close relations; maintaining relations with them is called Silah Rahmi. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) said: Silah Rahmi is not that when someone joins with you, you join with him; rather Silah Rahmi is that even if someone breaks with you, you still keep the close relationship joined with him.

Question: What instructions have been given to guardians regarding the orphan's wealth?

Answer: The following instructions have been given to guardians regarding the orphan's wealth: (1) Hand over to the orphan the wealth that is under your care. (2) Do not exchange their pure and fine wealth for your defective and bad wealth, and do not consume their wealth by mixing it with your own wealth — that is a very great sin. (3) Do not hand over wealth to an immature and minor orphan; instead, from his wealth, arrange for his needs (food, clothing, education and upbringing) and speak good words to him.

وَالْمُوفُونَ بِعَهْدِهِمْ إِذَا عَاهَدُوا relates to:

(c) financial worship

(d) acts of worship

By يَا أَيُّهَا النَّاسُ, addressed are:

(a) the angels

✓ (b) human beings

(c) animals

(d) the jinn

The meaning of اَلْبِرُّ حُسْنُ الْخُلُقِ is:

(a) goodness is the name of generosity

(b) goodness is the name of forbearance

✓ (c) goodness is the name of good character

(d) goodness is the name of sacrifice

At the time of handing over property, to be appointed is:

(a) a lawyer

✓ (b) a witness

(c) a deputy

(d) a ruler

At the time of handing over wealth to the orphan, to be tested are:

✓ (a) puberty and sound judgment

(b) health and sickness

(c) knowledge and wisdom

(d) patience and endurance

The caretaker is permitted to take wealth from the orphan's wealth

according to need when he is:

✓ (a) a poor caretaker

(b) a rich caretaker

(c) a debtor caretaker

(d) a caretaker

With orphans and the needy, one should speak:

(a) harshly

✓ (b) gently

(c) angrily

(d) with misbehaviour

The Holy Quran has stated the abode of those who consume the orphan's wealth unjustly to be:

(a) Paradise

✓ (b) Hell

(c) Barzakh

(d) the grave

Those who consume the orphan's wealth unjustly fill their bellies with:

(a) dust

✓ (b) fire

(c) water

(d) air

Question: Why is the protection of the orphan's wealth necessary?

Answer: Because the orphan's wealth is the means of their livelihood and upbringing (Allah Almighty made it the cause of their sustenance); being minor and immature, orphans cannot protect it themselves; even a little negligence can harm both the wealth and its owner; and dishonesty in it is a very great sin.

Question: Write the meaning of "Do not kill yourselves."

Answer: It means that in Islam, unjust killing is forbidden — neither kill any other human being unjustly, nor kill yourself (suicide). Three things of every human being are of the greatest importance: his life, wealth and honour; Islam guarantees these three things to its followers. Indeed, Allah Almighty is Merciful to you.

Question: What are the unlawful ways of acquiring wealth?

Answer: Consuming wealth by unjust and unlawful means is forbidden. Such things as are themselves forbidden, for example: pork, wine, intoxicants, etc. — their trade and use is already unlawful and forbidden. And such things as are themselves lawful and permissible, but in whose buying and use some unlawful method is used, also become forbidden, for example: theft, robbery, deception, usurping rights, bribery, fraud, etc.

An unlawful way of earning is:

(a) agriculture

(b) industry

(c) trade

✓ (d) bribery

By Huqooq-ul-Ibad is meant:

(a) the rights of Allah

✓ (b) the rights of human beings

(c) the rights of animals

(d) the rights of trees

By Ibn-e-Sabeel is meant:

(a) a beggar

(b) a needy person

✓ (c) a traveller

(d) a neighbour

Killing an innocent person is equal to killing:

(a) the whole universe

✓ (b) the whole of humanity

(c) all animals

(d) the whole family

Introduction to Hadith and Sunnah and Their Effects on Practical Life

Question: (A) Write detailed answers to the following questions: 1. Write an essay on Hadith and Sunnah.

Answer: Hadith: The literal meaning of the word "Hadith" is news, talk and a new thing. In technical terms, the saying (talk), action (deed) and approval (tacit confirmation) of our Master, Prophet Muhammad, the Messenger of Allah, the Seal of the Prophets (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) is called Hadith. In the same way, Hadith is also called "Khabar" and "Sunnah". The people who narrated these hadiths from the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) down to us are called "Rawi" (narrator), the chain of narrators is called "Sanad-e-Hadith", and the text of the hadith is called "Matn". Sunnah: The literal meaning of "Sunnah" is "way" and "path". In technical terms, the way adopted in the life of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) is called "Sunnah", and it also includes an act which the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) performed repeatedly. Sunnah has been described in the Holy Quran by the name "Uswah Hasanah". Difference between Hadith and Sunnah: There is only a slight difference, that is, Hadith is generally used for sayings, and Sunnah for actions and practice.

Question: 2. Write a note on the kinds of Hadith.

Answer: There are four kinds of Hadith: (1) Hadith Qawli (2) Hadith Fi'li (3)

Hadith Taqriri (4) Hadith Qudsi. Hadith Qawli: Hadith Qawli means that hadith in which a saying or command of Prophet Muhammad, the Messenger of Allah, the Seal of the Prophets (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) is stated, as the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) said with his blessed tongue. For example, قَالَ النَّبِيُّ (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions): أَفْشُوا السَّلَامَ — Translation: Spread salaam. (Sunan Tirmidhi, Hadith: 1854). Hadith Fi'li: Hadith Fi'li means that hadith in which an act and way of Prophet Muhammad, the Messenger of Allah, the Seal of the Prophets (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) is stated, that the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) did thus. For example, Hazrat Anas (RA) states: The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) drank goat's milk with yoghurt, then rinsed with water. (Sunan Ibn Majah, Hadith: 99). Hadith Taqriri: Hadith Taqriri means that hadith in which a Companion performed some act in the presence of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions), of which the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) had knowledge, but he neither stopped him from that act nor praised him for it; rather he remained silent, or the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) gave permission for that act or expressed his approval. For example, Hazrat Anas (RA) states that he had a little brother "Abu Umair" who had kept a nightingale (bulbul) and used to play with it. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) often used to come to our house, but he never forbade keeping that nightingale. (Sahih Bukhari: 6129, Sahih Muslim: 2150).

Hadith Qudsi: Hadith Qudsi means that hadith whose meaning and purport is from Allah Almighty and whose words are those of our Master, Prophet Muhammad, the Messenger of Allah, the Seal of the Prophets (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions). For example: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللهِ (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions): قَالَ اللهُ: أَنْفِقْ يَا ابْنَ آدَمَ أُنْفِقْ عَلَيْكَ — Translation: The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) said: Allah said: O son of Adam! Keep spending (on My servants) and I will spend on you. (Sahih Bukhari: 5352).

Question: 3. Write a note on the effects that Sunnah produces on our lives.

Answer: Man strives to fulfil his needs and tasks, but if in those tasks the Sunnah of the Prophet is observed, those tasks are counted as deeds and worship. For example: eating and drinking is our need, but if, with the intention of Sunnah, sitting with dignity at the tablecloth (dastarkhwan) and eating together is arranged, that eating too is worship. Observing the Sunnah of the Prophet provides for the improvement of human health and the environment, because the Sunnah of the Prophet teaches purity and cleanliness in the use of lawful and pleasing things, which closes the door to all diseases. Following the Sunnah of the Prophet ends differences and creates unity and agreement. When all people get a common and general code for living a practical life, the tendency to disunity among them weakens. Following the Sunnah of the Prophet blocks the paths of false and satanic ways. The atmosphere of truth and goodness gets life, which closes the door to all social and moral evils. In many matters, science too has supported the Sunnah, although the Sunnah has no need of the support of science.

Question: (B) Write short answers to the following questions: 1. What is meant by Sunnah? Write in the light of the Holy Quran.

Answer: In technical terms, the way adopted in the life of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) is called "Sunnah", and it also includes an act which the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) performed repeatedly. Sunnah has been described in the Holy Quran by the name "Uswah Hasanah". In the light of the Holy Quran, the saying of Allah Almighty is: (Surah Al-Ahzab: 21) — Translation: In the person of the Prophet there is an excellent model for you.

Question: 2. Write the literal and technical meanings of Hadith.

Answer: The literal meaning of Hadith is: news, talk and a new thing. In technical terms: the saying (talk), action (deed) and approval (tacit confirmation) of our Master, Prophet Muhammad, the Messenger of Allah, the Seal of the Prophets (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) is called Hadith.

Question: 3. Write the literal and technical meanings of Sunnah.

Answer: The literal meaning of Sunnah is "way" and "path". In technical terms, the way adopted in the life of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) is called "Sunnah", and it also includes an act which the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) performed repeatedly.

Question: 4. Of which language is "Uswah Hasanah" a word, and what is its literal meaning?

Answer: "Uswah Hasanah" is a word of the Holy Quran, and its meaning is "the best model". (Surah Al-Ahzab: 21 — Translation: In the person of the Prophet there is an excellent model for you.) Sunnah has been described in the Holy Quran by the name "Uswah Hasanah".

Question: 5. What is called the Matn of a Hadith?

Answer: The text of a hadith is called "Matn".

Question: 6. What is called the Sanad of a Hadith?

Answer: The people who narrated these hadiths from the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) down to us are called "Rawi" (narrators), and the chain of narrators is called "Sanad-e-Hadith".

Question: 7. What is meant by "Rawi"? Explain.

Answer: "Rawi" means that person who narrated the hadiths from the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) down to us. That is, each one of the people who transmitted the hadith is called a "Rawi".

Question: 8. Explain the hadith: "Whoever revived my Sunnah, he will get the reward of a hundred martyrs."

Answer: The meaning of this hadith is that the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) said: Whoever, at the time of corruption of my Ummah, firmly held on to any one of my Sunnahs, for him is the reward of a hundred (100) martyrs. That is, the person who acts upon the Sunnah and revives it in an age of inaction and corruption gets reward equal to a hundred martyrs. (Hilyat-ul-Auliya by Al-Isbahani, Vol. 8, p. 200)

(C) Mark () on the correct answers to the following questions: 1. The literal meaning of Sunnah is:

(a) conversation

(b) law

(c) customs

✓ (d) way

2. If the message is from Allah Almighty and the words are those of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions), it is called Hadith:

(a) Taqriri

(b) Fi'li

(c) Qawli

✓ (d) Qudsi

3. The word that expresses the meaning of Hadith is:

✓ (a) Sunnah

(b) intellect

(c) Qiyas

(d) Ijma

Translation and Explanation of Selected Ahadith

Question: (A) Write detailed answers to the following questions: 1. Write the translation of the following ahadith: • خَيْرُكُمْ مَنْ تَعَلَّمَ الْقُرْآنَ وَعَلَّمَهُ • أَوْلَى النَّاسِ بِي يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ أَكْثَرُهُمْ عَلَيَّ صَلَاةً

Answer: • خَيْرُكُمْ مَنْ تَعَلَّمَ الْقُرْآنَ وَعَلَّمَهُ (Sahih Al-Bukhari, Hadith: 5027) — Translation: The best among you is the one who learns the Holy Quran and teaches it to others. • أَوْلَى النَّاسِ بِي يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ أَكْثَرُهُمْ عَلَيَّ صَلَاةً (Sunan Tirmidhi, Hadith: 484) — Translation: On the Day of Judgment, the closest person to me among the people will be the one who sends the most Durood (blessings) upon me.

Question: 2. Explain: لَا يُؤْمِنُ أَحَدُكُمْ حَتَّى أَكُونَ أَحَبَّ إِلَيْهِ مِنْ وَالِدِهِ وَوَلَدِهِ وَالنَّاسِ أَجْمَعِينَ

Answer: Translation: The faith of none of you is complete until I am more beloved and dear to him than his father, his children and all people.

Explanation: In this blessed hadith, love for the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) has been described as the sign of faith. Loving the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) includes all kinds of love, such as the love of mother, father and dear ones, or those loves which are due to natural or psychological causes. That is, one should keep voluntary love for the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions), until a person sacrifices even his own desire, his own will, his wealth, children and his life for the commands of Allah Almighty and the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions); until then he is not a person of perfect faith. (Sahih Al-Bukhari, Hadith: 15)

Question: (B) Write short answers to the following questions: 1. What is meant by Zikrullah? Write.

Answer: "Zikrullah", in its broad meaning, includes Salah, recitation of the Quran, dua and istighfar — all of them; but generally, in technical terms, describing the glorification and sanctification of Allah Almighty, His Oneness and purity, His greatness and grandeur, and His perfect attributes is called "Zikrullah".

Question: 2. State the four principles of completion of faith.

Answer: In this blessed hadith, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) stated four such principles for the believer which are the means of completion of faith: (1) loving for the sake of Allah, (2) hating for the sake of Allah, (3) giving for the sake of Allah, (4) withholding for the sake of Allah. Whoever acted in this way, indeed his faith has become complete. (Sunan Abi Dawood, Hadith: 4681)

Question: 3. Why has La ilaha illallah been called the best Zikr?

Answer: Among all azkar (forms of remembrance), La ilaha illallah has been called the best Zikr because this Kalima is the collection of all perfect attributes, supreme in greatness and grandeur. It is the most effective in purifying the inner self and turning the heart away from every side and joining it with Allah Almighty; and because by reciting it with certainty and truthfulness, man enters Islam and becomes deserving of entering Paradise.

Question: 4. What is meant by Dua?

Answer: "Dua" is the expression of humility by a weak person when asking from one superior or higher than himself. Dua means supplicating in the court of Allah Almighty while believing Him to be All-Powerful, and presenting a request; dua is a means of attaining one's objective.

(D) Mark () on the correct answers to the following questions: 1. In the hadith, the best Zikr has been called:

(a) Hamd

✓ (b) Zikr

(c) Dua

(d) Salah

2. Supplicating in the court of Allah Almighty is called:

(a) Hamd

(b) Zikr

✓ (c) Dua

(d) Salah

3. The cause of peace of heart (satisfaction of heart) is:

(a) gratitude

(b) patience

✓ (c) Zikr

(d) generosity

Question: (A) Write detailed answers to the following questions: 1. Write the translation and explanation of any one of the following ahadith: • طَلَبُ الْعِلْمِ فَرِيضَةٌ عَلَى كُلِّ مُسْلِمٍ • اَلصَّلَاةُ عِمَادُ الدِّينِ

Answer: • طَلَبُ الْعِلْمِ فَرِيضَةٌ عَلَى كُلِّ مُسْلِمٍ (Sunan Ibn Majah, Hadith: 224) — Translation: Seeking knowledge is obligatory upon every Muslim.

Explanation: In this hadith, the importance and virtue of knowledge has been stated, through which the nearness of one's Creator and Master can be attained and every good and evil thing can be recognized, so that we can perform righteous deeds and avoid sins. Therefore we should try to seek knowledge, so that through it we may attain beneficial things, avoid harmful things, and attain success in both worlds. • اَلصَّلَاةُ عِمَادُ الدِّينِ (Ad-Durar Al-Muntashirah fi Al-Ahadith by As-Suyuti, 280) — Translation:

Salah is the pillar of the religion. Explanation: In this blessed hadith, the virtue and importance of Salah has been stated. Performing Salah five times a day is obligatory upon every sane, adult Muslim man or woman. Through Salah, the servant's connection and contact with Allah Almighty is established. Through Salah alone, the nearness of Allah Almighty, His mercy and pleasure are attained. Therefore we should perform the five daily Salahs with great care and humility, so that our connection and contact with Allah Almighty becomes strong and we may attain His nearness and mercy.

Question: 2. Write the explanation of: كُلُّكُمْ رَاعٍ وَكُلُّكُمْ مَسْئُولٌ عَنْ رَعِيَّتِهِ

Answer: Translation: All of you are guardians, and you will be questioned about your (subjects under your care). Explanation: In this hadith, every person has been declared a guardian. A guardian is every person who has been made responsible for some matters socially or in worldly terms, and the people living under him are called his subjects (ra'iyyat). Among the essential duties of a guardian is also that he is responsible for their training and reform — that is, he teaches each one of them manners and keeps them in good condition. In this hadith it has also been stated that on the Day of Judgment, every person will indeed give account of his deeds, but if someone had a post, position or responsibility in the world, he will also be questioned about his subordinates. (Sahih Al-Bukhari, Hadith: 892)

Question: 3. In the light of the hadith Ribat yawm wa laylah, state the virtue and importance of protecting the borders of the homeland.

Answer: Hadith: رِبَاطُ يَوْمٍ وَلَيْلَةٍ خَيْرٌ مِنْ صِيَامِ شَهْرٍ وَقِيَامِهِ (Sahih Muslim, Hadith: 1913) — Translation: Spending one day or one night in jihad is better than fasting for a month and (performing) voluntary worship. Explanation: In this blessed hadith, the virtue and importance of protecting the borders of the Islamic state has been stated: that standing guard and protecting and watching over the borders of the country is also counted as jihad. In the same way, this hadith states that if a guard — that is, an Islamic mujahid — defends the borders for one day or one night, he gets the reward of a whole month's fasts and the night Tahajjud. Therefore we should be full of the spirit of jihad for the exaltation of the word of Allah, and of protecting the homeland and the borders of the homeland, so that no one can look at Islam, the country and the homeland with an evil eye, and the honour of the religion also remains established — and in this lies success in both worlds.

Question: (B) Write short answers to the following questions: 1. What are the two statuses of knowledge? Write.

Answer: The two statuses of knowledge are: 1. Fard-e-Ain: Every person, whether man or woman, must learn that much knowledge through which he understands the necessary matters of belief, lawful and unlawful, pure and impure, permissible and impermissible, and his responsibilities. 2. Fard-e-Kifayah: Acquiring the complete knowledge of the religion, and acquiring worldly sciences and arts, is Fard-e-Kifayah.

Question: 2. On what things is the foundation of Islam based?

Answer: The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) said: "The foundation of Islam is based on five things: 1. Testimony of Tawheed and Risalah, 2. Establishing Salah, 3. Paying Zakat, 4. Keeping fasts, 5. Performing Hajj of Baitullah (agreed upon)."

Question: 3. Write any one hadith about the virtue of fasting.

Answer: Hadith: مَنْ صَامَ رَمَضَانَ إِيمَانًا وَاحْتِسَابًا غُفِرَ لَهُ مَا تَقَدَّمَ مِنْ ذَنْبِهِ (Sahih Al-Bukhari, Hadith: 38) — Translation: Whoever kept the fasts of Ramadan with faith and with the intention of reward (because of it, all his previous sins will be forgiven).

Question: 4. On which people is fasting obligatory? State.

Answer: In the blessed month of Ramadan, fasting is obligatory upon every sane, adult, resident and healthy person.

(C) Mark () on the correct answers to the following questions: 1. "Acquiring the complete knowledge of the religion" is:

(a) Fard-e-Ain

✓ (b) Fard-e-Kifayah

(c) Sunnah

(d) Mustahab

2. In the hadith, "the pillar of the religion" has been called:

(a) fasting

(b) Zakat

(c) Hajj

✓ (d) Salah

3. In the hadith, a "shield" from the fire of Hell has been declared:

(a) Salah

(b) Zakat

✓ (c) fasting

(d) Hajj

Question: (A) Write detailed answers to the following questions: 1. Write the translation and explanation of any two of the following ahadith: • أَكْمَلُ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ إِيمَانًا أَحْسَنُهُمْ خُلُقًا • خَيْرُ النَّاسِ أَنْفَعُهُمْ لِلنَّاسِ • اَلْيَدُ الْعُلْيَا خَيْرٌ مِنَ الْيَدِ السُّفْلَى

Answer: • أَكْمَلُ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ إِيمَانًا أَحْسَنُهُمْ خُلُقًا (Sunan Abi Dawood, Hadith: 4682) — Translation: Among you, those with perfect faith are the people whose morals are better than others. Explanation: In this hadith, the virtue and importance of good morals has been stated. "Good morals" has been described as a condition of perfect faith. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) said:

"Among you, the most beloved to me is the one who has good morals." (Musnad Ahmad, Hadith: 6735) • خَيْرُ النَّاسِ أَنْفَعُهُمْ لِلنَّاسِ (Al-Jami' Al-Kabeer by As-Suyuti, Hadith: 1176) — Translation: The good person is the one who benefits people the most. Explanation: In this hadith it has been stated that "being beneficial to people" is necessary for a person to be better. The best person is the one who is beneficial to other people (whether Muslim or non-Muslim). • اَلْيَدُ الْعُلْيَا خَيْرٌ مِنَ الْيَدِ السُّفْلَى (Sunan Abi Dawood, Hadith: 1645) — Translation: The upper hand is better than the lower hand. Explanation: In the blessed hadith, by "الْيَدُ الْعُلْيَا" is meant the giving hand, and by "الْيَدُ السُّفْلَى" is meant the taking hand. The upper hand, which provides the needy with the things they need and is generous, is better than the lower hand, and its status is very great.

Question: 2. Write a detailed note on the harms of "bribery".

Answer: Bribery means every such amount or compensation through which the right of a deserving person is taken away, or something is taken in exchange for some injustice. For example: unlawful gifts, etc. Taking and giving bribes is among the major sins. When the practice of bribery becomes common in a nation, justice, fairness and civility end there, and the unlawful demands of cruel officials become obstacles in the way of people getting their lawful rights; or in acquiring earnings, the right of a deserving person is taken away, and it becomes difficult for people to get their rights and concessions by lawful means. For this reason, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) cursed those who take and give bribes. (Sunan Nasa'i: 2631)

Question: (B) Write short answers to the following questions: 1. What is meant by Husn-e-Akhlaq (good morals)? Write.

Answer: In living life, in observing the principles and rules of the religion, treating others well instead of causing them pain, behaving gently, and carrying out one's responsibilities happily while helping them financially, is called "Husn-e-Akhlaq".

Question: 2. What are the signs of a good person?

Answer: The sign of being the best person is: "The best person is the one who is beneficial to other people (whether Muslim or non-Muslim)." That is, one who benefits others, does not cause them pain, and arranges for their food, drink and other facilities.

Question: 3. What is called bribery? Write.

Answer: Bribery means every such amount or compensation through which the right of a deserving person is taken away, or something is taken in exchange for some injustice. For example: unlawful gifts, etc., is bribery.

(C) Mark () on the correct answers to the following questions: 1. In the hadith, "more beloved among people", which means:

(a) Afdal-un-Nas

(b) Akram-un-Nas

(c) Khair-un-Nas

✓ (d) Ahabb-un-Nas

2. In the hadith, declared deserving of curse is:

(a) the backbiter

(b) the slanderer

(c) the one who makes false accusations

✓ (d) the one who takes bribes

3. In the hadith, the "upper hand" was called better, because it is:

✓ (a) the giving hand

(b) the taking hand

(c) the begging hand

(d) the miserly hand

Question: (A) Write detailed answers to the following questions: 1. Write the translation and explanation of any one of the following ahadith: • مَنْ حَجَّ لِلّٰهِ فَلَمْ يَرْفُثْ وَلَمْ يَفْسُقْ رَجَعَ كَيَوْمِ وَلَدَتْهُ أُمُّهُ • إِنَّ اللهَ لَا يَنْظُرُ إِلَى أَجْسَامِكُمْ وَلَا إِلَى صُوَرِكُمْ وَلَكِنْ يَنْظُرُ إِلَى قُلُوبِكُمْ

Answer: • مَنْ حَجَّ لِلّٰهِ فَلَمْ يَرْفُثْ وَلَمْ يَفْسُقْ رَجَعَ كَيَوْمِ وَلَدَتْهُ أُمُّهُ (Sahih Al-Bukhari: 1521) — Translation: Whoever performed Hajj for Allah Almighty, and then neither spoke obscenely nor abused, nor committed any sin, he returned from Hajj like the day he was born from his mother's womb. Explanation: In this hadith, the virtue and importance of Hajj has been stated. Hajj is the last and completing pillar among the pillars of Islam, which is obligatory once upon every sane, adult, healthy and capable person. Whoever shows patience during Hajj and stays away from every kind of vain and obscene talk, foul language, every kind of disobedience and sins, he becomes as clean and pure from sins as he was sinless on the day of birth. • إِنَّ اللهَ لَا يَنْظُرُ إِلَى أَجْسَامِكُمْ وَلَا إِلَى صُوَرِكُمْ وَلَكِنْ يَنْظُرُ إِلَى قُلُوبِكُمْ (Sahih Muslim, Hadith: 2564) — Translation: Indeed, Allah Almighty does not look at your bodies and faces, but looks at your hearts. Explanation: In this hadith, the importance of sincerity (ikhlas) has been stated. A person's outward and inward should be one. Its meaning is that whatever good deed is done, it should be done only to attain the pleasure of Allah Almighty; in it there should be no worldly motive, show-off, desire for fame, or motive of any compensation. If the deed is one of sincerity and piety, it is accepted and approved by Allah Almighty, and its reward is also given.

Question: 2. Write a short essay about the six rights of a Muslim over a Muslim.

Answer: Hadith: لِلْمُسْلِمِ عَلَى الْمُسْلِمِ سِتٌّ بِالْمَعْرُوفِ (Sunan Tirmidhi, Hadith: 2637) — In this hadith, the exhortation to fulfil the six special rights that a Muslim has over another Muslim under the Islamic relationship in daily practical life has been stated: (1) When he meets a Muslim, he should greet him with salaam, (2) and when he invites him, he should accept it, (3) when he sneezes, he should say Yarhamukallah (May Allah have mercy on you), (4) and when he is sick, he should visit him, (5) and when he dies, he should join his funeral, (6) and whatever he likes for himself, he should like for the other too. This creates a shared bond between two Muslims, and strengthens it. The saying of Allah Almighty is — Translation: Believers are brothers among themselves. (Surah Al-Hujurat: 10)

Question: (B) Write short answers to the following questions: 1. Write a note on the importance of knowledge.

Answer: In this hadith, the importance and virtue of knowledge has been stated. Through knowledge, the nearness of one's Creator and Master can be attained, and every good and evil thing can be recognized, so that we can perform righteous deeds and avoid sins. Therefore we should try to seek knowledge, so that through it we may attain beneficial things, avoid harmful things, and attain success in both worlds. (Hadith: طَلَبُ الْعِلْمِ فَرِيضَةٌ عَلَى كُلِّ مُسْلِمٍ — Sunan Ibn Majah, Hadith: 224)

Question: 2. What is meant by Ikhlas (sincerity)? Write.

Answer: Ikhlas means that whatever good deed is done, it should be done only to attain the pleasure of Allah Almighty; in it there should be no worldly motive, show-off, desire for fame, or motive of any compensation. A person's outward and inward should be one.

Question: 3. What are the highest and the lowest branches of faith? Write.

Answer: Among the branches of faith, the highest branch is saying La ilaha illallah, because through it alone, the affirmation of Tawheed takes place. The last (lowest) branch is removing a harmful thing from the path. (Hadith: اَلْإِيمَانُ بِضْعٌ وَسَبْعُونَ أَوْ بِضْعٌ وَسِتُّونَ شُعْبَةً... — Sahih Muslim, Hadith: 35)

Question: 4. What is the meaning of Haya (modesty)?

Answer: Haya is such a quality and characteristic of a person which stops a person from immorality, and from many evils and sins. Haya is a (an important) branch of faith.

(C) Mark () on the correct answers to the following questions: 1. At the time of sneezing, the sneezer says:

(a) Alhamdulillah

✓ (b) Yarhamukallah

(c) Barakallah

(d) Jazakallah

2. When someone meets someone, he says:

(a) Allahu Akbar

✓ (b) Assalamu Alaikum

(c) Subhanallah

(d) Mashaallah

3. A deed done for the pleasure of Allah is called:

✓ (a) Ikhlas

(b) show-off

(c) Taqwa

(d) Zuhd

4. In the hadith, for seeking knowledge, going to which country has been encouraged:

(a) Yemen

(b) Syria

(c) Iran

✓ (d) China

Question: (A) Write detailed answers to the following questions: 1. Write the translation and explanation of any one of the following ahadith: • مَنْ دَلَّ عَلَى خَيْرٍ فَلَهُ مِثْلُ أَجْرِ فَاعِلِهِ • إِيَّاكُمْ وَالظَّنَّ فَإِنَّ الظَّنَّ أَكْذَبُ الْحَدِيثِ

Answer: • مَنْ دَلَّ عَلَى خَيْرٍ فَلَهُ مِثْلُ أَجْرِ فَاعِلِهِ (Sahih Muslim, Hadith: 1893) — Translation: Whoever guided a person towards goodness, he too will get the same reward as the one who does the good deed. Explanation: In this hadith, the exhortation and support for doing goodness and kindness, and cooperating with one another for goodness and kindness, has been given. Therefore, through good advice, guidance, and education and training, the helper too will get as much reward as the doer of that deed gets. Therefore we should ourselves also do goodness and kindness, and also encourage others towards goodness. • إِيَّاكُمْ وَالظَّنَّ فَإِنَّ الظَّنَّ أَكْذَبُ الْحَدِيثِ (Sahih Bukhari, Hadith: 6066) — Translation: Beware of suspicion; suspicion is the biggest lie. Explanation: In this hadith, suspicion has been forbidden. Saying something about someone by guesswork, without investigation and certain knowledge of a thing, is called "Zann" or suspicion. If goodness is intended in it, that is "Husn-e-Zann" (good opinion), which is a pleasing quality.

Question: Write a note on Zann (suspicion/conjecture).

Answer: Saying something about someone by guesswork, without investigation and certain knowledge of a thing, is called "Zann" or suspicion. If goodness is intended in it, that is "Husn-e-Zann" (good opinion), which is a pleasing quality, and it has been encouraged. Especially, keeping "Husn-e-Zann" with Allah Almighty is worship. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) said: "Husn-e-Zann" is good worship. (Musnad Ahmad, Hadith: 7956) And if an evil opinion is held about someone, it is termed "bad suspicion" (badgumani) — that is, doubting someone's intention and not keeping a good thought about him in one's heart without reason is called bad suspicion. It has been forbidden in the Holy Quran: "O believers! Avoid suspicions, for that is a sinful act." (Surah Al-Hujurat: 12)

Therefore, until the investigation about a person is done, you should not hold suspicion about him, because gradually this suspicion turns into hatred and enmity of hearts, which is a sin.

Question: 3. Explain helping and serving the needy and the afflicted.

Answer: Hadith: مَنْ نَفَّسَ عَنْ مُؤْمِنٍ كُرْبَةً مِنْ كُرَبِ الدُّنْيَا نَفَّسَ اللهُ عَنْهُ كُرْبَةً مِنْ كُرَبِ يَوْمِ الْقِيَامَةِ، مَنْ يَسَّرَ عَلَى مُعْسِرٍ يَسَّرَ اللهُ عَلَيْهِ فِي الدُّنْيَا وَالْآخِرَةِ (Sahih Muslim, Hadith: 2699) — Translation: Whoever removed any of the worldly hardships of a believer, Allah Almighty will save him from hardships on the Day of Judgment; and whoever gave any facility to a person in difficulty, Allah Almighty will create ease for him in this world and the Hereafter.

Explanation: Here two matters of Huqooq-ul-Ibad have been made clear: (1) If a believer is in some hardship, calamity or distress, then helping to remove his hardship in such a situation is also a great act of worship, for which the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) said: "Whoever is engaged in the work of his brother, Allah Almighty makes his works easy." (Muslim: 2699) (2) If a believer is needy, sick, poor and destitute, serving him and helping him financially, and if a debtor has taken a loan from someone, giving him respite in the loan and providing him facility, is also a deed of very great reward. Allah Almighty will create ease for him in this world and the Hereafter.

Question: (B) Write short answers to the following questions: 1. State the kinds of neighbours.

Answer: In the Holy Quran, the command of "good conduct with neighbours" has been given, and three kinds of it have been stated. (Surah An-Nisa: 36) 1. A neighbour who is a relative, 2. One who is only a neighbour, 3. And one who stayed with you temporarily for some time. For example: a classmate, a companion of a meeting, a journey, or some gathering, etc. Therefore, good conduct should be shown to all neighbours.

Question: 2. Explain "Ikram-uz-Zaif" (honouring the guest).

Answer: When a person travels and reaches someone for some purpose, he is called a "guest". Asking him the purpose of his coming in a proper manner, behaving with him respectfully, arranging for his lodging, food and drink, and rest, and honouring him according to his status is "honouring the guest".

Question: 3. What is meant by Silah Rahmi? Write.

Answer: Sharing in the joys and sorrows of one's close dear ones and relatives, helping them in times of need, treating them well, and sympathising with them is called "Silah Rahmi".

(C) Mark () on the correct answers to the following questions: 1. Sharing in the joys and sorrows of one's relatives is called:

(a) Ikram-uz-Zaif

✓ (b) Silah Rahmi

(c) Husn-e-Zann

(d) Huqooq-ul-Ibad

2. Saying something about a thing without investigation is called:

(a) certainty

(b) doubt

✓ (c) Zann

(d) thought

3. In the hadith, the benefit of Silah Rahmi has been stated to be:

(a) becoming healthy

(b) becoming famous

✓ (c) abundance of sustenance

(d) becoming honourable

Belief in Tauheed (Oneness of Allah)

Question: Explain the belief in Tawheed.

Answer: The literal meaning of the word "Tawheed" is "to consider One and to believe as One". In the terminology of religion, the belief of Tawheed means: The Creator, Master and Controller of everything in this universe is Allah Almighty alone; He has always existed and will always remain; He alone is the true object of worship. He created every thing of this universe in balance and its system with complete calculation; He has knowledge of every particle of the universe; His sight is over the whole universe; He hears all, provides sustenance to all, and guides them. There is none like Him or equal to Him; He alone is the Master of the benefit and harm of creation; there is none besides Him; He alone will give everlasting life again after death. He is only One; He has no partner. Believing this belief with firm conviction of the heart, and expressing and confessing it with the tongue when needed and at the right time, is called the belief of Tawheed.

Question: Write a detailed note on the requirements of Tawheed.

Answer: The basic requirements of Tawheed, upon which it is necessary to believe and act, are: (1) The Being of Allah Almighty is without example. Nothing in the universe is like Allah Almighty. The command of Allah Almighty is: "There is nothing like Him" (Surah Ash-Shura, verse: 11). So Allah Almighty should be believed as an unparalleled Being. (2) Only Allah Almighty is the One for whose pleasure man should strive. (3) All deeds that come under worship should be reserved for Allah Almighty alone. (4) All emotions and feelings should be reserved for Allah Almighty alone, in which the spirit of worship is found: Hamd, Shukr, hope, Tawakkul, fear, Taqwa, true love, devotion, humility and submission, etc. (5) The true Supreme Ruler of this whole universe should be believed to be Allah Almighty alone. The true Lawgiver is also He alone. Making laws for the life of creation, forgiving them or punishing them is His right alone. (6) Life should be spent in this world according to the guidance and command sent by Allah Almighty. (7) Faith should be brought in Allah Almighty along with all His attributes.

Question: What is the meaning of Iman (faith)?

Answer: By Aqeedah are meant those thoughts and ideas in which man holds firm belief, which affect man's character and behaviour; the meaning of Iman is also this same firm belief.

Question: What is called Ibadat (worship)?

Answer: Reserving all those deeds for Allah Almighty which come under worship is called Ibadat; for example: worshipping none besides Him, vows and offerings also being for Him, asking duas from Him, seeking refuge from Him, and calling upon Him alone for unseen help.

Question: Write a note on the effects of the belief in Tawheed.

Answer: The belief in Tawheed has these effects on human life: Believing in the names and attributes of the Being of Allah Almighty creates love and reverence for Allah Almighty in the servant's heart, as a result of which he becomes obedient to the commands of Allah Almighty; Tawheed grants man the highest station of freedom and liberty; it creates qualities like piety, self-respect and self-honour in man; it creates humility and humbleness in man; man looks at the whole creation with love and affection with a broad outlook, because it is the creation of Allah Almighty; it creates in man the power of steadfastness, courage, contentment, needfulness, determination, courage, patience and Tawakkul; because of complete trust in the mercy of Allah Almighty, he never becomes disappointed and hopeless; and it creates in man the concept of the unity and equality of mankind.

Question: The Being of Allah Almighty is eternal (Azali) and everlasting (Abadi) — explain.

Answer: The Being of Allah Almighty is eternal and everlasting: هُوَ الْأَوَّلُ وَالْآخِرُ (Surah Al-Hadid, verse: 3). Its meaning is: when there was nothing, He still existed; and in the end too, there will be nothing, but He will exist. He has always existed and will always remain. No one created Him.

Question: What is the meaning of Tawheed?

Answer: The literal meaning of the word "Tawheed" is "to consider One and to believe as One", and in the terminology of religion its meaning is that the Creator, Master and Controller of everything in this universe is Allah Almighty alone; He is only One, He has no partner.

The literal meaning of the word Tawheed is:

✓ (a) believing as One

(b) keeping belief

(c) keeping discipline

(d) guiding and leading

A Muslim should first of all:

✓ (a) correct his belief

(b) offer Salah

(c) become a person of good morals

(d) perform Hajj

The basis of man's welfare and salvation is:

(a) patience and gratitude

(b) sincerity and piety

✓ (c) faith and good deeds

(d) tolerance and forbearance

Belief in Risalat (Prophethood)

Question: Write the literal and technical meanings and concept of Risalah and Nubuwwat.

Answer: Literal meaning: "Nubuwwat" is derived from the word "Naba", which means news. And the one who gives news is called "Nabi", whose plural is Anbiya. "Risalah" means conveying the message, and the one who conveys the message is called "Rasool", whose plural is "Rusul". Technical meaning: In the terminology of religion, "Nubuwwat and Risalah" is a high spiritual office, for which Allah Almighty chooses special servants from among His servants, through which human beings attain the knowledge of Allah (Ma'rifat-e-Ilahi). That is, Nubuwwat and Risalah is such an office which works to establish a connection between Allah Almighty and His servants. Through it, Allah Almighty conveys His commands and guidance to His servants; through it, He guides, reforms and trains human beings. The person who holds this office is called a Nabi or Rasool. Even before receiving Risalah, the status of a Rasool in his nation is high and exalted. He is innocent, pure, soft-spoken, of good nature, truthful and trustworthy.

Question: Write a detailed essay on the belief in Risalah.

Answer: The belief in Risalah is the second important and basic belief of Islam. Nubuwwat and Risalah is a high spiritual office, for which Allah Almighty chooses His special servants. The person who holds this office is called a Nabi or Rasool. Believing in the Nabi and Rasool is obligatory; in the Holy Quran, the saying of Allah Almighty is: كُلٌّ آمَنَ بِاللَّهِ وَمَلَائِكَتِهِ وَكُتُبِهِ وَرُسُلِهِ لَا نُفَرِّقُ بَيْنَ أَحَدٍ مِنْ رُسُلِهِ (Surah Al-Baqarah: 285). Translation: All believe in Allah, His angels, His books and His Prophets, and say: we make no distinction between any of His Prophets. The reasons for the need of Nubuwwat and Risalah are: the purpose of man's creation and life has been stated as "the servitude and obedience of Allah Almighty", and that is the thing on which man's success and salvation in this world and the Hereafter depends; man naturally wants that for practical life, there should be before him some example or model, seeing which he may live his life accordingly, and in this respect the lives of the Prophets are the best example or an excellent model of conduct for human beings; Allah Almighty sends down a book upon the Prophets for the guidance of His servants; according to Islamic belief, this world is the place of action, and the Hereafter is the place of accountability and questioning; just as Allah Almighty has arranged to fulfil man's physical needs, in the same way He arranged Nubuwwat and Risalah to fulfil spiritual needs. Our four basic relationships with the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) are: Iman, obedience, following, and love. The chain of Nubuwwat was completed with the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions), and the belief in the Finality of Prophethood (Khatm-e-Nubuwwat) is an essential part of faith.

Question: Write a detailed note on obedience (Ita'at) and following (Ittiba) of the Messenger (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions).

Answer: Ita'at (obedience): It is derived from the word "Taw'", which means the inclination of the heart and obeying or accepting a command. In obedience, one has to submit oneself completely to someone; it cannot be that some commands are obeyed and some are not. The attitude of accepting firm obedience with the attachment of the heart is called "Ita'at". Ittiba (following): Following every step and every manner of the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) with true love of the heart, complete inclination of nature, and deep attachment is called "Ittiba" — that is, when heartfelt love is joined with complete obedience, it is called Ittiba. Obedience to the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) is that in all matters of life, whatever commands he gave, or guidance he gave, or whatever act he performed, it should be obeyed and acted upon. The real reason for commanding obedience to our Master, the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions), is that Allah Almighty wants His own obedience, and the only means of Allah Almighty's obedience is the Messenger, because Allah Almighty does not speak directly to His servants; rather He speaks only through His Messenger, and the Messenger informs the servants of the guidance of Allah Almighty and His commands. In this respect, obedience to the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) is in fact obedience to Allah Almighty. As in the Holy Quran, the saying of Allah is: "Whoever obeyed the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions), indeed he obeyed Allah." (Surah An-Nisa, verse: 80).

Question: Explain the "belief in the Finality of Prophethood (Khatm-e-Nubuwwat)".

Answer: The literal meaning of "Khatm" is to seal and to complete a task and be free from it. The meaning of Khatm-e-Nubuwwat is that the chain of Nubuwwat, which began with Hazrat Adam (AS), and after which many Prophets came one after another, ended with the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions). Now, after the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions), no Prophet will come. With Prophet Muhammad (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions), the chain of Nubuwwat was completed, and the religion became complete. In the Holy Quran, the saying of Allah is: اَلْيَوْمَ أَكْمَلْتُ لَكُمْ دِينَكُمْ وَأَتْمَمْتُ عَلَيْكُمْ نِعْمَتِي وَرَضِيتُ لَكُمُ الْإِسْلَامَ دِينًا (Al-Ma'idah: 3). Translation: Today I have perfected your religion for you, completed My favours upon you, and chosen Islam as the religion for you. Another saying is: مَا كَانَ مُحَمَّدٌ أَبَا أَحَدٍ مِنْ رِجَالِكُمْ وَلَكِنْ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ وَخَاتَمَ النَّبِيِّينَ (Surah Al-Ahzab: 40). Translation: Prophet Muhammad (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) is not the father of any of your men, but he is the Messenger of Allah and the Seal of the Prophets. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) said — Translation: In my Ummah, (30) thirty such liars will come, each of whom will claim to be a Prophet, whereas I am the last Prophet; there is no Prophet after me. (Abu Dawood, Hadith 4253). The need for Khatm-e-Nubuwwat: When the religion became complete, and the clear expression of the pleasure of Allah Almighty upon the religion of Islam took place, and the announcement of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) being the last Prophet and Messenger was made, then there remained no need for any new Prophet.

Question: What is the importance of love for the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) in the religion of Islam?

Answer: Our four basic relationships with the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) are: (1) Iman, (2) obedience, (3) following, (4) love. Hubb or love is the name of a natural attraction and a natural feeling; if this love is on the basis of a religious relationship, it is called "spiritual love" or "faith-based love". The blessed person of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) deserves every kind of love from us, and it is also a requirement of faith, because this person is the Beloved of Allah Almighty and the benefactor and guide of the believers. Allah Almighty commands us to love the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions). Rather, in the sight of Allah Almighty, that faith and obedience is not even credible whose foundation is not upon the love of the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions). The standard of this love has been stated to be that the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) deserves more love from them than even their own lives (Al-Ahzab: 6). In the blessed hadith, "love for the Messenger (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions)" has been declared the sign of faith. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) said: None of you can be a believer until he loves me more than his parents, children and all people. (Sahih Al-Bukhari, Kitab-ul-Iman, Hadith: 15).

Question: Who is called a Nabi and a Rasool?

Answer: The one who gives news is called a "Nabi", and the one who conveys the message is called a "Rasool"; the person who holds the office of Nubuwwat and Risalah is called a Nabi or Rasool.

Question: Write the characteristics of the last Risalah of the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions).

Answer: The characteristics of the last Risalah of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) are:

universality and worldwide scope, renewal of the earlier Shariahs, completeness, protection of the Book, protection of the Sunnah of the Prophet, comprehensiveness, and the Finality of Prophethood (Khatm-e-Nubuwwat).

Question: What guidance do the Holy Quran and Hadith give us about Khatm-e-Nubuwwat?

Answer: The Holy Quran guides that Prophet Muhammad (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) is the Messenger of Allah and the Seal of the Prophets: مَا كَانَ مُحَمَّدٌ أَبَا أَحَدٍ مِنْ رِجَالِكُمْ وَلَكِنْ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ وَخَاتَمَ النَّبِيِّينَ (Surah Al-Ahzab: 40), and the religion has become complete: اَلْيَوْمَ أَكْمَلْتُ لَكُمْ دِينَكُمْ (Al-Ma'idah: 3). Hadith guides that the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) is the last Prophet; there is no Prophet after him (Abu Dawood, Hadith 4253). Therefore, whoever claims Prophethood in any way after the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) is a disbeliever and out of the fold of Islam.

Question: What is the sign of perfect faith?

Answer: The sign of perfect faith is love for the Messenger (Hubb-e-Rasool, peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions); in the blessed hadith, love for the Messenger has been declared the sign of faith. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) said: None of you can be a believer until he loves me more than his parents, children and all people. (Sahih Al-Bukhari, Kitab-ul-Iman, Hadith: 15).

Nubuwwat and Risalah is such an office which:

(a) any human being can attain through hard work

(b) is given to worshipping people

(c) is given to people who serve creation

(d) Allah Almighty grants to His specially chosen servants.

Allah Almighty sent for the guidance and leadership of every nation:

(a) a book

(b) a Prophet

(c) an angel

(d) a jinn

The first Prophet sent by Allah Almighty is:

Importance and Benefits of Worship

Question: Write a detailed essay on "Ibadat" (worship).

Answer: Ibadat is an Arabic word derived from "Abd". The literal meaning of Ibadat is: servitude, humility, humbleness, obedience and submission. In technical terms, living one's life according to the Uswah Hasanah of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions), with the intention of attaining the pleasure of Allah Almighty, is called "Ibadat". It includes every act which Allah Almighty has commanded to do, or forbidden to do, because it is the servant's job to obey his Master. Especially if that Master is the King of kings, then considering His commands as a cause of happiness, joy and contentment for oneself is the highest achievement of a servant. In Islam, after the correctness of faith or belief, emphasis has been laid on Ibadat. These acts of worship are the practical form of direct contact, connection and nearness with Allah Almighty. The saying of Allah Almighty is: "And I created the jinn and mankind only that they may worship Me" (Az-Zariyat: 56). At another place, the saying of Allah is: "O mankind! Worship your Lord who created you and those before you, so that you may be saved (from His punishment)" (Surah Al-Baqarah: 21). In this verse, the purpose of Ibadat has been stated as "Taqwa". It is the stage after the purity of the heart, the cleanliness of the soul, and the sincerity of action. It is that heartfelt condition of man, by which the desire to do good deeds and hatred for evils is created. In the Holy Quran, the saying of Allah is: قُلْ إِنَّ صَلَاتِي وَنُسُكِي وَمَحْيَايَ وَمَمَاتِي لِلَّهِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ (Surah Al-An'am: 162). Translation: Say: my Salah and my sacrifice, and my living and my dying are all for Allah, the Lord of the worlds. Requirements of Ibadat: We should accept all the commands of Allah Almighty, act upon them, leave whatever He has declared forbidden, and fulfil whatever He has declared obligatory and compulsory, thus obeying Allah Almighty completely. Every sphere of life should be brought within the circle of the obedience of Allah Almighty — that is, complete obedience should be observed. The saying of Allah Almighty is — Translation: O believers! Enter Islam completely. (Al-Baqarah: 208).

Question: Write the effects of Ibadat on general life.

Answer: The system of Ibadat in Islam has these effects on man's practical life: It creates feelings of love and sympathy for mankind in man; therefore a Muslim keeps love and affection for other people, sympathises with them, and helps them in their joys and sorrows. In the same way, these acts of worship also teach the lesson of patience and tolerance, and at the same time create the spirit of sacrificing one's personal interest for the pleasure of Allah Almighty and the collective benefit. Acts of worship teach us the lesson of living together with society; therefore man learns to live together with other people, and society becomes likeable. Observing Ibadat ends bad habits like laziness, idleness and wasting time. By observing Salah, qualities of punctuality, outward and inward purity and cleanliness, obedience to the leader, and collectivity are created in man, and he is saved from immodesty and shamelessness. Fasting creates Taqwa in man — that is, the fear of God makes man distinguish between good and evil. Through Zakat, the love of wealth decreases in man, and he feels happiness in helping financially people like himself. Hajj teaches the lesson of collectivity on a worldwide level. By acts like helping people, Silah Rahmi, and supporting the people under one's care, mutual interaction and relations improve. These effects of Ibadat are attained by the believer on the basis of his intention and sincerity. In the same way, correctness of intention and sincerity in Ibadat are the key to its acceptance. It is these acts of worship which, along with the reform of man, become the means of spreading goodness and virtues in society, and become the cause of worldly and Hereafter prosperity for the believer.

Question: Write the importance and benefits of Ibadat.

Answer: In Islam, after the correctness of faith or belief, emphasis has been laid on Ibadat. These acts of worship are the practical form of direct contact, connection and nearness with Allah Almighty. The saying of Allah Almighty is: "And I created the jinn and mankind only that they may worship Me" (Az-Zariyat: 56). At another place, the saying of Allah is: "O mankind! Worship your Lord who created you and those before you, so that you may be saved (from His punishment)" (Surah Al-Baqarah: 21). In this verse, the purpose of Ibadat has been stated as "Taqwa". It is the stage after the purity of the heart, the cleanliness of the soul, and the sincerity of action. It is that heartfelt condition of man, by which the desire to do good deeds and hatred for evils is created. In the Holy Quran, the saying of Allah is: قُلْ إِنَّ صَلَاتِي وَنُسُكِي وَمَحْيَايَ وَمَمَاتِي لِلَّهِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ (Surah Al-An'am: 162). Translation: Say: my Salah and my sacrifice, and my living and my dying are all for Allah, the Lord of the worlds. In the mentioned verse, a brief and comprehensive outline of the straight path (Sirat-e-Mustaqeem) has been presented, which is the soul of Islamic life and the life of Islamic society. In the verse it has been stated that every breath, every step and every deed of a Muslim is for Allah Almighty — not for anyone besides Allah or for the desires of one's own self; this is the purpose and intent of a Muslim's life.

Question: What are the literal and Shariah meanings of Ibadat?

Answer: The literal meaning of Ibadat is: servitude, humility, humbleness, obedience and submission. Shariah meaning: Living one's life according to the Uswah Hasanah of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions), with the intention of attaining the pleasure of Allah Almighty, is called "Ibadat".

Question: Write some requirements of Ibadat.

Answer: The requirements of Ibadat are: We should accept all the commands of Allah Almighty, act upon them, leave whatever He has declared forbidden, and fulfil whatever He has declared obligatory and compulsory, thus obeying Allah Almighty completely. Every sphere of life should be brought within the circle of the obedience of Allah Almighty — that is, complete obedience should be observed. The saying of Allah Almighty is — Translation: O believers! Enter Islam completely. (Al-Baqarah: 208).

Question: Write the translation of: قُلْ إِنَّ صَلَاتِي وَنُسُكِي وَمَحْيَايَ وَمَمَاتِي لِلَّهِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ

Answer: Translation: Say: my Salah and my sacrifice, and my living and my dying are all for Allah, the Lord of the worlds. (Surah Al-An'am: 162).

Allah Almighty created human beings and jinn:

✓ (a) for worship

(b) for agriculture

(c) for trade

(d) for industry and crafts

Living one's life according to the Uswah Hasanah of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) is called:

(a) economy

(b) social life

✓ (c) Ibadat

(d) trade

The purpose of creating man is:

(a) to populate the earth

✓ (b) to worship Allah

(c) to trade

(d) to farm

Jihad (Introduction, Importance and Types)

Question: State the virtue and importance of Jihad.

Answer: Islam has given great virtue and importance to Jihad, because ending killing, corruption, oppression and every kind of evil in the world, which becomes the cause of fitnah and corruption within society, and establishing an atmosphere of peace and security in the world, and protecting human rights, is possible only through Jihad. The saying of Allah is: وَجَاهِدُوا بِأَمْوَالِكُمْ وَأَنْفُسِكُمْ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ ذَلِكُمْ خَيْرٌ لَكُمْ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ تَعْلَمُونَ (At-Tawbah: 41). Translation: And strive in the way of Allah with your wealth and your lives; that is better for you, if you know. Regarding Jihad, the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) said: The person who died in such a state that in his life he neither practically performed Jihad nor desired Jihad, died at the level of hypocrisy. (Sahih Muslim: 1910). In the same way, Islam has also emphasised that the believer himself should remain firm on truth, speak the truth, and persuade others to remain firm on truth. Keeping striving for the exaltation of truth is called Afdal-ul-Jihad. The Holy Messenger (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) said: أَفْضَلُ الْجِهَادِ كَلِمَةُ عَدْلٍ عِنْدَ سُلْطَانٍ جَائِرٍ (Sunan Abi Dawood: 4344) — that is, speaking a word of truth before a cruel ruler is the best Jihad.

Question: State the kinds of Jihad.

Answer: There are three kinds of Jihad: (1) Jihad against the desires of the self (nafs): The inner power that stops man from the obedience and worship of Allah Almighty is his Nafs-e-Ammarah, which incites man towards sins, evils and disobedience: in which are self-liking, hatred, backbiting, lying and foul language, and the domination of other desires of the self, which can spoil man's deeds and character. Keeping this Nafs-e-Ammarah under control comes under the category of Jihad. In the Holy Quran, the saying of Allah is — Translation: And whoever fears standing before his Lord and restrains himself from the desire of his self, for him the everlasting abode is Paradise. (Surah An-Nazi'at: 40). The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) declared that person who controls his self a Mujahid. He said: الْمُجَاهِدُ مَنْ جَاهَدَ نَفْسَهُ (Sunan Tirmidhi: 1621). In some narrations, Jihad with the self has been called Jihad-e-Akbar. (2) Jihad to end evils: When individual evils become common, they together take the form of collective corruption. Islam has named all these evils "Munkarat". Munkarat includes oppression and excess, theft, gambling, behaviour based on verbal and national pride, false testimonies, stubbornness and bribery, adulteration, shortfall in weights and measures, corrupt customs, violation of the rights of the deserving, and usury, etc. To end Munkarat and reform society, the Holy Quran has mentioned different ways: sometimes it has been named Amr bil-Ma'roof wa Nahi anil-Munkar, sometimes Dawah and Tableegh, and sometimes the advice of truth and patience. The blessed hadith is: مَنْ رَأَى مِنْكُمْ مُنْكَرًا فَلْيُغَيِّرْهُ بِيَدِهِ، فَإِنْ لَمْ يَسْتَطِعْ فَبِلِسَانِهِ، فَإِنْ لَمْ يَسْتَطِعْ فَبِقَلْبِهِ (Sahih Muslim: 49). Translation: Whoever sees an evil, he should remove it with his hand; if he cannot remove it with his hand, then with his tongue; if he cannot do so even with his tongue, then he should consider it evil in his heart. (3) Jihad bis-Saif / armed Jihad (Qital): Jihad bis-Saif means Jihad with the sword: it means that if an enemy power attacks an Islamic country, then fighting for the protection of its borders and the religion, faith, life and wealth, honour and dignity of its citizens is obligatory upon that country. For defence, Allah Almighty gave the Muslims permission for armed Jihad against those disbelievers. The saying of Allah Almighty is — Translation:

Those Muslims who are fought against have permission to fight too, because they are being wronged. And Allah Almighty will help them, and indeed He is Able to help them. (Al-Hajj: 39).

Question: Write the conditions of Jihad.

Answer: Islam has laid down some conditions for armed Jihad, keeping which in mind Jihad should be done: (a) I'la-e-Kalimatullah (exaltation of the religion of Allah Almighty): The first condition of armed Jihad is that it should be only for the exaltation of the religion of Allah Almighty. (b) Declaration by the Islamic state: The second condition of armed Jihad is that the declaration of Qital should be by the state. In Islam, only and only the state is authorised to declare Qital. The declaration or fatwa (for war) of any individual or group has no Shariah status; rather, such a declaration or fatwa comes under the category of "Fasad fil-Ard". (c) Suitable military strength should be available: It is also a condition for armed Jihad that the Islamic government should have suitable strength and power to fight the opposing force. The Holy Quran emphasises keeping the Islamic state strong. He said — Translation: And prepare against them as much strength as you can, and ready horses, so that through it you may strike awe into the enemies of Allah Almighty and your enemies, and others besides them whom you do not know and Allah Almighty knows. And whatever you spend in the way of Allah Almighty, its reward will be given to you in full, and you will not be wronged even slightly. (d) Ignorant ways should not be used in fighting: At the time of fighting, fight only those who are armed in opposition and keep trying to fight. Hands should not be raised against women, children, old people, the wounded and ordinary citizens. The dead of the enemy should not be mutilated. Fields, crops, houses and cattle should not be destroyed unnecessarily.

Question: What are the meaning and concept of Jihad?

Answer: Literal meaning: Jihad is an Arabic word derived from "Juhd"; its literal meaning is: hard work, struggle, much effort and striving. Shariah term: Every struggle and effort for the pleasure of Allah Almighty, which is for the exaltation, protection of the religion of Allah Almighty, and the protection and defence of the country and nation. Also every effort and struggle which is for the reform of society, to establish goodness and virtue, and to end evils and corruptions.

Question: State the objectives of Jihad.

Answer: The basic objectives of Jihad are: establishing an atmosphere of peace and security in the world, and protecting human rights; Jihad fi Sabeelillah is that everything should be done only for the pleasure of Allah Almighty, so that the religion of Allah Almighty is established on His earth. Special objectives of armed Jihad: (a) Punishment for breaking a treaty: Islam lays great emphasis on fulfilling treaties; the command has been given to fight that nation which makes a treaty with the Islamic government not to wage war, and then keeps warlike intentions behind that treaty. (b) Respect for humanity and help of the oppressed: Islam carries a very great message of human dignity; supporting and helping the oppressed, and freeing them from the oppression of the oppressors, has been declared obligatory for the Islamic government. (c) Ending fitnah and corruption: Among the basic objectives of Islamic teachings are restoring peace, spreading love and tolerance, and ending oppression, fitnah and corruption.

The kinds of Jihad are:

- (a) 3
- (b) 4
- (c) 5
- (d) 6

Jihad bis-Saif means doing Jihad:

(a) with the heart

(b) with the tongue

✓ (c) with weapons

(d) with the pen

In some narrations, Jihad with the self has been called:

(a) Jihad-e-Asghar

✓ (b) Jihad-e-Akbar

(c) Jihad-e-Awsat

(d) Jihad-e-A'zam

Bi'that-e-Nabawi (PBUH) - The Advent of Prophethood

Question: Write an essay on Ba'sat-e-Nabvi (the advent of Prophethood).

Answer: The blessed age of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) had reached forty years, and he was engaged, as usual, in the solitude and worship of the cave of Hira in the month of Ramadan, when one day Jibraeel (AS) came to him by the command of Allah Almighty, and illuminated the light of the light of Prophethood which was hidden in the chest of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) with these words of the revelation of Allah Almighty, and blessed him with Nubuwwat and Risalah. And he recited these verses of the Holy Quran:) اقْرَأْ (2خَلَقَ الْإِنْسَانَ مِنْ عَلَقٍ (1بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ، اقْرَأْ بِاسْمِ رَبِّكَ الَّذِي خَلَقَ) وَرَبُّكَ الْأَكْرَمُ (3عَلَّمَ الْإِنْسَانَ مَا لَمْ يَعْلَمْ (4) الَّذِي عَلَّمَ بِالْقَلَمِ (5((Al-'Alaq: 1-5). Six years before Ba'sat, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) began to see a light and brightness, seeing which he used to become extremely happy. In that brightness and light there was no sound of any kind. This is the law of Allah Almighty that whenever revelation begins upon a Prophet, first of all he is shown true dreams. In Bukhari Sharif, it is narrated from Umm-ul-Mu'mineen Hazrat Aisha (RA) that the revelation upon the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) began with true dreams. The dreams he saw at night used to come true like the light of the morning. Whenever the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) passed through the streets of Makkah Mukarramah, a voice used to come from the stones and trees: "السَّلَامُ عَلَيْكَ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ" (O Messenger of Allah! Peace be upon you). When the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) looked right and left, there used to be nothing except stones and trees. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) says: "I recognise a stone in Makkah which used to greet me before Ba'sat." (Sahih Muslim: 2277). Objectives of Ba'sat-e-Nabvi (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions): Education and teaching: In the first revelation of the Holy Quran, "reading" and "pen" are mentioned. Then, at the time of the Ba'sat of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions), Allah Almighty made these four points the pivot and centre: 1. Reciting and conveying the verses of Allah Almighty to them. 2. Purifying those human beings. 3. Teaching them the Book. 4. Teaching them matters of wisdom. (Al-Jumu'ah: 2). That is, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) was a preacher who recited the verses, a teacher who taught the verses, a guide who explained the verses, and a reformer who acted upon the verses.

Question: State the conditions of Arabia before Ba'sat-e-Nabvi.

Answer: Makkah Mukarramah had become the big city of Arabia and the spiritual and social centre of the Quraysh. Due to its trade activities, civilisation, economy and progress, it had become equal to Sanaa, the famous city of Yemen. The trade caravans of the Quraysh used to travel twice a year to Syria and Yemen, because of which the residents of Makkah were endowed with every facility of life. During the fifth century AD, the chief of Makkah, Qusayy bin Kilab (who is the grandfather in the fifth generation of the Holy Prophet, peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions), had made the administrative structure of Makkah, which remained intact until then, whose foundation was laid on unity, collective cooperation, general understanding, and joint opinion on administrative matters. Therefore, for solving war matters, trade and other social matters, a consultative council named "Dar-un-Nadwah" was established. Due to the better administration of the city of Makkah, economic and trade activities, and the improved social system, many of its families had become very rich and capitalists. There were some people who used to give charity and alms, and help the needy and the poor. But there were also some people whose business was usury and unlawful means; they were pleasure-seekers, stubborn, and hard-hearted towards the weak class. They were proud of their wealth and children; they considered others inferior. They did not consider social evils like drinking, oppression, immorality, obscenity, unlawful sources of income (usury, gambling, theft, betting) as bad. Causing pain to neighbours, not caring for Silah Rahmi, and unjust killing was their hobby. Due to such inhuman behaviours, they had become hard-hearted, dry-tempered and merciless. They used to take pride even in burying their own daughters alive. Due to the prevalence of ignorance, idol-worship had become their religious sign. Inside the Ka'batullah alone, three hundred and sixty idols were placed. When the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) came into the world, the condition of the world was such as the Quran depicts it: ظَهَرَ الْفَسَادُ فِي الْبَرِّ وَالْبَحْرِ بِمَا كَسَبَتْ أَيْدِي النَّاسِ (Ar-Room: 41). Corruption had appeared on land and sea (defects had arisen in the beliefs and deeds of the religions and civilisations of the world).

Question: State the signs (Aasar) of Ba'sat-e-Nabvi.

Answer: After the announcement of Prophethood, if an extraordinary event appears at the hands of a Prophet, contrary to habit, it is called a "miracle". Its meaning is that such an unusual event which does not appear in the ordinary way and manner, and which points towards the Ba'sat of a Prophet, is counted among the "signs of Prophethood". Six years before Ba'sat, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) began to see a light and brightness, seeing which he used to become extremely happy. In that brightness and light there was no sound of any kind. This is the law of Allah Almighty that whenever revelation begins upon a Prophet, first of all he is shown true dreams. In Bukhari Sharif, it is narrated from Umm-ul-Mu'mineen Hazrat Aisha (RA) that the revelation upon the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) began with true dreams. The dreams he saw at night used to come true like the light of the morning. Whenever the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) passed through the streets of Makkah Mukarramah, a voice used to come from the stones and trees: "السَّلَامُ عَلَيْكَ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ" (O Messenger of Allah! Peace be upon you). When the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) looked right and left, there used to be nothing except stones and trees. The Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) says: "I recognise a stone in Makkah which used to greet me before Ba'sat." (Sahih Muslim: 2277).

Question: Write the translation of the verse of the first revelation.

Answer: The verses of the first revelation are these from Surah Al-'Alaq:) الَّذِي عَلَّمَ3) اقْرَأْ وَرَبُّكَ الْأَكْرَمُ (2) خَلَقَ الْإِنْسَانَ مِنْ عَلَقٍ (1اقْرَأْ بِاسْمِ رَبِّكَ الَّذِي خَلَقَ ( ) بِالْقَلَمِ (4عَلَّمَ الْإِنْسَانَ مَا لَمْ يَعْلَمْ (5((Al-'Alaq: 1-5). Translation: (O Prophet! Read in the name of your Sustainer who created (1). He created man from a clot of blood (2). Read; your Sustainer is the Most Generous (3). Who taught by the pen (4). He taught man what he did not know (5).

Question: State the concept of Ba'sat-e-Nabvi.

Answer: The blessed age of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) had reached forty years, and he was engaged, as usual, in the solitude and worship of the cave of Hira in the month of Ramadan, when one day Jibraeel (AS) came to him by the command of Allah Almighty, and illuminated the light of the light of Prophethood which was hidden in the chest of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) with these words of the revelation of Allah Almighty, and blessed him with Nubuwwat and Risalah. This is Ba'sat-e-Nabvi.

Question: State a few objectives of Ba'sat-e-Nabvi.

Answer: The objectives of Ba'sat-e-Nabvi (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) are education and teaching: In the first revelation of the Holy Quran, "reading" and "pen" are mentioned. Then, at the time of the Ba'sat of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions), Allah Almighty made these four points the pivot and centre: 1. Reciting and conveying the verses of Allah Almighty to them. 2. Purifying those human beings. 3. Teaching them the Book. 4. Teaching them matters of wisdom. (Al-Jumu'ah: 2). That is, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) was a preacher who recited the verses, a teacher who taught the verses, a guide who explained the verses, and a reformer who acted upon the verses.

The Quraysh of Makkah used to travel twice a year to the countries:

(a) Iran, China

(b) Iraq, Egypt

✓ (c) Syria, Yemen

(d) Abyssinia, Yemen

The name of the consultative council of the people of Makkah was:

✓ (a) Dar-un-Nadwah

(b) Dar-ul-Hijrah

(c) Khana-e-Ka'bah

(d) Suffah

The first Surah revealed was:

(a) Al-Qalam

(b) Al-Muddaththir

(c) Al-Muzzammil

✓ (d) Al-'Alaq

The first revelation was revealed in which month:

(a) Muharram-ul-Haram

✓ (b) Ramadan-ul-Mubarak

(c) Rabi-ul-Awwal

(d) Sha'ban-ul-Mu'azzam

Dawah and Tabligh (Invitation and Preaching)

Question: What are the stages of Dawah and Tableegh? Write a note.

Answer: In the Makkan life of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions), there are two stages of Dawah and Tableegh: First stage — secret Tableegh: The period of three years after Ba'sat is the one which the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) spent in preaching Tawheed with great silence and secrecy. The result of this silent and wise Dawah and Tableegh style was that first of all, among men, Hazrat Abu Bakr (RA), among women, Hazrat Khadijah (RA), among slaves, Zaid bin Harith (RA), and among children, Hazrat Ali (RA) accepted Islam. At that time, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) kept the work of Dawah and Tableegh secret under the demands of time and circumstances; therefore, in the beginning, work was done on close ones and neighbouring friends; gradually people kept entering Islam, and in a short time, a small group of Muslims was formed. The house of Hazrat Arqam, which was near Mount Safa, became their gathering place and centre. In that house, they used to get the education of the Holy Quran and offer Salah. Allah Almighty said to the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) at the time of the second revelation — Translation: O one wrapped in the cloak of Prophethood (1), rise and then warn (2), and proclaim the greatness of your Sustainer (3). (Surah Al-Muddaththir: 1-3). Second stage — open and public Tableegh: For three years, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) kept doing the work of Dawah and Tableegh in a secret manner. After that, the second stage of his preaching effort began when he was commanded: وَأَنْذِرْ عَشِيرَتَكَ الْأَقْرَبِينَ (Ash-Shu'ara: 214). Translation: (O Prophet!) Warn your close relatives. After receiving this command, the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) invited the family of his grandfather Abdul Muttalib. Then, after climbing Mount Safa and conveying the message of Allah Almighty to people, neighbours and the people of Makkah, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) was commanded to make Dawah general and spread this message further — to invite the whole nation. In the Holy Quran it is — Translation: We sent the Quran to you through Arabic revelation, so that you may warn the people of Makkah and the people around them (Surah Ash-Shura: 7). Giving it an international status, He said: وَمَا أَرْسَلْنَاكَ إِلَّا كَافَّةً لِلنَّاسِ بَشِيرًا وَنَذِيرًا (Surah Saba: 28). Translation: And (O Prophet), We sent you as a bearer of good news and a warner for all human beings.

Question: What are the principles of Dawah and Tableegh? Write.

Answer: Principles of Dawah and Tableegh: Just as Allah Almighty has commanded Dawah and Tableegh of Islam in the Holy Quran, in the same way He has also stated its principles. The Divine command is: ادْعُ إِلَى سَبِيلِ رَبِّكَ بِالْحِكْمَةِ وَالْمَوْعِظَةِ الْحَسَنَةِ وَجَادِلْهُمْ بِالَّتِي هِيَ أَحْسَنُ (Surah An-Nahl: 125). Translation: Call to the way of your Sustainer with wisdom and good advice. And debate with them in a manner which is the best. In this verse, three principles of Dawah and Tableegh have been stated, and these principles are adopted to state any matter in an effective manner: 1. Wisdom, 2. Good advice (Mau'izah Hasanah), 3. Debate in the best manner. Tableegh with wisdom: In this method, conversation is held according to the environment and understanding of the audience, and he is prepared to listen to the talk. Then, wisely, understanding his mental ability, Dawah and Tableegh is done with suitable scholarly and rational arguments according to circumstances, occasion and place. Mau'izah Hasanah: Stating a matter in a good manner certainly has an effect; therefore, stating goodness and evil before the audience in an effective conversation, in an advising manner, in which his heart is not hurt, but rather convincing him for the truth by talking in a good manner, is Mau'izah Hasanah. Debate and discussion: It means that if a situation of debate or conversation arises to convey one's talk, conversation should be held with strong arguments, and to prove the opponent's stance wrong, conversation should be held in a better and soft tone, in which there is understanding and explaining, and anger, excitement and bitter conversation should be avoided. For the one who does Dawah and Tableegh, it is also necessary that the matter of which he preaches to others, he himself should also be one who acts upon it.

Question: What are the meaning and concept of Dawah and Tableegh?

Answer: Literal meaning: In the Arabic language, the literal meaning of "Dawah" is: calling and summoning. While the meaning of "Tableegh" is "conveying". In religious terminology, calling people towards Islam, calling towards all matters and religious education is called "Dawah-e-Deen", and conveying its matters fully to other people, nations and countries with goodwill and zeal is called "Tableegh". The saying of Allah Almighty is: وَمَنْ أَحْسَنُ قَوْلًا مِمَّنْ دَعَا إِلَى اللَّهِ وَعَمِلَ صَالِحًا (Fussilat: 33). Translation: And who can be better in speech than the one who calls towards Allah and does righteous deeds.

Question: What are the objectives of Dawah and Tableegh? Write.

Answer: Some of the basic objectives of Dawah and Tableegh are as follows: The message of Allah Almighty should be conveyed to people. Allah Almighty should be believed as One Allah and Lord; no one should be made a partner with Allah Almighty in His Being, attributes, powers and rights; considering Islam as the true religion, one should consider oneself answerable before Allah Almighty; believing in the Prophets of Allah Almighty, they should be followed and obeyed; considering Prophet Muhammad, the Messenger of Allah, the Seal of the Prophets (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) as the last Prophet, acting upon his Seerah, goodness should be promoted, and the encouragement should be given to end evils.

Question: Write briefly the effects of Dawah and Tableegh.

Answer: In the beginning, a person from among the Ansar of Madinah, Suwaid bin Samit, who was famous for bravery and poetry, came to Makkah Mukarramah in the Hajj season, and hearing some verses of the Holy Quran from the blessed tongue of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions), became convinced of the truth of Islam. His inclination towards Islam affected the people of Yathrib, and within three years, a large number of the people of Madinah Munawwarah entered Islam. After that, the series of migration of the Muslims from Makkah Mukarramah to Madinah Munawwarah began, and the Muslims, after reaching Madinah, began to become powerful, and the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) also migrated to Madinah. On coming here, he laid the foundation of a mosque, and the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) made peace and reconciliation treaties with the tribes of Madinah Munawwarah and its surroundings. After Ghazwa Badr, Ghazwa Uhud, Ghazwa Khandaq and the Treaty of Hudaybiyyah, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) wrote preaching letters to kings, and Khaybar was conquered. After that, truth triumphed and falsehood was defeated — that is, Makkah Mukarramah was conquered. As a result of Dawah and Tableegh, on the occasion of Hajjat-ul-Wida, more than one hundred thousand Companions (RA) were ready for Hajj. Therefore, we too should strive together for the duty of Dawah-e-Deen and Tableegh-e-Islam, so that the honour of the religion of Allah Almighty is raised, and we too may attain success in both worlds.

The literal meaning of Dawah is:

(a) telling

(b) teaching

✓ (c) calling

(d) asking

Conveying a good and virtuous matter to others is called:

(a) Taqdeer

(b) Tadrees

✓ (c) Tableegh

(d) Tajweez

The initial centre of Dawah and Tableegh in Makkah Mukarramah was:

✓ (a) Dar-e-Arqam

(b) Shi'b-e-Abi Talib

(c) Mount Safa

(d) Masjid-ul-Haram

The job of the Da'i (preacher) is that, hearing the criticism of the audience, he should:

(a) take revenge

✓ (b) overlook it

(c) quarrel

(d) become angry

Hijrat-e-Madina and Ghazwat (Battles)

Question: What do you know about the event of Hijrah (migration)? Explain.

Answer: Consultation of the disbelievers in Dar-un-Nadwah: When the polytheists of Makkah saw that after migration, the Muslims were living a life of peace and comfort in Madinah Munawwarah with their families, and powerful tribes like Aws and Khazraj had also become their supporters and helpers, they became worried due to jealousy of the Muslims and especially of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions); therefore all the disbelievers of Quraysh gathered in Dar-un-Nadwah and began to think of plans against the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions). Stay in the cave of Thawr: Allah Almighty had already informed the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) of this plot of the disbelievers. Despite such severe enmity of the disbelievers, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions), in order to deliver the trusts of the disbelievers kept with him safely to their owners, seated Hazrat Ali (RA) on his bed, and taking Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique (RA) with him, left Makkah Mukarramah and set out towards Mount Thawr. Addressing Makkah, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) said: "You are very pure and beloved to me, but if my nation had not forced me to leave from here, I would not have gone to any place other than you." Then the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) and his companion Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique (RA) stayed inside the cave of Thawr for three days. Departure from the cave of Thawr to Madinah Munawwarah: On the fourth day, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) came out of the cave, and took a person named Abdullah bin Uraiqit with him on hire to show the way. Arrival in Quba: The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) reached the village of Quba in the year 14 of Prophethood, corresponding to the year 1 Hijri. He rested there for a few days, and built a mosque there, and offered Salah in it, which is called "Masjid-e-Quba". Regarding it, the saying of Allah Almighty is: Indeed, the mosque whose foundation was laid on piety from the first day. Entry into Madinah Munawwarah: On Friday, by the command of Allah Almighty, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) set out towards Madinah. Reaching the village of Banu Salim bin Awf, he led the Friday Salah in the valley of Batan. Then, in the same way, when the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) reached Madinah Munawwarah, the people of Madinah gave him an enthusiastic welcome.

Question: State the causes of the migration to Madinah.

Answer: The causes of migration towards Madinah are as follows: On one side, the excesses of the polytheists upon the Companions (RA) in Makkah were extremely great; on the other side, due to the general popularity of Islam in Yathrib, the environment was favourable for the Muslims. Therefore, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) granted the Muslims permission to migrate towards Madinah. Restriction on the Dawah of Islam in Makkah Mukarramah: Before the Ba'sat-e-Nabvi, the Quraysh used to call the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) by the titles of Sadiq and Ameen, but after the announcement of his Prophethood, they became his mortal enemies. Therefore, it became extremely difficult for the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) to invite people to Islam. Despite this, in the beginning he kept teaching people the religion in a secret manner and kept training them. Oppression upon the Muslims: In Makkah Mukarramah, the enemies oppressed every person who accepted Islam. They left no opportunity to give them physical and mental pains. Even to the extent that they locked up the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) and other Muslims for three years in Shi'b-e-Abi Talib, and boycotted them. Apart from this, they martyred several Companions (RA) by giving them pains. The encouraging experience of the migration to Abyssinia: Troubled by the harsh behaviour of the Quraysh of Makkah, a few Companions (RA) were forced to migrate towards Abyssinia, where they got satisfaction and comfort. But then, due to the conspiracies of the opponents, they returned again towards Makkah Mukarramah, and kept bearing the pains of the disbelievers of Makkah. The eagerness (inclination) of the people of Madinah: Some righteous people of Madinah had pledged allegiance (Bay'at) twice to the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) at the place of Aqabah, and their desire was that the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) should come to Yathrib and teach us the matters of the religion; but the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) was waiting for the command and permission of Allah Almighty. Divine command: Keeping all these difficulties in view, on the insistence of the Muslims, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) gave the Muslims permission to migrate towards Yathrib on 27 Safar in the fourteenth year of Ba'sat, and people kept leaving secretly for Yathrib. This migration was obligatory upon all Muslims.

Question: Write a collective introduction of the various Ghazwat.

Answer: The meaning of "Ghazwah" is going out to fight someone, attacking, and waging war. According to Muhadditheen and Seerah writers, "Ghazwah" is that military expedition in which the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) himself participated, and he strove for the exaltation of the word of Allah as the commander of the army. The important Ghazwat are: Ghazwa Badr: When the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) completed one year in Madinah Munawwarah, in Ramadan, year 2 Hijri, the polytheists of Makkah, under the leadership of Abu Jahl, intended to attack Madinah. When the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) got the information, he advanced and confronted the polytheists near the field of "Badr", in which Allah Almighty granted victory to the Muslims. The battle of Badr took place in 2 Hijri; the Muslims were 313 and the disbelievers were 1000; the Muslims got victory; 70 disbelievers were killed and 70 disbelievers were made prisoners. Ghazwa Uhud: One year after Ghazwa Badr, the polytheists of Makkah, under the leadership of Abu Sufyan, attacked Madinah in Shawwal, year 3 Hijri; the Muslims confronted them at the place of "Uhud". In this battle, the Muslims suffered great loss, but the enemy also did not succeed in its objectives. Ghazwa Khandaq: This time, in Dhu-ul-Qa'dah, year 5 Hijri, the polytheists and disbelievers of all Arabia together attacked Madinah with great force; the other name of this battle is Ghazwa Ahzab. Allah Almighty sent a storm and severe wind and ruined the intentions of the disbelievers. Ghazwa Khaybar: In the year 7 Hijri, the Jews of Khaybar started a severe rebellion. The Jews had built many forts.

All the forts were conquered. The last fort, Qamoos, was strong, which was conquered under the leadership of Sher-e-Khuda Haider-e-Karrar Hazrat Ali (may Allah honour his face). Conquest of Makkah: The Muslims conquered Makkah Mukarramah in Ramadan-ul-Mubarak, year 8 Hijri. Ghazwa Hunayn: In the year 8 Hijri, after the conquest of Makkah Mukarramah, "Ghazwa Hunayn" took place. In this battle, the Muslims got success. Ghazwa Tabuk: In the year 9 Hijri, the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) got information that the Romans and their allies had set out with the intention of fighting the Muslims; so the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) set out with his Mujahideen towards Tabuk to confront them. But when the Romans saw the determination of the Muslims, they went back, and the Islamic army returned without fighting.

Question: State the meaning and concept of Hijrah.

Answer: Literal meaning: In the Arabic language, the meaning of Hijrah is separation, parting, and leaving one place forever and going to another place. In Islam, the concept of "Hijrah" is: for the attainment of the pleasure of Allah Almighty, leaving one's original homeland and relatives and adopting residence in another country, especially when people are subjugated and oppressed. If they have difficulties in acting upon Islam and living life, then in such a situation, migrating to a place where the acts of worship of the religion and household works can be done, and acting upon them is easy.

Question: When and why did Ghazwa Badr take place?

Answer: Ghazwa Badr took place in Ramadan, year 2 Hijri; under the leadership of Abu Jahl, the polytheists of Makkah had intended to attack Madinah. When the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) got the information, he advanced and confronted the polytheists near the field of "Badr", in which Allah Almighty granted victory to the Muslims.

Question: What is the virtue of Hijrah? Write a note.

Answer: The Muslims who migrate get the benefit of this world and the Hereafter. And they are also deserving of the mercy of Allah, the Blessed and Exalted, and for them forgiveness, Paradise and the best of rewards are kept, and they have been assured that their deeds will not be wasted. As the saying of Allah Almighty is — Translation: Then their Sustainer accepted their prayer: that I will not waste the deed of any doer among you, man or woman. Some of you are from others — that is, (you are all equal in My sight). Then those who left their homeland and were driven out of their homes, and suffered in My way, and fought, and were killed — I will remove their evils from them, and I will surely admit them into gardens beneath which rivers flow. That is the reward from Allah Almighty. (Aal-e-Imran: 195). It can be correctly said that until Jihad became obligatory, the greatest deed at that time was Hijrah. But after the Conquest of Makkah, Hijrah is not obligatory, but recommended (Mustahab), and its condition is that the Hijrah should be in the way of Allah Almighty, and for remaining firm on the religion of Allah Almighty, and for its Dawah and propagation.

The meaning of the word Hijrah is:

(a) becoming a Muslim

(b) travelling to acquire knowledge

✓ (c) migrating for the sake of religion

(d) staying

During the journey of Hijrah, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) stayed for rest in:

(a) the cave of Hira

✓ (b) the cave of Thawr

(c) a cave

(d) Taif

That military expedition in which the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and his family and companions) himself participated is called:

(a) Ghaneemat

(b) Jizyah

✓ (c) Ghazwah

(d) Sariyyah

The second Ghazwah is:

(a) Tabuk

(b) Khaybar

✓ (c) Uhud

(d) Badr

Khasail and Shamail-e-Nabawi (PBUH)

Question: (Activity) In the light of the Khasa'il and Shama'il of the Holy Prophet (PBUH), write points about the present environment (classroom, school, home, neighbourhood, playground and city).

Answer: The student should write points in his own words; for example: behaving with respect and gentleness with the teacher and classmates in the classroom, taking care of cleanliness and discipline in the school, serving parents and helping in household work at home, taking care of the needs of neighbours in the neighbourhood and taking the lead in salaam, honesty and cooperation with companions on the playground, taking care of cleanliness in the city and respecting the rights of others.

Question: (A-1) Write a note on the importance and virtue of the Khasa'il and Shama'il of the Holy Prophet (PBUH).

Answer: The pure life of the Holy Prophet (PBUH) itself is the correct and complete picture of Islam. Following his sayings and actions and his blessed life is the means of salvation for the believer. The saying of Allah Almighty is: لَقَدْ كَانَ لَكُمْ فِي رَسُولِ اللَّهِ أُسْوَةٌ حَسَنَةٌ (Al-Ahzab: 21) — Translation: (O Muslims!) In reality, for you there is an excellent model in the Messenger of Allah. Allah Almighty made the Messenger (PBUH) a collection of excellent habits, and like an unparalleled form, of exalted Seerah, high morals and excellent qualities, to which the Quran itself bore witness: وَإِنَّكَ لَعَلَى خُلُقٍ عَظِيمٍ (Surah Al-Qalam: 4) — Translation: Indeed, your morals are exalted. He (PBUH) was the most courteous, the most well-mannered, the most truthful and generous, the most righteous in deeds, the most bound by promise, and the most trustworthy of all. Those people who want to make their life of solitude or togetherness good and successful should follow the Khasa'il and Shama'il of the Holy Prophet (PBUH) with complete willingness.

Question: (A-2) What was the way of the Holy Prophet (PBUH) in helping others?

Answer: His (PBUH) way was one of sympathy and goodwill: doing Silah Rahmi, carrying the burdens of the helpless, helping the empty-handed, honouring the guest, and helping in the calamities that come in the path of truth (as Hazrat Khadijah (RA) said). Listening to the cries of the oppressed and widows and helping them was his (PBUH) favourite occupation; for example, to get a stranger's loan recovered from Abu Jahl, he (PBUH) stood up, postponing his worship. Doing good even to the enemy is among his blessed Khasa'il. On the occasion of the Conquest of Makkah, instead of taking revenge for years of oppression and excesses, he forgave the people of his nation and announced: Today there is no blame upon you; go, you are all free.

Question: (B-1) What is meant by Khasa'il and Shama'il of the Holy Prophet (PBUH)?

Answer: By Khasa'il and Shama'il of the Holy Prophet (PBUH) are meant the outward excellences, inward characteristics and excellent habits of the Messenger of Allah (PBUH); in which are included his (PBUH) day and night life (rising, sitting, eating, drinking, sleeping, waking), temperament, social life, dress, morals and pure characteristics, behaviour with family members, meeting people, behaviour with companions, and also his (PBUH) outward appearance, Seerah, blessed features and physical build.

Question: (B-2) What were the household engagements of the Holy Prophet (PBUH)?

Answer: Hazrat Aisha (RA) states that the Holy Prophet (PBUH) used to clean his clothes himself, milk the goat himself, do his own work himself, and stitch (mend) his own clothes himself. Hazrat Anas (RA) states that he never saw any person more kind and merciful to his family than the Messenger of Allah (PBUH). He (PBUH) used to behave with family members cheerfully, fulfil their needs, and greet family members with salaam upon entering the house.

Question: (B-3) What lesson does the blessed life of the Holy Prophet (PBUH) teach about keeping behaviour with neighbourhood people?

Answer: It teaches the lesson of good conduct with neighbours and neighbourhood people, taking care of their needs, sending them gifts and presents, visiting the sick (Iyadat), condoling, inviting one another, helping the weak people of society, and doing good even to the enemy.

Question: (C-1) By Khasa'il and Shama'il of the Holy Prophet (PBUH) is meant: (a) Seerat-e-Nabvi (b) Uswah Hasanah (c) Sunnah (d) excellent habits and characteristics

Answer: Correct answer: (d) excellent habits and characteristics — Because "Khasa'il" means habit, and "Shama'il" means good nature, excellent habit and virtuous quality.

Question: (C-2) When the Holy Prophet (PBUH) went to the Jewish boy, he: (a) invited him to Islam (b) greeted him with salaam (c) presented him a gift (d) prayed for him

Answer: Correct answer: (a) invited him to Islam.

Question: (C-3) At the time of the Conquest of Makkah, the Holy Prophet (PBUH) did what to the hundreds of people of his nation: (a) imprisoned them (b) forced them to leave the city (c) forgave them (d) made them rich

Answer: Correct answer: (c) forgave them — He (PBUH) announced: Today there is no blame upon you; go, you are all free.

Manaqib-e-Ahl-e-Bait Athaar

Question: (Activity) Arrange a speech session on the Manaqib of the pure Ahl-e-Bayt (RA). Through mutual discussion, write the points of the Manaqib of Ahl-e-Bayt.

Answer: The student should write points in his own words; for example: the names of the people of the cloak in Hadith-e-Kisa, Ayat-e-Tatheer, Hadith-e-Thaqalayn (holding firmly to the Quran and Ahl-e-Bayt), "Fatimah is a part of my body", the dua of the Holy Prophet (PBUH) for Hazrat Hasan and Husain, the status of Ummahat-ul-Mu'mineen, and the four rights of Ahl-e-Bayt (love, obedience, belief in their being just, love for their friends and hatred for their enemies).

Question: (A-1) In the light of hadith, throw light on the love and devotion of the Holy Prophet (PBUH) for his Ahl-e-Bayt-e-Athar.

Answer: In Hadith-e-Kisa, it is narrated from Hazrat Aisha Siddiqua (RA) that the Holy Prophet (PBUH) once called Hazrat Fatimah-uz-Zahra, Hazrat Ali, Hazrat Hasan and Hazrat Husain (may Allah be pleased with them all), entered them under a cloak, and then prayed: اَللّٰهُمَّ هَؤُلَاءِ أَهْلُ بَيْتِي فَأَذْهِبْ عَنْهُمُ الرِّجْسَ وَطَهِّرْهُمْ تَطْهِيرًا (Sunan Tirmidhi, Hadith: 3871) — Translation: O my Allah! These are my Ahl-e-Bayt. Remove impurity from them and purify them. In another hadith, he (PBUH) said: I leave two things with you; as long as you hold them firmly, you will not go astray: the Book of Allah Almighty and my Ahl-e-Bayt (Sunan Tirmidhi: 3786). About Hazrat Fatimah (RA), he said: Fatimah is a part of my body; whoever angered her, angered me (Sahih Al-Bukhari: 3093). For Hazrat Imam Hasan and Hazrat Imam Husain (RA), he said: These two are my sons; O Allah! I love them, You too love them, and love the one who loves them (Sunan Tirmidhi: 3775). From these ahadith, the deep love and devotion of the Holy Prophet (PBUH) for his Ahl-e-Bayt is evident, and scholars have declared the love and honour of Ahl-e-Bayt equal to the love and honour of the Holy Prophet (PBUH).

Question: (A-2) What do you say about Ummahat-ul-Mu'mineen?

Answer: The Holy Quran declared the pure wives of the Holy Prophet (PBUH) as "Ummahat-ul-Mu'mineen" (mothers of the believers): وَأَزْوَاجُهُ أُمَّهَاتُهُمْ (Surah Al-Ahzab: 6) — Translation: And the pure wives of the Holy Prophet (PBUH) are the mothers of the believers. Their number is eleven. Among them are Hazrat Khadijah-ul-Kubra (RA) (the first wife, the first to bring faith), Hazrat Aisha Siddiqua (RA) (the daughter of Abu Bakr Siddique, a great woman jurist), Hazrat Zainab bint Khuzaimah (RA) (Umm-ul-Masakeen), Hazrat Zainab bint Jahsh (RA), and the rest: Hazrat Sawdah bint Zam'ah, Hazrat Hafsah bint Umar, Hazrat Umm-e-Salamah, Hazrat Juwairiyah bint Al-Harith, Hazrat Umm-e-Habibah (Ramlah bint Abu Sufyan), Hazrat Safiyyah bint Huyayy, Hazrat Maymunah bint Harith and Hazrat Mariyah Qibtiyyah (RA) are included. All of them are the mothers of the Ummah and the bright lights of guidance.

Question: (B-1) Write the meaning and concept of Manaqib.

Answer: Manaqib is an Arabic word, whose singular is "Manqabah", which means: praise, goodness, excellence and virtue. In technical terms, the deeds and virtues of a famous personality are called "Manqabah", whether in prose or in poetry.

Question: Who are meant by Ahl-e-Bayt?

Answer: In the terminology of the Holy Quran, by "Ahl-e-Bayt" is meant the household of the Holy Prophet (PBUH), which includes his pure family (Aal-e-Pak), his pure wives, and his children.

Question: (B-3) Write the rights of Ahl-e-Bayt.

Answer: The rights of Ahl-e-Bayt are: 1. They should be loved. 2. These respected persons should be obeyed. 3. The belief should be kept that they are just (Adil). 4. Those who love them should be loved, and those who hate them should be hated.

Question: (B-4) In the light of Hadith-e-Kisa, write the names of Ahl-e-Bayt-e-Athar.

Answer: In the light of Hadith-e-Kisa, the names of Ahl-e-Bayt-e-Athar are: Hazrat Fatimah-uz-Zahra, Hazrat Ali, Hazrat Hasan and Hazrat Husain (may Allah be pleased with them all). (Sunan Tirmidhi, Hadith: 3871)

Question: (C-1) The pure wives of the Holy Prophet (PBUH) have been called in the Holy Quran: (a) Ummahat-ul-Mu'mineen (b) Ummahat-ul-Muslimeen (c) Akhawat-ul-Mu'mineen (d) Sayyidat-ul-Mu'mineen

Answer: Correct answer: (a) Ummahat-ul-Mu'mineen — وَأَزْوَاجُهُ أُمَّهَاتُهُمْ (Surah Al-Ahzab: 6).

Question: (C-2) The literal meaning of Ahl-e-Bayt is: (a) those who write Bayt (b) those who compose poetry (c) household members (d) believers

Answer: Correct answer: (c) household members — "Ahl" in Arabic means "members/people", and the meaning of "Bayt" is "house".

Manaqib-e-Sahaba Karam and Ashra Mubashra

Question: (Activity) Arrange a speech session on the Manaqib of the Companions (RA) and Ashrah Mubashsharah (RA); what benefit can we get in our daily practical life from the Seerah and character of the Companions? Arrange points through mutual discussion.

Answer: The student should write points in his own words; for example: adopting the truthfulness, trustworthiness, sacrifice and obedience to the Messenger (PBUH) of the Companions in one's life; learning lessons from the patience, justice and service to creation of the Ashrah Mubashsharah; keeping the love and respect of the Companions in the heart.

Question: (A-1) Write an essay on the Manaqib of the Companions (RA).

Answer: Due to the blessed love for the Messenger of Allah (PBUH), these great personalities have reached such a high station that none of the later ones can reach their rank. The Holy Prophet (PBUH) said: "The best era" is that of my era (Bukhari: 3651). Through the Companions (may Allah be pleased with them all), the Quran and Sunnah and the whole religion reached us. Through their sacrifices, the religion of Islam reached every corner of the world. It is obligatory for a Muslim to keep love for the Companions (RA) and keep honour and respect for them in the heart. Allah Almighty said: The Muhajireen and Ansar who were foremost in bringing faith, and those who followed them in goodness — Allah Almighty is pleased with them and they are pleased with Him. Allah Almighty has prepared for them gardens beneath which rivers flow. They will remain in them forever, and this is the great success (Surah At-Tawbah: 100). Keeping heartfelt love and devotion for this pure group is exactly faith. Whereas showing even a little disrespect and insolence in their honour is a great sin. The Holy Prophet (PBUH) said: Do not speak ill of my Companions, for if any one of you gives charity equal to Mount Uhud in gold, it still will not reach even one "Mudd" of theirs (Bukhari: 3673, Muslim: 222).

Question: (A-2) State the virtues of the Companions (RA).

Answer: The virtues of the Companions are: The Holy Prophet (PBUH) said: طُوبَى لِمَنْ رَآنِي وَآمَنَ بِي (Mizan-ul-I'tidal by Adh-Dhahabi, Vol. 1, p. 422) — Translation: Great glad tidings for the person who saw me and believed in me, and also for the one who saw such a person who had seen me — in this hadith, glad tidings have been given to the Companion and the Tabi'i. The Holy Prophet (PBUH) said: The best people among you are those of my era, then those who come after them, then those who come after them (Sahih Bukhari, Hadith: 6695). Allah Almighty is pleased with the Ansar and Muhajireen, and He has prepared gardens of Paradise for them (Surah At-Tawbah: 100). These personalities attained the honour of being Companions, and these people hold the highest glory and exalted rank among all other human beings on the face of the earth, after the Prophets (AS).

Question: (B-1) Write the literal and technical meanings of Sahabi.

Answer: Sahabi is derived from the Arabic word "Suhbah", whose literal meaning is "friendship". In technical terms, a Sahabi is that personality who met the Holy Prophet (PBUH) in the state of faith, and died with the safety of faith.

Question: (B-2) Write the literal meaning of Ashrah Mubashsharah.

Answer: In the Arabic language, "Ashrah" means ten. While "Mubashsharah" is derived from the word "Basharah", which means "to give glad tidings".

Question: (B-3) Write the names of the Ashrah Mubashsharah.

Answer: The names of the Ashrah Mubashsharah are: Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique, Hazrat Umar Farooq, Hazrat Usman Ghani, Hazrat Ali Al-Murtaza, Hazrat Talhah, Hazrat Zubayr, Hazrat Abdur Rahman bin Awf, Hazrat Sa'd, Hazrat Sa'eed and Hazrat Abu Ubaidah bin Al-Jarrah (RA). (Sunan Tirmidhi, Hadith: 3747)

Question: (C-1) The meaning of Ashrah Mubashsharah is: (a) ten friends (b) ten companions (c) ten human beings (d) ten human beings given glad tidings

Answer: Correct answer: (d) ten human beings given glad tidings — These are the ten Companions to whom the Holy Prophet (PBUH) gave the glad tidings of Paradise in this world itself.

Question: (C-2) A Sahabi is one who, in the state of faith, with the Holy Prophet (PBUH): (a) met him (b) traded with him (c) befriended him (d) made brotherhood with him

Answer: Correct answer: (a) met him.

Question: (C-3) In the blessed hadith, the best era has been declared to be: (a) the present era (b) the era of the Holy Prophet (PBUH) (c) the era before Ba'sat (d) the era of the Hereafter

Answer: Correct answer: (b) the era of the Holy Prophet (PBUH) — "The best people among you are those of my era" (Sahih Bukhari, Hadith: 6695).

Importance and Virtue of Knowledge

Question: (Activity) Get notes written from the male and female students on the following topics: Qualities of the people of knowledge in the blessed hadith. The Holy Prophet (PBUH) as a teacher.

Answer: The student should write notes in his own words; for example: the hadith "Scholars are the heirs of the Prophets" (Tirmidhi: 2682), "Seeking knowledge is obligatory upon every Muslim" (Ibn Majah: 224), "One understanding scholar is heavier for Satan than a thousand worshippers" (Ibn Majah: 222); the Holy Prophet (PBUH) as a teacher: teaching with gentleness and ease, explaining with examples, taking care of the mental level of the students.

Question: (A-1) Write an essay on the importance and virtue of knowledge.

Answer: The Lord of the universe made man the noblest of creation (Ashraf-ul-Makhlooqat) and blessed him with knowledge and intellect. Through knowledge alone, the whole universe was made subservient for man. Knowledge alone is the cause of man attaining honour over all other creation. Knowledge alone is the basis of greatness and honour for man, and the means of exaltation. It is an attribute of Allah Almighty: He holds the attributes of Knower of the Unseen and Knower of what is in the hearts; that Being alone grants to all creation the knowledge of its need. At the time when Islam began in Arabia, the world was unaware of the importance of knowledge; Islam revealed the value and worth of knowledge, and created in people the desire to acquire knowledge. Regarding the virtue of the people of knowledge, the saying of Allah Almighty in the Holy Quran is — Translation: Those among you who believed, and those who were given knowledge — Allah Almighty will raise their ranks (Surah Al-Mujadilah: 11). Here, in high ranks, knowledge has been mentioned along with faith. At another place, the saying of Allah Almighty is — Translation: O my Sustainer! Increase me in knowledge (Surah Taha: 114). The Holy Prophet (PBUH) said: إِنَّ الْعُلَمَاءَ وَرَثَةُ الْأَنْبِيَاءِ (Sunan Tirmidhi, Hadith: 2682) — Translation: The scholars alone are the heirs of the Prophets (AS). In another hadith, he said: One understanding scholar is heavier for Satan than a thousand worshippers (Sunan Ibn Majah: 222). The Holy Prophet (PBUH) said: طَلَبُ الْعِلْمِ فَرِيضَةٌ عَلَى كُلِّ مُسْلِمٍ (Sunan Ibn Majah: 224) — Translation: Seeking knowledge is obligatory upon every Muslim (man and woman).

Question: (B-1) What are the meaning and concept of knowledge?

Answer: The literal meaning of "Ilm" is: knowing and becoming aware. While the word "Taleem" is used for giving and teaching knowledge to others. In technical terms, knowing the reality of a thing through man's five senses and intellect is called Ilm.

Question: (B-2) State any one verse of the Holy Quran about the importance of knowledge, and its translation.

Answer: The saying of Allah Almighty is — Translation: Those among you who believed, and those who were given knowledge — Allah Almighty will raise their ranks. (Surah Al-Mujadilah: 11)

Question: (C-1) The blessed saying of the Holy Prophet (PBUH) is that the heirs of the Prophets (AS) are: (a) the Ulama (scholars) (b) the Awliya (saints) (c) the teachers (d) the students

Answer: Correct answer: (a) the Ulama (scholars) — إِنَّ الْعُلَمَاءَ وَرَثَةُ الْأَنْبِيَاءِ (Sunan Tirmidhi, Hadith: 2682).

Importance of Family in Islam

Question: (Activity) Through a group, identify those acts in the present environment which are harming the family and weakening relations.

Answer: The students should discuss in a group and write points; for example: misuse of mobile and internet, disobedience to parents, household quarrels, distrust in relations, wasteful spending, giving preference to outside friends over home.

Question: (A-1) Write an essay on the importance of the family in Islam.

Answer: The beginning of the family, and its social need and importance: Social life begins with the family and household. The family begins with the mutual Nikah of a man and a woman (husband and wife). On this principle, Islam gives equal importance to man and woman. Each one's sphere is fixed. Islam exhorts and emphasises the fulfilment of the rights and duties of each one. In the Holy Quran, the saying of Allah Almighty is — Translation: O mankind! Indeed, We created you from one man and one woman (Surah Al-Hujurat: 13). Apart from man, the concept of family and relations does not exist in any other creation. This honour belongs to man, the noblest of creation, that he behaves at home with respect and honour, love and affection, in the capacity of mother, father, grandparents, siblings and children. The relationship of husband and wife: The survival of humanity and the existence of the human race is through the joint relationship of man and woman. This relationship holds great importance. Objectives of family and married life: In the sight of Allah Almighty, the objective of family life is the survival of the human race and its increase. Man gets peace and contentment only through married life. The mutual love and affection of husband and wife becomes the means of comfort and peace of family life. Through Nikah, the chain of the human race continues with survival, and with human greatness and honour.

Question: (A-2) Write a note on the rights and duties of husband and wife.

Answer: Rights and responsibilities of the husband: According to Islamic teachings, some rights and duties of the spouses upon each other have been fixed. The saying of Allah Almighty is: وَلَهُنَّ مِثْلُ الَّذِي عَلَيْهِنَّ بِالْمَعْرُوفِ (Al-Baqarah: 228) — Translation: And the rights of women upon men are the same as, according to custom, the rights of men upon women. In this respect, providing food and drink, expenses, clothing, house, treatment and other needs is the responsibility of the husband, which he will fulfil according to his financial means. Apart from giving the wife the permission to keep mahr, given money or other personal property, and to do business within permissible limits, it is also among the duties of the husband that he behaves with love and affection with the wife and other members of the house, does not oppress or wrong them, adopts the behaviour of justice and kindness, and fulfils their rights according to Shariah. The responsibility of the wife: The responsibility of the wife is that in the absence of the husband, she protects wealth and property and her honour like a trust, and does not give permission to any non-mahram to enter the house without the permission of the husband. The Divine command is: فَالصَّالِحَاتُ قَانِتَاتٌ حَافِظَاتٌ لِلْغَيْبِ بِمَا حَفِظَ اللَّهُ (An-Nisa: 34) — Translation: So the righteous women are obedient, and protect their wealth and honour in their absence. She should not demand expenses more than the income and financial status of the husband. If she sees hardship or straitness in the husband's house, she should not complain about it to others unnecessarily; rather she should show overlooking and endurance. She should not reveal the secrets of the husband or the house. She should protect the lineage, and take better care and training of the children. She should serve and obey the husband, etc. The pure saying of the Holy Prophet (PBUH) is: خَيْرُكُمْ خَيْرُكُمْ لِأَهْلِهِ وَأَنَا خَيْرُكُمْ لِأَهْلِي (Sunan Ibn Majah, Hadith 2052) — Translation: The best among you is the one who is best for his family, and I am the best among you for my family.

Question: (B-1) What is meant by family? Write.

Answer: "Khandan" (family) is a Persian word, whose literal meaning is household, family, tribe, children and lineage. The collection of close relatives of the same generation is the concept of family life. The important members of the family — mother, father, wife, husband and children — hold basic status.

Question: (B-2) Write about the respect and honour of parents.

Answer: Among all relations, the relation of parents is important and worthy of respect. It is because of them that we came into this world, and with their care and upbringing, strength developed in us. Therefore, we should not be negligent in serving and respecting parents. Allah Almighty commands us the same. — Translation: Your Sustainer has commanded that you worship none besides Him (Allah), and do good to parents. If one of them or both of them reach old age before you, and become angry over some matter, beware! Do not even say "Uff" to them in reply, and do not scold them, and speak with great respect. And lower your neck in humility with kindness before them, and say: O my Sustainer! Have mercy on them, as they raised me with mercy when I was small (Surah Al-Isra: 23-24). The rights of parents upon children are: honour and respect, obedience and submission, good conduct, good conduct with the near ones and companions of parents, confession of gratitude, and dua for forgiveness.

Question: (B-3) Write the rights of children.

Answer: The rights of children are as follows: Giving children the training of the necessary matters of the religion, the education of the Holy Quran, and Salah. Teaching children Islamic values, dealing with equality and justice among children in inheritance. Including daughters also, like sons, in gifts and love. Not becoming sad at the birth of a daughter, because expressing displeasure is ingratitude. Avoiding every kind of harshness and violence against children. Keeping a behaviour of kindness and love and affection with them. Not killing one's children because of hunger and poverty.

Question: (C-1) The most important relation among all relations is: (a) that of mother and father (b) that of wife and husband (c) that of teacher and student (d) that of a friend

Answer: Correct answer: (a) that of mother and father — Among all relations, the relation of parents is important and worthy of respect.

Question: (C-2) The beauty of the family is: (a) a blessing (b) wealth (c) children (d) inheritance

Answer: Correct answer: (c) children — The charm of the family is children, and having children is a great blessing of Allah Almighty.

Question: (C-3) Those relatives with whom Nikah cannot take place are called: (a) friend (b) Mahram (c) neighbour (d) close relative

Answer: Correct answer: (b) Mahram.

Respect for Humanity

Question: (Activity) The students should narrate any one story of theirs about respect for humanity in the practical daily life in their environment. After joint discussion, write the acts against respect for humanity in the form of points.

Answer: The students should narrate their observation; for example: helping a poor person, respecting elders. Opposite acts: being arrogant, considering people inferior and making fun of them, doing oppression and injustice, finding faults and spying, taunting and calling by bad nicknames, inequality among children, immorality and foul language.

Question: (A-1) Write ten points about respect for humanity.

Answer: 1. "Ihtiram" means honour and value, virtue and superiority. 2. "Ihtiram-e-Insaniyat" means the honour and greatness of man. 3. Man is the best creation of Allah Almighty on earth; he has superiority over all creation. 4. Every human being has the rank and status of honour and virtue; protecting the life, wealth and honour of every human being — whatever his colour, race, religion, language, nation and country — on behalf of his humanity is called "Ihtiram-e-Insaniyat". 5. Allah Almighty has granted man great honour and dignity (Surah Al-Isra: 70). 6. Islam declared the distinction of colour, race, language and homeland invalid, and the standard of greatness and nobility is only Taqwa and the fear of Allah Almighty (Al-Hujurat: 13). 7. The Holy Quran made man the caliph and deputy on earth. 8. The era before Islam is called the "Age of Ignorance", in which respect for humanity had almost ended. 9. Islam, rejecting false ideas and customs, taught human beings the lesson of respect for humanity, and declared qualities like arrogance and self-liking as bad. 10. The Holy Prophet (PBUH) said: O mankind! You are all the children of one father; therefore, any person considering himself greater than others and being arrogant is a matter of foolishness and ignorance (Musnad Ahmad, Hadith: 23489).

Question: (A-2) What command does the Holy Quran give about respect for humanity?

Answer: The Holy Quran has stated great honour for man: وَلَقَدْ كَرَّمْنَا بَنِي آدَمَ (Surah Al-Isra: 70) — Translation: We have granted honour to the children of Adam. And said: إِنَّ أَكْرَمَكُمْ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ أَتْقَاكُمْ (Al-Hujurat: 13) — Translation: Indeed, the most honourable among you in the sight of Allah Almighty is the one who is most pious. The Holy Quran informed man of his correct station: Allah Almighty made him the caliph and deputy on earth, and informed him of everything, and freed him from the slavery of all his objects of worship. In all these blessed verses, generally, only man has been given status, whether Muslim or non-Muslim.

Question: (B-1) Write the concept of respect for humanity.

Answer: "Ihtiram" means: honour and value, virtue and superiority. "Ihtiram-e-Insaniyat" means the honour and greatness of man. Man is the best creation of Allah Almighty on earth; he has superiority over all creation — that is, in this universe, every human being has the rank and status of honour and virtue.

Question: (B-2) Write some forms of the acts against respect for humanity.

Answer: The forms of acts against respect for humanity are: being arrogant, considering oneself worthy of pride before Allah Almighty or creation, in intellectual, scholarly, financial or lineage terms. Considering people inferior, adopting a mocking or joking behaviour with them, and making accusations. Showing oppression, excess or injustice with people, finding faults in them, trying to spy. Taunting a person because of his physical or practical shortcoming, calling him by bad nicknames, or dishonouring him in any way. Treating children unequally on the basis of young and old, wise and unwise, or son and daughter. Talking to one another with immorality, foul language or in a bad manner.

Question: (C-1) In the Age of Ignorance before Islam, respect for humanity was: (a) decreased (b) little (c) ended (d) better

Answer: Correct answer: (c) ended — In that era, respect for humanity had almost ended among people.

Question: (C-2) Among you, the most honourable in the sight of Allah Almighty is the one who: (a) is most pious (b) is of highest rank (c) is most knowledgeable (d) is wealthiest

Answer: Correct answer: (a) is most pious — إِنَّ أَكْرَمَكُمْ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ أَتْقَاكُمْ (Al-Hujurat: 13).

Social Justice

Question: (A-1) What evils are created in society by ignoring collective justice?

Answer: By ignoring justice, restlessness and corruption are created in society; the first cause of corruption is deviating from "Adl" (justice). Corruption is created in society when its members abandon "Adl". By not establishing justice in the economy, society does not become prosperous, and some member of society remains deprived of basic needs. "Adl" — without establishing equality in all spheres of life, man's life cannot become better, because special balance and moderation in all spheres of life is necessary.

Question: In your opinion, what measures should be adopted to establish collective justice?

Answer: To establish collective justice, these measures should be adopted: Legal equality — there should be legal equality in society, that is, all are equal in the eyes of the law, and the law should apply to all without exception (whether rich or poor, officer or subordinate, friend or enemy). Collective justice in economic matters — every person should be free to adopt a lawful means of livelihood according to his abilities and choice, and lawful means of earning a livelihood should not be closed for any person. Collective justice in judicial matters — Islam has presented a regular system of justice, which is called "Qaza" or "judiciary". Establishment of a just society — all human beings are equal as human beings; no one has superiority because of belonging to a class, family, nation or region.

Question: (B-1) State the meaning and sense of collective justice.

Answer: Adl is an Arabic word, whose literal meaning is: to straighten, to equalise, to compare between two things, and to adopt moderation between two conditions. In technical terms, the concept of Adl is very vast: placing a thing in its correct place, that is, fully abiding by truth in word and deed, dealing with every person without any favour or concession, giving him what he deserves, is "Adl". Against Adl comes Zulm (oppression), that is, placing a thing out of place. "Adl" with an oppressor is that he should be prevented from oppressing.

Question: (B-2) What guidance does the Holy Quran give about collective justice?

Answer: In the Holy Quran, the blessed saying is — Translation: Indeed, Allah Almighty commands justice, goodness, and giving to relatives, and forbids immodesty, evil talk and oppression. He advises you so that you may understand (Surah An-Nahl: 90). The purpose of the revelation of this verse is that all human beings should live with justice and fairness in their collective life, and end oppression and excess, so that their social life becomes a centre of peace and tranquillity. Allah Almighty said in the Holy Quran — Translation: When you judge between people, judge with justice. Indeed, Allah Almighty advises you a very good thing. Surely Allah Almighty is All-Hearing (Surah An-Nisa: 58). The meaning of "when you judge between people" is that for the one who judges, both parties should be equal, whether he is a friend or an enemy, one's own or a stranger, Muslim or non-Muslim, near or far, rich or poor.

Question: (C-1) Adl is an Arabic word, whose meaning is: (a) establishing justice (b) behaving straightforwardly with people (c) dividing a thing into two equal parts (d) avoiding the prayer of the oppressed

Answer: Correct answer: (a) establishing justice.

Question: (C-2) In the Holy Quran, the command is: do justice, because it is closer to: (a) goodness (b) obedience (c) Paradise (d) Taqwa

Answer: Correct answer: (d) Taqwa — اِعْدِلُوا هُوَ أَقْرَبُ لِلتَّقْوَى (Al-Ma'idah: 8).

Question: (C-3) If justice and fairness are established in the country, society will become: (a) peaceful and tranquil (b) developed (c) of general welfare (d) virtuous

Answer: Correct answer: (a) peaceful and tranquil — Islam is the religion of peace and security, and with justice, social life becomes a centre of peace and tranquillity.

Iffat and Haya (Chastity and Modesty)

Question: (A-1) What are the manifestations of Iffat and Haya? Explain with examples.

Answer: Manifestations of Iffat and Haya: Man's Iffat and Haya is not only related to his character and action, but it also has great importance in his thought and thinking, speech and manner. Every Muslim man and woman should give priority to Iffat and Haya in his way of life, so that he is counted as a respectable, useful citizen of society, and a person preparing for the Hereafter. For example: Conversation — It is not appropriate for a believer to talk with abuse, foul language and in an unpleasant manner; rather he should adopt good talk or silence. Dress — Islam has stated two purposes of dress: one, that it should have covering (Satr), and second, that it should also have adornment (Zeemat). Therefore, men and women should, keeping in view their Haya and veil, adopt such dress in which both these purposes are attained. Sitting and rising — A true believer should avoid immodesty and indecent activities at all times in his daily routines. The Holy Quran commands believing men and women that they should keep their gazes lowered and protect their Iffat and Ismat. Gathering — A person spends some hours in some gathering, meeting or consultative activity; therefore, whatever time is spent among people, during that time too, Iffat and Haya should remain in his sitting, rising, conversation and manner.

Question: (A-2) Write a note on the virtue of Iffat and Haya in the light of the Quran and Hadith.

Answer: In the Holy Quran, the saying is: وَالَّذِينَ هُمْ لِفُرُوجِهِمْ حَافِظُونَ (Al-Mu'minoon: 5) — Translation: And (the successful believer is) the one who protects his private parts. In hadith, it is: The saying of the Messenger of Allah (PBUH) is: Every religion has some morals, and the morals of Islam is Haya (Muwatta Imam Malik, Hadith: 2634). In another hadith, it is: Indeed, Allah Almighty is Modest and Concealing, and He likes modesty and concealment (Sunan Abi Dawood, Hadith: 4012). Haya and Ghairat is an important quality of a believer, because the Holy Prophet (PBUH) declared it a branch of faith: وَالْحَيَاءُ شُعْبَةٌ مِنَ الْإِيمَانِ (Bukhari: 9, Muslim: 30) — Translation: And Haya is a great branch of faith. It is narrated from Hazrat Abu Hurairah (RA): The Messenger of Allah (PBUH) said: Faith has more than seventy branches, among which Haya is also a great branch (Bukhari: 9, Muslim: 30). It is narrated from Hazrat Umar (RA) — Translation: The Messenger of Allah (PBUH) said: Indeed, faith and Haya have a deep connection with each other. When one goes, the other also goes (Al-Adab-ul-Mufrad by Al-Bukhari: 1313).

Question: (A-3) What is the importance of Iffat and Haya in the religion of Islam?

Answer: Iffat and Haya holds the status of soul and life in the list of Islamic morals. Allah Almighty taught the Muslims Iffat and Haya, and gave this great quality the highest place among all Islamic virtues. Iffat and Haya are the basis of man's nobility, honour and chastity. When man destroys his Haya, then he becomes like a wild beast, and runs after his desires.

Question: (B-1) What is the concept of Iffat and Ismat?

Answer: "Iffat" is an Arabic word, whose literal meaning is piety and purity, and the Shariah concept of Iffat is: remaining chaste, adopting moral purity, and keeping the desires of the self under control, and protecting the self from walking on a bad path, and from acts like adultery and immodesty. Along with it comes another word, "Ismat", whose meaning is chastity, innocence and nobility.

Question: (B-2) Write the literal meaning and sense of Haya.

Answer: The literal meaning of "Haya" is shame and self-respect (Ghairat). The meaning of Haya is: A natural and moral quality has been placed inside man, by which man, due to the feeling of the fear of God, saves himself from bad acts like immodesty and immorality, and tries to stay away from evil; such a person is called modest (Haya-dar).

Question: (B-3) How has the quality of Haya of the Holy Prophet (PBUH) been described in hadith?

Answer: It is narrated from Hazrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri (RA) that: Our beloved Prophet, the Holy Prophet (PBUH), was the most Iffat- and Haya-possessing of all. He (PBUH) was more modest than even a virgin veiled woman, and if he saw something disliked, its effect used to appear on his blessed face. Whereas he (PBUH) had a natural hatred for other (evil) things (Sunan Abi Dawood, Hadith: 4797).

Question: (C-1) Along with the word Iffat, the other word used is: (a) Ismat (b) Pakdamani (c) Parhezgari (d) Pakeezgi

Answer: Correct answer: (a) Ismat.

Question: (C-2) Haya is an important branch of: (a) Islam (b) faith (c) Shariah (d) Quran and Sunnah

Answer: Correct answer: (b) faith — وَالْحَيَاءُ شُعْبَةٌ مِنَ الْإِيمَانِ (Bukhari: 9, Muslim: 30).

Question: (C-3) In Islam, the two purposes of dress are: (a) simplicity and cleanliness (b) excellence and elegance (c) Satr (covering) and Zeenat (adornment) (d) whiteness and spaciousness

Answer: Correct answer: (c) Satr (covering) and Zeenat (adornment).

Question: (C-4) In hadith, the number of branches of faith has been stated to be: (a) more than fifty (b) more than sixty (c) more than seventy (d) more than eighty

Answer: Correct answer: (c) more than seventy — "Faith has more than seventy branches" (Bukhari: 9, Muslim: 30).

Question: (C-5) Some wise men have stated the ranks of Haya to be: (a) two (b) three (c) four (d) five

Answer: Correct answer: (b) three — 1. Following the commands of God and avoiding forbidden things, 2. Staying away from harming people, 3. Being modest with oneself in solitude, and considering Allah present in every condition and avoiding sins.

Hazrat Syedna Imam Hussain (RA)

Question: What did the Holy Prophet (PBUH) say about the virtues of Hazrat Imam Husain (RA)?

Answer: The Holy Prophet (PBUH) said the following ahadith about the virtues of Hazrat Imam Husain (RA): (1) The Holy Prophet (PBUH) said: "Fatimah is the leader of the women of Paradise, and Hasan and Husain are the leaders of the youth of Paradise." (Sunan Tirmidhi: 3781) (2) The Holy Prophet (PBUH) said: "مَنْ أَحَبَّ الْحَسَنَ وَالْحُسَيْنَ فَقَدْ أَحَبَّنِي، وَمَنْ أَبْغَضَهُمَا فَقَدْ أَبْغَضَنِي" (Translation: Whoever loves Hasan and Husain, indeed he loves me; and whoever hates them, indeed he hates me.) (3) Once, the Holy Prophet (PBUH) was going with the Companions to an invitation, when in a street of Madinah Munawwarah, he saw Hazrat Imam Husain (RA) playing with children; he caught him smiling, kissed his forehead, and said: "حُسَيْنٌ مِنِّي وَأَنَا مِنْ حُسَيْنٍ، أَحَبَّ اللَّهُ مَنْ أَحَبَّ حُسَيْنًا، حُسَيْنٌ سِبْطٌ مِنَ الْأَسْبَاطِ" (Translation: Husain is from me, and I am from Husain. May Allah Almighty love the one who loved Husain. Husain is a grandson among grandsons.) (Sunan Ibn Majah, Hadith: 144) (4) The Messenger of Allah (PBUH) said: "أَمَّا الْحَسَنُ، فَلَهُ هَيْبَتِي وَسُؤْدُدِي وَأَمَّا الْحُسَيْنُ، فَلَهُ جَرَاءَتِي وَجُودِي" (Al-Mu'jam Al-Kabeer by At-Tabarani: 18508) (Translation: I granted my awe and leadership to Hasan, and I granted my courage and generosity to Husain.) (5) Loving Hazrat Hasan and Husain (RA) is equal to loving the Messenger of Allah (PBUH), and hating both of them is equal to hating the Holy Prophet (PBUH).

Question: What do you say about the event of Karbala? Write a short note on it.

Answer: Refusal of Yazid's Bay'at and the tragedy of Karbala: After Yazid

sat on the throne, on the order of the governor of Madinah Munawwarah, Sayyiduna Imam Husain (RA) was called to pledge Bay'at to Yazid, but he refused to pledge Bay'at and set out for Makkah Mukarramah. He stayed in Makkah Mukarramah for four months. During that time, the people of Kufa sent letters to him that he should come to Kufa, so that they may pledge Bay'at at his hand, because besides him, they have no leader and Imam, and in the Yazidi government, Islamic traditions are being trampled. After that, Hazrat Imam Husain (RA) sent his cousin Muslim bin Aqeel (RA) to Kufa, so that he may go and assess the conditions there. Meanwhile, Yazid was informed of the coming of Muslim bin Aqeel, so Yazid removed the governor of Kufa, Hazrat Nu'man bin Bashir (RA), and appointed Ubaidullah bin Ziyad as governor, and ordered him that the representative of Imam Husain (RA), Muslim bin Aqeel (RA), should be imprisoned or killed. Meanwhile, Muslim bin Aqeel had already informed Hazrat Imam Husain (RA) that he should come to Kufa; the people of Kufa have pledged Bay'at to him — but on the other side, Ibn Ziyad had Muslim bin Aqeel martyred. Imam Husain (RA), along with his family, set out from Makkah Mukarramah for Kufa on 8 Dhu-ul-Hijjah 60 Hijri, and after a very difficult journey of forty-four days, reached the plain of Karbala on 2 Muharram-ul-Haram 61 Hijri. The commander of the Yazidi army, Umar bin Sa'd, insisted that Hazrat Imam Husain (RA) pledge Bay'at to Yazid; this series continued from 2 Muharram-ul-Haram to 10 Muharram-ul-Haram, but Hazrat Imam Husain (RA) clearly refused to pledge Bay'at to Yazid and to bow before falsehood. Finally, on 10 Muharram-ul-Haram 61 Hijri, the battle of truth and falsehood took place, in which Hazrat Imam Husain (RA), along with his family and devoted ones, was martyred one by one. Today, the city of Karbala is a famous city of Iraq, where the blessed shrine of Sayyiduna Imam Husain (RA) is located, and that is his resting place.

Question: State the lineage of Hazrat Imam Husain (RA).

Answer: The full name of Hazrat Imam Husain (RA) is Husain bin Ali bin Abi Talib bin Abdul Muttalib bin Hashim. His father is Sher-e-Khuda Hazrat Ali (may Allah honour his face), and his mother is Khatoon-e-Jannat Hazrat Fatimah-uz-Zahra (RA), the daughter of Hazrat Muhammad, the Messenger of Allah (PBUH) — that is, from both the mother's and father's sides, he is Hashmi, a possessor of honour and virtue.

Question: How did Hazrat Imam Husain (RA) correct a person's Wudu?

Answer: Sayyiduna Imam Husain (RA) was, from childhood, a possessor of high Seerah and morals in intelligence and wisdom. Once, he went to the mosque with his brother Sayyiduna Imam Hasan (RA), and saw that a person was doing Wudu, but his method of doing Wudu was not correct. He said to him: "O uncle! We both are doing Wudu; see whether we are making any mistake in Wudu." When both Imams did Wudu, that person was astonished to see that they were doing Wudu correctly, but his Wudu was not correct. In this way, he corrected his Wudu without embarrassing that person. (Bihar-ul-Anwar, Imam Majlisi 43, p. 319)

Question: The last resting place of Hazrat Imam Husain (RA) is located in: (a) Kufa (b) Basra (c) Karbala (d) Madinah Munawwarah

Answer: Correct answer: (c) Karbala — the city of Iraq, Karbala, where the blessed shrine of Sayyiduna Imam Husain (RA) is located.

Question: Yazid had appointed as the new governor of Kufa: (a) Ubaidullah bin Ziyad (b) Waleed bin Utbah (c) Muslim bin Aqeel (d) Nu'man bin Bashir

Answer: Correct answer: (a) Ubaidullah bin Ziyad — Yazid removed Hazrat Nu'man bin Bashir (RA) and appointed Ubaidullah bin Ziyad as the governor of Kufa.

Question: The martyrdom of Hazrat Imam Husain (RA) took place in 61 Hijri on: (a) 10 Muharram-ul-Haram (b) 15 Sha'ban (c) 12 Rabi-ul-Awwal (d)

10 Shawwal

Answer: Correct answer: (a) 10 Muharram-ul-Haram

Hazrat Abu Ubaidah bin Jarrah (RA)

Question: What is the family introduction of Hazrat Abu Ubaidah bin Al-Jarrah (RA)?

Answer: Hazrat Abu Ubaidah bin Al-Jarrah (RA) is known in Islamic history by his Kuniyyat (teknonym) Abu Ubaidah. His real name is Aamir bin Abdullah bin Al-Jarrah bin Hilal. He belonged to the Banu Fahr branch of the Quraysh, while his mother was from the Banu Harith tribe, who had accepted Islam. The father of Hazrat Abu Ubaidah bin Al-Jarrah (RA) was killed in the Battle of Badr in the state of disbelief.

Question: When was Hazrat Abu Ubaidah bin Al-Jarrah born, and why did he attribute himself to his grandfather?

Answer: The family of Hazrat Abu Ubaidah bin Al-Jarrah (RA) was originally a resident of Makkah, where he was born in the house of Abdullah bin Al-Jarrah Al-Fahri, eleven years after Aam-ul-Feel, and he grew up in Makkah itself. His father was killed in the Battle of Badr in the state of disbelief; therefore, due to Islamic honour, he did not like to include the name of his non-Muslim father with his name, and attributing himself to his grandfather, he began to be called Abu Ubaidah bin Al-Jarrah.

Question: Why was Hazrat Abu Ubaidah bin Al-Jarrah (RA) called Ameen-e-Hadhihi-ul-Ummah?

Answer: In the ninth year of Hijrah, when some People of the Book from the region of Najran in Yemen came to the Holy Prophet (PBUH) for a scholarly debate, and after failing, finally agreed to pay Jizyah, they requested: "O Messenger of Allah (PBUH)! You fix Jizyah upon us; we will pay it, and send an trustworthy person with us." Then the Holy Prophet (PBUH), holding the hand of Hazrat Abu Ubaidah, said: "هَذَا أَمِينُ هَذِهِ الْأُمَّةِ"

(This person is the Ameen (trustworthy) of this Ummah). (Sahih Bukhari, Hadith 4380) Therefore, he is called "Ameen-e-Hadhihi-ul-Ummah".

Question: What event of special help came to the Muslims in "Sariyyah Saif-ul-Bahr"?

Answer: [Note: This event is not stated in the printed lesson text of the book (printed pages 209-213); the following answer is given according to the traditional narration of the famous hadith (Sahih Bukhari).] The Holy Prophet (PBUH) sent an army of three hundred Companions under the leadership of Hazrat Abu Ubaidah bin Al-Jarrah (RA) towards the seashore (Saif-ul-Bahr). On the way, their food ran out, so they began to survive by eating leaves of trees; then, with the special help of Allah Almighty, a huge fish (Al-Anbar) came onto the shore from the sea, eating which they survived for a month. On return, its meat was presented in the service of the Holy Prophet (PBUH); he ate it and said that this is sustenance given by Allah.

Question: Present an example of the simple life of Hazrat Abu Ubaidah bin Al-Jarrah (RA).

Answer: He (RA) used to eat very simple food and wear simple clothes. He also got the position of leading the Islamic army and handling the governorship of Syria, but these things had no effect on his contentment and asceticism (Zuhd). In the time of Hazrat Umar Farooq (RA), when he was the commander of the army on the expedition of Syria and Palestine, one day Ameer-ul-Mu'mineen Hazrat Umar (RA) came to his tent, and saw no valuable goods there except a sword and a shield, and there was no bedding either, so he began to say: "O Abu Ubaidah! Keep some goods of necessity with you." At that time, he (RA) replied: "يَا أَمِيرَالْمُؤْمِنِينَ إِنَّ هَذَا سَيُبَلِّغُنَا الْمَقِيلَ" (O Ameer-ul-Mu'mineen! This very condition of ours will very soon take us to our resting place, that is, Paradise). (Musannaf Abdur Razzaq, Kitab-ul-Jami', Bab Zuhd-us-Sahabah 11/311)

Question: The name of Hazrat Abu Ubaidah bin Al-Jarrah (RA) was: (a) Abdullah (b) Umar (c) Imran (d) Aamir

Answer: Correct answer: (d) Aamir — His real name is Aamir bin Abdullah bin Al-Jarrah bin Hilal.

Question: The title "أَمِينُ هَذِهِ الْأُمَّةِ" was of: (a) Hazrat Anas (RA) (b) Hazrat Umar (RA) (c) Hazrat Abu Ubaidah bin Al-Jarrah (RA) (d) Hazrat Usamah (RA)

Answer: Correct answer: (c) Hazrat Abu Ubaidah bin Al-Jarrah (RA)

Question: Hazrat Abu Ubaidah bin Al-Jarrah (RA) migrated towards two countries: (a) Abyssinia and Madinah Munawwarah (b) Makkah Mukarramah and Madinah Munawwarah (c) Syria and Palestine (d) Taif and Madinah Munawwarah

Answer: Correct answer: (a) Abyssinia and Madinah Munawwarah — He first migrated towards Abyssinia, and then towards Madinah Munawwarah, attaining the honour of both migrations.

Question: The cause of the death of Hazrat Abu Ubaidah bin Al-Jarrah (RA) was: (a) martyrdom (b) the plague of Ta'oon (c) fever (d) heart attack

Answer: Correct answer: (b) the plague of Ta'oon — In those days, the military camp of the Muslims was in Amwas, in the nearby region of Palestine, when suddenly the disease of plague began to spread, in which he passed away in 18 Hijri at the age of 59 years.

Jabir bin Hayyan (RA)

Question: Write the services of Jabir bin Hayyan (RA) in the science of chemistry.

Answer: Jabir bin Hayyan (RA) is remembered in the science of chemistry with the title of "Founder of Chemistry". His services are: (1) He was the first chemist who divided matter into three parts: plants, animals and minerals; and then divided minerals into three parts: things that turn into vapours, things that melt on fire, and those things which do not melt on heating. (2) Through different ingredients and chemical processes, he prepared a substance which dissolved everything; its name became "acid" (for example: sulphuric acid, hydrochloric acid). (3) Through his efforts, the foundation of a new scientific art, "chemistry", was laid. (4) He invented an apparatus named "Qar' Anbiq" for extracting essence (Arq) by heating herbs and fruits, which in today's age is called "Qarnfal" (retort). (5) Many of his Arabic books were translated into Latin, and then into English, and reached Europe; thus, because of him, Europe became acquainted with the science of chemistry.

Question: What do you say about the writings of Jabir bin Hayyan (RA)?

Answer: Jabir bin Hayyan (RA) is counted among the prolific writers. The number of his treatises and books is more than 232. According to one saying, his writings are more than five hundred, most of which were lost, having fallen victim to the conditions of the age. Many of his Arabic books were translated into Latin, and then from Latin into English, and reached Europe; thus, because of him, Europe became acquainted with the science of chemistry. Whereas his other books are about astronomy, physics, geometry, philosophy and logic, and political science.

Question: What do you say about the family and birthplace of Jabir bin Hayyan (RA)?

Answer: His full name is Jabir bin Hayyan bin Abdullah Al-Kufi (RA); his title is "Sufi" and his Kuniyyat is "Abu Musa"; Europeans know him by the name "Geber". His forefathers belonged to Tus in Khurasan, where he was born in the tribe of Azd in 102 Hijri. Because of these very relations, he used to write, along with his name in his books, "Kufi", "Azdi", "Tusi" or "Sufi".

Question: What business did the father of Jabir bin Hayyan (RA) do?

Answer: The father of Jabir, Hayyan bin Abdullah, used to do the business of Attar (perfume). Therefore, on coming to Tus, he opened a "perfume shop" through his ancestral art, where he used to ask about the things present.

Question: What are the famous inventions of Jabir bin Hayyan (RA)?

Answer: His famous inventions are: acids (sulphuric acid, hydrochloric acid), the apparatus named "Qar' Anbiq" (which is called "Qarnfal" today), which he invented for extracting essence from herbs and fruits, "carbonate arsenic sulphide", "the method of making dye (Khizab)", "calcining metals", and "methods of polishing iron". Apart from this, he also invented new things in pharmacy and metallurgy, which were not known to anyone before.

Question: Tell the names of the books related to the science of chemistry from the writings of Jabir bin Hayyan (RA).

Answer: The names of his books related to the science of chemistry are: "Izah", "Al-Khawas Al-Kabeer" and "Al-Mizan". (A'zam Ulama, Kimiya Jabir bin Hayyan, p. 20)

Question: The name of the grandfather of Jabir bin Hayyan (RA) was: (a) Ubaidullah (b) Abdur Rahman (c) Abdullah

Answer: Correct answer: (c) Abdullah — His full name is Jabir bin Hayyan bin Abdullah; that is, the name of his grandfather was Abdullah.

Question: The name of the family of Jabir bin Hayyan (RA) was: (a) Quraysh (b) Siddiqui (c) Azd

Answer: Correct answer: (c) Azd — He was born in 102 Hijri in the tribe of Azd.

Question: The business of the father of Jabir bin Hayyan (RA) was: (a) mining and digging (b) perfume (c) preparing leather

Answer: Correct answer: (b) perfume — His father, Hayyan bin Abdullah, used to do the business of Attar, and opened a "perfume shop" in Tus.

Question: The famous invention of Jabir bin Hayyan (RA) is: (a) computer (b) bulb (c) acid

Answer: Correct answer: (c) acid — for example, sulphuric acid and hydrochloric acid.

Question: For extracting essence (Arq), he invented: (a) a pot (b) Qarnfal (c) a bottle

Answer: Correct answer: (b) Qarnfal — For extracting essence by heating herbs and fruits, he invented an apparatus named "Qar' Anbiq", which in today's age is called "Qarnfal".

Hazrat Muhammad Rashid Rozi Dhani (RA)

Question: Write the scholarly and spiritual services of Hazrat Muhammad Rashid Rozi Dhani (RA).

Answer: Scholarly services: Hazrat Muhammad Rashid (RA) was not only perfect in spiritual knowledge, but he had complete command over outward sciences, especially Tafsir, Hadith, Fiqh, Tasawwuf, history, lexicography, and sciences and arts. He had an extraordinary attachment to the Persian and Arabic languages. The state of his vast study and book-reading was such that some book or the other used to be in his hand all the time, and he also had a large scholarly library. To create a love for books among people, he used to say: "Whoever buys expensive books, knowledge will never leave his children." His famous writings are: Jami-ul-Jawami', Persian dictionary (in four large volumes), "Aadab-ul-Mureedeen", "Maktoobat", "Sharh Asma Allah-ul-Husna" and "Jami' Sindhi Kalam". Spiritual services: He used to keep inviting the common people towards guidance and the religion. He obtained the initial training of Sulook from his respected father, Hazrat Muhammad Baqa Shah (RA), in the Naqshbandi order, and then in the Qadri way, and at the age of twenty-seven, he was appointed the successor of his respected father. Along with his scholarly benefit, his spiritual benefit also proved beneficial for the hearts of thousands of people. After obtaining Khilafat in Sulook from his respected father, he travelled, besides Sindh, to Punjab, and the regions of India: Kutch, Rajasthan, Gujarat, Kathiawar and Balochistan, and kept giving scholarly and spiritual benefit to people. Apart from this, he also played a mujahid-like role to end the wrong customs and innovations spread in society. The collection of his sermons and advice, sayings and conditions, "Malfoozat Sharif", is famous by the name of Pir Muhammad Rashid Rozi Dhani (RA), which his Khalifas compiled.

Question: Why was Hazrat Muhammad Rashid Rozi Dhani (RA) given the title of Rozi Dhani?

Answer: The birth of Hazrat Pir Muhammad Rashid (RA) took place in Ramadan-ul-Mubarak 1171 Hijri, in a village Raheem Dino Kalhoro, near Khairpur Mirs. It is said that in Ramadan-ul-Mubarak, his habit of drinking milk was such that at the time of Sehri, drinking his mother's milk, he used to spend the whole day like fasting people, and at the Maghrib Azan, he used to cling to his mother again for milk. Because of this habit, he used to be called "Rozi Dhani" (one who keeps fasts); later, attributing him to his shrine (Roza), he was called "Rozi Dhani".

Question: State the family lineage of Hazrat Muhammad Rashid Rozi Dhani (RA).

Answer: His full name is Syed Muhammad Rashid bin Muhammad bin Baqa bin Muhammad Imam Shah. While his title is "Rozi Dhani" and his Kuniyyat is "Abu Yaseen". Hazrat Muhammad Rashid (RA) is the forefather of the Rashidi family of the famous Syed tribe of Sindh. His chain of lineage, after the fourth generation, meets Hazrat Imam Husain, son of Ameer-ul-Mu'mineen Hazrat Ali (may Allah honour his face). The forefather (respected grandfather) of his family is Hazrat Syed Ali Makki (RA), who left his homeland for the propagation of the religion of Islam, and came and adopted residence near the ancient city of Sindh, Sewistan (Sehwan), in Lak Ari; for this reason, his family became famous as Lakiyari.

Question: Where did Hazrat Muhammad Rashid Rozi Dhani (RA) get his early education?

Answer: His father, Hazrat Syed Muhammad Baqa (RA), had fixed a special time for the training of his children, and he had started the series of giving early education at home itself to his sons, including Syed Muhammad Rashid (RA). After that, he kept getting education from Hafiz Zainuddin Mahesar (RA) and Mian Muhammad Akram Ghamro (RA); then, for further education, he was seated in the Maktab of the famous elder of Shikarpur, Shah Faqirullah Alvi (RA); after that, his father admitted him in the Madrasah of the famous scholar of Kotri Muhammad Kabir, in the present district of Naushahro Feroze, Makhdum Yar Muhammad Siddiqui (RA); and after getting education from there, he was sent to the Ustad-ul-Kul of Arija village, near Larkana, Hazrat Maulana Muhammad Arijvi (RA), from whom he obtained the certificate of completion (Faraghat).

Question: The lineage of Hazrat Muhammad Rashid Rozi Dhani (RA) meets: (a) Hazrat Abu Bakr (RA) (b) Hazrat Abbas (RA) (c) Hazrat Imam Husain (RA) (d) Hazrat Hamzah (RA)

Answer: Correct answer: (c) Hazrat Imam Husain (RA) — His chain of lineage, after the fourth generation, meets Hazrat Imam Husain, son of Ameer-ul-Mu'mineen Hazrat Ali (may Allah honour his face).

Question: The village Raheem Dino Kalhoro of Hazrat Muhammad Rashid Rozi Dhani (RA) is located in: (a) Shikarpur (b) Sukkur (c) Khairpur Mirs (d) Nawabshah

Answer: Correct answer: (c) Khairpur Mirs — His birth took place in Ramadan-ul-Mubarak 1171 Hijri, in the village Raheem Dino Kalhoro, near Khairpur Mirs.

Question: The book containing the sayings and conditions of Hazrat Muhammad Rashid Rozi Dhani (RA) is: (a) Sindhi Kalam (b) Tuhfat-us-Salikeen (c) Jami-ul-Jawami' (d) Malfoozat Sharif

Answer: Correct answer: (d) Malfoozat Sharif — The collection of his sermons and advice, sayings and conditions, "Malfoozat Sharif", is famous by the name of Pir Muhammad Rashid Rozi Dhani (RA), which his Khalifas compiled.

Question: For the propagation of Islam, leaving his ancestral homeland, he adopted residence in: (a) Sehwan (b) Lak Ari (c) Amri (d) Mehar

Answer: Correct answer: (b) Lak Ari — His forefather, Hazrat Syed Ali Makki (RA), left his homeland for the propagation of the religion of Islam, and came and adopted residence near the ancient city of Sindh, Sewistan (Sehwan), in Lak Ari.